University Surpasses United Way Goal

The NMSU United Way Fund Drive came to a close Oct. 31, with the University surpassing its goal of $27,500 by raising more than $28,000.

Co-chairs for the campus drive, Joanne Jackson, credit analyst, and Lee Meyers, education adviser, were very pleased with the outcome.

"Our campus goal was raised $4,000 over last year's, so this presented a real challenge for Lee and I as co-chairwomen, as well as the students, faculty and staff," Jackson said. "NMSU is one of United Way's largest supporters in Adair County."

The United Students for United Way campaign, conceived by the NMSU Public Relations class, worked together to raise money and involve more student organizations on campus.

"The Public Relations class at this point has raised $1,798.44 and they still have groups turning money in," Jackson said. "The food fast sponsored by PFM raised $2,677.50."

The faculty and staff have raised upwards of $23,500 through donations. More than 22 offices and divisions had 100 percent participation or at the least 90 percent Jackson said.

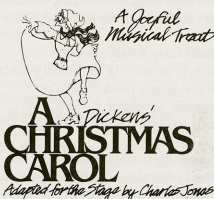

The University is celebrating the surpassing of its goal with a Victory Luncheon at noon on Nov. 15 in the SUB Alumni Room. The administrative offices which reached 100 percent participation will receive the Gold Award. Campus organizations, residence hall houses and division offices are also eligible for the Gold Award.

"The Gold Award is given to groups who had 100 percent participation or to individuals who were instrumental in helping the United Way fund drive," Jackson said.

The Adair County Campaign Drive began Oct. 3 and ran through the first two weeks of November. All the money raised in Adair County will stay in Adair County and benefit 11 groups: The Adair County Family YMCA, American Red Cross, Boy Scouts of America, Community Opportunities, Inc., Sheltered Workshop, Girl Scouts of America, Kirksville Counseling Clinic, Kirksville Crisis Intervention Service, Kirksville Day Care Center, Nutrition Program, Retired Senior Volunteer Program and the Salvation Army.

The State of Missouri Cafeteria Plan

Too good to be true or too good to pass up?

The Cafeteria Plan at Northeast doesn't have anything to do with food. But faculty and staff enrolled in it are bringing home more bacon.

The State of Missouri Cafeteria Plan can increase a state employee's take-home pay by $500, $1,000 or more a year by lowering income taxes. The benefit program allows faculty and staff to redirect a portion of their earnings before federal, state or social security taxes have been withheld. They can use this pretax money to pay for health and life insurance premiums, other health care expenses (such as doctor bills) and child and dependent care.

Faculty and staff have the opportunity to meet with representatives of the State of Missouri Cafeteria Plan at 9 a.m., 11 a.m., 1 p.m. or 3 p.m. Tuesday in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building.

Specific details about the Cafeteria Plan are also available by calling the plan trustee, United Missouri Bank of Kansas City, toll-free at 1-800-346-7660.

Don't miss your chance to bring home more bacon!

College Bowl

The second annual College Bowl begins tonight at 6:30 p.m. in the SUB Alumni Room. The Bowl will continue through Wednesday with the finals beginning at 9 p.m. Students, faculty and staff are welcome to attend. Sixteen teams consisting of four members with the option of an alternate team member, will compete to become the NMSU College Bowl champs. The winners will move on to the regional competition held in Feb. at Kansas University in Lawrence, Kan.

Players Present "South Pacific"

Freshman Tasha Cogan (right) and sophomore Brian Sharp (left) rehearse for the upcoming production of South Pacific. The musical will be performed Nov. 15 through Nov. 17 at 8 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets are $3 for adults and $2 for children and may be purchased at the SAB Office, SUB. Students, faculty and staff will be admitted free with a student ID. There is no reserve seating. South Pacific is being produced jointly by the University Players and the Division of Fine Arts.

National Academy of Education Offers Spencer Fellowships

The National Academy of Education "Spencer Fellows" is accepting applications for postdoctoral researchers in education for the 1989-90 academic year. The Fellows will spend the equivalent of one academic year working on research they proposed in an application to the National Academy of Education. Each Fellow will receive a $25,000 award to assist with salary replacement for the fellowship period. It is expected that the Fellows' employing institutions will allow leave time and make other suitable arrangements to enable the Fellows to take maximum advantage of the fellowship. The non-residential fellowship program is intended to enhance the future of research in education by developing new talent in the many fields of educational research. Selection is based on the applicants' past research record, the promise of early work, and the quality of the research project described in the application. These are the only fellowships in educational research for recent recipients of the doctorate; the competition is vigorous.

The fellowships are administered by the National Academy of Education, an honorary educational society. Funding for these fellowships comes from the Spencer Foundation located in Chicago. The Foundation supports research that gives promise of yielding new knowledge leading to improvement of education around the world.

For more information and application forms, contact: National Academy of Education, Harvard Graduate School of Education, Longfellow Hall, Cambridge, Mass. 02138.

The next issue of the Northeast Today will be published Nov. 28 due to Thanksgiving Break. Deadline for the Nov. 28 issue is 5 p.m. Nov. 18. Entries should be submitted on the Northeast Today forms available in the Public Relations Office, A/H 202.

Lyceum Presents "A Christmas Carol"

The upcoming Lyceum Series presentation is sure to put the audience into the holiday spirit. The Series will present a new stage musical adaptation of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol featuring the Nebraska Theatre Caravan at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 19 in Baldwin Auditorium.

The Nebraska Theatre Caravan, the professional touring wing of the Omaha Community Playhouse, last brought its production to Northeast's stage in 1985. This adaptation of Dickens' classic tale is written by Charles Jones, artistic director of the Omaha (Neb.) Community Playhouse.

The Caravan took on A Christmas Carol in 1977. Jones originally created the adaptation for the 1976 season of the Omaha Community Playhouse. The script adaptation, sets, music, costumes and choreography still remain much as they were, 12 years and thousands of performances later.

The enormous production, which today is presented annually by four national road companies, includes a full company of 36, 200 costumes and magic sets on tour in the Midwest. Among the special effects included in the show will be a 16-foot human puppet as the ghost of Christmas Future and a bed which has been rigged to mysteriously move about Scrooge's bedroom.

The show features set designs and special stage effects created by noted designer James Othuse. The set and special effects were designed with meticulous detail to recreate the world of Dickens' England of the 1800s. In addition, a full array of traditional Christmas carols is interwoven within the classic story of Ebenezer Scrooge and all of the characters from Dickens' story.

"I think of this adaptation of A Christmas Carol as a masque," said adapter Jones. "The songs do not move the story forward. They stand apart from the text. Each carol in the show was chosen for the dramatic atmosphere it contributed to the total evening. The songs are traditional but the scoring by musical arranger John Bennett is contemporary and exquisitely beautiful."

Free tickets for students, faculty and staff will be available Tuesday through Friday in the Student Activities Board Office in the Student Union Building. The use of cameras and recording equipment will be prohibited.

N O T A B L E S

Wayne P. Bailey, associate professor of computer science, was the guest speaker at an IBM conference in Gramado, Brazil on Oct. 25.

Jim Barnes, professor of comparative literature and editor of the Chariton Review, has had his essay "Goats Bluff" accepted for publication in Cimarron Review, an internationally distributed magazine of the arts, published quarterly by Oklahoma State University. Also, Ellipsis, a Salt Lake City literary magazine, has accepted two of his poems for publication, "La Plata, Missouri: The Water Tower" and "La Plata, Missouri: The Annual Soybean Festival." Both poems are a part of the longer sequence titled "La Plata Cantata," which is the title poem of his forthcoming book from Purdue University Press.

Warren Gooch, professor of music theory and composition, had an original work performed at the season premiere concert of the Minnesota Composers Forum at the Walker Art Center in Minneapolis. The work, "The Stolen Child," is based upon a text by William Butler Yeats.

Sophomore John Hoffman, senior Brian Hamilton and junior Rebecca Brewer conducted research for their paper titled, "The Synthesis and Identification of Arylazido ATP Analogs." The paper was presented by the group at the undergraduate research symposium in chemistry at Washington University and at the 196th national meeting of the American Chemical Society. Victor Hoffman, associate professor of chemistry accompanied the students to both presentations.

Micheal Klem Jr., assistant professor of animal science, was selected as a citizen ambassador for the People to People Exchange Program to the U.S.S.R.,

Poland and Denmark. Klem attended meetings and seminars with agricultural leaders of the various countries and exchanged research information with scientists from the national universities. He also toured the leading agricultural enterprises, state farms, collectives and cooperatives.

Hugh Moore, professor of English, will take part in the 78th Annual Convention of the National Council of Teachers of English in St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 18-23. Moore is a member of the local (St. Louis) personnel committee responsible for coordination and preparation of convention session facilities.

Keith Peck, professor of mathematics, gave a presentation, "Implementing a Value-Added Five-Year Teacher Education Program," at the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics regional meeting in St. Louis on Oct. 28.
