

Northeast Today

NMSU

MONDAY, April 30, 1984

HAPPENINGS

MONDAY, April 30

8 p.m. Band Concert, Aud., BH

WEDNESDAY, May 2

8 p.m. University Symphony Orchestra Concert, Aud., BH

SUNDAY, May 6

3 p.m. NEMO Singers Concert, First Christian Church

APPLICATIONS FOR UNIVERSITY USHERS are available in the Director of Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building; Dean of Graduate Studies Office, 203 Administration/Humanities Building; or from Gilbert Kohlenberg or Ruth Towne, Social Science. Ushers work at the programs of the Lyceum Series under the direction of the Lyceum Committee.

AN ACCELERATED ELEMENTARY FRENCH CLASS will be offered next fall from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. Seats are still available in the class, which is designed for students who have taken the language before but whose knowledge of French is too limited for the second semester Elementary French class. Interested students may enroll for the class after discussion and examination with Betty McLane-Iles, Language and Literature.

CAPS AND GOWNS will be issued from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today through Saturday and May 7-10, in the Campus Bookstore.

FREE TENNIS INSTRUCTION for faculty and staff can be arranged by calling the Intramural Recreation Sports Office at 785-4467. Interested faculty and staff should leave their name, and Brian Campbell, instructor, will contact them to arrange a convenient time.

BRIDGES TO INTERNATIONAL FRIENDSHIP, a new campus organization, is seeking student volunteers for the fall. American students will befriend new international students and help them overcome language and cultural barriers. Applications are available from the offices of Ruth Bradshaw, Ann McEnderfer and Vera Piper, in Language and Literature.

A MAKEUP TEST FOR THE ACT-COMP will be given at 8 a.m. Thursday to those sophomores who missed taking the test during the scheduled week of March 12-16. Sophomores that were scheduled to take the ACT Assessment during March 12-16 should take the makeup test at 8 a.m. Tuesday. Students should sign up for the tests in Testing Services, 103 Administration/Humanities Building. Transfer students or any other student who needs to take the ACT Assessment may also sign up for the test to be given Tuesday.

THE STUDENTS HELPING STUDENTS Program needs volunteers to assist new freshmen for one day during Summer Orientation. Information sheets are available in the Freshman Counseling Office, 102 Administration/Humanities Building, or at academic division offices. Applications must be returned to the Freshman Counseling Office by May 7. For more information, contact Karen Gordy at 785-4136.

QUALIFIED SOPHOMORE AND FRESHMEN are being sought to participate in a six-week "Leadership Experience" this summer in Kentucky. Students will earn $670, six hours of free elective credit and the opportunity to compete for scholarships. Round-trip transportation and room and board are provided. For further information, contact Paul Spivey, Military Science, at 785-4454.

"WINDFALL" LITERARY MAGAZINE will be sold from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, in the Student Union Building. Cost is $1.

ADVANCED FRENCH STUDENTS will perform Ionesco's play, "The Lesson," in French at 7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, in 106 Laughlin Building. The play will be easily understood by anyone with previous coursework in French. A plot summary will be provided to those with little or no knowledge of French. Admission is free.

A COMMISSIONING CEREMONY will be held at 1:30 p.m. May 11, in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Sixteen seniors will be commissioned as second lieutenants in the U.S. Army and one into the U.S. Marine Corps. Brig. Gen. Ross Pikus, commander of the U.S. Army Reserve Personnel Center, will be the speaker. Students and faculty are welcome.

GUARANTEED STUDENT LOAN APPLICATIONS for the 1984-85 academic year are now available in the Financial Aids Office, 100 Administration/Humanities Building. Returning students are encouraged to get these forms completed and returned before the end of this semester in order to avoid the summer rush. Applications will be processed in date-wise order.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH is seeking a student intern to assist with campus ministry activities during the 1984-85 academic year. Internship credit and/or scholarship funding will be offered. For further information, contact Lin Twining at 785-4634 or Steve McShane at 665-4473.

APPLICATION DEADLINE FOR EDITORIAL POSITIONS on the "Windfall" literary magazine is May 8. The positions open are selections editor, production editor and promotions editor. Students should submit a letter of application detailing their interest and experience in working with a literary magazine to Shirley Morahan, 313 Administration/Humanities Building.

JOHN MITCHELL JR. will be the guest speaker at the last church service of "In the Black Tradition" at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, at the First United Methodist Church.

MONDAY

DEADLINE FOR PURPLE PRIDE interview sign-up is 3:30 p.m. today, at 200 Pershing Building. Interviews will be held Tuesday and Wednesday.

"THE GENDER GAP: WOMEN AS VOTERS" will be a presentation given by Jim Przybylski, Social Science, at 7:30 p.m. today, in 300 Administration/Humanities Building. The program is sponsored by Kirksville NOW and is open to the public.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS are reminded that the deadline for work permit applications is today. Applications are taken by appointment only. Students should contact the International Student Office at 785-4215 to make an appointment.

WEDNESDAY

AN INFORMATION SESSION for the Students Helping Students Program will be held at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Those who have applied to be SHS Leaders or who are interested in being a SHS Leader for one day of Summer Orientation are urged to attend this session.

THURSDAY

MOCK INTERVIEWING will be conducted from 1:30 to 4:15 p.m. Thursday, in the Career Planning and Placement Center. This is the last day the service will be offered. Students should call the CPPC at 785-4237 to make an appointment.

NORTHEAST NOTES

Jerry Mayhew, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, and Jon Broyles, Computer Services, recently had their three chapters accepted for publication in a book on microcomputer usage in sport and physical education.

Mary Ann McMasters was elected Executive Director of the Missouri Collegiate Government Association at the bi-annual coalition at Missouri Western State College in March.

Susan Jackson and Sharon McGahan, Nursing, attended the Missouri League for Nursing Board of Directors and Annual MLN Convention April 11-13, at the Breckenridge Conference Hotel in St. Louis, Mo. Jackson presented the program "Computers in Nursing" and was elected to a one-year term as Kirksville unit chairperson. McGahan served as Board Member at Large for MLN, completing that term of office, and served as chairperson of the MLN Bylaws Committee.

In the Columbia Scholastic Press Association 1984 Gold Circle Competition, the 1983 Echo received second place in class section and club/organization designs, third place in theme section and development and third place for the story on the summer Japanese program by Pat Rollins. This nationwide competition included 10,498 entries.

Paul Wohlfel, Criminal Justice, has received a $1,500 state vocational grant to produce an audio-visual training module for criminal justice students called "Photography of Evidence." His article, "Color Fingerprints in the Courtroom," was published in the April issue of "Technical Photography."

"Northeast Today" is a newsletter published by the Public Relations Office each Monday. The deadline to submit information about events of campuswide interest is 5 p.m. on the Wednesday before publication. To ensure accuracy, articles should be submitted to the Public Relations Office on forms available at 202 Administration/Humanities Building.