FRESHMAN STUDENTS who have not scheduled appointments to discuss majors and the academic advising system must stop by the Freshman Counseling Office or call ext. 7166 by Wednesday to make an appointment with a freshman counselor.

CARAMEL APPLES will be sold from 8-10 p.m. tonight and Wednesday in the lobbies of Centennial, Missouri, Dobson, and Ryle Halls. The cost is 35 cents. Sigma Alpha Iota, music fraternity for women, is sponsoring the sale.

PAYDAY is today so it's a good opportunity for faculty and staff employees to make their United Way pledges. The University United Way Drive is half over with only 45 percent of its goal of $10,500 reached. For the University to reach its goal, contributions need to average $20 per employee. Pledge cards should be returned to the office volunteer this week. The special event part of the Student United Way Drive has ended with less than half of its goal of $1,300 attained. Individuals and groups still may donate to the drive.

THE SUMMA LIST, posted in the Student Union Building, may not include the names of all students eligible to be listed. If you are a currently enrolled full-time undergraduate, have completed 60 hours, have a 3.90 or better cumulative GPA and are not on the list, contact the Dean of Students Office by October 28.

TRYOUTS FOR K-DETTES, the NMSU dance team, will be at 5 p.m. today in Kirk Gym. For further information, call Connie Larson, K-dette member, at ext. 2550.

A UNICEF DRIVE sponsored by Circle K will be held beginning at 6 p.m. today on campus and throughout the community. The goal is $100. A Halloween party will be held afterward for those who helped collect. For more information, call Terri Steffes, program chairman, at 665-6986.

TRYOUTS FOR WRESTLING CHEERLEADERS will be held at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow in Kirk Gym. The final clinic to prepare for the tryouts will be at 4 p.m. today in Kirk Gym. For further information, call Vonnie Nichols, director of Student Activities, at ext. 7203.

CAMPUS GOLD, the Girl Scout affiliate on campus, will meet at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in Room 6 of the Student Union Building. All students interested in Campus Gold are invited to attend. For further information, call Donna Tanzey, president, at ext. 7710.

THE U.S. SAVINGS BOND CAMPAIGN continues through this week. Persons who have not been contacted already will be contacted shortly by a fellow employee to give them the opportunity to enroll or increase their present savings. Bond purchases help secure the purchaser's future and at the same time help build a more stable economy for the nation.

LURIE YATES, president of the Kirksville Chapter of the National Organization of Women, will speak at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the Quiet Lounge of Ryle Hall. Topics will include job opportunities, legal rights, the ERA, and any other subjects of interest to women. The public is invited to attend at no charge. Barbara Brown, resident assistant in Ryle Hall, is sponsoring the program.

THE ANNUAL ART FACULTY EXHIBITION will open with a reception from 7 to 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in the University Art Gallery, 218 Baldwin Hall. The show will continue through Nov. 16. Artists and their works are Helen Babbitt, associate professor of art, weavings; William Unger, professor of art, paintings; Trudy McRae, instructor of art and gallery director, paintings; Mary Belle Martin, associate professor of art, watercolors; William Murray, assistant professor of art, watercolors; Ed McEndarfer, assistant professor of art, ceramics; James Pauls, assistant professor of art, sculptures; and Kenneth Preston, instructor of art, print and drawing media.

LORD JIM will be the "Classic Series" movie shown at 8 p.m. tomorrow in 106 Laughlin Building. Admission is free to holders of student activities cards and 50 cents to all others. The movie is sponsored by the Student Activities Board.

CHRISTMAS HOUSING will be discussed at the International Club meeting to be at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in Room 2 of the Student Union Building. Ron Gaber, director of housing, will speak.

WOLF AND COMPANY will have a representative on campus tomorrow to interview accounting majors for positions in their Des Moines and Waterloo offices. Interested students should sign up now in the Placements Office, First Floor Blanton Hall.

"TIME, TELEPHONES AND THE THIRD ESTATE" will be the program of the Breakfast Optimists Club at 7 a.m. Wednesday at the Shamrock Inn restaurant. The program should be of special interest to science students. The maximum cost for breakfast is $1.70, but persons may attend without purchasing breakfast. The public is invited to attend.

UNITED TELEGRAM, the second largest independent phone company in the United States, will interview December and May graduates in accounting for the position of internal auditors on Thursday, Nov. 10. Interested students should sign up now in the Placement Office, First Floor, Blanton Hall.

K-MART APPAREL CORP. will interview business, home economics, and liberal arts majors on Wednesday, Nov. 9. December and May graduates should sign up in the Placement Office, First Floor, Blanton Hall.

DEATH AND DYING will be the subject of a program at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Main Lounge of Centennial Hall. Dr. Harold Eastman, professor of sociology, and Bob Davis of Davis Mortuary will be the speakers. Linda Reiman, resident assistant in Centennial Hall, and Phil Jaspering, resident assistant in Missouri Hall, are sponsoring the event. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend at no charge.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have for the campus through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The absolute deadline for news is 10:30 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Thursday publication dates. To guarantee publication on the right date, items should be sent a few days earlier if possible.
