

Northeast Today

NMSU

MONDAY, March 23, 1981

BULLETIN BOARD

STUDENT AMBASSADORS for the 1981-82 academic year will be selected soon. Applications are available in the Admissions Office, 205 Administration/Humanities Building, and must be turned in by 5 p.m. Friday.

SOFTBALL TRYOUTS for the women's varsity softball team will be reopened this week. Any woman interested in trying out should report to the softball field at 3:30 p.m. today.

A CONTEST to determine NMSU's favorite professor will be held in the Student Union Concourse Wednesday through Friday. Students may place votes by donating money toward professors nominated for the award. Students with qualifying votes could win a dinner at one of two area restaurants. The winning professor receives a dinner for two at Bonfoey Inn. The event is sponsored by Psi Chi honor fraternity in psychology.

SUMMER CLASS SCHEDULES and admission applications for the University of Missouri-St. Louis are being made available to NMSU students. Contact Laura Harris, admissions secretary, in the Admissions Office, 205 Administration/Humanities Building.

JOB INTERVIEWS with the following companies will be conducted this week: M.F.A., Inc. on Monday; Missouri Board of Probation and Parole on Tuesday; St. Louis County Police Dept. Wednesday; Susie's Casuals and FS Services Thursday and Friday; and Southwestern Bell Telephone Friday. Additional information may be obtained from the Career Planning and Placement Center, first floor Blanton Hall. Students must sign up for interviews at the center.

A CHEERLEADING CLINIC will be held at 3:30 p.m. in Kirk Gym April 6. Tryout dates will be announced at that time. All interested men and women are encouraged to attend.

THE ANNUAL BLUE KEY SCHOLAR QUIZ will be held from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday in the Student Union Building. Area high school students will compete in double elimination competition. The public is welcome to view the tournament.

AN AWARDS BANQUET is being sponsored by the Agriculture Club and the Production Credit Association at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Tickets to the banquet are $6.50 per person and are available in 129 Industrial Education Building.

AN OPEN HOUSE will be held at Grim Hall from 7:30-9:30 p.m. today. Refreshments will be provided. The event is sponsored by the Grim Hall Council.

A TRIP TO SIX FLAGS OVER MID-AMERICA is planned for April 12 by the Student Activities Board. Sign-up begins today in the SAB Office, Student Union Concourse. A $10 deposit is required upon sign-up. Total cost of the trip is $14 for SAB cardholders and $16 for others. Cost includes transportation and tickets. Forty spaces on the University charter bus are open. Call the SAB Office at 785-4189 for additional information.

ALPHA AND OMEGA religious organization will sponsor a Concert on the Rock. The concert, featuring local Christian artists, will be from 7:30-9:30 p.m. April 4 in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. A 50 cent donation is requested.

CAMPUS VOLUNTEERS will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 201 Violette Hall. The meeting is open to interested individuals.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION CLUB will meet to elect next year's officers. The meeting will be held at 3:45 p.m. Wednesday in 230 Violette Hall. Interested education majors are invited to attend.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION PARTY will hold a meeting to plan its 1981-82 Student Senate campaign. Party members and interested persons are welcome. The meeting is at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Room 2 of the Student Union Building.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS will hold an open meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday in Room 3 of the Student Union Building. All interested students are invited to attend.

THE ASSOCIATION OF BLACK COLLEGIANS will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday in 106 Laughlin Building. Wayne Newman, director of financial aids, will be present to talk on the Pell Grant and other aid available to black students. All interested persons are welcome.

STUDENT COUNCIL FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN will hold an organizational meeting on Special Olympics at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in 172 Violette Hall. Anyone interested in being a chaperone is encouraged to attend the meeting. For more information or if unable to attend, contact members Pam Warren, 785-5686, or Susan Vornkahl, 785-5983.

HAPPENINGS

THE ANNUAL BALDWIN LECTURE will be at 6:30 p.m. March 31 in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Tickets to the banquet and lecture are $5 and may be reserved through the Alumni Office, McKinney Center, at 785-4125. Kenneth Ashworth, commissioner of education for the state of Texas, will be the featured speaker.

CHRIS SIZEMORE, author of "I'm Eve" and subject of the book, "Three Faces of Eve," will present a program at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets to the program are available in the Student Activities Board Office, Student Union Concourse, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. through Wednesday. Cost is $1 or free with an SAB card. Cardholders, however, must secure tickets to insure seats in the auditorium. The event is being presented by SAB and the Psychology Club.

THE MEN'S BASEBALL TEAM will host William Penn (Iowa) at 2 p.m. Tuesday and Quincy College (Ill.) at 1 p.m. Saturday. Both games will be played at the University baseball field.

"DRESSED TO KILL," starring Angie Dickinson, will be the Student Activities Board movie presentation at 7 and 9 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission to the film is $1 or free with an SAB card.

AN OUTDOOR QUADRANGULAR TOURNAMENT of the men's tennis team will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday and Sunday at the University tennis courts. NMSU, Central Missouri State University-Warrensburg, University of Missouri-Rolla and Western Illinois University-Macomb will participate.

NEWMAN CENTER has three events planned for this weekend. From 8-11 p.m. Friday, a coffee house will be held at Mary Immaculate Parish Gym, 715 Washington St. Anyone interested in performing should contact the Newman Center at 665-4357. A sexuality seminar will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday at the Newman Center, 414 W. Dodson St. From 2-6 p.m. Sunday, Part I of the Pre-Cana Marriage Preparation program will be presented.

GREEK WEEK BEGINS March 30. Activities include coronation of the Greek Week King and Queen, a torch walk and bonfire, the All-Star basketball game, Greek Alcohol Awareness Network programs, "Chiller Movies," Variety Night, Casino Night and Greek Olympics.

DAVE BRUBECK QUARTET will perform at 8 p.m. April 8 in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets to the concert, a presentation by the Student Activities Board and the Lyceum Committee, are $2 or free with an SAB card. Tickets will be available from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. beginning Thursday in the SAB Office, Student Union Concourse. All cardholders interested in attending the performance must secure a ticket to insure a seat in the auditorium.

NORTHEAST NOTES

Jim Thomas, Language and Literature, has been notified by John Rothfork, editor of New Mexico Humanities Review, that Thomas' poem "Windbreak" will appear in a future issue of the magazine.

Eun-Ja Kim, Special Programs, presented her paper, "Teaching English to the Bilingual Child," at the National Council for the Exceptional Child conference on bilingual education held in New Orleans last month.

Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, had his translation of "Summons and Sign: Poems by Dagmar Nick," reviewed in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Also, a book Barnes co-authored, "Carriers of the Dream Wheel," will soon be issued by Harper and Row in a paperback edition. The clothbound edition was printed in 1975.

Heinz Woehlk, Language and Literature, recently presented a paper to the Bible as Literature Section of the Colorado Language Arts Society on humor in the Bible.

Janet Cherry, Business, presented a program on the Certified Professional Secretary rating and Professionalism in Business for chapter officers throughout the Missouri Division of Professional Secretaries International in Columbia.

Gene Wunder, attended the annual meeting of the Southwestern Finance and Southwestern Marketing associations in New Orleans, La., from March 4-7. Wunder participated in the discussions of three papers presented at the meeting.

Renee Rhodes, sophomore, was the February winner of the Idea-of-the-Month contest. Her idea was to place one or two maps in the Student Union Building to aid students in locating the rooms they are looking for. Rhodes' idea will be entered in the Idea-of-the-Year contest.

Bob Weith, Housing, was recently selected to be the newsletter editor of the Missouri College Personnel Association.

L. Scott Ellis, Science, has recently had an article titled "Quantitative Immunological Studies of the Albumins of North American Squirrels, Family Sciuridae," published in Comparative Biochemistry and Physiology.

"NORTHEAST TODAY" is published weekly on Mondays. The deadline for turning articles in to "Northeast Today" is 5 p.m. Wednesday. Items should be typed and brought to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center.