STUDENTS in the class "Teaching of Secondary Mathematics" have prepared several displays dealing with mathematics. These exhibits will go on display in the library this afternoon.

ALL UNDERGRADUATES planning to finish degree requirements in December must file for graduation with the Registrar's Office prior to Friday.

WINDFALL LITERARY MAGAZINE invites all students, faculty, and staff to submit poetry, short stories, essays and short dramas for the upcoming issue. Manuscripts should be typed including a cover sheet. A self-addressed stamped envelope and a few notes about the author should be included. Manuscripts should be placed in the Windfall mailbox in the Student Union Building Office by Oct. 24 for consideration for the fall issue.

THE UNITED WAY fund drive begins its general campus efforts tomorrow with the distribution of pledge cards through the various campus divisions.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA honor society will meet at 5:30 tonight in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Any student with a 3.0 GPA for 2 consecutive semesters in high school or college is invited to join. Initiation of new members will be held at tonight's meeting. For more information, contact John Holke, APS member, at 665-9956.

DENNIS HALL, a student who recently visited the Philippines, will discuss his trip and give a slide presentation at 7 tonight in the Fourth Floor Lounge of Dobson Hall. The program is sponsored by Jeff Roberts, resident assistant in Dobson Hall.

A BAKE SALE will be sponsored by Alpha Sigma Tau from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. tomorrow at the north door of Violette Hall.

THE ENGLISH CLUB will meet at 4 p.m. tomorrow in 325 Administration/Humanities Building. The program, "Tips on Teaching Junior High," will be presented by Becky Osborn, Kirksville junior high teacher. Refreshments will be served. English majors or anyone interested in the English Club may attend. For further information, contact Dr. Hugh Moore, advisor, ext. 2164.

SIGMA TAU DELTA, national English honorary society, will meet at 4:45 p.m. tomorrow on the third floor of the Administration/Humanities Building. Officers will be elected. For more information, contact Dr. Connie Sutherland, ext. 2076, 334 Administration/Humanities Building.

THE "CLASSIC SERIES" MOVIES this week will be "Intruder in the Dust." It will be at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Admission is free to holders of Student Activities Cards and 50 cents to all others.

A CONFERENCE on "Strategies for Preventing Developmental Disabilities" will be from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. All students, faculty and staff are invited to attend the program which will be sponsored by the Missouri Association for Retarded Citizens.

AN EXHIBITION OF WEAVINGS called "Sky Grids and Other Concepts" by Arturo Sandoval will open at noon Wednesday in the Art Gallery, Baldwin Hall. Sandoval will present a slide talk on the exhibition at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Little Theatre, Baldwin Hall. An artist's reception will be at 7 p.m. in the gallery.

THE STUDENT NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION (SNEA) will meet at 4 p.m. Wednesday in 240 Violette Hall to view a film entitled "Last Hour Clash." This movie caricatures the frustration teachers feel when nothing they do seems to reach certain students, and suggests ways to deal with those frustrations. It uses humor and exaggeration to bring out the best and the worst of a concerned but bungling teacher, his "helping" friend, and the student, Sidney. Follow-up discussion will be led by Tom Reel, Missouri NEA representative. SNEA is open to all students interested in education. Everyone is invited to view the film.

CIRCLE K will meet at 6 p.m. Wednesday in Room 3 of the Student Union Building. New members are welcome. Circle K is a service organization currently planning parties and service projects. Students wanting more information on Circle K should contact Bob Steffes, district lieutenant governor for Circle K, at 665-6986.

STUDENTS INTERESTED IN BECOMING A BIG BROTHER OR BIG SISTER should attend a meeting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in 208 Laughlin Building. There is a long list of children who want a Big Brother or Sister.

THE NORTHEAST MISSOURI CREDIT UNION has moved to 104 Baldwin Hall. The new phone number is ext. 7777. If no answer, call ext. 7222.

THE NORTHEAST MISSOURI CREDIT UNION ANNUAL MEETING will be at 4 p.m. Thursday in the Little Theatre of Baldwin Hall. All members are urged to attend.

THE CAMPUS FREE FIRE PROGRAM is being sponsored by the Blackjack Rifle and Pistol Club again this year. All students, faculty and staff interested in improving their marksmanship skills are invited to participate in the program. Persons who have never handled a firearm before will be given a class on safe handling of firearms and home firearm safety. Free fire hours are from 6-8:30 p.m. Wednesdays and 1-5 p.m. Fridays. The rifle range is located in the basement of Brewer Hall. For more information, contact Staff Sgt. Bennie Morgan, instructor of military science, at ext. 2730.

THE NEW 1977/79 UNDERGRADUATE CATALOGS now are available to students and may be picked up at the Publications Office, McKinney Center.

NORTHEAST MISSOURI TEACHERS ASSOCIATION MEETING will be held on campus Friday. Classes will be dismissed. Approximately 20 companies will have textbook exhibitions in Violette Hall Friday in conjunction with the teachers meeting. All University offices and Pickler Memorial Library will hold regular hours.
