

NORTHEAST TODAY

THURSDAY, Nov. 16

78

"HAPPENINGS"

TODAY, Nov. 16

- 10:30 am Board of Regents, Board Rm., A/H
- 3-9 pm Turkey Shoot, Rifle Range, Brew. Hall
- 3:30-4:30 pm Japanese Visitors' Reception, Conf. Rm., SUB
- 7 pm Mass. Comm. Mtg., 310 LB
- 8 pm "A Little Night Music," Aud., BH
- 9 pm Worship Service, Act. Rm., SUB

FRIDAY, Nov. 17

- 7 & 9 pm "Cassandra Crossing," Aud., BH
- 8 pm Dance Marathon Begins, Rieger Armory

SATURDAY, Nov. 18

- 10 am Music Demonstration With Children, 130 PB
- 1 pm Cream Pie Auction, Rieger Armory
- 7 & 9 pm "The Fury," Aud., BH
- 7 pm Amateur Talent Contest, Little Theater, BH
- 12 Midnight Dance Marathon Ends, Rieger Armory

("Happenings" Column Cont. Next Page)

THE BOARD OF REGENTS of Northeast Missouri State University will hold its regular monthly meeting at 10:30 a.m. today in the President's Office/Board Room of the Administration/Humanities Building.

CAREER DAY, at which 12 local businessmen will speak about career opportunities in several business-related fields, is today in Violette Hall. These experts will present ways to get into their field and will answer questions. Specific times and room numbers are posted in Violette Hall. Career Day is sponsored by the Free Enterprise Institute in cooperation with the Business Division.

A SYMPOSIUM FOR AREA HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS will be held Friday on campus by Sen. Jack Danforth. About 250 high school students and their counselors are expected to attend the day with activities including a tour of the campus.

A TURKEY SHOOT sponsored by the Black Jack Rifle and Pistol Club will be from 3-9 p.m. today in the Rifle Range, first floor Brewer Hall. Prizes include a turkey, pizzas, soda and $5. Profits will be given to the Nancy Lindsley memorial scholarship fund. All students, faculty and staff members are invited to participate.

TWO JAPANESE UNIVERSITY PERSONNEL will visit NMSU today to begin an overseas study program by sending three Japanese students to NMSU. A reception honoring the men, Professor Tom Miura and Vice President Hiroshi Masujima of Hosei University in Tokyo, will be from 3:30-4:30 p.m. today in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building. All faculty, staff and students are invited to attend.

UNIVERSITY PHOTOGRAPHER Mary Regan will be the guest speaker at the Mass Communication Club meeting at 7 tonight in 310 Laughlin Building. Anyone interested in photojournalism is invited to attend.

"A LITTLE NIGHT MUSIC," a Broadway musical, will be presented by the University Players and the Fine Arts Division at 8 tonight in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets may be picked up in the Student Union Office or in the Fine Arts Office. They are free to holders of NMSU ID cards or $3 for adults and $1 for students without ID cards.

SUNDAY, Nov. 19

- 2:30-4 pm Gallery Reception,
218 BH
- 4-9 pm Sandwich Sale,
Res. Halls
- 7 pm Student Senate Open Mtg.,
Main Lounge, RH
- 7 pm AAUP Mtg., Alum. Rm.,
SUB
- 7:30 pm Brass Concert, Aud., BH

MONDAY, Nov. 20

- 8 am-2 pm Bake Sale, North Door, VH

"COME UNITY," a gathering for Christian worship and celebration, will be at 9 tonight in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. The United Campus Ministries is sponsoring the event. The public is invited to participate.

AN EXHIBIT OF WINDFALL COVER DESIGN CONTEST ENTRIES will be in the Student Union Building today.

"CASSANDRA CROSSING" will be the movie sponsored by the Student Activities Board at 7 and 9 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is free to holders of student activity cards and $1 to all others.

THE 28-HOUR DANCE-A-THON will be from 8 p.m. Friday to 12 midnight Saturday at Rieger Armory. Proceeds will go to Muscular Dystrophy. Two stereos will be awarded to the couple that raises the most money. The Dance-A-Thon is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity.

CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK is being celebrated by Pickler Memorial Library with various displays. Audio-visual materials, games, charts, puppets and books for children are on the first floor; autographed children's books from the collection of Joyce Ann Jaillite, head reference librarian, are on the third floor. They will be displayed through Friday.

A MUSIC, RHYTHM AND MOVEMENT ACTIVITIES DEMONSTRATION will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday in 130 Pershing Building. Rita Shotwell, pre-school and elementary consultant for Strub Music Co., will demonstrate developmental activities with children from the Child Development Center. The demonstration is held in conjunction with the Developmental Activities Workshop directed by Jane Bartling, instructor of health and physical education.

STUDENTS WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY to throw a cream pie at faculty members at the dance marathon at 1 p.m. Saturday at Rieger Armory. Pies will be auctioned off and sold to the highest bidder who will be allowed to throw it at Dean of Students Terry Smith, Dean of Administration Ray Klingensmith, Director of Housing Ron Gaber, Director of Student Activities Vonnie Nichols, Director of American Food Management Bob Wagner, Manager of Centennial Hall Cafeteria Tom Foster, Instructor of Psychology Sal Costa, Assistant Professor of Mathematics Duane Norman, and Assistant Professor of Mathematics John Erhart. The marathon is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega service organization.

"THE FURY" will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. Saturday in Baldwin Auditorium. The Historical Society is sponsoring the movie. Admission will be 75 cents.

THE AMATEUR MUSICAL TALENT CONTEST will be at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Little Theater of Baldwin Hall. Three trophies will be awarded to the acts best displaying musical talent and audience appeal. Audience members are asked to donate $1 to United Cerebral Palsy. The contest is sponsored by Sigma Alpha Iota women's music fraternity.

AN OPENING RECEPTION for the new Art Gallery exhibit, Intro Show, will be from 2:30-4 p.m. Sunday in the University Art Gallery, 218 Baldwin Hall. The Intro Show is composed of art work selected from beginning art classes, Basic Drawing I and II, Introduction to Art I and II, and Design I and II. The public is invited to attend the reception.

HOAGIE SANDWICHES will be sold from 4-9 p.m. Sunday in the main lounges of all the residence halls and fraternity houses. Alpha Sigma Alpha members will sell the sandwiches for 85 cents. For delivery, call the ASA Chapter Room at ext. 2035.

AN OPEN MEETING OF THE STUDENT SENATE will be at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Main Lounge of Ryle Hall. Everyone is welcome to attend.

A BAKE SALE sponsored by the Alpha Kappa Lambda Little Sisters will be from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday at the north door of Violette Hall.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS will meet at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. All past, present and prospective members are encouraged to attend this regular fall business meeting.

THE SAINT LOUIS BRASS QUINTET will perform at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in Baldwin Auditorium. Trumpet ensembles from Iowa State University and NMSU also will perform. The brass concert will be sponsored by the Midwest Trumpet Guild and the Division of Fine Arts. The public is invited to attend. No admission will be charged.

CHOKING AND ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION will be demonstrated at 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 20, in Missouri Hall Cafeteria. ROTC cadets will demonstrate the correct technique of artificial respiration. Blanton-Nason and Missouri halls will sponsor the program.

SIGNUP FOR JOB INTERVIEWS is in progress from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Placements Office, first floor, Blanton Hall. City agencies and companies interviewing in late November are Burroughs Business Forms, this afternoon and Friday morning; Brown Shoe Company, Wednesday, Nov. 29; and Patrol Bureau, City of Gladstone, Mo., Wednesday, Nov. 29. For additional information ask the personnel at Placements.

THE BALANCE FOR THE SKI TRIP to Steamboat Springs, Colo., sponsored by the Student Activities Board will be collected from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 21, in the Student Union Building.

TOOTSIE ROLL BANK PACKS will be sold from 8-11 a.m. weekdays through Nov. 22 in 267 Violette Hall. Jim Eads, graduate assistant in special education, will sell them for $1 each and proceeds will go to the Kidney Foundation.

STUDENTS INTERESTED IN EITHER OF TWO EXCHANGE PROGRAMS, the Westfield State College Exchange Program or the National Student Exchange Program, should contact Deanna Apperson, administrative assistant to the dean of students, in 204 Administration/Humanities Building, ext. 7162. The Westfield Exchange Program is open for the 1979 spring semester. The National Student Exchange Program is for the 1979-80 academic year, but application should be made as soon as possible.

A CHRISTMAS FORMAL sponsored by the Residence Hall Association will be from 7 p.m. to 12 midnight on Saturday, Dec. 2. Admission will be charged for both the banquet, which starts at 7 p.m., and the dance, which starts at 9 p.m. Further details will be in a future issue of "Northeast Today."

A CHRISTMAS KEG RAFFLE will be sponsored by members of Alpha Phi Alpha social fraternity beginning Friday. Tickets, which may be obtained from any APA member, will cost 50 cents. The drawing for the keg will be on Friday, Dec. 8. For more information call Mike Simms, president, at 665-8694.

THE THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY begins at 5 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 22. Classes will not meet and offices will be closed for the holiday at that time. Classes will resume at 7:30 a.m. Monday, Nov. 27.

No "Northeast Today" will be published on Thursday, Nov. 23. It will be published as usual on Monday, Nov. 27. Deadline for these items will be 9 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 22.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have of campus-wide interest through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask that the news be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The deadline is 9 a.m. the regular working day before publication date.

NORTHEAST NOTES

Les Duseith, Index editor, and Bill Crouse, Echo editor, attended the Associated College Press convention in Houston Oct. 25 through Oct. 28. Terry Vander Heyden, adviser of student publications, attended the simultaneous convention of the National Council of College Publications Advisers. He is on the Board of Directors and he gave several presentations on weekly newspapers and yearbooks.

James Buckner and Frederic Kirchberger, Fine Arts, were invited to perform in recital Nov. 9 at Quincy College. Buckner played the trumpet and Kirchberger, the piano.

Cheryl Parman, Ernie Ness and Lee Johnson, Housing, presented a program titled "The Hall is My Life--A Whimsical Look at the Work of a Residence Hall Director" on Nov. 2 at the Upper Midwest Region of the Association of College and University Housing Officers conference in Lincoln, Neb. They also presented the program at the Missouri College Personnel Association conference on Nov. 14 at Lake Ozark.

William FitzSimmons, Fine Arts, has been reappointed to the Music Advisory committee of the Missouri Arts Council, and Alfred Srnka, Language and Literature, has been reappointed to the Theater Advisory Committee of the MAC. Both have served one year on their committees, which consider applications for funds for the arts and decide on the level of funding.

"Antagonist," a poem by Jim Thomas, Language and Literature, will be published in a future issue of the Kansas Quarterly. Also, his poem "Roof Job" will be published in the Sheba Review.

Wayne Newman, Financial Aids, recently returned from a meeting of the Midwest Regional Advisory Council of the American College Testing Program held Oct. 22-23 in Milwaukee. He has just been appointed to serve a one-year renewable term on the 28-member committee. He will represent Missouri on the council with members from Nebraska, Kansas, Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana, West Virginia, Ohio, Michigan, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Nancy Hendrix, Special Programs, recently attended a workshop on deaf education in Overland Park, Kan.

"The Basics in the Reading Curriculum," a paper by Marlow Ediger, Education, has been accepted for publication in the Oklahoma Reader.

Robert Martin, Education, presented a paper, "An Experiential Approach to Teaching Pre-service Teachers about Group-centered Teaching and Classroom Meetings," at the Midwest Association of Teachers of Educational Psychology convention. He was appointed as regional editor of the MATEP Forum at the convention.

The United Way student committee thanks all students who participated in the United Way Fast held in the residence halls on Nov. 2. More than 1,200 students participated.

Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, will have three poems published in a future issue of Green River Review, a magazine of contemporary literature published at University Center, Mich. Another poem of his is in The Seattle Review and two others will be published by the University of Arizona. He also has been invited to have his biography appear in Men & Women of Distinction, a record of distinguished achievement scheduled for publication in the winter of 1979.

Grace Devitt, Nursing, presented a report on the NMSU nursing program at a meeting of Missouri Administrators of Baccalaureate and Higher Degree Programs in Nursing held at St. Louis University on Nov. 14.

Earl McMurry, Science, recently presented a paper on paleomagnetism at a national meeting of the American Geophysical Union held in St. Louis.

The Practicum I Child Development class and Olivene Baker, instructor of home economics hosted a Halloween party and hobo meal at the Child Development Center on Oct. 30 for the preschool children enrolled in the center and their families. More than 100 people attended.

Shirley Morahan, Language and Literature, conducted a workshop on individualized instruction in the writing classroom at the first Midwestern Conference of Writing Program Administrators held Nov. 10 and 11 in Warrensburg.

The switchboard operators worked as a team to donate 100 percent to the NMSU United Way campaign. Each of the two regular operators and the 14 student operators donated one hour of pay to United Way. The women were: Maxine Goodwin, switchboard supervisor; Margaret Broseghini, night operator; and Cheryl Butts, Janet Chandler, Margaret Criscione, Nancy Dixon, Deb Echtenkamp, Brenda Goodwin, Sandy Jobe, Kari Kirkman, Kim Mathews, Diane Mennemeter, Julie Oakman, Karen Rosburg, Laurie Sells and Lucinda Thannert, student operators.