Foreword

OVER 1,000 FACES—

From President Ryle to the newest freshman; from formal poses of Homecoming or Echo Queens to fightin' action shots of the M.I.A.A. Champion Bulldogs; from technicolor opening pages to cartoon-packed division pages; and a host of officers, clubs, fraternities, sororities, classes, plays, lettermen, Trump Night, Homecoming, four snap pages—they're all here!

Little Sir Echo, theme of the past three Echoes, has been put to rest . . . This year It's Who We Are, It's What We Do . . . and especially, IT'S YOU!

HUBERT WHEELER
Regent Ex-Officio

State Commissioner of Education

Hubert Wheeler, State Commissioner of Education, who carries out the duties of the State Board of Education, is supervisor of all of Missouri's public schools. To keep in close contact with the policies and management of the college, he meets with the Board of Regents of our college as an ex-officio member.

Among the duties of Mr. Wheeler is the execution of the general functions of the State Board of Education: the improving of all phases of instruction concerned with public education, health, and general welfare of learners on various levels, and the assisting in effectively organizing, managing, and financing the education program of the state.

President

DR. WALTER H. RYLE
President Northeast Missouri State Teachers College

Dr. Walter H. Ryle, who has been President of the Northeast Missouri State Teachers College since 1937, has maintained the highest standards for the college. President Ryle, a thorough scholar, makes every effort to see that the students of the college have the best in faculty and equipment.

Many improvements, both in educational programs, faculty, and in beautifying the physical aspects of the campus have been made during his years at the Teachers College.

Under President Ryle's administration the college has maintained an outstanding teacher-education program and a campus that is one of the most beautiful in the state.

The President is always available for consultation and finds time for friendly visits all over the campus.

ROBERT L. MCKINNEY
Assistant to the Office of the President

Assistant to the Office of President

The assistant to the President, Lt. Col. Robert McKinney, has the main function of representing the president, both on and off the campus.

Having served the past three years as special assistant to the Inspector General at the Pentagon in Washington, Col. McKinney is this year serving as Inspector General of the 417th Engineer Aviation Brigade in the Far East.

This office maintains the Alumni Bureau, develops a sound public relations program, and prepares many of the official publications for the college.

CHARLES ELAM
Alumni Secretary

ORVILLE BOWERS
Registrar

The business of the Office of the Registrar is to preserve the integrity of the credit of the Teachers College and to keep the academic books of the school.

It is the duty of this office to admit students, to keep a complete record of the credits of all students, and to prepare a list of those applicants who meet all of the requirements for graduation.

Dean of Instruction

Dr. P. O. Selby was appointed Dean of Instruction last August, 1954, by the Board of Regents, succeeding Dr. Robert Aukerman. Dr. Selby had previously served as Head of the Division of Business Education and as Acting Dean for two summer quarters.

DR. P. O. SELBY
Dean of Instruction

Dr. Selby at his new desk as Dean of Instruction

The primary duty of Dean Selby as Dean of Instruction is conducting the educational program of the Teachers College. In all his activities he works closely with the Office of the President and the Office of the Registrar. Among his duties are formulating and activating a program of supervision of instruction, acting as chairman of the Division of Instructional Service, acting as chairman of the Faculty Council, the Graduate Council, and the Curriculum Committee.

The Dean has full charge of all arrangements for the Baccalaureate and Commencement services. In addition he supervises a program of registration for the students, prepares the general bulletin of the college, the schedule of classes, and arranges the weekly assembly programs.

BETH HARING
Secretary

ELI F. MITTLER
Head of the Division of Extension Service

The Division of Extension Service

The Division of Extension Service deals with those activities which extend the services of the college to all communities of northeast Missouri.

This division is divided into several bureaus. Among these bureaus are the Placement Bureau, which assists students and alumni in securing positions for which they are qualified; the Field Service, which seeks to inform high school students as to the nature of modern educational problems; and the Correspondence and Extension Learning which aids those who are unable to attend the college.

One bureau directs the high school academic contests held on the campus each year, and another has charge of a rental library of films.

Libraries and Museums

The Pickler Memorial Library, named for a former faculty member, has over 125,000 books, including public documents, pamphlets, bound periodicals, and bound newspapers. The library also houses several special collections, including the Glenn Frank Memorial Library, the Laughlin contribution of research, a Missouriana collection, collections of children's literature, and the John R. Kirk Library.

The Violette Museum is housed in the basement of the John R. Kirk Memorial.

It houses a collection of antiques and souvenirs, such as a suit of medieval armor, guns, a loom, and farm machinery used in early American times.

Many people donate articles which they wish to have preserved.

Student Housing

Big news in the dormitories this year was the opening of Nason Hall to men students, as well as a newly-painted Rose Lounge and a spanking-new television set in Blanton.

Providing accommodations for over 265 students, Blanton and Nason Halls boast maple furnishings, cafeteria, lounges, laundry rooms, table-tennis rooms, and the ever-ready Snack Bar filled with goodies.

Besides Nason, men students also reside in Dorm C, the re-modeled Missou Hall and the "Kennel" athletic dorm for the Bulldogs.

For married students, 40 large low-rent apartments are available. These apartment may be obtained either furnished or unfurnished.

Organizations

Row one: W. T. Minor, sponsor; Owen Hughes, Dewayne Wellborn, recording secretary; Charles Esterline, vice-president; James Keller, president; Bill Mayers, treasurer; Howard Platz, corresponding secretary; Dean Easterday, John A. Thomas, and Larry Whitney.
Row two: John Baker, David Armbruster, Fred Acuff, Maurice Payne, Mike Johanboeke, Ron Phillips, Jaime Portugal, John Jones, and Don Wilson.

Alpha Phi Omega

Helping in the Bloodmobile donation drive, decorating the stands and President's box for the Homecoming game, co-managing the cloak room at school functions, helping with registration on Senior Day and at college conventions, running a concession stand at the Christmas Dance, holding an Ugly Man contest in conjunction with the spring Ugly Man Dance, were but a few of the activities sponsored by APO this year.

Helping in the local scout movement, acting as guides on Parents' Day campus tours, and working with the KCOS chapter on the blood donation drive at the Jaycee Merchandise Show, rounded out the year's work—and we mean work!

Eighteen men were pledged during the fall and winter pledge season. Members must have a Boy Scout background for this service organization.

On bended knee, James Neilson, Jerry Greene, and President Esterline paint whitewash-markers for the Homecoming Parade.

Besides being the highest men's honor fraternity, Blue Key is a service fraternity, as well. Those purple and red-backed student directories were issued by Blue Key members, who also conducted tours on Parents Day and Senior Day, took charge of the entire Homecoming Parade, ushered at baccalaureate and commencement, and sponsored an Honor Awards assembly in May.

Attending the Blue Key National Conclave over Christmas vacation was Charles Esterline. President Esterline served on a committee to re-draft the national Blue Key constitution.

With membership limited to twenty, only men who rank highest in scholarship, service, character, and leadership are pledged. All members wear the well-known blue-and-gold "Blue Key."

Cardinal Key

Cardinal Key, sister organization to Blue Key is a national honorary-service organization for college women who display qualities of leadership, scholarship, character and participation in school activities. They must also have 60 hours of college credit to be eligible for membership. Membership is held to 20 members.

A special project of Cardinal Key during 1955 was selling

Commemorative plates, of Wedgwood china, with the John R. Kirk Memorial in the center. Among their other activities are selling Homecoming buttons, doing welfare work, ushering at College and civic functions, and conducting tours on Senior Day.

Officers for the year were Jane Bucks, President, Marilie Weber, Vice-president, Terry White, Treasurer, and Caroline Stokes, Secretary.

Kappa Delta Pi

Holding professional meetings twice monthly, Kappa Delta Pi is a national honorary education society.

Sound personal ideals, scholarship, and educational ideals are required for membership into Tau Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, which had 18 members this year.

Officers include, Marilyn Gallup, president; Leslie White, vice-president; Linda Heimer, secretary; Dorothy Myers, treasurer; Carolyn Stokes, historian.

Alpha Phi Sigma

Leading Alpha Phi Sigma Scholarship Fraternity for 1954-'55 are officers Glen Easterday, vice-president; Jeannette Krueger, secretary; Mona M. Overton, treasurer; and Dolores Jean Tracy, president.

Planning for the National Convention of Alpha Phi Sigma to be held here June 18, 1955, furnishing campus guides for Parents' Day, participating in the Homecoming Parade, and climaxing with a banquet in the spring, highlighted the year's activities of Alpha Phi Sigma, founded here 25 years ago.

A national honorary organization in scholarship, Alpha Phi Sigma invites valedictorians and salutatorians as associate members and those scoring an S average or better for three consecutive quarters, as master members.

Sponsor of Alpha Chapter is Dr. Hans Hagemann, with this year's officers including Dolores Tracy, president; Glen Easterday, vice-president; Jeannette Krueger, secretary; and Mona M. Overton, treasurer.

Row one: Marian Peoples, Carol Coleman, Dolores Jones, Anna Grace Mitten, Jeannette Krueger, Secretary, Dolores Tracy, President; Mona M. Overton, Treasurer; Eileen Hays, Norma DeWitt, and Charlotte Gungelman.

Row two: Marilyn Werr, Terry Anne White, Thelma Yaeger, Alice Tague, Norma Husted, JoAnn Tracy, Jacqueline Mason, James Neilson, Joycelynn Mason, and Mason Benn, Jr.

Row three: Janys Ann Murphy, Linda Sue Galloway, Lorraine Jerome, Margaret Roan, Pat Mead, Dorothy Kearns, Okle Conover, Ron Phillips, Barry Green, and Glenn Easterday.

Kneeling: Charles Woods, Larry Gordon.

First row: Edward K. Royse, Edwin Myers, Linden Eitel, Gerald D. Wood, Secretary; C. H. Hays, Vice-President; Carl Keller, President; and Dean Easterday, Treasurer.

Second row: John Jones, Ronald Hessel-schwerdt, Duane Cole, Sponsor; Robert Daniels, Dick Cokerham, Lawrence Bond-erer, and Duane Neeley.

Industrial Arts

For the third straight year the Industrial Arts Club won the contract for decorating the Adair County Court House Square and the Kirksville business district. An extra-special touch of Christmas was given the campus between the Practical Arts Building and Kirk Auditorium with the Nativity Scene and Santa and his reindeer, all constructed by Industrial Arts Club members.

Inaugurated this year were two rush seasons in an attempt to increase the present membership by 100%.

With Duane Cole as sponsor, 1954-55 officers include: Carl Keller, president; C. H. Hays, vice-president; Gerald D. Wood, secretary; Dean Easterday, treasurer; David Lillard, sergeant-at-arms.

Ag Club

"First Prize" was what the judges said for the Ag Club Homecoming float, its theme being the Cape Indians bowing to the Bulldogs. Real old time square dancin' and the crowning of Eleanor Barkley as Barnwarmin' queen was featured January 22. Winner of the door prize rooster was Waldo West. This spring the Agriculture Club will assist the Ag Department in the Northeast Missouri high school contests.

Gaining 14 new members to wear the snazzy-new Ag Club jackets, officers for 1954-55 were: Al Azinger, president; Owen Hughes, vice-president; Robert Moore, secretary; Linden Eitel, treasurer; Waldo West, reporter; Marvin Seidt, sergeant-at-arms; Norvell C. Allen, sponsor.

Colhecon Club

Besides the United Nations Day, Christmas party at the home of Miss Llorra MaGee, and the state convention (LaVerne Dudeck served as state vice-president), a special Style Show was presented in February before the F.H.A. chapters of neighboring high schools.

After a welcome by President Ryle, members from the home economics classes stepped from the pages of the prop magazine "Vogue", modeling the garments they had made in clothing construction courses.

At Christmas Time each girl brought canned goods, clothing, toys, or twenty-five cents with which a Christmas basket was prepared for a needy family.

Both social and professional, Colhecon is a national home economics organization. This year's officers were: Eleanor Barkley, president; Betty Gaston, vice-president; Barbara Lee, secretary; and Jeanette Eitel, treasurer.

Aeolian Club

For music majors or for those just interested in any form of music, the Aeolian Club this year boasted 38 active members.

Programs of special interest to music enthusiasts were planned by Ron Phillips, chairman of the program committee and Shirley Leber, chairman of the social committee.

Officers include: Pat Healey, president; Johnny Hart, vice-president; Norma Wilson, secretary-treasurer; R. E. Valentine, sponsor.

Pre-Osteopathic Club

Touring Still-Hildreth Sanatorium and taking part in an all-day visit at the Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery December 6, highlighted the Pre-Osteopathic Club year. A tour of buildings, class and laboratory demonstrations, and speakers from both administration and faculty topped off the day's visit to K.C.O.S.

Speakers including Dr. Pepper Martin on mental diseases,

Father Carney on ethics in medicine, and Dr. James Keller on principles of manipulation, were heard by these future physicians. A banquet held in the spring quarter for members and their families featured a guest speaker and movie.

Historical Society

First Row: Eiichiro Tomoyose, Harold Kwanhi Lie, Dr. Ruth Towne, Bing Kun Shao, Dr. Hamilton Easton, sponsor; Charles Esterline, president; Shirley Brantner, secretary-treasurer; Delpha Davenport, Hectorine Piercey, and Norma Broadwater. Third Row: John Ritter, John Shelton, Dr. G. C. Kohlenberg, Stanley Shkolnick, Norman Truber, R. L. McAnaw, Alden G. Bingham, Glenda Runge, Shula Flick and Eva Kephart.

Speaking on the history of the Balkans, H.I.H. Otto of Austria-Hungary was heard by over 165 people at the annual Historical Society Banquet, November 18. It was the fifth straight year Archduke Otto had been guest speaker.

With James Neilson as program chairman, speeches ranging from John Sutton's views on Korea and Mac Howard's report on his trip to Spain, to Dr. James Hood's discussion of the experiences of a Ph.D. candidate, were heard by these social science majors.

Leading the Historical Society were Charles Esterline, president; Shirley Brantner, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. Hamilton Easton, sponsor.

College Players

This year's young Barrymore's and Bankhead's produced two major plays and three one-act plays. College Players formed the crews and casts for "Squaring the Circle" last fall and also produced a three-act serious play, "The Little Foxes," in the spring.

Three students directed one-act plays given February 9 in Little Theatre, including "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals," directed by Marilie Weber and also presented in assembly, "A Marriage Proposal," directed by Ron Bailey; and "Still Life," directed by Linda Heimer.

Conducting the bi-weekly meetings were Ron Bailey, president; Janys Ann Murphy, vice-president; Maxine Klitenic, secretary-treasurer; Judy Beltzer, historian; Sherod Collins and Jack Hensley were sponsors.

"Resolved: That the United States extend diplomatic relations to Communist China," was the question facing this year's debaters, directed by Sherod Collins.

Making up the local debate team were Glen Easterday, Bob Shearer, and Ron Bailey, who took part in tourneys at Bradley University in November, in the Midwest Speech Tournament here in December, at Illinois State Normal University in January, the State tournament at Warrensburg in March and the National Pi Kappa Delta tourney in April at Redlands, California.

A top winner was Jean Richert who tied for first place in the poetry reading contest at the Mid-West tourney here.

Copping the Regents Debate Award of $50 were Glen Easterday and Bob Shearer, winning over Keith Stout and Charles Esterline.

Pi Omega Pi

Selecting an outstanding senior in business education, whose name is engraved on a plaque in Baldwin Hall, holding social functions and hearing guest speakers from many fields of business highlight the Pi Omega Pi year.

Representing Alpha Chapter at the national convention in Chicago were President Nancy Horn and Shirley Wares.

Founded on this campus in 1923 by Dr. P. O. Selby, Pi Omega Pi initiates business majors who excel in scholarship.

Heading the future businessmen (and business women, too) were officers Nancy Horn, president; Arthur Kimberly, vice-president; Jeanette Krueger, secretary; Shirley Wares, treasurer; Beverly Orwiler, editor; William Mayers, reporter; Jean Danneman, historian.

Row One: Sue Magruder, Dolores Tracy, Bob Eatock, reporter; Terry Anne White, secretary; Nevin Loerke, president; Chosuke Gima, vice-president; Charlotte Ann Jacobs, treasurer; Willie Whitson, sponsor; and Bertha Kaneshiro. Row Two: Janet Dixon, Margaret Kakaza, Dolores Jones, Josephine Kittle, Mary Anna Billups, Claetta Kerby, Mona M. Baptist Student Union

Whether it was the Welcome Booth in Baldwin Hall in September (smiles and lemonade!), the Sweetheart Banquet in February, or the spring "Supper for Champions" banquet with the Bulldog lettermen as guests, it was an event-packed year for these young Baptist students.

Working all night on a first prize winning Homecoming float, again sponsoring Thanksgiving for Internationals, caroling at Kirksville hospitals and in twelve home churches, attending the State Student Convention, the costume Congressional Party, the intramural basketball team, the March House party that brought 100 girls from north Missouri for a weekend of mission emphasis, and the Spring Retreat at the Lake of the Ozarks in May, all rounded out the year's work 'n fun.

Guests included Dr. Joe W. Burton during Home Life Emphasis Week in October, Dr. G. Kearnie Keegan in March, and Mrs. Agnes Plyant leading seminars on Christian Recreation and Church Drama.

Wesley Foundation

Ninety-three hungry students ate 500 pounds of watermelon in the annual Wesley Foundation watermelon feed September 16 in the back yard of the Methodist parsonage, getting the year underway in a big way for this Methodist organization for students.

Appointed as the new Methodist Student Worker in the fall was Rev. James Cole of Hornell, N. Y.

Besides worship programs, the lighter side was highlighted by the annual Christmas party December 12. Two hours of caroling, a buffet meal at the parsonage, a debate on the question "Resolved: That there ain't no Santa Claus" (the negative team of Jim Keller and Rev. Cole triumphing over Keith Stout and Bill Kroeger in this serious question!) and a Handel's "Messiah" worship program made up the day's program.

Officers were: Richard Hackman, president; Letha Woolbright, vice-president; Lorraine Jerome, secretary; Darlene Rettinghaus, treasurer.

Row one: Ida Mae Jones, Allene Keller, Janet Dixon, B. J. Wilsey, Martha Whirrett, Lorraine Jerome, secretary; Dick Hackman, president; Darlene Rettinghaus, treasurer; Letha Woolbright, vice-president; Bill Kroeger, Sam Kraus, and Betty Ross. Row two: Betty Gaston, Lynne Steel, Rita Hinshaw, Freda Mohr, Mary Anna Billups, Charlotte Ann Jacobs, Pat Mead, and Carolyn Hanes. Row three: Nathaniel Lapitan, Ronnie Derwiler, Lois Althiser, Carol Redman, Dorothy Kearns, Doris Gordy, Janice Jacobs, Norma Jean Halley, Mary Burnham, Ruby Walker, Patsy LaFaver, and Judy Greeno. Row four: Rev. International Club

"I hope we can get them all in," said the Echo photographer as he snapped the picture of the International Club, which has grown to be one of the largest organizations on the campus.

Entering a float in the Homecoming parade, a candidate for K-Club queen and for Trump Night King, and winning second place with the Trump Night Skit, "The Sun Never Sets on KSTC Students," all brought recognition, as did presenting an assembly program at Kirksville High School.

Social events are not overlooked, either, what with the Christmas dinner held in Kirk Auditorium for members and faculty guests. Recipes and entertainment from around the world were featured. Members were also entertained by the Sojourners Club and the Rotary Club, as guests of honor.

Officers include: Hassan Kakkak, president; Shinjun Oshiro, vice-president; Janys Murphy, treasurer; Mrs. C. H. Allen, sponsor.

Foreign Students

"The Sun Never Sets on KSTC Students," could well become a new slogan, with over 50 students from 20 foreign countries in attendance here.

Of these, 20 come from Korea, four each from China, Okinawa, Mexico, and Turkey, three from the Philippines, two from Greece, Spain, and Colombia, and one each from Bolivia, Brazil, Costa Rica, England, France, Denmark, Italy, Iraq, Lebanon, and Panama.

Now nearing the 200 mark in attendance here since 1946, foreign students study under government grants, their own funds, college scholarships, or the Northeast Missouri Fund for Foreign Teachers.

Row One: Eiichiro Tomoyose, Harold Kwanhi Lie, Boni P. Sibayan, Agustin Herrera, Jr., Kenichi Asato, Ling Kang Yeh, Chung Soon Kim, Esin Kent, Erlinda von Heiland, Bertha Chaverri, Hassan Kakkak, and Mrs. C. H. Allen, adviser. Row Two: Mel Eliades, Johnny Koo, Annegert Hessenbruch, Siral Ozer, Helene Brun, Do'Hi Kim, Mario Rivela, Elisabeth van der Zwan, and Bienvenido Gutierrez. Row Three: Richard K. Hong, Kenny H. Kroeger and Bailey give poet Skinner a going over in the fall play "Squaring the Circle"

Dramatics

From satire to serious describes the mood of the five plays presented in both Little Theatre and assembly this year. Directing the fall and spring three-act plays was Jack Hensley of the speech faculty, while student directors Linda Heimer, Marilie Weber, and Ron Bailey sweated out the three one-act plays given in February.

Karayev's "Squaring the Circle," a satire on love, Russian style, ran three theatre-packed nights, November 9, 10, 11. Leads were taken by Bill Kroeger as Abram; Elaine Wellborn as Tonya; Ron Bailey as Vasya; Peggy Brundage as Ludmilla; Colin Skinner as Emalian; and Betty Lou Ingraham as Flavius.

Starring in the assembly play "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals," February 9 were Susie Hardy, John Fiala, Donna

Phillips, Pat Shelton, Delpha Davenport, and Donald Baskett, with Marilie Weber directing.

The second one-act play, "A Marriage Proposal," was directed by Ron Bailey and starred Bill Kroeger, Peggy Brundage, and Kenneth Barker. The third, "Still Life," a serious drama directed by Linda Heimer, featured Betty Stout and Gene Weber in the romantic leads.

Taking place in the early 1900's, the spring play, "The Little Foxes" took a serious slant and dealt with the effects of selfishness on a southern family.

Cast in "The Little Foxes" were David Heald, Maxine Klitenic, Sue Magruder, Gene Weber, Bill Kroeger, Linda Heimer, Tom Kooreman, Shirley Masters, Judy Kottmann, and Colin Skinner.

First of the winter one-act plays was "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals." Davenport, Shelton, Phillips, Hardy, Fiala, and Baskett caught in action.

Interfraternity Council

Setting the dates for rushing and pledging by the three campus social fraternities, issuing a social fraternity handbook to freshmen men, and holding an Interfraternity Council Banquet, besides serving as a "clearing house" of discussion of fraternity problems, make up the duties of the Interfraternity Council.

Highlighting the banquet March 22 was the awarding of the President's Scholarship Trophy to the fraternity with the highest average point-hour ratio.

Made up of the presidents, vice-presidents, and sponsors of the three fraternities, the Council has officers serving on rotation. This year Ron Bailey served as president, Raymond Williamson as vice-president, and Russell Vannoy as secretary-treasurer. Dr. Gilbert C. Kohlenberg is sponsor.

Composed of three representatives from each social sorority, the Panhellenic Council governs all sorority activities and is sponsored by the Dean of Women, Dr. Pauline Knobbs.

A Parents Day Tea, Panhellenic Tea for girls interested in sororities, keeping a cloakroom at dances, and experimenting with open rushing between February 7 and May 7 were among the Panhellenic projects for 1954-55. The first all-sorority get-together was held in January, with each sorority rotating as the hostess group in the monthly affairs.

Each spring the Panhellenic Banquet finds the Scholarship Cup being awarded by the Dean of Women to the sorority with the highest scholastic average for the year.

Pi Kappa Sigma

Starting the year with five active members back, the Pi Kaps entered their Homecoming float with the theme, "It's in the Bag," and sponsored Charlene Brooks as queen candidate.

"Lollipop Land," with guests dressed in kiddies' clothing and eating lollipops, was the theme of the first rush party. Games galore highlighted the second party with the theme, Gold Nugget Saloon.

Queen candidate for the K-Club Dance was Marilyn Gardhouse, with Jean Danneman in the running for Trump Night Queen. The Trump Night skit, "If Women Played Cards as Men Do," brought many cheers.

Topping off the Pi Kap year was the annual spring party, an indoor picnic and dance—fun!

Leading the Pi Kap meetings were officers Charlene Brooks, president; Jean Danneman, vice-president; Helen Sailor, recording secretary; Dorothy Kearns, corresponding secretary and treasurer; Marilyn Gardhouse, reporter.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

"Alpha in Olympia"—Like a scene from ancient Greece.

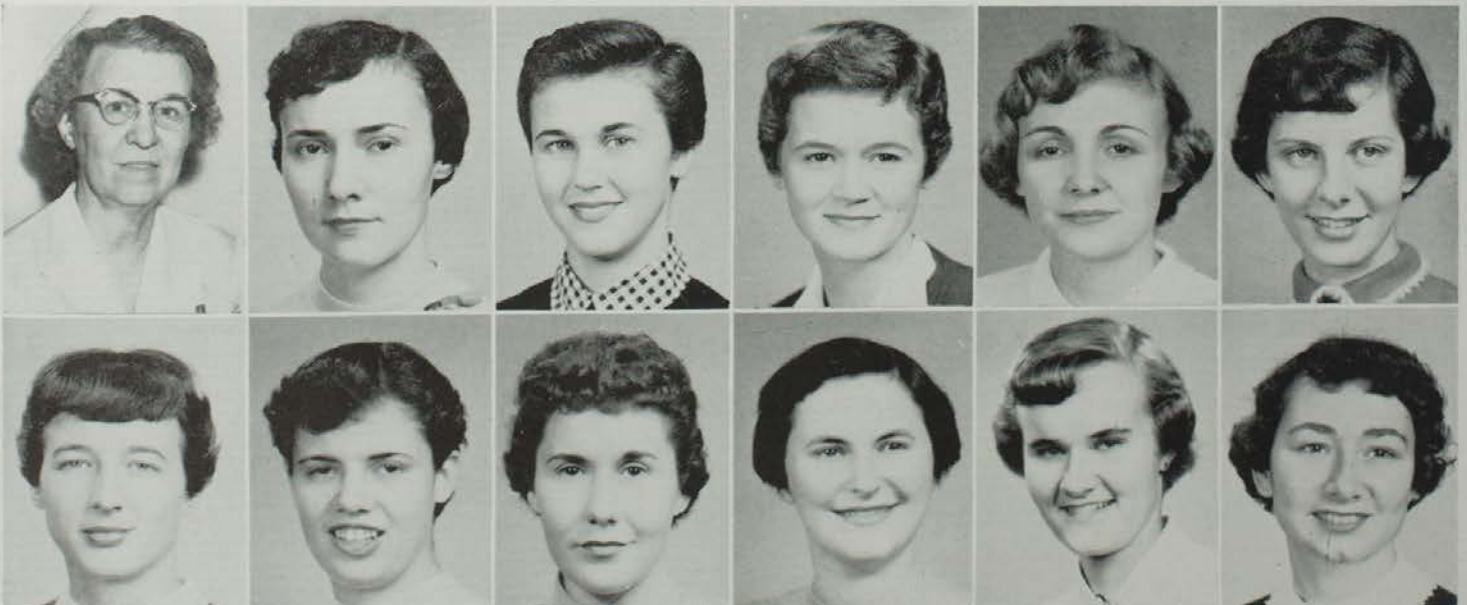

No less than four queens of major campus events were members of Alpha Beta chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha, including Shirley Wares, Homecoming Queen; Sue McCullough, K-Club Queen; Eleanor Barkley, Barnwarmin' Queen; and Pat Ellet, Trump Night Queen.

Special honors went to Linda Heimer and Shirley Wares, chosen for Who's Who; to Betty Wilgus, Mary Lou Bills, Linda Heimer and Sue McCullough who were active on the Student Council.

In the Homecoming parade the Alpha float, a huge adding machine, spelled out "Add Up the Bulldogs' Score."

Rush parties featuring "Alpha in Olympia" and a Lumberjack breakfast brought 17 pledges last fall, while a chair, lamp, fruit basket and candy were sent to the nursing home at Christmas time.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

With Dr. Lucy Simmons as guest speaker and with Nancy Morris, Norma Wilson and Betty Stout in the singing spotlight, Iota Chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon led off its year with a Founders' Day Banquet September 23.

Becoming salesladies in October, the Deltas found brisk sales for their Delta Birthday Calendars. Homecoming found them building a giant Homecoming float with the theme "Snow 'Em Under." Mary Ann Caldwell was chosen as their Homecoming Queen candidate.

Two rush parties with Hallowe'en and "An Evening in a Spanish Court" themes won 20 pledges, who later presented the annual Christmas party.

Besides presenting the skit, "Music Makes the World Go Round" at Trump Night, Shirley Leber represented the Deltas in the race for Trump Night Queen.

Winding up an event-packed year were the election of new officers, initiation of pledges, the Spring Fashion Show and Spring Formal.

News that Mu Chapter had won the Efficiency Cup for the '53-'54 school year was brought to the Tri-Sigas by Nelda Crawford, national officer, during her visit to KSTC last fall.

Dressed in Dutch costumes, the Tris won much comment with their homecoming float, "Cape's in Dutch," while Judy Kottman represented them in the race for Homecoming Queen.

A top figure of 29 pledges came the Tri-Sigma way following the two rush parties, "Three Little Sigmas," a takeoff on "The Three Bears," and "Sigma Top Hat," Horns and tails adorned AKL actives and rushees at the Devil's Dance in December, which, preceded by the rush smoker at the Sojourners Club, brought a dozen new members, initiated February 20 in Women's Parlor.

During Homecoming, an alumni banquet and a float with the theme, "Sailing Into Cape," highlighted the day. In the race for Trump Night King was Ron Phillips.

Xi chapter journeyed to Kansas City in March to attend the annual Missouri-Kansas Founders Day Celebration. Topping off the year's social calendar were the Founders Day Banquet and Spring Formal April 15.

AKL's in high place this year were Howard Platz, Jerry Greene, and Ron Bailey in Blue Key; Ron Bailey and Glen Easterday in Who's Who; Jack Beck and Bill Ausmus on the starting five in basketball; Glen Easterday as sophomore class prexy and Jack Beck as senior class vice-president. Fourteen other campus offices were held by AKL's.

Two awards bestowed on Xi Chapter included the National AKL Achievement Award for the most efficient chapter and the President's Scholarship Cup.

Student Council

After the political rallies, poster wars, campaign badges, and handshaking have been forgotten, the newly-elected Student Council takes over as the governing organization of the student body and has charge of most of the major social events.

Open houses, publicizing dances and action taken at meeting, chartering busses to football games, devising a new system of judging Homecoming floats, and holding an open meeting in assembly were all emphasized by this year's Council, with Barry Green, president, and Dr. C. H. Allen, adviser.

Assisting on Parents' Day, securing the 13-piece Ferguson-Breitenback "New Sounds in Music" band for the Homecoming dance, the "College Katz Combo" for the Christmas dance, and Buddy Morrow's orchestra for the Echo dance, were other Council activities, as were planning and arranging the Freshman Frolic and fourth annual Trump Night.

Whether building the Bulldog-kennel entrance way, painting murals and blowing up balloons for the Homecoming dance; erecting the fireplace entrance, cedar ceiling and Christmas tree at the Christmas dance; or preparing an elaborate gold throne and decorations for the giant Echo dance, the Student Social Committee is at work.

Composed of 20 members, 17 of whom are volunteers and three, from the Student Council, this year's committee was headed by Mary Lou Bills, chairman, and Dr. Pauline Knobbs, adviser.

Besides forming the decorating, program, and work committees for college functions, the Committee assists in preparing a calendar of social events issued from the Dean of Women's Office.

This year's Student Social Committee included Mary Lou Bills, chairman; Shirley Shadid, Karold McDonald, Frank Colton, John Jones, Mary Ann Caldwell, James Ogle, Shirley Dye, Max Terry, Judy Kottman, Judy Greeno, Delpha Davenport, Janys Ann Murphy, Barry Green, Norma Wilson, Al Welch, Nancy Hedges, Fern Peterson, and Ron Phillips.

HERE COMES THE BAND!

Drum Majors Charlotte Gunselman, Leta Bailey, Jeanne Poole, Mary Sue Machin, Carol Chapman, and Rosalia Nicoletti Prance as Band Marches at Warrensburg Game

Music to set your feet a' tapping at football and basketball tilts, at Parents' Day and Football Assemblies, to send off or welcome home the Bulldogs, marching at Homecoming both in parade and on the field, were all furnished by this year's band under the direction of Harold Cleveland, pinch-hitting for Paul Strub on leave.

Taking to the road March 7 and 8 were 42 band members, playing at Lancaster, Memphis, Kahoka, Clarence, Shelbina, and Hannibal high schools.

Topping the band's honor award system is the Silver Key Award presented after three year's service at the annual spring banquet.

Chorus

Besides presenting an assembly program, singing for over a dozen high schools, women's clubs, and civic groups, the College Chorus under the direction of Miss Phradie Wells, sang selections from Handel's Messiah December 12 in Kirk Auditorium, including "Unto Us a Child is Born," and the "Hallelujah Chorus."

Forming the chorus for the opera "New Moon" in April will be another highlight.

Nemos

Now in its fourth year, the Nemo Singers is an a cappella choral group open for anyone interested in singing.

Besides presenting several numbers in pre-assembly singing, the Nemo Singers travel with the band on its annual tour in March. Three of the most-sung numbers were: "Adoramus te" by Palestrina, "Sleepers Awake" by Bach and "Deep Water" by James.

First row: Frederic Kirchberger, Jack Ranney, Elsbeth Hagemann, Harold Cleveland, Katheryn Bagley, Shirley Leber, Betty Goad, Keith Stout, Faye Ewing, Mac Howard.

Orchestra

Despite the difficulty in obtaining string instrument players, "complete orchestration" could describe this year's orchestra under the direction of Karl Webb.

Presented December 12 and February 27, two concerts highlighted the orchestra year. Besides accompanying the College Chorus in "The Messiah," the orchestra presented "King Stephen Overture," "Symphony in G Minor," "Roumanian

Such familiar tunes as "Lover, Come Back to Me," "One Kiss," "Softly, As in the Morning Sunrise," "My Heart is Aching for Someone," and "Mary Ann," were heard in Sigmund Romberg's opera, "New Moon," presented both Senior Day, April 18, and for the students and public, April 19.

Rhapsody No. I," and "Alphonso and Estrella, Overture," at the December performance in Kirk Auditorium.

Assisted by Katheryn Bagley, clarinetist, the February concert featured "Strong in Thy Strength," "Concerto in A Major for Clarinet," "Symphony in B Minor," "Pavanne," "Midnight Beguine," and "Perpetual Motion."

Filled with sailors, heroines, lovers, and noblemen, the opera is a musical romance of the Spanish Main in 1788.

The cast, in order of its appearance, includes Nancy Morris, Jack Lapp, Ron Phillips, Larry Dennison, Mac Howard, Leo Goeke, Keith Stout, Robert Pell, Betty Lou Stout, Pat Healey and Mary Jane Novinger.

Index Staff

Sporting technicolor nameplates and bannerlines on many of this year's issues (red on most, with green for St. Patrick's) the Index had just received a First Place rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association as the Echo went to press.

Special 16-page football and basketball issues, one with a front page color cartoon a la the Chicago Tribune, and a Christmas twelve-pager with a red bannerline, "For a Merry Christmas — Safety First!!!" highlighted the year's work in B. H. 208.

Trips to the Associated Collegiate Press convention in Washington, D. C. in the Fall and to the University of Missouri Journalism Week May 6 gave Index journalists a glimpse of other college newspapers and their staffs. MCNA president Glen Easterday presided at the M.U. college newspaper day in May.

Handling the ads were Eva Kephart, business manager and Raymond Williamson, advertising manager. Clicking the keys were typist Pat Shelton and linotypist Edward S. Dodson.

Miss Agnes Slemmons, adviser, and H. Greene Simpson, typographer, gave the final word.

"Now if we can just win it again," these Index editors and their adviser say hopefully of the First Place MCNA Plaque won last year. Seated: Agnes Slemmons, adviser; Linda Heimer, winter editor; Standing: Jim Thornton and Bara Kerls, spring co-editors. Thornton was also editor during the fall quarter.

Class presidents, fraternity and sorority presidents, editors and business managers, Student Council officers, scholarship winners, and other student dignitaries, seventeen in all, were selected to appear in the 1955 directory of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

"Scholarship, co-operation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship and service to the school, and promise of future usefulness," are listed as requirements for members, selected by a campus committee.

Besides receiving a certificate of recognition from President Ryle in the final assembly of the year, a placement service is maintained for the benefit of seniors and graduates. Nominations come from approximately 600 colleges and universities.

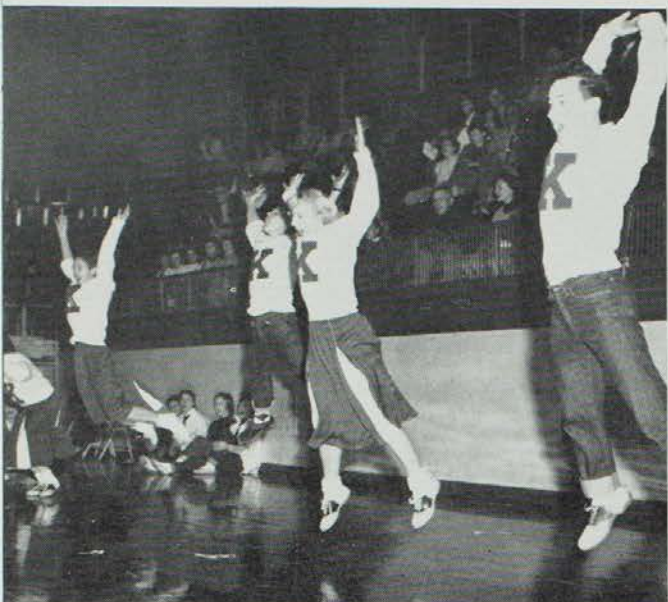

Regents Debate

Debating their way to a $50.00 award by the College Board of Regents were Robert Shearer and Glen Easterday. The pair competed against Keith Stout and Charles Esterline in this all-Teachers-College duel of words, held February 21.

"Resolved, that the United States extend diplomatic recognition to the communist government of China," was the debate topic.

"Nice debating, boys," says debate coach Sberod Collins as he hands a $25 check each to Dean Easterday and Robert Shearer.

Homecoming

Pep Rally: Bulldogs, Band, and Clapping Hands

Touched off by a Pep Rally with Orval "Aggie" Craig, '29, as guest speaker and Shirley Wares crowned Homecoming Queen by Bulldog co-captains Bill Bowles and Mel Loncaric, Homecoming concluding Saturday with the Bulldogs' whipping Cape Girardeau 21-7 and the Homecoming Dance that night, starring the "New Sounds in Music" 13-piece orchestra from St. Louis.

Eighteen floats and 27 bands spiced the Homecoming Parade Saturday morning, with the Agriculture Club winning first in Class A, Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity first in Class B, and Baptist Student Union first in Class C.

Come Saturday noon the Founders Day Luncheon honored the 1904 and 1929 classes, while Dr. Maurice Woolf, '29, was guest speaker.

Twenty-two high school bands massed into a giant football formation at half-time at the game, while the K-Club dinner honored the hungry, but winning Bulldogs at 7 p.m.

With a giant Bulldog pointing the way, dancers that evening were lead off by the Queen's Dance with Shirley Wares and her escort, Ray Mach.

Trump Night

Setting an all-time high in receipts ($1,019.34, $300 more than last year), the Fourth Annual Trump Night of skits, prizes, kings, queens and hair-letting-down in general, was topped off by the crowning of Pat Ellett and Jerry Flynn as King and Queen of Hearts.

Topping twelve other skits with themes ranging from African adventures, "KSTC in 2000 A. D.", and the plight of college athletes to "Someone Should Have Told Her" and "If Women Played Cards Like Men Do," were Sigma Tau Gamma's Blue Notes Glee Club, directed by Maestro John Goetze, first; International Club's "The Sun Never Sets on KSTC Students," second; and Alpha Sigma Alpha's "School Daze," third.

Snake-charmer Valentine, Lion-tamer Selby, Flora Dora boys and girls, Nico and Ryley Siamese twins and Jack the Gripper Hensley starred in a wild "Three Ring Circus" faculty skit, announced by Barker Andrew Shook.

Holding the winning ticket in the grand drawing was Judy Strom, winning a new clock-radio.

Echo Dance

Amid gold thrones, a blue-pink crepe ceiling, wishing well, picket fence border, and a bridge-and-grass-carpet entrance way, over 500 students and guests (a record!) danced four hours to the music of Buddy Morrow's orchestra in Kirk Auditorium April 2.

With Echo Editor Russell Vannoy at the microphone of a P.A. system that almost didn't arrive, eight Echo King and Queen candidates were introduced at half-time in the glare of spotlights.

Gold crowns made by assistant editor Dewayne Wellborn were then placed on the heads of Echo Queen Esty Purvis and Echo King Bill Carter, both chosen by Buddy Morrow.

Football

"Our fourth straight M.I.A.A. championship," was again the Bulldog byword, what with their 5-0 record in conference play, an overall record of 7-1, and 150 points scored as against 45 for the opposition.

Shutouts were registered against Southwestern College of Kansas, 20-0; Fort Leonard Wood, 6-0; Springfield, 20-0.

Scored against but once in three contests, the Bulldogs whipped Cape Girardeau 21-7, Warrensburg 26-6, and Rolla, 32-6.

Closer was the margin over the Springfield Bears, 24-20, and the lone loss to Missouri Valley, 6-0.

Scoring 8 touchdowns, O. D. Austin ranked second in conference scoring with 48 points, while Ray Mach ranked a close fourth with 31 tallies.

Placing on the UP M.I.A.A. All-Star team were co-captains Bill Bowles and Mel Loncaric, along with end Glendle Pickering and right half O. D. Austin. Mel Loncaric was also picked for the N.A.I.A. All-American team.

"Salute to the Champions" was the theme of the annual football banquet November 23, with Ernie Mehl, sports editor of the Kansas City Star, as guest speaker, and with letters going to 24 men.

Besides the presentation of the M.I.A.A. trophy to Dr. Norman White by Commissioner John Waldorf, co-captains Bowles and Loncaric were presented an additional trophy by the Kirksville Quarterback Club.

Basketball

Racking up 2,033 points for an average of over 80 points per game, Coach King's Bulldog cagers not only won the M.I.A.A. crown, but also advanced to the top-team NAIA tournament in Kansas City after brushing off Central 89-74 and William Jewell 83-68 in playoffs at Rockhurst.

A close 86-85 loss to Western Illinois followed the Bulldog 82-70 victory over Georgetown, Kentucky in the NAIA opener.

Scoring 55 points in the two games, Jack Beck was named to the NAIA second team. Beck also lead the squad in regular-season play with a 20.9 average for 21 games. Don Parsons lead in field goal percentages with 48.8% while Beck lead in free throws with an 82.5 percentage.

Scores for the season include:

Intramurals

Topping 19 teams in four leagues was the Phi Sigma Epsilon A team with a 3-0 record in the Missouri League and victories over Xi Logos (58-28), Riots (43-33) and Short-Timers (48-36) in playoff competition.

Copping second place were the Short-Timers, champions of the Midwest League (4-0); while the Coaches downed the Texas League champion Riots 54-50 for third place.

Leaders in the scoring column included Dale Coorts, Wesley, with 83 points in league competition, and Melvin Moore, Nason, with 77.

League winners included: Muddobbers (5-0) in the All-Star League (6 teams); Phi Sigs (3-0) in the Missouri League (4 teams); Riots (3-0) in the Texas League (4 teams); and Short-Timers (4-0) in the Midwest League (5 teams).

K Club

Paying for the snazzy-new glass trophy case in Kirk Auditorium was the major goal of this year's K-Club lettermen, successfully met by the K-Club all-college dance January 21.

With $240.22 receipts, $126 paid for the trophy case with plenty to spare for dance expenses.

Assisting during Homecoming and ushering at athletic events are other K-Club duties.

K-Club Officers were: George Anastasoff, president; Ray Mach, vice-president; Sydney Ross, secretary-treasurer.

Track

With over 25 men reporting, Coach Kenneth Gardner's track squad was delayed somewhat by the NAIA basketball tourney and a snow-swept stadium during much of March.

Facing a tough schedule at home and away, the cindermen took third place in the MIAA indoor meet at Columbia March 19, following but one week of practice.

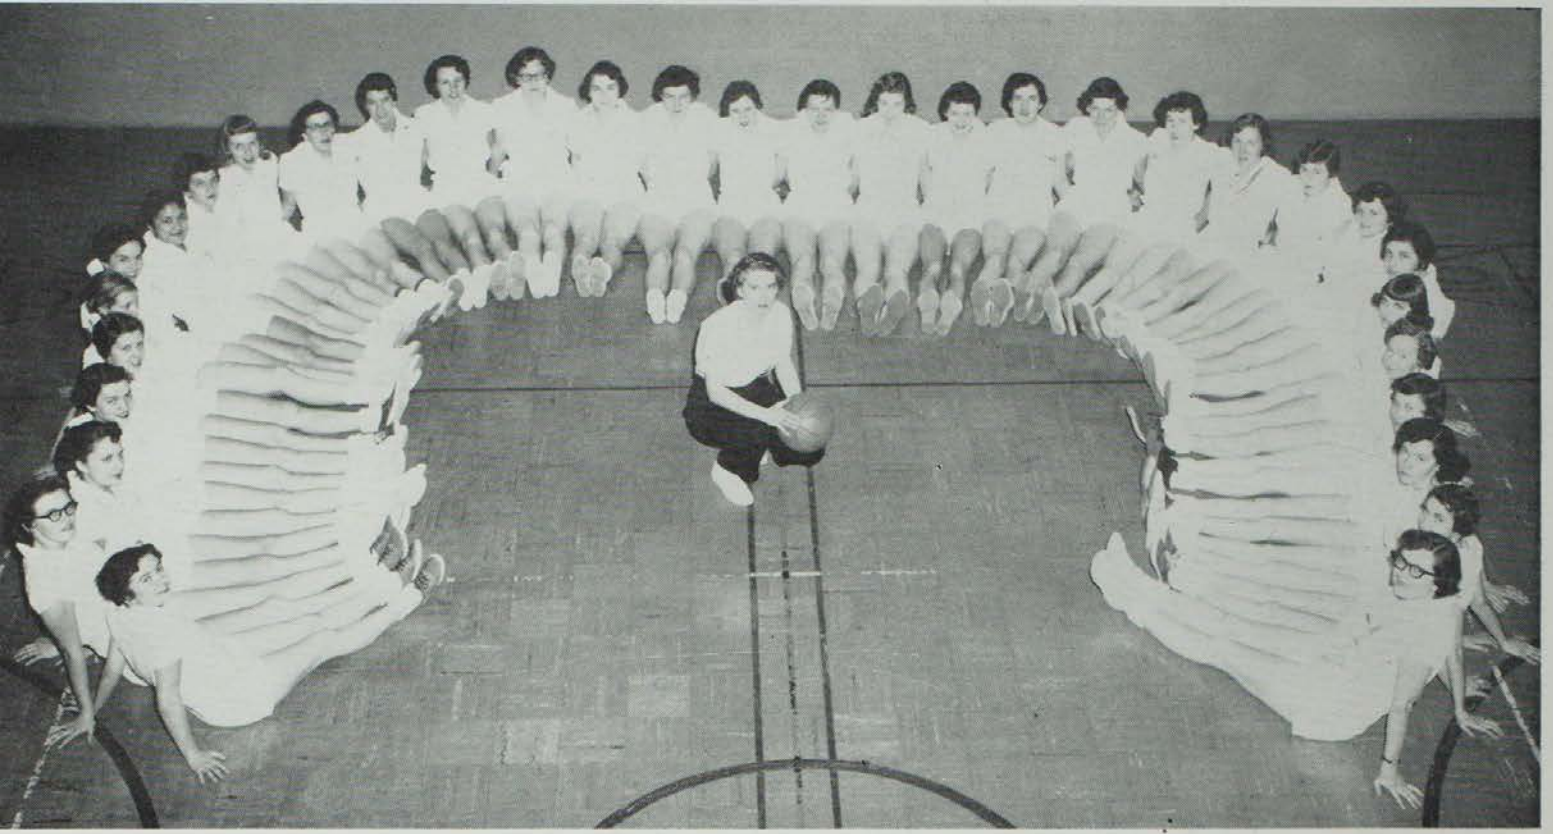

Also on the schedule were meets at Warrensburg, Maryville, Washington University, Rolla, the MIAA conference outdoor meet at Cape Girardeau and the Drake Relays at Des Moines, as well as Simpson College and Missouri Valley competing on home grounds April 19 and April 26.

From dart parties and selling pencils printed with basketball programs to an intercollegiate W.A.A. Sports Day; from a penny carnival to an all-girl basketball tourney; from archery, volleyball, and badminton tourneys to an Awards Banquet in May, the Women's Athletic Association is "on the go."

Leading off with a coke party for 48 guests in September, W.A.A. gave the bows and arrows a workout in the October Archery tournament, won by Mary Lou Bills. The W. A. A. Speed-Away title was taken by the freshmen in November.

Taking first place in intramural basketball was the Alpha Sigma Alpha team, although later losing 39-37 to the All-Stars in a hard-fought playoff.

Besides awarding the traveling intramural trophy to the best all-round team (won last year by the Independents), this year will see team and individual sportsmanship awards as well.

One-hundred twenty-eight pages of work (plus a two-color cover and an end sheet as well!) faced Echo Editor Russell Vannoy and Assistant Editor Dewayne Wellborn, while paying for it all again faced business manager Charles Esterline and assistant business manager J. C. Shelton.

Topping three other cover designs in a vote by the art classes was a two-tone red and black job by Becky Murch. Our budding Walt Disney, Robert ("RLM") Marshall is now more certain than ever of wanting to be an osteopath, after sweating out 8 division pages of caricatures of faculty and students.

Chief shutter-snapper was photographer John Goeke, with Kenneth Sykes of Sykes Studio, doing the night work.

Giving loads of technical advice and doing the lettering was Kurt Ballard, whose third-floor Baldwin Hall room became the virtual Echo office.

Special thanks must go to the Personnel Office in checking names and activities; to the Dean's Office for sending all those Echo packages "Special Delivery"; to the Business Office for storing the cash and writing those Echo salary checks so promptly; to the Office of the President for invaluable suggestions on the faculty and administration sections; to the Echo Board in being so patient with the editor's demands for more color; to Mr. Ralph Kolb of the Burger-Baird Engraving Company and to the entire staff of the Journal Printing Company.
