

Northeast Today

NMSU

MONDAY, February 9, 1981

BULLETIN BOARD

A BLOODMOBILE will be held from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Trophies will be awarded to the campus organization which brings in the most donors. The drive is sponsored by the Blue Key and Cardinal Key honor organizations.

APPLICATIONS are due Wednesday for the following scholarships: the Free Enterprise Scholarship, open to any major and awarded based on an essay presentation; the Edward D. Jones Scholarship, for business administration majors; the Joseph Mitch Memorial Scholarship, for accounting majors; and the Paul Owen Selby Scholarship, for business education majors. All application forms are available in the Business Division Office, 182 Violette Hall.

STUDENTS WISHING TO SEE "ANNIE," a professional musical production playing at the Lyric Theater in Kansas City, Mo., may sign up at the Student Activities Board Office, Student Union Concourse, this week. Cost of the Feb. 22 trip is $20 for SAB cardholders and $23 for others. A $10 downpayment is due upon sign-up. Twenty-two spaces are available. Additional details are posted at the SAB Office.

VOLUNTEER INCOME TAX ASSISTANCE will be available for students, faculty, staff and community members with their 1980 income tax forms. VITA, a group of Accounting Club members, will be available from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. each Saturday in 140 Violette Hall through April 11. The program is free to all who participate.

CARDINAL KEY national honor sorority is accepting applications for membership until 5 p.m. Friday in the organization's mailbox located in the Student Union Office. Applicants must have completed 60 hours of credit, hold a 3.0 grade point average or higher, and exhibit qualities in leadership, character, scholarship and service. Applications may be obtained by calling Cardinal Key members Judi Norris at 665-0058 or Kim Silvers at extension 3574.

GREENHOUSE THEATER TRY-OUTS will be held from 6-9 p.m. Tuesday in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. The theater is scheduled for 7 p.m. Feb. 22 in the Georgian Room. All interested persons are welcome to audition.

THE AGRICULTURE CLUB will hold an open meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday in 224 Industrial Education Building. Activities concerning Ag Day will be discussed. All members and interested persons are invited to attend.

JOB INTERVIEWS with four companies will be held this week: today Bellevue Public Schools of Omaha, Neb., will interview education majors; Thursday Westinghouse Datascope and Geo. A. Hormel & Co. will interview computer science, business and engineering majors; Friday the Defense Mapping Agency of the Aerospace Center will interview bachelor of science degree candidates. Sign up folders and additional information are available in the Career Planning and Placement Center, first floor, Blanton Hall.

THE LYCEUM COMMITTEE has found a replacement for the canceled Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra concert. The Kammergild Chamber Orchestra of St. Louis will perform at 8 p.m. Feb. 16 in Baldwin Auditorium. Free tickets are available to students, faculty and staff from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Sunday in the Student Activities Board Office, Student Union Building.

ORGANIZATIONS wishing to present awards at the spring 1981 honor awards assembly to be held March 19 should contact the Dean of Instruction Office, 203 Administration/Humanities Building, or extension 7102, to complete the necessary forms.

AN INTERNSHIP PANEL discussion is scheduled by the Career Planning and Placement Center at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building. Tom Churchwell, assistant to the dean of instruction; Glen Egley, program analyst; Sal Costa, supervisor of Social Science Division internships; and Jon Broyles, student intern in data processing, will be featured on the panel. For more information contact the career center at extension 7228.

A CRISIS LINE VOLUNTEER training session will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday in the Frist National Bank Community Room. There is no admission charge.

FINE ARTS CAREER DAY will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday in Baldwin Hall. More than 200 high school juniors and seniors are expected to attend from approximately 50 schools in the tri-state area. A schedule of programs is available in the Fine Arts Division Office, 118 Baldwin Hall, for students interested in attending.

A PROGRAM ON INTERVIEWING, placement papers and career services is planned during the next meeting of Alpha Phi Sigma honorary scholastic fraternity. Katie Strickler, director of placements, will be the guest speaker at 5:30 p.m. today in 172 Violette Hall.

THE NMSU SPORT PARACHUTE CLUB will hold a first-jump training session for anyone interested in learning to skydive. The session is at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Room 5 of the Student Union Building. Cost for first-jump training is $35.

A GREEK ADVISERS CONTEST will be held this week by the women of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority. Greek organizations wishing to enter their sponsors may submit a photo at the AKA table in the Student Union Concourse today. The contest continues through Friday. The amount of silver money collected will determine the winner.

A PROGRESSIVE DINNER will be sponsored by the United Campus Ministries at 5 p.m. Thursday beginning from the Baptist Student Union. Cost is $1.

WINDFALL LITERARY MAGAZINE is accepting submissions for the spring issue. Deadline for turning in articles is 5 p.m. Friday in the Windfall mailbox, Student Union Office. Windfall will also be selling Valentine greetings featuring poems by NMSU writers and famous poets. They are on sale today through Friday in the Student Union Concourse.

A YOUTH SWIM PROGRAM will be offered at the Natatorium from March 14 through May 2. Applications for participation in the program are available in the Natatorium Office, Pershing Building.

THE COLLEGE REPUBLICANS will hold an open meeting at 7 p.m. Thursday in Room 5 of the Student Union Building. Members and interested persons are invited to attend.

AN INTRODUCTORY CLASS IN HEBREW may be taught during the fall semester. Anyone interested in learning the language may contact Bob Berridge, junior, at 665-6488, or Mark Appold, pastor of Faith Lutheran Church, at 665-6122.

MONOGRAMMED COOKIES will be sold and delivered by members of Delta Zeta social sorority in honor of St. Valentine's Day. Orders will be taken today through Thursday, and cookies will be delivered on Valentine's Day.

GRAPHIC ARTS AND PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB will hold an open meeting at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in 205 Violette Hall for persons interested in either field.

THE NON-TRADITIONAL STUDENTS will hold an organizational luncheon meeting at 12:30 p.m. Feb. 18 at the Wesley House.

AN AREA LIVESTOCK SPECIALIST, John Comerford, will present a program at the Pre-Vet Club meeting at 7:30 p.m. today in 112 Science Hall. The program is open to the public.

APPLICATIONS FOR SOPHOMORES interested in attending ROTC basic camp at Fort Knox, Ky., are now being accepted in the ROTC Office, 102 Nason Hall. For more information, contact Capt. Chris Chalko, 100 Nason Hall, at extension 7191 or 7192.

CAMPUS VOLUNTEERS will hold an open meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 205 Violette Hall. Semester dues of $1 per member are due at the meeting. For more information about the organization, call Lisa Lombardo, president, at extension 2127.

TWO- AND THREE-YEAR merit scholarships are being offered by the Military Science Division. Scholarships cover full tuition, books, fees and $1,000 per academic year. Application deadline is Friday. Forms may be picked up in the Military Science Division Office, 102 Nason Hall.

HAPPENINGS

THE GERMAN CULTURE FILM SERIES, sponsored by the Language and Literature Division and the German Club, will present its second film, "The Broken Jug," at 4:30 p.m. today in 290 Violette Hall. There is no admission charge.

THE BASKETBALL BULLDOGS host two games this week—at 7:30 p.m. today in Pershing Arena against Southwest Missouri State University, Springfield, and at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Pershing Arena against the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Both are MIAA conference games.

"TAXI DRIVER" will be shown by members of Alpha Tau Omega at 7 and 9:15 p.m. Tuesday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $1.50 in advance from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Student Union Concourse, or $2 at the door.

"BEDROOM FARCE" will be presented by the University Players drama group at 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday in Baldwin Hall Little Theater. Admission to the comedy is $2 for adults, $1.50 for children or free to NMSU students, faculty and staff. Tickets will be available today through Friday in the Student Union Concourse.

"THE ABOMINABLE DR. PHIBES" will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. Wednesday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission to the film, which stars Vincent Price, is $1 in advance in the Student Union Concourse and $1.50 at the door. The film is sponsored by Phi Kappa Theta social fraternity.

A WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME will be played at 5:30 p.m. Thursday in Pershing Arena against the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

"A LITTLE ROMANCE," starring Lawrence Olivier, is the Student Activities Board movie presentation at 7 and 9 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $1 or free with an SAB card.

THE MEN'S WRESTLING TEAM hosts Central Missouri State University, Warrensburg, at 1 p.m. Saturday in Pershing Arena.

"THE SHINING" will be the Alpha Psi Omega drama fraternity movie presentation Feb. 18. Advance tickets will be available beginning Feb. 16 in the Student Union Concourse for $1.50. At the door, admission is $2 or free with an APO movie series card.

"NORTHEAST TODAY" is published weekly on Mondays. The deadline for turning articles in to "Northeast Today" is 5 p.m. Wednesday. Items should be typed and brought to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center.