Deadline For Spring Applications For Financial Aid

THURSDAY, Nov. 16

- 10:30 am Board of Regents, Board Rm., A/H

THE BOARD OF REGENTS of Northeast Missouri State University will hold its regular monthly meeting at 10:30 a.m. Thursday in the President's Office/Board Room of the Administration/Humanities Building.

NMSU HAS REACHED 123 PERCENT of its United Way goal, which puts us at the $12,256.70 mark. The Adair County Campaign is $4,500 short of its goal. If the $94,000 Adair County goal is reached, the victory luncheon will be held at 12 noon Thursday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. All those who contributed time and money to the campaign may attend the luncheon which will cost $2.60.

WEDNESDAY IS THE DEADLINE for spring applications for financial aid:

SIGNUP FOR GREENHOUSE THEATER TRYOUTS will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. today and Tuesday in the Student Union Building. Tryouts will be from 6:30-9 p.m. Wednesday in the Georgian Room of the SUB, and the Greenhouse Theater production will be at 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 3, in the Georgian Room. For more information, call Lisa Kerr, Greenhouse Theater committee member, at ext. 2493, or Kass Lear, committee chairman, at ext. 2024.

"INTERFACE," an exploration of how faith relates to experiences at the University, will be from 4-5 p.m. each Monday in November in Room 3 of the Student Union Building. The Rev. Roger Jespersion, campus minister for the Wesley House, will lead the sessions. All students, faculty and staff members are invited to participate.

"WOLFBURG," a movie about the city created solely to produce Volkswagens, will be shown at the meeting of Der Deutsch Club at 7 tonight in Room 6 of the Student Union Building. Anyone interested in contemporary Germany is invited to attend.

POPCORN BALLS will be sold from 7-11 tonight in the Main Lounges of Centennial, Dobson, Missouri and Ryle halls. They will cost 25 cents and will be sold by Pre-Medical Technology Club members.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIES will be sold by Campus Gold volunteer organization members from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday in the Student Union Building. Cookies will be on sale until Sunday, Nov. 26, and may be ordered by calling members Karen Holschlag at ext. 2589 or Karen Potter at 665-1915.

BODY LANGUAGE will be the topic of a program at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the 2nd Floor Lounge of Blanton Hall. Dr. Linnea Ratcliff, associate professor of speech, will lead the discussion. All faculty, staff and students may attend.

MANAGEMENT BY OBJECTIVES will be the subject of a session presented by Kathleen Dannemiller, assistant to the vice president for student services at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. The program will be at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building. Dannemiller is the author of Management by Objectives in Student Services.

A TURKEY SHOOT sponsored by the Black Jack Rifle and Pistol Club will be from 3-9 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday in the Rifle Range, first floor Brewer Hall. Prizes include a turkey, pizzas, soda and $5. Profits will be given to the Nancy Lindsley memorial scholarship fund. All students, faculty and staff members are invited to participate.

ANY INTERESTED READERS are invited to attend the meeting of the book reading group at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Nancy Kiger, member, 401 S. Mulanix. The group will discuss this month's selection, Henry Roth's Call it Sleep.

"A LITTLE NIGHT MUSIC," a Broadway musical, will be presented by the University Players and the Fine Arts Division at 8 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets may be picked up in the Student Union Office or in the Fine Arts Office. They are free to holders of NMSU ID cards or $3 for adults and $1 for students without ID cards.

THE AMATEUR TALENT CONTEST APPLICATION DEADLINE is Wednesday. Anyone with an act using music may enter the contest sponsored by Sigma Alpha Iota women's music fraternity. A $1 per person donation is required for entry. Applications may be found with posters located in the residence halls, at the Fine Arts Office or from any SAI member. Three trophies will be awarded to the acts best displaying musical talent and audience appeal. The show will be at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Little Theater of Baldwin Hall. Proceeds will be given to United Cerebral Palsy.

CAREER DAY will be discussed on KIRX-AM's "Area Scene" program at 9:07 a.m. Tuesday. Guests will be Monica DiGiovanni, Free Enterprise Institute adviser, and two students.

CAREER DAY, at which 12 local businessmen will speak about career opportunities in several business-related fields, will be Thursday in Violette Hall. These experts will present ways to get into their field and will answer questions. Specific times and room numbers will be available soon. Career Day will be sponsored by the Free Enterprise Institute in cooperation with the Business Division. For more information, call Monica DiGiovanni, FEI faculty sponsor, at ext. 2069.
