

Northeast Today

April 12, 1976

KENT FARNSWORTH AND MARY MEYER will be guests on KIRX's "Area Scene" program tomorrow morning at 9. They will discuss summer school and the University's 2-year programs among other topics.

THE AAUP SPRING DINNER MEETING will feature as its guest speaker Mrs. Virginia Young, chairman of the Coordinating Board for Higher Education. The dinner is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. April 21 in the Georgian Room of the Student Union. All interested persons are invited to attend. Reservations may be made with Robert Cowan, 6 Brewer Annex, ext. 2144 by 5 p.m. April 19. Tickets are $4.50.

A SERVICE RECOGNITION PROGRAM will be held in conjunction with the Baldwin Lecture and Founder's Day Banquet tomorrow night. Retiring employees being honored are: Clifton Bell, Education; Charles Kauzlarich, Business; Kenneth Clark, Maintenance; Donald Mitchell, Social Science; and Berenice Dry, Language and Literature. Those with 25 years of service are: Katherine Kearney, Counseling and Testing, and Gilbert C. Kohlenberg, Social Science. Those with 10 years service are: Harry Baldwin, Campus Book Store; Kathryn Brown, Business Office, Annabeth Chevalier, Business Office; Roger Cody, Fine Arts; Jerry Gregory, Freshman Counseling; Acel Haggy, Maintenance; Olin (Swede) Johnson, Safety and Security; Mrs. Robert L. McKinney, International Student Office; Dale Martin, Social Science; Viola Martin, Education; Laura Mason, Housing; Basil Morlan, Upward Bound; Keith Morton, Maintenance; Andrew Patterson, Maintenance; Joseph Rhoads, Practical Arts; Helen Riley, Stenographic; Gene Schneider, Maintenance; Lewis Stiles, Maintenance; Kenneth Stilwell, Math; and Meredith Willcox, Placements.

THE ANNUAL HONOR AWARDS ASSEMBLY is scheduled for Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Student Union Activities Room. Special awards will be presented by campus organizations to honor and recognize outstanding students for academic achievement and community service. Faculty and staff members are cordially invited to attend.

FRIDAY, April 16, is an official University Holiday. All campus offices will be closed and classes will not be held.

JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR will be shown at 8:30 p.m. tonight and tomorrow in Kirk Gym. Admission is 75¢. The film is being sponsored by the dormitories.

THE NORTHEAST MISSOURI LITERARY FESTIVAL will be held on campus tomorrow through Thursday. It is being sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts and the University. Directors are Andrew Grossbardt and Jim Barnes of the Language and Literature Division. The schedule is:

Tomorrow--David Ray shows slides of paintings and comments through poetry, 10:30 a.m., Little Theatre, Baldwin Hall. At 3:30 p.m. there will be a panel discussion on poetry and fiction in the Little Theatre; panel members include Ray, James Tate, Gordon Weaver, and James Welch. At 8 p.m. there will be a poetry and fiction reading in the Little Theatre by Welch.

Wednesday--at 12:30 p.m. there will be a fiction and poetry workshop in 208 Violette Hall with all four writers participating. At 3:30 p.m. Ray will read and comment on his poetry in the Little Theatre. At 8 p.m. Tate will read and comment on his poetry, Little Theatre.

Thursday--at 10:30 a.m. Weaver will read his fiction and poetry and comment on his work.

JUST A REMINDER ... a reception honoring James Kirkpatrick, Missouri Secretary of State, is scheduled for 2:30-4 p.m. Wednesday in the Conference Room of the Student Union. Everyone is welcome.

Also, tomorrow night's annual Baldwin Lecture and Founder's Day Banquet begins at 6:30 in the Student Union. Dr. Koenker's topic will be "Characteristics of Successful Colleges and Universities."

A RECEPTION for Donald Mitchell and Jack Hines is scheduled for 3-5 p.m. April 21 in the Alumni Room of the Student Union. Everyone is welcome, compliments of the Social Science Division.

Mitchell, a professor of political science, has been with the University since 1967. He retires this spring. Hines, who resigned last fall, also was a professor of political science.

STUDENT RECITAL NO. 12 is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. tomorrow in Recital Hall, Baldwin Hall. The program will include selections by Bernstein, Mozart, Chopin, Bach, Beethoven and Hayden. Everyone is invited.

THE SAINT LOUIS BRASS QUINTET will present a joint concert with the NMSU Brass Choir at 7 p.m. tonight at Faith Lutheran Church, Baltimore and LaHarpe. Everyone is welcome free of charge.

The quintet is composed of virtuoso brass players who are members of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra. The program will represent a cross-section of compositions for brass instruments written between 1597 and 1976. The highlight of the concert will be a performance of two early 17th-century pieces for three separate brass choirs working in ensemble. (continued on next page)

The concert concludes a two-day residency by the quintet on the campus. Funding has been supplied in part by the Missouri State Council for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts.

A RECEPTION for Richard Rabbitt, representative from the 85th District and speaker of the Missouri House, is scheduled for 12:30-1:30 p.m. April 19. On the 20th, a reception will be held from 3:30-4:30 p.m. for Gary Sharpe, candidate for state representative of the 13th district. Both receptions will be held in the Conference Room of the Student Union.

ATTN. BOSSES AND SECRETARIES ... April 18-24 has been designated as "Secretaries Week" by the National Secretaries Association. The Kirksville chapter of the NSA is sponsoring a "Secretary of the Hour" on KIRX April 21 (Secretaries Day) to honor secretaries throughout the city. Bosses are invited to send postcards with their secretary's name, their name, name of business and business phone number, addressed to "Secretary of the Hour," KIRX, before April 21. A card will be drawn each hour and the secretary will be presented with a corsage.

Incidentally, Kent Farnsworth, Director of Admissions and Registrar, was named "Boss of the Year" and Helen Bailey, secretary in the Alumni Office, was named "Secretary of the Year" last week at "Executives Night" sponsored by the local NSA chapter.

A 100-RECORD COLLECTION of American music is being donated to the Fine Arts Division by the Rockefeller Foundation of New York City. The first ten records are scheduled to arrive this month and the remainder will be sent in ten record units through 1978.

The anthology traces the social and cultural history of the U.S. through its music -- folk, jazz, symphonic and chamber. Half the discs will be devoted to works never before recorded.

THE BROADWAY MUSICAL, "1776," will be presented at 7 p.m. April 20 in Baldwin Auditorium. The Lyceum Series is sponsoring the musical depicting the efforts of John Adams to persuade the members of the Second Continental Congress to declare the 13 colonies independent of the British Empire.

Tickets for faculty, staff and students will be free with a validated I.D. and available in the Student Union this week.

RESERVATIONS ARE STILL BEING TAKEN for the University's travel workshop to Washington, D.C., May 13-23. Jim Przybylski of Social Science will be the course director. Cost for all participants will be $170 for transportation, hotel accommodations and entrance fees at various sites. Those taking the course for credit will be charged an additional fee of $15 per hour of undergraduate credit if they are Missouri residents and $41 per hour if they are non-residents. Graduate students will be charged $20 per hour.

For more information contact Przybylski at ext. 2772.

THE 2nd IOWA/ILLINOIS INTERVIEW DAY is scheduled for Wednesday in the Placements Center, Blanton Hall.

A DINNER FOR MRS. BERENICE DRY, who is retiring after 14 years with the Language and Literature Division, is being planned for 7 p.m., April 26 in the Spanish Room. Tickets are $4. Everyone is welcome. Reservations must be made by April 21 with the L & L Division office.

PHI DELTA KAPPA, education fraternity, will hold its spring banquet at 7 p.m., April 24 at the Bonfoey Inn. Sir Phillip Richardson, headmaster at the Windsor School for boys, will be the guest speaker.

Richardson is currently on leave from Windsor School to serve as the education advisor to the prime minister. He is known in Europe as an author, lecturer and humorist. His appearance at the PDK banquet is being made possible through an unauthorized grant from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Reservations for the banquet should be made before April 21 with Andy Skinta, ext. 7224. Everyone is welcome.

FACULTY NOTES ... Leslie Wilson and Linda Buescher, Libraries and Museums, attended the spring meeting of the Missouri Association of College and Research Libraries April 10 at Meramec Junior College, Kirkwood....Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, has had a poem entitled "Huma: the Greyhound Station," accepted for publication in Poetry Now, a California magazine. He has a poem entitled "The Snow Bird" appearing in the April 10 issue of The Nation, and three poems in the current issue of Oakwood, a literary magazine based at South Dakota State University....Dick Heun, Linda Heun, and Linnea Ratcliff's, Language and Literature, paper "Maximizing Individual Student Learning Through Cognitive Style Mapping," has been accepted by ERIC and will be reviewed in the July issue of Resources in Education.... Tom Draper, Language and Literature, will attend the annual convention of the International Communication Association April 15-17 in Portland, Ore....Wayne Newman, Financial Aids, was recently elected president of the Missouri School-College Relations Commission for 1976-77. The purpose of the commission is to promote and assist cooperative action by associations, organizations and agencies concerned with school-college relations in the State....Dale A. Jorgenson, Fine Arts, has been invited to present a paper at the International Society for Music Education meeting during July in Hannover, West Germany. The paper, entitled "A Broader Base for Music in Lifelong Education," will relate to a seminar on "The Education of Professional Musicians and Their Public."