THE STUDENT SERVICES DIVISION cordially invites the faculty of NMSU to attend a reception being held by all international students at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 10, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building.

A STUDENT DINNER AND RECEPTION will be held at 6 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 11, at the First Christian Church, 100 N. High.

THE UNIVERSITY DAMES couples bridge group will hold its first meeting at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 9, in Rooms 2 and 3 of the Student Union Building. All members who are interested in playing with the group are urged to attend. No advance reservations are needed. The University Dames is a group consisting of faculty and staff women and wives of faculty and staff.

FACULTY AND STAFF members interested in participating in a tennis tournament should contact the NMSU men's intramural department at ext. 3386 or John Bartling at ext. 2768. The tournament has been scheduled for Sept. 10 and 11, with Sept. 17 and 18 as the rain dates. There will be competition in mixed doubles, as well as singles for both males and females.

A DANCE will be held from 8-11:30 p.m. Sept. 9, at the Armory. The band will be "Shiggie" and admission will be $1.50. Tickets may be purchased at the door. The Vets' Club is sponsoring the dance.

MEL BROOKS' "Silent Movie" will be shown at 8 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 10, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The movie is free to holders of activities cards and $1 to all others. The movie features Marty Feldman, Dom DeLuise, and Bernadette Peters, and is a "sidesplitting" comedy featuring the humor of Mel Brooks. Its showing on campus is sponsored by the Student Activities Board.

THE UNITED STATES ARMY FIELD BAND AND SOLDIERS' CHORUS of Washington, D.C., will appear in a free concert at 8 p.m. Monday, Sept. 12, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The band is the official touring musical representative of the United States Army. The 25-voice Soldiers' Chorus will present patriotic medleys, Broadway show tunes, spirituals, and operatic selections. The concert is sponsored by NMSU and the Kirksville Daily Express. Tickets can be obtained at 163 Baldwin Hall.

"YOUR ESTATE TO YOUR HEIRS" will be the subject of a workshop to be held this semester at NMSU. Registration for the workshop will be at the first meeting, from 7-9:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 12, in 121 Violette Hall. No credit will be given for the workshop, and tuition is $15 per person. For further information, contact H.B. Tate, workshop director, 241 Violette Hall.

'THE AGONY AND THE ECSTASY' will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 13, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. It will be another of the "Classic Series" of movies sponsored by the Student Activities Board each Tuesday of the semester. Admission is free to holders of student activities cards, and 50¢ to all others.

Harding will be representing General American Life Insurance Company, and he plans to discuss how the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations allows a person to invest on a more favorable basis. All faculty and staff are invited to attend.

MR. JOHN INGALLS, representative for the Missouri State Teachers Association Insurance program, will be on campus from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 14, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. He will be available to discuss any phase of the MSTA Insurance Program, including the tax-sheltered annuities. Faculty members are invited to attend.

FUNDING FOR RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS for recent Ph.D. recipients may be available through the American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS). Up to $7,000 may be awarded in a grant to recent Ph.D. recipients wishing to engage in humanistic research. For information, guidelines, and application forms, contact Office of Fellowships and Grants, American Council of Learned Societies, 345 East 46th Street, New York 10017. The phone is 212-986-7393. Nov. 1 is the deadline for application.

ALL UNDERGRADUATES planning to finish degree requirements in December must file for graduation with the Registrar's Office before Oct. 7, 1977.

THE FULBRIGHT PROGRAM ADVISOR has announced a program of study and research opportunities in the Federal Republic of Germany for 1978. This opportunity is open to both students and faculty members. For information, contact Walter H. Ryle, president emeritus, who is the Fulbright advisor for NMSU.

BREWER HALL will show a film on natural childbirth at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 14, in the main lounge of Brewer Hall. Dr. Gary Doss, a staff member of Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine will answer questions on pregnancy and contraception.

SHOWCASE PRODUCTIONS will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 15, and Friday, Sept. 16, in the Little Theatre, Baldwin Hall. The showcase will include a series of one-act plays and scenes featuring actors and actresses who have never before appeared in a production at NMSU. The production is directed by upperclass drama students. For information, contact J.G. Severns, supervisor of the productions.

INTERVIEWS FOR THE NAVY OFFICER PROGRAM will be held Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 14, and all day Thursday, Sept. 15, at the Placement Office, first floor, Blanton Hall. Specific programs to be discussed in the interviews include nuclear power officer candidates, aviation officer candidates, aviation reserve officer candidates, with general areas including business, aviation maintenance, intelligence, and shipboard operations. To make specific interview appointments, go to the Placement Office.

THE ACTIVITIES FAIR will be held from 7:30-10 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 15, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. The fair will feature booths from NMSU organizations and gives students, faculty, and staff the opportunity to become familiar with the NMSU organizations. Door prizes will be given, and a $10 prize will be given to the organization with the best exhibit at the fair. Free popcorn and 10¢ soda will be provided by Cardinal Key. The public is invited to attend and no admission will be charged.

A STUDENT VOLUNTEER SERVICE CENTER now is open in the Student Union Building. It is located on second floor, across from the Quiet Lounge. Its purpose is to provide a link between the community and university in the field of volunteer work. This center will serve as a referral service for students who wish to do service in the Kirksville area. The office will be open from 1:30-3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. For more information, call ext. 7792.

KATHY LOY will appear on KHQA's "Studio 7" program at 7 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 15. She will discuss her work with students in improving their writing ability.

LAMBDA ALPHA EPSILON, the American Criminal Justice Association, will hold its 1977-78 organizational meeting at 5:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 12, in 326 Pershing Guilding. All law enforcement majors and minors are urged to attend.

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES for homecoming floats is 5 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 15. Entry forms can be picked up at the Director of Student Activities office, and should be sent to the Blue Key mailbox in the Student Union Building. For further information, contact Rod Belzer at ext. 7729 or the Director of Student Activities office at ext. 7203.

THE UNIVERSITY DEBATE FORUM is conducting an open call for new debaters, with or without prior high school or college experience. Interested students should contact David Buckley, director of debate, 317 Administration/Humanities Building, ext. 2155. This year's national college debate topic is "RESOLVED: That U.S. law enforcement agencies should be given significantly greater freedom in the investigation and/or prosecution of felony crime."

THE WRITING LAB will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday during the fall semester. The lab is located in 306 Administration/Humanities Building. Kathy Loy, lab director, says the facilities may be used by any student who wishes to improve his writing ability. Students may be referred to the lab by a teacher or just come by, she says. If a teacher wants to refer a student, he should get a referral sheet from his division office or the Language and Literature office, and send it to the lab. No fee is charged for services such as diagnostic testing and writing analysis.

TRY-OUTS FOR PURPLE OMEN will be held from 8-10:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 13, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Talented students may take this opportunity to perform in an informal atmosphere. The Purple Omen, a campus coffee house, is sponsored by the Student Activities Board. The first Purple Omen will be Friday, Sept. 16. For further information, contact Bruce Castle, Purple Omen chairman, ext. 2915.

NORTHEAST TODAY is published each Monday and Thursday. Anyone who would like to share some news with the campus should send a written item to Cathy Dvorak, staff assistant in public relations, or Jeannette Lovern, public relations intern, in McKinney Center. The deadline for news is 10:30 a.m. the regular working day before publication date.

A READING-STUDY SKILLS LABORATORY is available free of charge to students. The lab is located on the third floor of the library. Students can come to the lab at any time during the hours of 8:30-11:30 a.m. and 1:30-4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, or by appointment on Friday. The lab can help students read with greater ease and study more efficiently, said DeRaye Hansen, director. For information, drop in at the lab or call ext. 2773. Dr. Viola Dailey, former director of the lab, is now associate professor of reading in the education division.
