GIVE TODAY THE UNITED WAY

ALL 1979-80 STUDENT TEACHERS are required to attend an orientation/enrollment meeting at 3:30 p.m. today in Baldwin Auditorium. A general orientation and separate divisional meetings will be included in the meeting. Students with classes at that time are urged to make advance arrangements with their instructors so that they may attend this meeting. For more information, call Dr. Loren Grissom, director of student teaching, at ext. 7224.

TODAY is the first day of second half block courses.

THE SAINT LOUIS SYMPHONY will perform at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Baldwin Auditorium under the direction of Jerzy Semkow, principal conductor. Free tickets are available from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. today through Wednesday in the Student Union Office. The performance is sponsored by the 1978-79 Lyceum Series and the Missouri Arts Council.

MILITARY SCIENCE GENERAL EDUCATION CREDIT (MS 100) may be earned in a new block course this semester. Students schedule the course on an appointment basis with the instructor. Orienteering and rifle marksmanship are covered. Course cards must be obtained today from the Military Science Division Office, 102 Nason Hall.

SERVICES OFFERED BY THE STUDY SKILLS CENTER and suggestions on taking exams will be the topic of a program presented by members of the center at 7 tonight in the second floor lounge of Blanton Hall. All students are invited to attend. The program is sponsored by Conita Vandevender, Blanton Hall resident assistant.

GOING INTO BUSINESS FOR YOURSELF will be discussed in a two-session workshop from 7-10 tonight and Tuesday night in the Community Room of the First National Bank. The workshop is for people who want to start a business or to buy an existing business. It will be conducted by Gary Supalla, management assistance officer, Small Business Administration, in cooperation with the Business Division. To register, mail a check payable to NMSU for $10 to the Business Division or call the division office at ext. 7123.

A SENSITIVITY SESSION will be given by Dr. Mary Belle Martin, associate professor of art, at 8 tonight in the Grim Hall Recreation Room. The program, sponsored by Carla Changar, Grim Hall resident assistant, is open to students, faculty and staff.

A VOICE RECITAL given by Mary Jo Mihalek, instructor in fine arts, will be at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. She will perform music by Schumann, Poulenc, Vaughan Williams, Handel and Pergolesi. The University community is invited to attend the free performance.

WEIGHT-LIFTING will be discussed at a program at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Missouri Hall Cafeteria. Guest speakers will be Larry Sommers, junior, and Terry Milner, senior.

BLUE KEY STUDENT/FACULTY PHONE DIRECTORIES will be sold from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. today through Thursday in the Student Union Building. Cost of the directories is 75 cents.

A COMPUTER DATING SERVICE sponsored by the Accounting Club will be this week. Applicant information forms will be available in the hall cafeteria lobbies from 4-6:30 p.m. and in the Student Union Building from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at a cost of 50 cents. The completed forms will be processed and results will be available by Oct. 27.

A BAKE SALE sponsored by Purple Pride, the hostesses for football games, will start at 8 a.m. Thursday at the north door of Violette Hall.

THE FOLLOWING PEOPLE were elected to the Tenure Committee by NMSU faculty for the academic year of 1978-79: Leon Karel, professor of aesthetic education and humanities; Judson Martin, professor of education; Chandler Monroe, professor of speech; Jerry Vittetoe, associate professor of business education; and Arnold Zuckerman, professor of history.

REGISTRATION FOR A 28-HOUR DANCE-A-THON will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. today through Thursday in the Student Union Building. Couples will dance from 8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 17, to 12 midnight Saturday, Nov. 18, at Rieger Armory. Proceeds will go to Muscular Dystrophy. Two stereos will be awarded to the couple that raises the most money. Registration forms may be turned in at the table in the SUB or to Rick Orr, Dance-a-Thon chairman, 315 E. Normal, Apt. 3. The Dance-a-Thon is sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity. For more information call Orr at 665-2517.

SIGNUP FOR A BACKPACK TRIP will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Student Union Building until 16 persons have signed up. The trip, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will be Friday through Sunday on the Big Piney Trail in Clark National Forest. Participants must bring their own equipment but transportation will be provided. For more information call Pete Meng, SAB member, at ext. 3445.

USED ADULT BICYCLES may be donated to Circle K organization. Club members will then repair and paint the bicycles for University use. Any bicycle may be donated. A Circle K member will pick up the bicycle at the donor's home from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. Call Bob or Terri Steffes, Circle K members, at 665-6986 for bike pickup.

TRYOUTS FOR GREENHOUSE THEATER, a collection of a variety of talents of students, will be from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Thursday in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Students with any type of entertainment may try out. The Greenhouse Theater has a relaxed, coffee house atmosphere and gives students a chance to perform in front of other students.

GUEST SPEAKER Dave Foote of KTVQ-TV will be at the Mass Communication Club meeting held at 7 p.m. Thursday in 310 Laughlin Building. All interested persons are invited to attend. The club will have a display in the library Oct. 14-20.

"LEGAL ISSUES IN HIGHER EDUCATION" will be the subject of a talk and discussion at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Centennial Hall's Main Lounge. The speaker will be Dr. Donald Gehring, professor of higher education at the University of Louisville and specialist in higher education legal issues. All students, faculty, administrators and staff are welcome.
