"HAPPENINGS"

THURSDAY, September 8

Chris Sizemore speaks --8pm, BH Aud.

THE LAST DAY TO PICK UP financial aids checks is tomorrow, Sept. 2. Checks can be picked up at the Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building.

ORAL INTERPRETATION CLUB will hold its first meeting at 6:30 tonight in Room 6 of the Student Union Building.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES CARDS continue to be on sale from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. today and tomorrow in the Student Union Building. The cost is $7.50 and the cards are valid for the entire academic year. The card entitles the bearer to free admission to events sponsored by the Student Activities Board and a $2 discount on tickets for the fall and spring concerts.

THE BOARD OF REGENTS will hold its regular monthly meeting at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 7, in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building.

'CITIZEN KANE' will be the "Classic Series" movie next week. It will be shown at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 6, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Admission is free to holders of student activities cards, and 50¢ to all others. "Classic Series" movies will be held each Tuesday night of the semester, sponsored by the Student Activities Board.

THE LAST DAY TO APPLY FOR THE CLEP TEST is Wednesday, Sept. 7. Students may apply at the Testing Center, 103 Administration/Humanities Building.

WONDERING WHAT TO DO? Call Dial-An-Activity at 665-5820 for an up-to-date listing of campus activities.

PZAZZ DISCO DANCE will be held at 8 tonight on the Mall by the Student Union Building. DJ's for tonight will be "Aces Back to Back: Emmett Vaughn and Rollo Garrison." Soda prices will be discounted in the Snack Bar during the dance. The dance, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, is free for all students. In case of rain, it will be held in the Snack Bar.

SAFETY AND SECURITY will begin issuing tickets Tuesday, Sept. 6, for illegally parked cars and cars without stickers. Capt. Olin Johnson, safety and security director, reminds students that there are more cars than usual on campus this year and extra cooperation is needed. Students should try at all times to avoid blocking obvious walkways, loading areas, and driveways.

COUPON BOOKS are for sale from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. today and tomorrow in the Student Union Building. The coupon books have been compiled by the Industrial Arts Club, and sell for $2.50 each. They contain coupons from 17 different merchants in Kirksville.

THE FIRST ISSUE OF THE INDEX will be published today. The Index office is on the second floor of Adair House, which is across from the Violette Hall parking lot. The phone number is ext. 3398.

CAMPUS GOLD, the Girls Scouts organization on campus, will hold its first meeting at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 6, in Room 6 of the Student Union Building. Old and new members are invited to attend the meeting. For further information, contact Donna Tanzey at ext. 7710.

TRY-OUTS FOR PURPLE OMEN will be held from 8-10:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 7, and from 8-10:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 13, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Talented students may take this opportunity to perform in an informal atmosphere. The Purple Omen, a campus coffee house, is sponsored by the Student Activities Board. For further information, contact Bruce Castle, Purple Omen chairman, ext. 2915.

WEIGHT WATCHERS will hold its first meeting at 7 p.m., Wednesday, Sept. 7 in the Centennial Hall cafeteria. For further information, call 665-9488 or ext. 7700.

A PLANNING MEETING for the Activity Fair will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 7, in 230 Violette Hall. All campus organizations should send a representative to the meeting. For more information, call 665-1681. The Activity Fair will be held from 7:30-10 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 15.

THE UNIVERSITY DEBATE FORUM is conducting an open call for new debaters, with or without prior high school or college experience. Interested students should contact David Buckley, director of debate, 317 Administration/Humanities Building, ext. 2155. This year's national college debate topic is "RESOLVED: That U.S. law enforcement agencies should be given significantly greater freedom in the investigation and/or prosecution of felony crime."

SOCCER COACHES are needed to teach fundamental skills to boys and girls in grades 1 through 8. Game officials also are needed. An organizational meeting to form a community youth soccer league will be at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 1, in 331 Pershing Building. For further information, contact Ralph Baker, director, at 665-7510 or the Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Division office, ext. 7139.

CHRIS SIZEMORE, better known as "The Three Faces of Eve," will appear on campus Thursday, Sept. 8, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Her appearance will be sponsored by the Psychology Club and the Student Activities Board. The public is invited to attend and there will be no admission charge.

ALL UNDERGRADUATES planning to finish degree requirements in December must file for graduation with the Registrar's Office prior to October 7.

JOHN AND CHARLES GIOVANNINI of the Giovannini Insurance Agency, representing the American United Life Insurance Co. will be available for consultation from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 7, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Refreshments will be served throughout the day. Those having questions regarding tax-sheltered annuities are welcome.

FACULTY AND STAFF members interested in participating in a tennis tournament should contact the NMSU men's intramural department at ext. 3386 or John Bartling at ext. 2768. The tournament has been scheduled for Sept. 10 and 11, with Sept. 17 and 18 as the rain dates. There will be competition in mixed doubles, as well as singles for both male and female.

A READING-STUDY SKILLS LABORATORY is available free of charge to students. The lab is located on the third floor of the library. Students can come to the lab at any time during the hours of 8:30-11:30 a.m. and 1:30-4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, or by appointment on Friday. The lab can help students read with greater ease and study more efficiently, said DeRaye Hansen, director. For information, drop in at the lab or call ext. 2773. Dr. Viola Dailey, former director of the lab, is now associate professor of reading in the education division.

AN ENGRAVING PENCIL is available at Safety and Security for students to use to mark their valuables. Safety and Security does provide Lost and Found services at NMSU, so lost or found articles should be reported to Safety and Security.

THE NEXT ISSUE OF NORTHEAST TODAY will be Tuesday, Sept. 6, instead of Monday, Sept. 5, because of the Labor Day holiday. Anyone who would like to share some news with the campus should send a written item to Cathy Dvorak, staff assistant in public relations, or Jeannette Lovern, public relations intern, in McKinney Center. The deadline for news is 10:30 a.m. the regular working day before publication date.

THE WRITING LAB will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday during the fall semester. The lab is located in 306 Administration/Humanities Building. Kathy Loy, lab director, says the facilities may be used by any student who wishes to improve his writing ability. Students may be referred to the lab by a teacher or just come by, she says. If a teacher wants to refer a student, he should get a referral sheet from his division office or the Language and Literature office, and send it to the lab. No fee is charged for services such as diagnostic testing and writing analysis. This week will be devoted to testing and scheduling at the lab.

LAST YEAR'S STUDENTS who did not pick up their 1977 Echo may do so at the Echo or Index office. To pick up a yearbook, a student must have his social security number with him. Students who did not take full class loads both semesters last year must pay $3 per semester for the Echo.
