A DEBATE on the proposed "Right-to Work" constitutional amendment will be at 7:30 tonight in the Activites Room of the Student Union Building. Dick McVey, secretary-treasurer of the Missouri State Labor Council, will represent the United Labor Committee and Dave Dunlap, an attorney from Kansas City, will represent the Freedom to Work Committee. These men will present both sides of the issue. The debate will be broadcast live on KIRX-AM. The public is invited to attend at no charge. The debate is sponsored by the Social Science Division and the Political Science Club.

THE NEMO SINGERS, under the direction of Clay H. Dawson, University director of choral activities, will perform today at the opening general session of the state convention of the Missouri State Teachers Association in Kansas City. Dr. Ted Mittler (B.S.E. 1961, M.A. 1967), state president of MSTA, issued the singers a special invitation to perform. The program will include "Moses" by Medema, "All of My Heart's Deep Yearning" by Brahms, and an arrangement of "Great Day!" by Vincent Youmans.

DR. WILLIAM H. KITTS, associate professor emeritus of social science education, will be honored at a dinner at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 10, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. He retired in August because of ill health. Reservations should be made with Dr. Ruth Towne, committee member, through the Social Science Division by Monday, Nov. 6. Tickets are $4.50 per person. Checks should be payable to American Food Management. All friends, former students and faculty members are invited to attend.

REGISTRATION PACKETS for the Spring 1979 semester will be available for students to pick up between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday, Nov. 6, through Wednesday, Nov. 8, in the hallway outside the Registrar's Office, 104 Administration/Humanities Building. Pre-registration will be held Nov. 28, 29 and 30 in Kirk Building. As procedures for pre-registering have been changed from previous semesters, students are advised to review the schedules carefully for the correct procedure.

A BAKE SALE sponsored by Pi Omega Pi national business honorary society will begin at 8:30 a.m. today at the north door of Violette Hall.

THE WORLD PEACE GROUP will have an organizational meeting at 7 tonight in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. All interested persons are encouraged to attend.

ALL NURSING STUDENTS may attend the meeting of the Student Nurses Association at 7 tonight in Rooms 2 and 3 of the Student Union Building. Guest speaker will be Jana Corbett, nurse practitioner at Planned Parenthood in Kirksville.

NEED HELP with housework, babysitting, yardwork or some other small job? The students of Wesley House will help today through Saturday for donations that will be given to Panamanian Indians. Call the Wesley House at 665-2331 between 12 noon and 6 p.m. to set up an appointment.

THE NMSU SWIM TEAM will have an intersquad meet at 4 p.m. Friday at the Natatorium. The public is invited to attend. No admission will be charged.

"SHAMUS" will be the movie sponsored by the Student Activities Board at 7 and 9 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission will be free to student activity card holders and $1 to all others.

A JAZZ CONCERT featuring Willie Thomas, a professional trumpet player, will be at 8 p.m. Friday in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Thomas, who has played for Woody Herman, Jackie Gleason and Peggy Lee, will solo with the three University Jazz Ensembles. Admission to the concert is free to holders of University ID cards and $1 to all others. It will be sponsored by the Midwest Trumpet Guild.

THE LAST HOME FOOTBALL GAME of the 1978 season is Saturday. The NMSU Bulldogs will challenge the Southeast Missouri State University Indians at 1:30 p.m. in Stokes Stadium.

FLU SHOTS will be given at the Student Health Clinic Mondays through Fridays from 8-11:30 a.m. and 1-3:30 p.m. and Saturdays from 9-11:30 a.m. This shot is free of charge to all students and employees. Everyone is urged to get this vaccine as soon as possible.

UNICEF CHRISTMAS CARDS and gift items are for sale from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays in the Student Union Building through Thursday, Nov. 30. Orders may be placed until Wednesday, Nov. 15. This is a non-profit project of the Lutheran Student Movement. For more information or brochures call the Lutheran Student House at 665-6488 or Mary Kohlenberg, UNICEF chairperson at Faith Lutheran Church, at ext. 2758 or at 665-4496.

THE FALL ISSUE OF THE CHARITON REVIEW, an international journal of fiction, poetry, translation and reviews published by NMSU, may be purchased in the office of Dr. Jim Barnes, associate professor of comparative literature and editor of the journal, in 318 Administration/Humanities Building, for $2. Subscription rates are $4 per year (2 issues) or $7 per two years.

A BAKE SALE sponsored by the Rhythmettes will begin at 8:30 a.m. Monday at the north door of Violette Hall.

THE LAST CHANCE to buy a Blue Key Student/Faculty Telephone Directory will be from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 6, through Thursday, Nov. 9, at the north door of Violette Hall and in the lobby of the Administration/Humanities Building. Any offices interested in purchasing a directory may call Jim Temme, Blue Key president, at 665-5497.

CARNATIONS of assorted colors will be sold from 10:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Student Union Building and from 4-6:30 p.m. in the residence hall cafeterias on Monday, Nov. 6, and Tuesday, Nov. 7. Each color carnation has a different meaning. They will cost $1 and will be sold by Alpha Sigma Gamma service sorority pledges.

"INTERFACE," an exploration of how faith relates to experiences at the University, will be from 4-5 p.m. each Monday in November in Room 3 of the Student Union Building. The Rev. Roger Jespersen, campus minister for the Wesley House, will lead the sessions. All students, faculty and staff members are invited to participate.

"THE FUTURE OF HISTORY" will be discussed by Dr. Arnita Jones, staff associate of the National Coordinating Committee for the Promotion of History, at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 6, in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building. Dr. Jones received her A.B. from Vanderbilt University and M.A. and Ph.D. from Emory University. Her appearance is sponsored by the history program of the Social Science Division and Phi Alpha Theta history honorary. NCCPH seeks to promote history as a major in undergraduate and graduate college programs and to help identify non-teaching jobs open to history majors.

A DISPLAY OF 19TH CENTURY WOMEN'S CLOTHING and accessories will be in Pickler Memorial Library from Monday, Nov. 6, to Friday, Nov. 17. The display will be from a personal collection and includes fans, parasols, bonnets and a ballgown from the Civil War era.
