THE UNIVERSITY'S BOARD OF REGENTS meets today at 1:30 in the Conference Room, SUB.

A NEW BOOK ... James E. Paulding, Fine Arts, announces that his new book, Ensemble III, A Collection of Fiction and Poetry, will be published this summer by Kendall/Hunt Publishing Company, Dubuque, Iowa. His most recent book, Ensemble II, is in use in more than 200 schools and colleges throughout the country. All royalties from his book sold on our campus go to student scholarships in the Division of Fine Arts.

SO LONG, ROBBY .. WELCOME, KEITH .. The Public Relations Office is hosting a farewell party for Edward (Robby) Robinson, mail clerk, who is retiring tomorrow after nearly 20 years of service to the University. Everyone's invited to extend their good luck wishes from 2-3 p.m. in the P.R. Office, McKinney Center.

When asked about his retirement, Robby said he didn't have any immediate plans except to relax and "quit getting up at 5 a.m.!" His mailroom hours have been 6:15 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday through Friday and two hours on Saturday morning.

Keith Lawson is succeeding Robby. He moved to Kirksville five months ago from sunny southern California -- Ojai, California, that is. Keith adds that Ojai is where the Bionic Woman claims as her hometown. He is quick to point out, however, that he's never seen her "tup on the "tube."

EARLY PAYDAY FOR STUDENTS ... Due to the Easter vacation, students on the regular University payroll and those on work-study will be paid April 7. Work-study time cards must be turned in to Debbie in Financial Aids and regular payroll cards must be turned in to Sue in the Business Office by noon April 1 or students will not be paid April 7.

Time cards received after noon, April 1 will be paid on May 5. May 5 is the last day of classes and therefore will be the date to pick up May paychecks.

MORE THAN 1,700 high school students are expected to be on campus tomorrow for the Northeast Missouri High School Academic Festival. Tests will be given in eight academic disciplines.

The Quiet Lounge of the SUB will be the contest headquarters and hospitality room. Faculty, staff, and students are invited to stop in and welcome the visiting instructors and contestants.

A LECTURE BY MARTHA OGILVIE on "Encyclopedias" will be given tonight at 7 in the Alumni Room of the SUB. Mrs. Ogilvie received her master's degree in librarianship from the University of Washington and for the past ten years has been a consultant in the World Book Educational Services working with library schools and schools of education in the U.S. and Canada. Her appearance is being sponsored by the Libraries and Museums Division. The lecture is open to the public.

THE NEXT ISSUE OF NORTHEAST TODAY will be distributed Wednesday. Deadline for news items is 10:30 a.m. tomorrow. Stop by or call the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center, ext. 7213. Editors: Maggie Jarrett and Bruce Arnold.

A WEAVING DISPLAY by University students is on display through Friday in the showcases and lobby of the Library.

TOMORROW NIGHT'S LYCEUM PROGRAM will pit the "right" against the "left" in a debate entitled "Which Way Under the Carter Administration" at 8 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is free with a validated University I.D. and $2 for the general public.

Reid Buckley, youngest son of the well-known Buckley family, will be the spokesman for the conservative point of view. Taking the liberal side will be Max Lerner, a leading journalist.

THURSDAY IS THE DEADLINE for applying for the undergraduate and graduate scholarships being offered by the University's chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, national education honorary. For applications and further information contact Emil Green, VH 267, Ralph Pink, PB 218, or M'lle Southern, VH 247.

TICKETS ARE STILL AVAILABLE for the 8th annual Military Ball scheduled for Saturday at Rieger Armory.

Maj. Gen. Glenn K. Otis, Deputy Commander of the U.S. Army Combined Arms Combat Development Activity, Ft. Leavenworth, Ks., will be the guest speaker. The evening also will include a reception, dinner, and dance.

Tickets are available in the Military Science Division, Nason Hall. The ball is open to Military Science students and invited guests.

THE SUPREME COURT meets the first and third (fifth when applicable) Tuesday of every month at 4 p.m. in the Conference Room of the SUB. The court handles appeals for traffic violations on the campus. Requests for appeals can be made through the Director of Safety and Security, Capt. Perry Eichor.

PREPARATION FOR MARRIAGE GROUP ... "Couples," a preparation for marriage group, will meet for four weekly, two-hour sessions beginning at 7 p.m., March 30 at the Wesley House. Call Ann Hunt (665-2331) or Bobby Waddail (665-484) to register.

TICKET SALES START WEDNESDAY for the 8th Annual Folk Show April 5-6 in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Advance tickets at 75¢ will be available in the SUB. Tickets at the door will be $1. The show is sponsored by Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS ... Missouri Grant checks have arrived for the spring semester, according to Wayne Newman, director of financial aids. Students should pick up their checks immediately in the Business Office.
