A President's Fall Reception will be held at 3 p.m., Sept. 12, on the Quad. All faculty, staff and students are invited to attend.

Daily Writing Center walk-in hours will begin Sept. 5 from 11:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. During these hours, a writing consultant will be available to work with students, faculty and staff on specific pieces of writing. Students may apply for writing assistance on an appointment basis by coming to the Writing Center, A/H 303, or calling 785-4484. The Writing Center is open from 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Education majors graduating in December or May may pick up placement papers now in Career Planning and Teacher Placements, McKinney Center. Resume help is also available.

Mock interviews will be available for all majors beginning in mid-September. Students may make interview appointments now at Career Planning, McKinney Center.

Two meetings will be held at which all faculty members may make suggestions concerning the criteria for the selection of the new president of the University. The meetings will be held at 7 p.m., Sept. 5 in the SUB Activities Room and 7 p.m., Sept. 6 in the SUB Georgian Room. Written comments on this matter may be sent to Russell Baughman, associate professor of chemistry, Science Hall 273A, or Jim Severns, professor of dramatics, Baldwin Hall 101.

Individual yearbook picture sign-up times will be 10 a.m.-4 p.m., Sept. 11-15 on SUB second floor. Pictures will be taken 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Sept. 18-22 and Sept. 25-29 on the SUB third floor.

Awards for study in Scandinavia are available. For more information, contact the Dean of Colleges Office, A/H 204. Application deadline is Nov. 1.

The Division of Health and Exercise Science invites all faculty and staff to join the Adult Fitness Program which meets from 11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. For more information contact Debra Bembem, assistant professor of exercise science, Pershing Building 314E or call 785-4309.

The ACT Writing Competency Test will be administered Sept. 5-7, 9, 12-14 and 16 in A/H 305. Other fall 1989 test dates are Nov. 7-9 and 11. Weekday tests begin at 5 p.m.; Saturday tests begin at 9 a.m. Students can sign up in the Writing Center, A/H 305. Any questions regarding the test should be directed to Terry Otoson in the Writing Center at 785-4484.

Competitive Scholarships

The Harry S. Truman Scholarship, awarded to outstanding sophomore students pursuing a career in public service, covers tuition, fees, books and room and board up to $7,000 annually. Applicants must be U.S. citizens and have a 3.0 GPA. Northeast may nominate three candidates. Application materials are due Nov. 1, 1989.

The Rhodes Scholarship, awarded to exceptional seniors who wish to pursue two to three years of study at Oxford University, covers all tuition costs and provides a £4,860 annual allowance. Eligible seniors must be under 24 years of age, a U.S. citizen and complete a bachelor's degree by Oct. 1, 1990. Applications must be completed by Oct. 16, 1989.

The Mellon Fellowships In The Humanities, awarded to outstanding seniors or recent graduates who will pursue doctorates in the humanities, provide a stipend of $11,500 plus payment of graduate school tuition. To be eligible, a senior or recent graduate must be a U.S. citizen and present evidence of outstanding academic promise in the humanities. Students interested in the Mellon Fellowship must complete the initial stages of the application process by Oct. 16, 1989.

The Fulbright Grants, awarded to graduate students for study and research abroad in academic fields and creative and performing arts, range from one year of tuition, books, transportation and maintenance in a foreign country to a variety of partial grants. English teaching assistantships in Afghanistan, Ecuador, France and Germany are also available under the Fulbright program. An applicant must be a U.S. citizen, have sufficient proficiency in the language of the host country and hold a bachelor's degree by the beginning date of the grant. Creative and performing artists may substitute four years of relevant training for the bachelor's degree. Fulbright applications must be received by Oct. 2, 1989.

Northeast Missouri State University

KIRKSVILLE

September 5, 1989

NMSU today announced the appointments of Sandra Fleak as interim head of the Division of Business and Accountancy and Kay Clapp as interim head of the Division of Education.

Fleak, associate professor of accounting, has been a member of the NMSU faculty since 1984. She holds bachelor's degrees and a doctorate from the University of Missouri-Columbia. She is a certified public accountant.

Clapp, assistant professor of education and director of the Reading/Study Skills Center, has been on the Northeast faculty since 1978. She holds a bachelor's from Michigan State University, a master's from NMSU and a doctorate from the University of Missouri-Columbia.

Fleak and Clapp will serve during the absence of Robert Dager who assumes interim president duties Sept. 13. Dager has been head of the Division of Business and Accountancy since 1977 and has served as acting head of the Division of Education since July 1.
