THE UNITED STATES ARMY FIELD BAND AND SOLDIERS' CHORUS of Washington, D.C., will appear in a free concert at 8 tonight in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The band is the official touring musical representative of the United States Army. The 25-voice Soldiers' Chorus will present patriotic medleys, Broadway show tunes, spirituals, and operatic selections. The concert is sponsored by NMSU and the Kirksville Daily Express. Tickets can be obtained at 163 Baldwin Hall.

BLUE KEY will have a table in the Student Union Building all this week, Sept. 12-16, for students to check their addresses and phone numbers as they appear on the registrar printout. The addresses and phone numbers on the printout will be used in the student directory unless students notify Blue Key of a change. Students unable to stop by the table may call 665-7660 this week from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. to check their addresses and phone numbers.

ALPHA SIGMA GAMMA, NMSU's service sorority, will have a table in the Student Union Building all this week, Sept. 12-16, for students to sign up. Anyone interested in joining should stop by the table for information.

KAPPA MU EPSILON, math honor society at NMSU, will host a bake sale beginning at 7:30 a.m. today at the north door of Violette Hall.

A NEW EDUCATION ORGANIZATION, the Student National Education Association (SNEA), has applied for a charter at NMSU. An organizational meeting for SNEA will be at 4:30 p.m. today in 245 Violette Hall. Officers will be elected and plans will be made for participation in the Student Activities Fair at this first meeting. SNEA will strive to keep education majors up-to-date on education-related matters. Many programs have already been planned for the upcoming year. Membership is open to anyone interested in the field of education. For more information, contact Hugh Moore, Language and Literature, at ext. 2164.

LAMBDA ALPHA EPSILON, the American Criminal Justice Association, will hold its 1977-78 organizational meeting at 5:30 tonight in 326 Pershing Building. All law enforcement majors and minors are urged to attend.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN will meet at 6:30 tonight with a carry-in dinner at the home of Anna Mae Schnucker, 40 Overbrook Drive. Any woman graduate of a 4-year college or university is eligible for membership in AAUW. The program will be "Politics and Food." For reservations or information, call Mary J. Kohlenberg at ext. 2758 or 665-4496.

"YOUR ESTATE TO YOUR HEIRS" will be the subject of a workshop to be held this semester at NMSU. Registration for the workshop will be at the first meeting, from 7-9:30 tonight in 121 Violette Hall. No credit will be given for the workshop, and tuition is $15 per person. For further information, contact H.B. Tate, workshop director, 241 Violette Hall.

STUDENT MSTA will meet at 6 p.m. tomorrow in 251 Violette Hall. All education majors are welcome.

AN ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING FOR K-DETTES dance team will be at 6 p.m. tomorrow in Brewer Hall basement. Try-outs for K-dettes will be Sept. 19. For more information, contact Chris Bichel at ext. 2025.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN will hold its first meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Refreshments will be served following the meeting. All students interested in Special Education should try to attend or call Sandy Wiesehan at ext. 2028.

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES for homecoming floats is 5 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 15. Entry forms can be picked up at the Director of Student Activities office, and should be sent to the Blue Key mailbox in the Student Union Building. For further information, contact Rod Belzer at ext. 7729 or the Director of Student Activities office at ext. 7203.

'THE AGONY AND THE ECSTASY' will be at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. It will be another of the "Classic Series" of movies sponsored by the Student Activities Board each Tuesday of the semester. Admission is free to holders of student activities cards, and 50¢ to all others.

MR. JOHN INGALLS, representative for the Missouri State Teachers Association Insurance program, will be on campus from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Wednesday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. He will be available to discuss any phase of the MSTA Insurance Program, including the tax-sheltered annuities. Faculty members are invited to attend.

INTERVIEWS FOR THE NAVY OFFICER PROGRAM will be held Wednesday afternoon and all day Thursday at the Placement Office, first floor, Blanton Hall. Specific programs to be discussed in the interviews include nuclear power officer candidates, aviation officer candidates, aviation reserve officer candidates, with general areas including business, aviation maintenance, intelligence, and shipboard operations. To make specific interview appointments, go to the Placement Office.

JAMES L. HARDING, C.L.U., will present a brief seminar on tax-sheltered annuities, from 4-5:30 p.m. and 7-8:30 p.m. Wednesday in Room 6 of the Student Union Building. Harding will be representing General American Life Insurance Company, and he plans to discuss how the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations allows a person to invest on a more favorable basis. All faculty and staff are invited to attend.

BREWER HALL will show a film on natural childbirth at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the main lounge of Brewer Hall. Dr. Gary Doss, a staff member of Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, will answer questions on pregnancy and contraception.

KATHY LOY will appear on KHQA's "Studio 7" program at 7 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 15. She will discuss her work with students in improving their writing ability.
