FOREWORD

Time has a way of increasing the values and softening the harder points of events which have happened in the past. In days to come, many of us will stop momentarily to reflect on the happenings of the college year '50-'51. It is the hope of the staff that when this pause arises the 1951 Echo will be hauled down from its dusty position on the shelf and opened again. With this thought in mind, we have accumulated for your reflections the events of this particular school year. We of the staff have attempted to record these changes as they have affected our day to day college life and have also tried to catch a little of those intangible things which we know of as "the old college spirit."

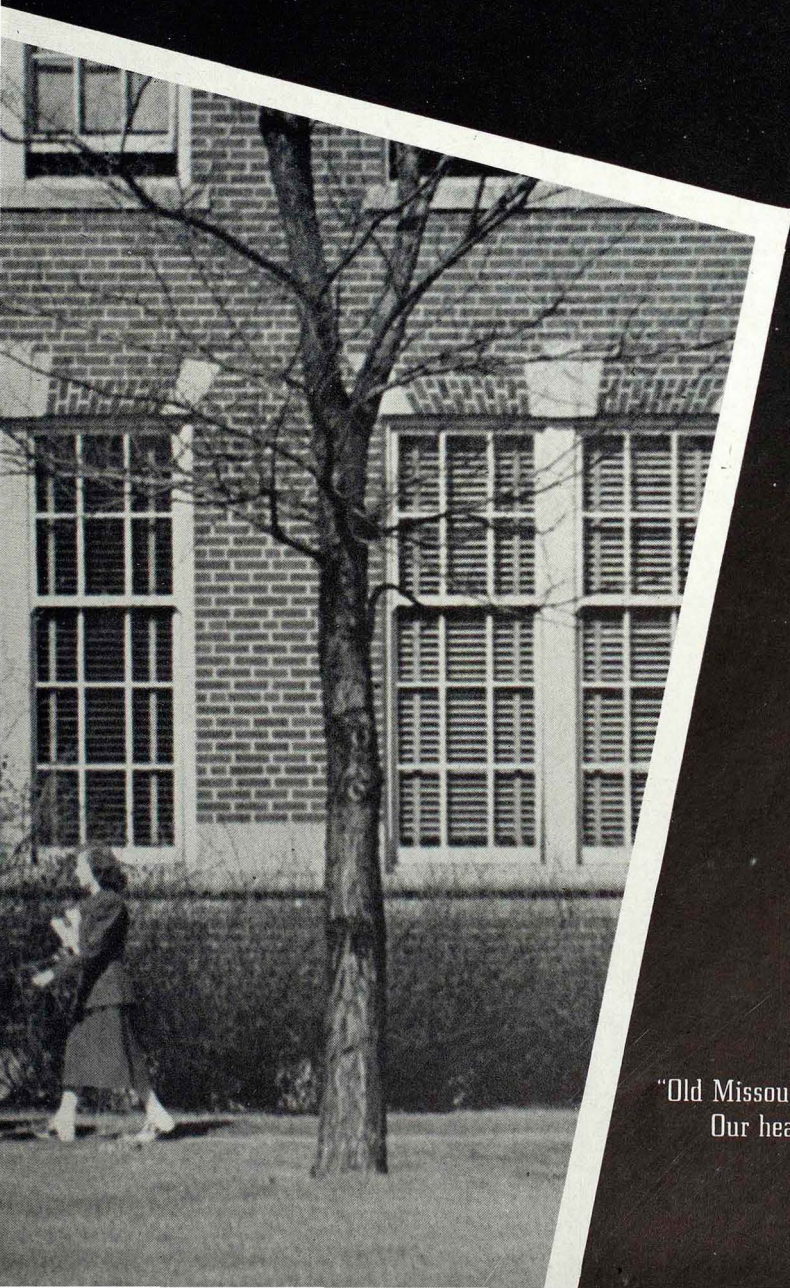

Above all this is your book. Yours to glance through in those yet-to-come moments of retrospect and remembering. Perhaps nothing will be better remembered when the years have passed than the old school song, so what could be more fitting now as well as then to renew our memories with those inspiring words

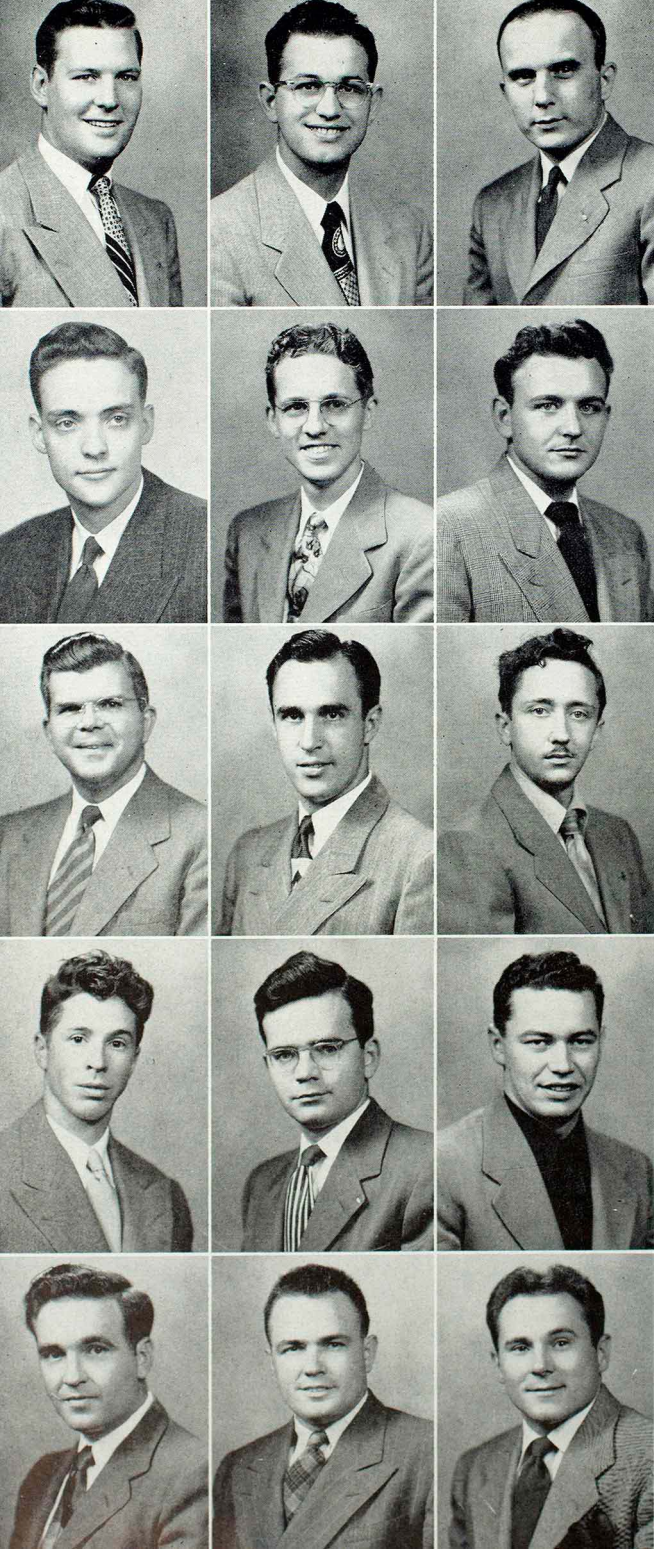

"Old Missou" and "Old Missouri,"
Our hearts the school has won,
Fondly cling we to the mem'ry,
Of old "Missouri's Son."
Gladly thee our hearts we tender
By the dim and flick'ring light,
Every lad a proud defender
Of the Purple and the White

The sponsors of the sophomore class take an active part in class activities and can be counted on to give guidance and advice when it is needed. Dr. Nan E. Wade and Dr. Hamilton P. Easton were the guiding force behind officers Chris Martin, president; Burl Arnold, vice-president; Peggy Cullen, secretary-treasurer; Al Howard, council man; and Ann Sue Rogers, council woman.

The difficult job of the freshman class sponsor is to assist the new students in making adjustments, solving the problems that may arise, and becoming acquainted with the school. Mrs. Irene Dailey and Eli F. Mittler extended a welcoming hand to the freshmen this year, and assisted officers Monte Wike, president; Bob Schnucker, vice-president; Constance Hanson, secretary; Marvin Silver, treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Lots of work and little glory, the usual fate of student governments, has made no exception of the Teachers College Student Council. This hard-working council met each week, planned and presented dances from the smoothest formal to the Hard Times Dance, conducted receptions, parties, and other all-school entertainment. Dr. C. H. Allen is the council adviser.

Jack Kelly, president, was ably assisted this year by Bill Holmes, vice president; Mary Bliss, secretary; Ilene Guffey, treasurer; Councilwoman Pat McAnulty; Councilman Linus Dowell; and Council member-at-large Margaret Stewart. Class representatives were John Ritter and Mike Mickalek, freshmen; Al Howard and Ann Sue Rogers, sophomores; Dwight DeRosear and Martha Bess James, juniors; David Gooch, senior.

This year's activities included the freshman orientation program, the all-school show, the Homecoming dance, open houses, the Christmas dance, payment of half of the expense of the cheerleaders' sweaters, and the Echo dance.

The Constitution of the Student Association of the Northeast Missouri State Teachers College was revised in October to limit and expand the power of the student.

Student body elections with their poster wars, campaign badges, and rallies stir up the campus each spring as the next year's officers are elected. This year's election was held on May 1. With all this excitement these students do have a serious job—that of keeping the student body activities functioning and running smoothly.

The Student Social Committee is organized for the purpose of serving the students and providing a well-rounded program of interest and entertainment for the student throughout the school year.

Social activities of the year were begun with the Freshman Frolic during freshman orientation. Through the year the Social Committee sponsored open houses, teas, square dances, Hard Times Day Dance, and the spring picnic. The year's activities were highlighted with three big dances, the Homecoming Dance with Don Ragon's dance band, the Christmas Dance with Charles Drake's band, and the Echo Dance.

Headed by members of the Student Council and acting under its supervision, the Student Social Committee was made up of student volunteers. Dave Gooch acted as chairman of the committee with the help of Henry Scott, assistant, and Elaine Meyer, secretary. Mary Kerr, secretary to the Dean of Women, acted as adviser this year.

Volunteer members of the committee this year were Burl Arnold, Donna Bunch, Madalyn Dixon, Lois Dye, Marie Fleming, Glen Fugate, Mary Lou Love'ace, Elaine Meyer, Jean McCollom, Mike Mickalek, Martha Roy, Anna Lou Salladay, Henry Scott, Dick Vaughn, and Brownie Veach.

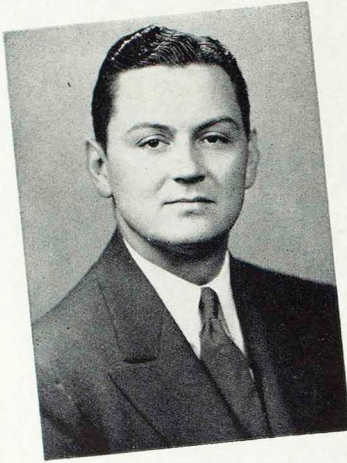

At the weekly meetings of the committee the members discussed and attempted to solve problems of the students.

Thus the Student Social Committee took the lead in making campus life more interesting and entertaining.

BAND

The active Teachers College band, directed by Paul Strub, was a featured attraction at football games, basketball games, and parades this year. The organization also took part in school affairs and held parties for its members.

Organized with a constitution, the band was under the direction of student-elected officers Don Shippee, president; Al Howard, vice president and Dorothy Frazer, secretary-treasurer.

Transformed into a fifty-five piece concert band the group toured the St. Louis area with the Nemo Singers to present twenty concerts at high schools from March 5-9. A pre-tour concert was presented in La Plata, and a post-tour concert in Kirk Auditorium on March 15.

WHO'S WHO

The college was honored this year in having 19 students selected for membership in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Nominees are chosen from the junior and senior classes by a faculty committee on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and future promise.

Members are given a certificate of recognition and a biographical listing in the annual directory.

The NEMO Singers, a cappella choir, came into being in November this year, when the need for a vocal ensemble for the band tour was felt.

Paul Strub, director, selected the group from the band and solicited the aid of eight non-band members to make a balanced group of 26 singers.

While preparing its tour program the group held rehearsals twice a week.

Snooping behind the scenes, getting the scoops, and faithfully reporting them to the student body were the achievements of the Teachers College Index staff this year under the guidance of Miss Agnes Slemmons and student editors. The newspaper again this year reported the latest news of clubs, sports, classes, students, and other activities, and thus became a valuable source of information for the students and faculty.

Marjorie Smith, Hannibal, drew the editorship for the fall quarter. Collecting and writing the news was the job of Maxine Kemplin, Margaret Casebeer, Mary Lou Clough, Kenneth Barker, David Strickler, Fritz Worrell, Wanda Kimbrell, and Bill Richmond. Frank Havis was the business manager and photographer.

Mary Lou Clough, Kirksville, became editor in the winter quarter and was assisted by Margaret Casebeer, Kenneth Barker, Fritz Worrell, Carrol Marge Smith, Mary Lou Clough, Fritz Worrell, Ann Sue Rogers, Editors.

Elsa, David Strickler, Anna Ruth Shinn, Marjorie Clough, Henry Simpson, Harold Kelley, and freshman reporters. Henry Scott took charge of the business matters, and the photography was done by Robert Schnucker.

The spring quarter saw Fritz Worrell, New Hartford, and Ann Sue Rogers, Brashear, as co-editors. Their staff consisted of Guy Burton, Delpha Syler and John Wohlschlaeger.

DRAMATICS

With the selection of "The Rivals" by Sheridan as the fall quarter production, the Teachers College dramatic season was in full swing.

The presentation, directed by Miss Betsy Worrell, was cast with Bill Traylor, Collette Cady, Paul Kaye, Dormalee Harrington, Peggy Browning, Rollie Houchins, David Rissler, Boyd Tibbles, Evelyn Parks, Jim Goeke, John Hubbartt, Don Scott, and June Dean. It was presented in the Little Theater November 7, 8, 9.

Hubbartt, Browne, Drake, Parcels, Goeke, Hanrahan, Scott in one-act play, "Common Clay."

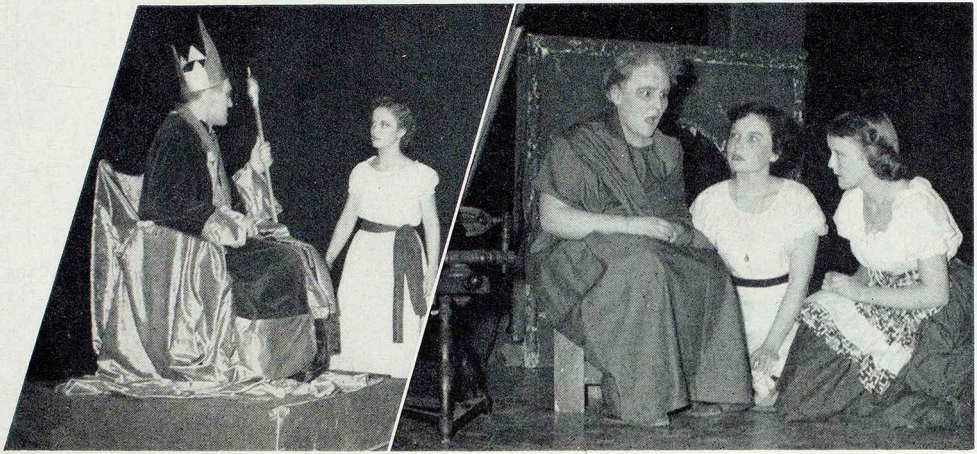

The production staff under the direction of Don Powell filled the theater with the eighteenth century atmosphere with elaborate settings and expert lighting.

In the eleventh annual Mid-West Speech Tournament held on the campus in November Bill Traylor placed first in the selected poetry division with his reading of "And So Today." Cecelia Tabler won second place in the original poetry division for her poem, "Fredric."

The Teachers College was unable to out do the contestants from Westminster, Rockhurst, and Bradley in the debate division. Rita Early, Laura Hulse, Fred Hanes, Paul Andereck, Walter Ryle, and Burleigh Arnold made a good showing as debate teams.

One-act plays in February provided entertainment for the student body and experience for the play direction class. Included on the two programs were "Riders to the Sea," directed by Collette Cady; "The Beggar and the King," Evelyn Parks; "Common Clay," Frances Parcels; "The Valiant," Donald Sanders; and "The Wonder Hat," Dixie Bowling.

DRAMATICS

"The Vocal Chords," choral reading group organized last year after the production of "Antigone," sprouted wings this year with the use of costumes, lighting effects, and modern dance. Directed by Miss Betsy Worrell, the group combines words and pantomime in presenting poetic selections.

Members of the group are Paul Kaye, Rollie Houchins, Frances Parcells, Martha Roy, Mignon McCurdy, Peggy Browning, Walter Ryle, and Bill Traylor.

Walter Ryle, Jr., Rollie Houchins, Peggy Browning, Frances Parcells, Mignon McCurdy, Martha Roy, Paul Kaye, Bill Traylor, members of Vocal Chords.

Something new in dramatics at the Teachers College was a successful experiment with the "theater-in-the-round." At an assembly program in March Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie" was presented in this fashion. The cast of the play included Miss Betsy Worrell, Jan Wimp, Gordon Grober, Bill Traylor.

"The Bishop's Mantle," by Marion L. Johnson, was selected as the spring show directed by Sherod Collins. Don Powell was in charge of stage settings.

OPERA

Following the successful presentation of the "Bartered Bride" last spring, Miss Phradie Wells directed the chorus to another success with the comic opera "El Capitan" by John Philip Sousa, presented this year April 18 and 20.

With the cooperation of the orchestra in providing musical accompaniment, the art department providing stage settings, and the speech department assisting with acting, the opera was a major production.

The cast of "El Capitan" included David Rissler as Don Medigua, Herschel Burris as Dom Cazarro, Raymond Goeke and Al Howard as Count Verrada, Judith Todd as Estrelde, Mary Jane Goeke and Anna Lynn Plenge as Isabel, Kathryn Doughty as Princess Marghanza, Don Scott as Scaramba, Marvin Yokum as Nevado, Neil Derrick as Montalba, Dale Brown as General Herbana, James Goeke and Alfred Leathers as Senor Pozzo.

Members of the chorus made up the choruses of Spanish and Peruvian ladies and gentlemen.

Backstage snapshots of the chorus for the "Bartered Bride."

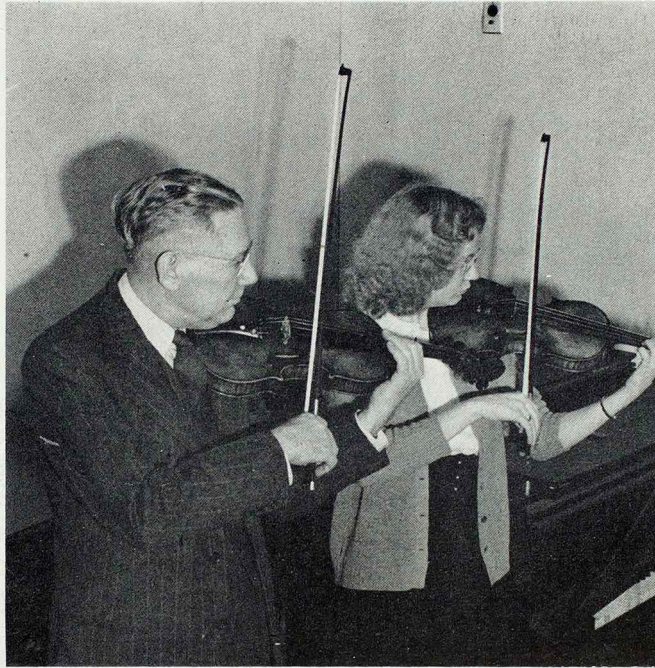

Directed by Karl Webb, head of the music department, the Teachers College orchestra of 30 pieces presented its first concert of the year in the Little Theater on February 18. The program included numbers by Bach, Gounod, Brahms, Schubert, and Tschaikowsky.

Students, faculty members, and townspeople volunteer their time for the orchestra rehearsals. This year's members were Raymond Brunner, Norma LaVoo, Bernadine Poe, Thomas Reed, George Rubin, Donald Sanders, Joan Schroder, Martha Wilson, Al Howard, Barbara Madorin, Kurt Ballard, Martha Roy, Ruth Cowan, Kathleen Guyer, Donna Lough, Leon Karel, Joetha Asher, John Hubbart, Don Shippee, Waneta Frazer, Mary Lou Clough, James Hanrahan, Robert Romine, Dick Finnerty, Marion Strohman, Irene Drennan, Robert Kneeland, Dorothy Frazer and Irwin Brick.

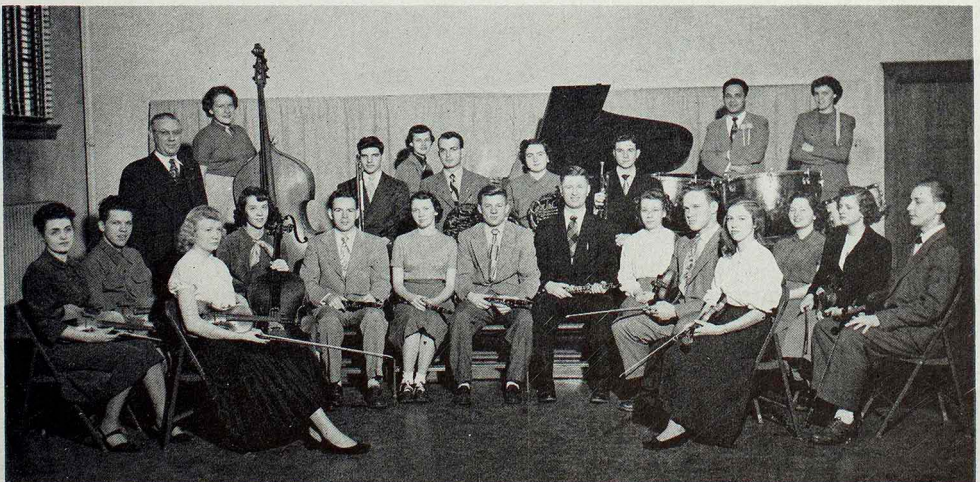

In addition to its spring concert the orchestra provided accompaniment for the chorus in the presentation of the opera, "El Capitan."

Karl Webb, director, instructs Norma LaVoo, first violinist.

Top right: Students turned out in numbers for the snake dance and bonfire after the pep rally. The preceding day Blue Keyers gathered together much wood and material to assure a huge fire in honor of the Queen and to continue pep and enthusiasm for the next day's activities.

As a result of the unceasing efforts of Blue Key, this year's Homecoming was bigger and better than ever. Homecoming activities crashed to a start with a pep rally in Kirk Auditorium on Friday, October 27. Complete with pep band, cheerleaders, and speakers, the rally roused the spirit and provided a queen for the next day.

With Bill Shinn, '49, as master of ceremonies pep talks were given by Sheriff Grossnickle and Coach Dougherty.

Highlighting the evening was the coronation of Susan Shale as Homecoming Queen. After the rally she was honored at the snake dance and bonfire.

HOMECOMING

Below: Climaxing two days of activity, the homecoming dance was held Saturday night in the Kirk Auditorium gymnasium. Tired but happy, the student body anticipates another homecoming to equal this one next year.

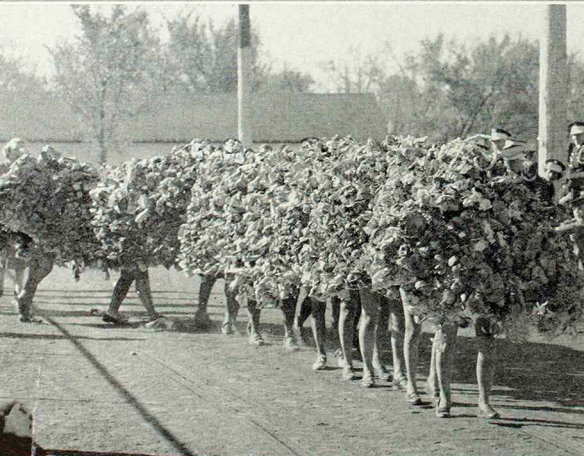

Above: Part of the large homecoming crowd eagerly awaits the opening kick-off and the battle between the Teachers College Bulldogs and the Warrensburg Mules. The Mules defeated a game and fighting Bulldog squad 33 to 12. The score, however, does not indicate the crowd-pleasing game that ruined an otherwise perfect homecoming.

One of the largest parades ever seen in Kirksville started from the college Saturday morning. Led by the Teachers College marching band, the parade contained about 60 units. High school bands were here from Brookfield, Macon, Unionville, Lancaster, Warrenton, Atlanta, Milan, Green City, Memphis, Fayette, Bucklin, Brunswick, Palmyra, Queen City, Allerton, Ia., Downing, Moberly, Edina, La Plata, Marceline, Salisbury.

The Mid-Century Founders Day and Homecoming Luncheon held Saturday noon in Sociability Hall celebrated the 83rd anniversary of the founding of the college, the Golden Anniversary of the class of 1900, and the Silver Anniversary of the class of 1925. Dr. Charles Garner, '25, was the main speaker, and Clifton Cornwell, '25, acted as toastmaster. President Ryle gave a short welcoming talk. Special music was presented.

Preceding the game with the Warrensburg Mules the queen and her court were introduced. In the royal court were Jean McGregor, Kathleen Guyer, Frances Parcels, Joan Schroder, Mille Hansen, and Nancy Caldwell.

Prize winning floats of the morning were paraded at the game. The Industrial Arts Club again took first place with its moving Merry-go-round float. Second prize went to Sigma Tau Gamma for "Trim the Pants Off Warrensburg." Sigma Sigma Sigma was awarded third prize for its "Worm Your Way Out of This One, Mules."

The sophomores defeated the freshmen for the third consecutive year in the tug-o-war before the game. The losers were doused with perfume.

A tired but spirited student body turned out for the annual Homecoming Dance held in Kirk Auditorium Saturday night to climax the Homecoming activities. Music was furnished by Don Ragon and his band.

CARNIVAL_____

The Student Council again made a name for itself in planning the All-School Carnival held this year on February 2. Under the direction of Jack Kelly, president, and Dr. C. H. Allen, adviser, council members supervised balloting, concessions, skits, and the coronation.

Climaxing the capers of the evening was the coronation of Wanda St. Clair and Bud Elam as Carnival Queen and King by Jack Kelly. A sophomore from Kahoka, Wanda represented Delta Sigma Epsilon. Bud, a junior from Brookfield, represented Phi Sigma Epsilon.

Making up the royal court were Donna Bunch, Alpha Sigma Alpha; Betty Couch, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Dorothy Scott, Pi Kappa Sigma; and Chris Martin, Sigma Tau Gamma. Escorts were Bill Traylor and David Janson.

Jim Stookey, '50, acted as master of ceremonies for the skits presented in Kirk Auditorium. The first prize skit, "A Faculty Council," was given by Phi Sigma Epsilon. Second prize went to Alpha Sigma Alpha for "School Spirit," and Sigma Tau Gamma was awarded third prize for its musical skit.

Always a prize winner without a prize, the faculty skit featured the "Messrs. of Song," the "Adenoids," and the "Bats from the Static Attic." It was directed by Charles "Chi-Chi" Kauzlarich.

With deadlines rearing their ugly heads around corners, and wintry afternoons and evenings spent in the upper room . . . such was the life of the Echo Staff members.

Editor David Janson spent a trying but satisfying year slowly putting together the 1951 Echo. Assistant Editor, Mary Lou Clough, contributed much more than her share of the time in learning the trade.

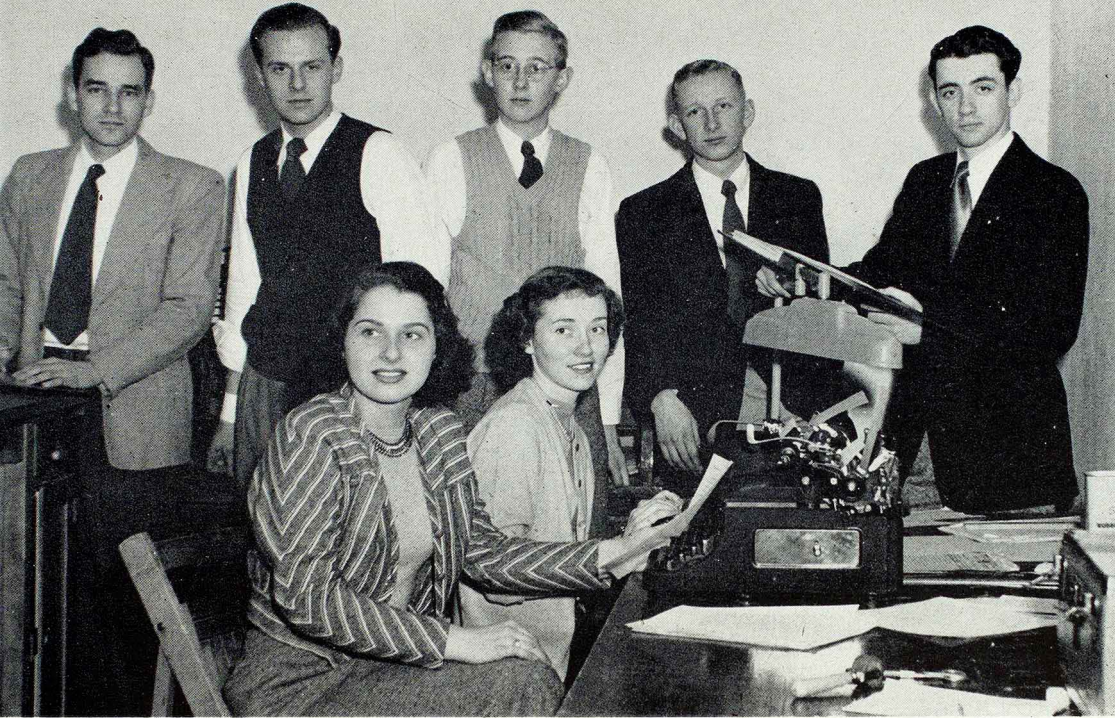

Frank Havis, Hugh Gardner, Bob Schnucker, and Don Murphy could be found at all hours in the dark room, trying for that next deadline.

GREENWOOD FACULTY

Greenwood Demonstration School provides an opportunity for Teachers College students to gain experience and learn techniques of teaching in the elementary grades through observation and participation.

Miss Willie Whitson, of the Teachers College department of education, is the principal of the six-grade elementary school. The school is administered and supervised by the college according to agreement with the Kirksville Board of Education.

Ophelia Parrish Junior High School, like Greenwood School, is administered on the basis of typical public school situations where college students may learn principles of administration, methods, and techniques of teaching and where they may experiment to bring about improvements.

Located on the Teachers College campus, the school has as its principal Felix Rothschild, of the department of education at the college.

STENOGRAPHIC OFFICE

With new office and equipment in Kirk Auditorium the Stenographic Office became a small business this year.

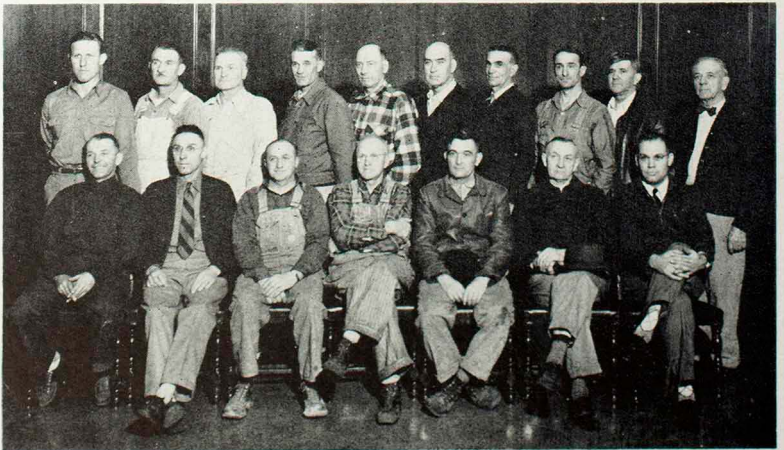

Mrs. Robert McKinney, John Goeke and Mrs. Emma Hudson make up the syllabi, tests, programs, and bulletins in this office.

Complete with vari-typer, copying camera, and off-set press, the office handles the printing needs of the college.

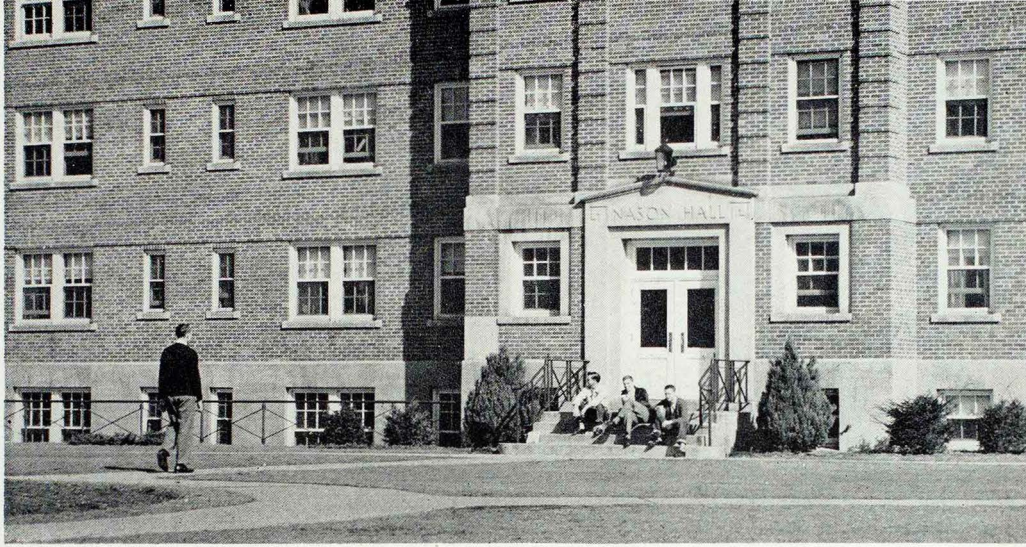

Vigorously but courteously fighting off the students in order to scrub and wax floors, paint, and keep the campus clean, the maintenance staff, superintended by Howard Morris, competently carries out its responsibilities in taking care of the buildings and grounds.

The gardeners on the force take pride in their shrubs, flowers, and landscaping in general.

BLUE KEY

Blue Key is an organization of men selected for outstanding qualities of scholarship, leadership and activity in college life. Membership is limited to only 20 active members on the campus, and members are chosen by other members from those men with 60 or more college hours, and who in their estimation meet the requirements for admission.

Blue Key's motto, "Serving, I Live," is the keynote of the fraternity's activities. Among the numerous activities carried out by the members are the planning and execution of the home-coming parade, a complete directory of students and faculty, as well as helping with smaller activities.

President Ed Grim assumed his duties in the fall, with vice-pres. Paul Kaye, secretary Warren Hamilton, and treas. Benjamin Bourn. Members were sorry to see sponsor Robert McKinney called to active duty in the Army. Richard Sullivan, summer sponsor, immediately took his place.

Members of Blue Key stand ready to help with any activity they can, when assistance is needed.

The organization has just completed its twenty-sixth year on the campus and awaits another year of service.

CARDINAL KEY

Cardinal Key, national honorary service sorority and sister organization to Blue Key, is an organization for women with outstanding qualities in scholarship and leadership in school life. This sorority stresses character development by application of the cardinal virtues of life.

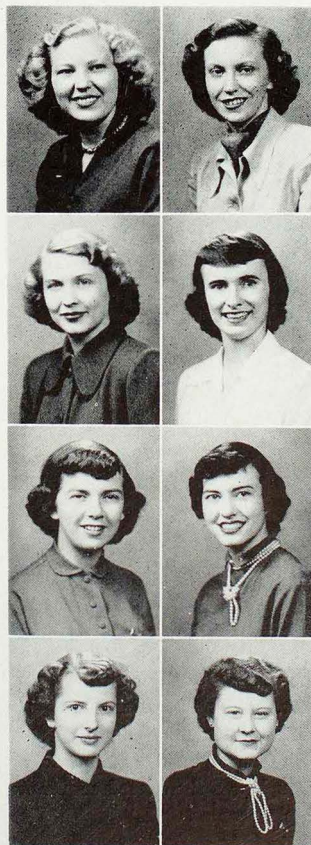

Membership in Cardinal Key is held by girls with at least sixty hours college credit and an "S" average scholastically. Members are selected by active members of the sorority and are approved by a faculty committee and the national office. Active membership is restricted to twenty members.

This year the following held honorary membership in the organization: Mia Snel, Alicia Prado, Helena Rydelius, Mille Hansen, Farida Fallah, Elena Lanzani, and Lenora Karch.

Miss Agnes Slemmons and Miss Nan Wade have sponsored the Eugene Fair chapter since its beginning on this campus.

Each year this service group sponsors the Cardinal Key Song Fest, sells Homecoming buttons, does welfare work at Christmas time, furnishes ushers for civic and college functions, and awards a scholarship to an outstanding student.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA

The celebration of the 20th anniversary of Alpha Phi Sigma at a convention on this campus in the summer was the highlight of Alpha chapter's year. The organization, for high school valedictorians, salutatorians, and honor students in college, was founded on this campus in 1930. Mary Lou Clough was the elected convention delegate from Alpha chapter.

Sponsored by Dr. Hans H. Hagemann, the fraternity had as its officers Joan Hook, president; Bess Appling, vice president; Mary Lou Clough, secretary; Oren Gale, treasurer.

During the fall quarter 33 new members were initiated, and a float was entered in the Homecoming parade. Balloons were sold at the Carnival in the winter quarter.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

Guided by its aims of service, leadership, and friendship, Epsilon chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, has had an eventful year in serving its four fields of service: school, community, nation, and Boy Scouts.

The new sponsor, Dr. Edgar Goold, was assisted by officers Jim Fox, president; Bill North and Ford Lowcock, vice presidents; Dwight DeRosear, secretary; Ray Henley, treasurer; Boyd Tibbles, corresponding secretary; John Wohlschlaeger, historian; and Russel Gilstrap, sergeant at arms.

Smokers for rushees and a banquet for the 24 pledges were social highlights in the fall.

The services of the fraternity were varied this year. At the Homecoming functions members were seen in action with a helping hand to all as well as a float in the parade. The fraternity also extended its service to the Bloodmobile by furnishing transportation for blood donors.

The chapter conducted the March of Dimes campaign at the college in the winter quarter. Cloak rooms were opened by Alpha Phi Omega at every big function of the school.

In the spring the fraternity served Kirksville's Boy Scouts by helping with Boy Scout Week and the Boy Scout Circus.

March 30 marked the beginning of the Ugliest Man contest sponsored by APO on the Teachers College campus. Designed to become an annual event, the contest offered a plaque and key to the winner.

KAPPA DELTA PI

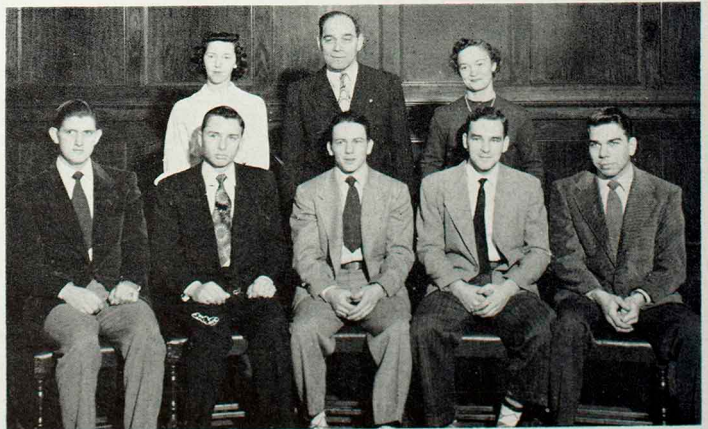

Tau chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary professional society, invites to membership students who show commendable personal qualities, worthy educational ideals, and sound scholarship.

Sponsored by Miss Berenice Beggs, the organization encourages high professional and personal standards.

Membership in Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic society sponsored by Sherod Collins, is acquired by successful debating, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking.

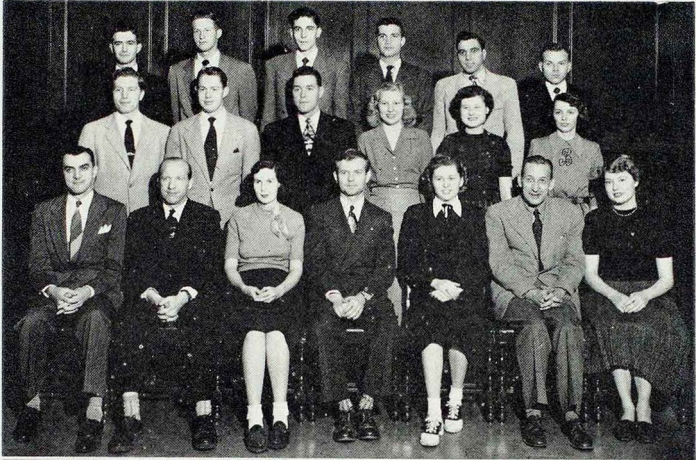

Each year the society sponsors the Freshman Debate Tournament and takes part in state and national tournaments.

PI OMEGA PI

To become eligible for membership in Pi Omega Pi, national honorary society in the field of business education, a student must have either fifteen hours of commercial work or ten hours of commercial work and five hours of education. He must also maintain an S average in his work.

Pi Omega Pi is sponsored by Charles Kaulzarich, professor of business education.

In February the following officers were elected: Saralou Andereck, president; Jim Waterman, vice president; Carolyn Page, secretary; Jim Drake, treasurer; Laura Ruth Hulse, historian; Shirley Troutman, editor.

They replaced officers Pat McAnulty, president; Mary Anne Jones, secretary; Earl Burrows, treasurer; Norma McKinney, historian.

AGRICULTURE CLUB

Creating an interest in agricultural and rural living, the "Ag" Club, sponsored by Norvell Allen, had a full calendar of professional and social events this year.

At the meetings held twice a month professional programs were furnished by farm specialists and motion pictures for the purpose of developing leadership, cooperation, and acquiring a better knowledge of current agricultural events.

For diversion from study and work the group held its annual Halloween "Barnwarmin'" and chili suppers in the fall in addition to entering a float in the Homecoming parade.

At the All-School Carnival the club sponsored a contest and gave two chickens as prizes.

Other activities of the year included operating a food stand at the Northeast Missouri Fair in Kirksville in August and organizing and maintaining the "Aggies," intramural basketball team. Social events such as card parties and dinner programs were held for the members and their guests throughout the year.

Again as in years past the Agriculture Club helped conduct the Future Farmers of America and agriculture divisions at the Northeast Missouri district contests. High schools from this district were represented in the two days of judging at this contest.

Dale Roberts headed the club this year and was assisted by Herbert Boyles, secretary.

The Little Theater was the scene of the activities of the College Players again this year under the officers Rollie Houchins, president; Paul Kaye, vice president; Shirley Truitt, secretary; and Peggy Browning, treasurer.

Members of the organization appeared in the fall play, "The Rivals," and assisted Don Powell with the construction of stage settings.

The winter quarter offered one-act plays directed by members of the play direction class. The two programs of plays included "Riders to the Sea," directed by Collette Cady; "The Beggar and the King," Evelyn Parks; "Common Clay," Frances Parcells; "The Valiant," Donald Sanders; and "Wonder Hat," Dixie Bowling.

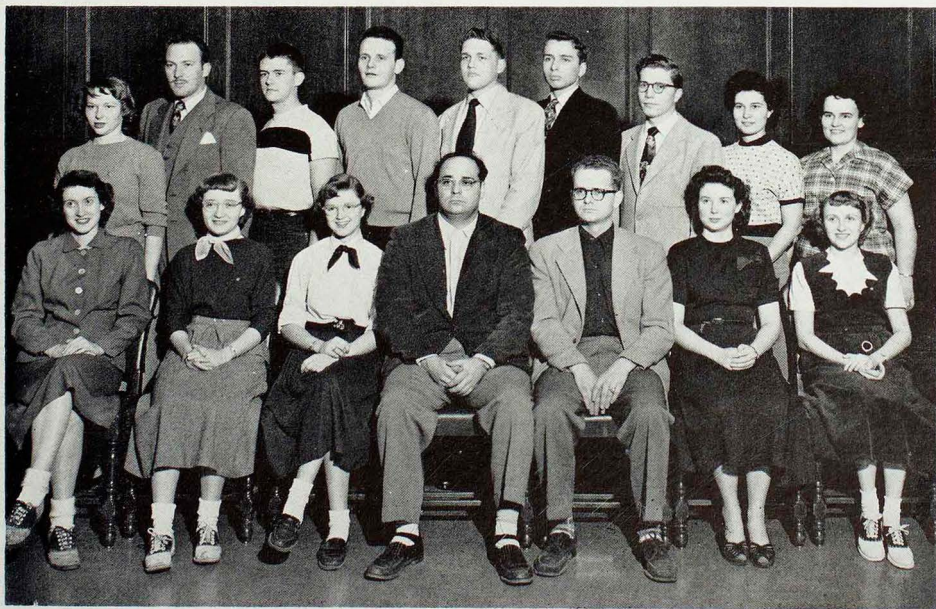

Members of the College Players acted in and helped with the construction of the set for the "theater-in-the-round" production of "The Glass Menagerie" for an assembly program in March. Cast in the play were Miss Betsy Worrell, Jan Wimp, Gordon Grober, and Bill Traylor.

"The Bishop's Mantle" was chosen as the spring play directed by Sherod Collins. Again the College Players appeared as actors and stage crew.

A branch of the College Players is the Thalian Guild. Veteran actors become members of this organization through experience in acting, directing and stage production. Members are Rollie Houchins, Paul Kaye, Bill Traylor, Boyd Tibbles.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Historical Society, the oldest society on the Teachers College campus, had varied and interesting programs this year with student, faculty, and outside speakers. Dr. H. P. Easton acted as sponsor in the absence of Dr. Pauline Knobbs.

A tea honoring the new members was the first function of the society this year. The organization also took part in Homecoming.

A special feature of the year was the tea and reception given in honor of Prince Otto of Austria when he visited the Teachers College campus.

Climaxing the events of the year was the annual spring banquet for members of the society and faculty members in the social science division. Dr. Walter H. Ryle was the featured speaker at the banquet.

Row 1: Lawrence Kish, Raymond Crist, Jay Milligan, John Newman, Howard Cummins, Andrew Jorgensen, treasurer; Glenn Frenzen, president; Duane Cole, sponsor. INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

Open to students having ten hours of industrial arts and above an M in scholarship, the Industrial Arts Club encourages higher scholarship and better professional standards among the students.

The club aims especially to promote the social and professional standing of the students majoring or minoring in Industrial Arts.

In the Homecoming parade the Industrial Arts Club came out on top with first prize for its float. Club members spent many hours building the moving Merry-go-round with Mules and Bulldogs as the riding horses.

At Christmas time the members of the organization put Santa and his sleigh on the roof of the Industrial Arts building and built a Nativity scene for the lawn. To further the Christmas spirit the club sponsored a party for the children of Kirksville in the Industrial Arts buildings.

Officers of the club this year were Glenn Frenzen, president; Lyle Hellyer, vice president; and Andrew Jorgensen, secretary. The faculty sponsor is Duane Cole.

At the regular meetings of the club the members heard speakers and saw movies concerning Industrial Arts.

For the first time at the Teachers College the Industrial Arts Club displayed in Baldwin Hall articles made in the wood-working department in March this year. This is to become an annual event.

AEOLIAN CLUB

Music students have the privilege of joining this club which is an honorary music organization.

The main purpose of the club is to create a fellowship among music students who are members. Among the activities of the year are talks to members by outside speakers.

In its study of the growth and development of the child, this organization of elementary education majors had as a project this year the teaching of a polio patient in a Kirksville hospital.

ELLEN H. RICHARDS CLUB

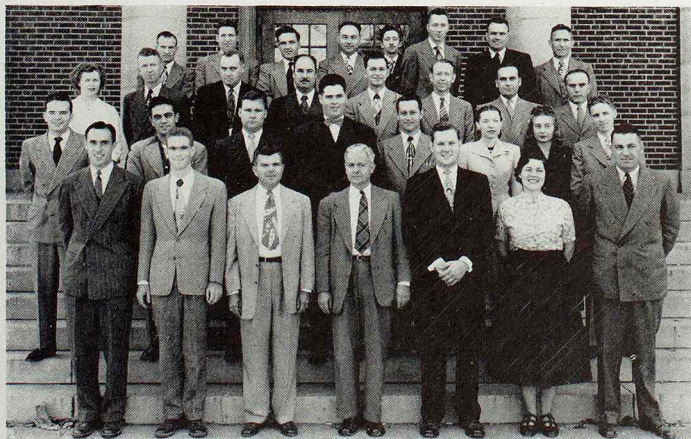

Graduate students organized again this year for the purpose of the general benefit of the group and for the advancement of education on the higher level.

Group meetings were held on Monday nights under the supervision of Robert Rodney, head of the English Department.

This organization, named for a pioneer in home economics, is made up of students interested in home economics. The theme of the club meetings this year was hobbies.

The year's activities included making cookies for teas and special occasions on the campus and buying a piano for the home economics center.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

Organized for furthering the relations between foreign students and students of foreign languages, the International Club, sponsored by Dr. Nan Wade and Mrs. Noemy Jibben, carries on many activities.

The biggest event of the year is the dinner to which each foreign student brings a dish representative of his country.

With their sponsor, Dr. Albert Kline, the members of the Pre-Osteopathic Club study science and medicine.

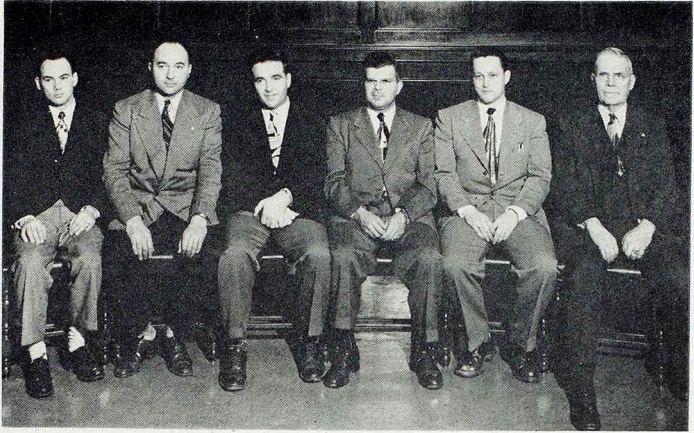

At the monthly meetings of the club speakers from the Teachers College and from the College of Osteopathy and Surgery explain interesting phases of science and discuss medicine.

SQUARE AND COMPASS CLUB

In addition to the master undertaking of the opera, "El Capitan," presented in the spring, Miss Phradie Wells and the chorus of 70 voices made numerous other appearances.

Features of the fall quarter schedule were an assembly program of popular and classic music and a special program of Christmas songs.

Masonic students may benefit from this club that is maintained on the campus especially for them. Opportunity is given to the members to continue their study in the history and philosophy of Masonry under the guidance of Dr. W. J. Bray.

The organization is both educational and social in nature.

Snaps of the "little girls party" and the "circus" held in Macon.

President June Carol Martin was assisted by Jean McGregor, vice president; Jean Moore, secretary; Marjorie Johnson, treasurer, this year. Miss Alma K. Zoller is the Alpha sponsor.

And are we proud of Susan Shale, red-haired Queen of Homecoming. And then, of course, Jean Moore and Constance Hanson were candidates for Echo Queen. Peggy Cullen was chosen as Miss Kirksville and represented the town at the American Royal.

The Carnival skit concerning school spirit was awarded second prize in the contest. Donna Bunch ably represented Alpha Sigma Alpha as candidate for Carnival Queen.

Garnita Morrey was crowned "Sweetheart Queen" at the annual Sweetheart Dance held in February. Her attendants were Willie Chester and Donna Bunch.

The breakfast dance held May 5 honored the graduating seniors and ended the year of activity.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

Rushing season for Iota chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon consisted of a trip to Moo Land and a Happy Birthday party for its many rushees.

Twenty-six girls were pledged, and they showed their ingenuity in giving the "Top Hat Ball" in honor of the actives and a party for the graduating seniors.

With the sponsors, Mrs. Pauline Knobbs and Mrs. Irene Dailey, the following officers conducted a successful and eventful Delta Sigma Epsilon year: Genevieve Di Frederico, president; Pat McAnulty, vice president; Shirley Troutman, secretary; and Saralou Andereck, treasurer.

Homecoming festivities were set off to a good start with a breakfast for Delta Sigma alumnae. Kathleen Guyer was the Delta candidate for queen.

The "Pink Elephant Ball," complete with crooked champagne glasses and dizzying atmosphere, honored pledges, actives, and alumnae.

Words cannot express the pride of Delta Sigma Epsilon in Wanda St. Clair, Carnival Queen of 1951. The Carnival skit written by Fritz Worrell made a hit also.

To end the year's events the Delta Sigmas gave a tea for alumnae in March and held their annual spring formal dance in May.

PI KAPPA SIGMA

Twenty-six pledges went the Pi Kappa Sigma way as a result of rush teas and two rush parties, "Ye Olde Candlelight Inn," held at the home of the patroness, Mrs. Joel Sever, and the Chinese pajama party held in Greenwood gymnasium.

The pledges started the social ball rolling after the rush season with a hayride and wiener roast given in honor of the actives at the college farm. Alta Mae Rauer was elected president of the pledges and led their activities until they became actives.

Pi chapter was honored in having the Grand President of Pi Kappa Sigma, Mrs. Charles Gibson, as honored guest at the pledging services and a tea.

Louise Beauchamp had the honor of being crowned queen at the Hard Times Day Dance.

Homecoming saw Pi Kappa Sigmas working on a float and entering Nancy Caldwell in the race for Homecoming Queen.

In December the Pi Kappas transformed Sociability Hall into a "Snowflake Ball," a formal dance for the pledges.

The annual All-School Carnival brought Dorothy Scott to the public eye as a candidate for Carnival Queen. Members of the sorority took part in conducting a concession and performing in a skit also.

Pi Kappa Sigma ended the year with a grand touch by holding the annual "Spring Fantasy Dance" in the Park Auditorium in April.

Pi chapter had a very eventful year under the leadership of its sponsor, Miss Willie Whitson, and its capable officers, Shirley Finney, president; Nancy Caldwell, vice president; Norma La Voo, secretary; Lucy Powell, corresponding secretary; Donna Hunter, treasurer; Mary Lou Lovelace, assistant treasurer; Jo Ann Madorin, editor; Mary Ellen Gilstrap, reporter and sergeant at arms; Anna Lou Salladay, keeper of the archives.

The annual fall rush parties proved great fun and competition for rushees was keen. Here are snaps of the Highland Fling breakfast.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Viola Magee and the leadership of Jean Cook, president; Marjorie Smith, vice president; Margaret Stewart, recording secretary; Carolyn Page, treasurer; Suzanne Vaughn, reporter of grades; Mary Jane Goeke, song leader; the Tri Sigma year was completely filled.

At Homecoming time Frances Parcels represented sorority as candidate for queen. The float in the Homecoming parade was awarded third prize.

One of the high spots of Sigma year was the Mystic Cavern formal dance for the pledges in the fall.

At Christmas time the actives and pledges had a party with Santa at the home of Shirley Truitt.

Betty June Couch was the Tri Sigma candidate for Carnival queen. At the Carnival the Sigmas, Deltas, and Sig Taus joined for the night club spot.

April found the Sigmas celebrating their Founders Day. Spring also saw Tri Sigmas at their spring formal.

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

Since 1921, when Beta chapter was established on the campus, Sigma Tau Gamma has been an organization striving to instill in its members the qualities of the true "college man." During the past year, Sig Taus have held many positions of responsibility and honor on the campus. Among these were president and thirteen members of Blue Key, Student Council president, three class presidents, editor of the Echo, Echo King, chairman of the Student Social Committee, six members of Who's Who, and many club presidents.

Beta chapter opened the rushing season with the annual smoker and '49er Rush Dance and when the smoke had cleared, 32 new "goats" had been enlightened with the secrets of the group. The chapter was well represented in athletics, taking first in the intramural volleyball tournament, and playing first division basketball. Varsity athletics saw six men on the football squad and three starters on the basketball five.

Among other events were second place in the homecoming float parade, and third place carnival skit. Under the leadership of Jack Kelly, president, and Dave Gooch, vice-president, Beta enjoyed another successful year.

Members were happy to have Mrs. Ollie Mason return for another year as housemother. A melancholy farewell was said to the women we loved, at the annual White Rose Formal.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

Another successful year was enjoyed by Gamma Chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon. The varsity gridiron was arrayed with Phi Sig talent: to be exact, six men. Two members boosted the basketball squad hopes, and in intramural athletics, both the volleyball and basketball teams finished in second place. In the annual all-college carnival, a Phi Sig again reigned as King, and the first place skit was ours.

Rush season again brought on the smoker and the annual Apache Dance. Fourteen new men were initiated into the fold, with Sawyer as pledge captain. In other campus activities, Phi Sigma Epsilon boasts three members of Blue Key, and a member of Who's Who.

An Alumni chili supper was held in October and later numerous beerbusts, and many other social events. 511 South Elson, was under the leadership of "Pete" Bourn, president; Brownie Veach, vice-president; and Jim Davis, secretary-treasurer; who handled their duties well. Along with Otho Barnett, sponsor, Gamma Chapter honored Richard Sullivan as new co-sponsor, along with Charles Kauzlarich.

On April 13 a mixer was held with sister sororities, Alpha Sigma Alpha and Pi Kappa Sigma, attending. The season drew to a close with the annual Spring Formal, May 11.

K-CLUB

The Northeast Missouri State Teachers College "K" Club was organized in 1934, and is an organization composed of athletes who have earned letters in inter-collegiate competition as representatives of the Bulldog teams. Boasting of its present membership of 30 and a large alumni membership, the "K" Club has as its purpose the establishment of high ideals and traditions for the athletes of this college to be preserved for posterity.

The club is unexcelled in spirit as well as number. The first meeting of the year saw the following officers assume their duties: Dan Wisely, president; Linus Dowell, vice president; Roger Biesemeyer, secretary; and Art Hochstedler handling the duties of treasurer. Jim Dougherty, head football coach, again acted as official college sponsor.

In addition to maintaining the high ideals in athletics, the club functions in a materially beneficial way throughout the year.

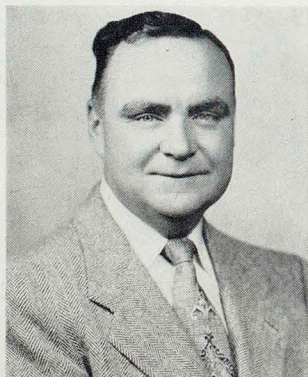

This is manifested in helping at the refreshment stands at sports functions, assisting at track meets, ushering at basketball games, as well as helping with the high school sub-regional basketball tourney held annually in Kirk Auditorium.

Not to be omitted is the influence of the "K" Club in furthering work on the college field, in the gymnasium, and on the campus.

Assuming his new duties as Head of the Athletic Department and Director of Athletics is Delbert Maddox, former basketball captain and all-conference player while here in school at the Teachers College.

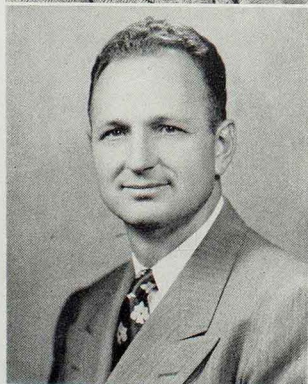

In basketball he lettered three years and in his senior year captained the team and was chosen all-conference. In 1937, Mr. Maddox went to the University of Missouri where he served as freshman football and basketball coach while doing graduate work.

In 1942, he entered the Navy to serve until 1945. After his discharge as a Lieutenant he came to the Teachers College in 1946 as physical education instructor.

Head football coach James Dougherty, a former Bulldog backfield star, took over the football reins for the Teachers College late in the 1945 season.

Coming to the college in 1928, he lettered for four years under the tutelage of Don Faurot. Upon graduation from the college he coached at Marceline, Neosho, Mountain Grove. He came to the Teachers College in 1945 to assume his duties as football coach.

Boyd King, assistant football and head basketball coach, joined the coaching staff in June, 1946. A graduate of the college here, King earned eleven varsity letters.

His previous coaching experience includes Pittsfield, Illinois high and Hannibal high. After serving in the armed services from 1943 to 1946, he went briefly back to Hannibal high and from there joined the coaching staff of the Teachers College here.

FOOTBALL

The Northeast Missouri State Teachers College Bulldogs were tougher this year than for many seasons previous, but so was the opposition they encountered. The fighting Bulldogs waltzed through their initial encounter with the Culver Stockton Wildcats 37-0.

The powerhouse Missouri Valley Vikings again defeated the Bulldogs 45 to 21 at Marshall. The score is not indicative of the hard-fought game, and a moral victory was earned by the Bulldogs. Journeying to Fayette the Bulldogs encountered stiff opposition but fought back finally to lose a heartbreaker to the Central Eagles 13-20, as the Eagles' ground attack was almost matched by the Bulldogs' aerial show.

The Kirksville Bulldogs opened the battle for the MIAA football championship October 6 at Springfield, battling the Bears to a 19-19 tie. The following week the Cape Girardeau Indians had to go home without a win over the Bulldogs in four years. The game was a tie, 13-13. The Rolla Miners proved to be too much for the Teachers, leaving them on the small end of a 47-7 score.

A perfect Homecoming was spoiled for the Teachers College by the Warrensburg Mules as they were forced to pass to win over the Bulldogs 33 to 13. In the final conference tilt of the season the Bulldogs, in a close do-or-die battle with the Maryville Bearcats, salvaged a tie game, 13-13.

For the second year, playing on a cold and windswept field, the Bulldogs came through in the final period to swamp the Missouri University "B" squad 35 to 18. The Dogs closed out the regular season with a record of 2 wins, 3 ties, and 4 losses.

The annual football banquet for members of the 1950 Bulldog squad and coaches James Dougherty, Boyd King, and Maurice Wade was held Wednesday, November 29, in the Blanton Hall dining room. Jim Zabel, sports director of station WHO, Des Moines, was the featured speaker.

Twenty-eight lettermen were named for the season by Coach Dougherty in addition to four provisional ones.

BASKETBALL

The Bulldog cagers came out on the long end of a rather inconsistent season, winning 11 games and losing 10 in the final season count. Coach Boyd King's boys dropped a thrilling season opener to the Central College Eagles 57 to 59 and didn't reach their winning stride until two games later when they defeated Simpson College 71 to 55.

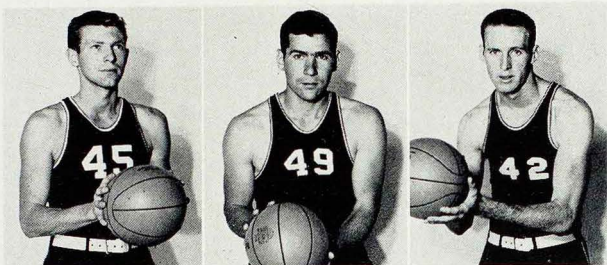

High scorer for the season was forward Earl Perry. He was followed by Bob Lawrence.

The Bulldog squad took four of its ten conference games ending the season in fourth place.

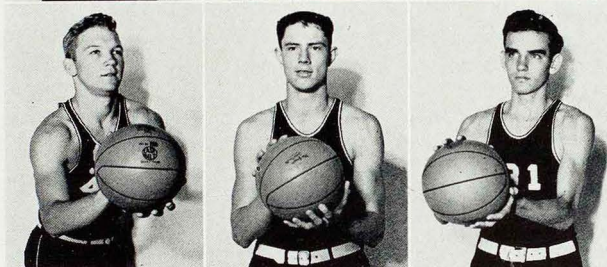

One of the outstanding games of the season was the surprising game given the Drake squad by the Bulldogs, who would not admit defeat until the final minutes of the game. The final score was 51-59.

Returning at the first of the season were lettermen Bill Commack, Ken Curtis, Sherman Hafner, Earl Perry, Bob Lawrence, and George Pohlkamp.

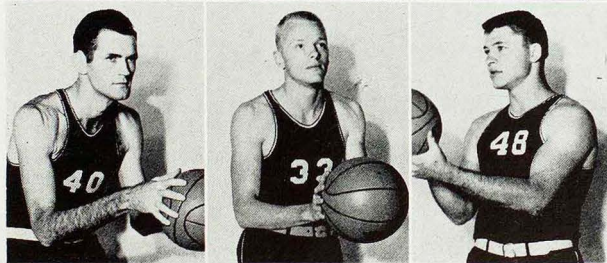

Emerging from the season three lettermen were added to the squad: Roy Collins, Laverne Dabney, and Willard Sims. Mid season drop-outs weakened the squad, but it was reorganized quickly.

TRACK

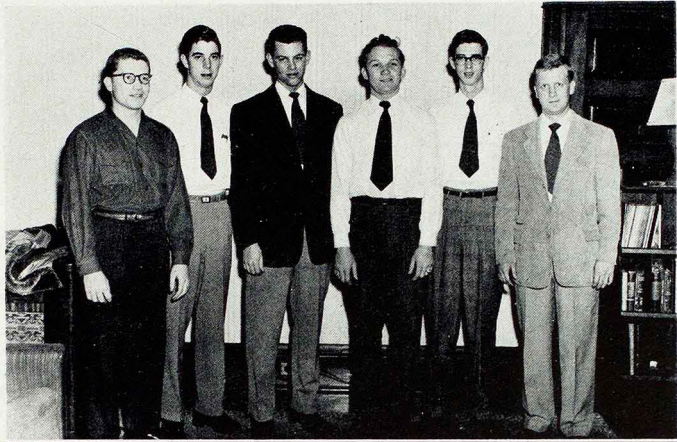

Spring time brought out a large, energetic track team which participated in all track and field events of the MIAA Conference. Meets saw keen competition which was met by fine play and sportsmanship.

Because of inclement weather early season practice was held in the gymnasium by the prospectives of Coach Boyd King. Track again occupied a small part of the inter-collegiate sports program this year.

INTRAMURALS

The men's intramural sports program got under way with the initiation of the volleyball schedule in October. Four teams entered competition, the Sig Taus, Phi Sigs, Faculty, and the Kats. A final tally saw the Sigma Tau Gamma squad emerge victorious in the post season play-offs. With the closing of he volleyball tournament the intramural basketball tournament was initiated into being with sixteen strong teams entering.

Teams were divided into purple and white brackets with the winner of each meeting for the championship. In the tourney final the Uncoordinates defeated the Phi Sigs to win the school title. Other intramural sports included tennis and horse-shoes.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

The Women's Athletic Association provides an interesting recreational program for women students. Membership is open to all girls interested in athletics. Its activities are many and varied.

During the fall quarter social dance classes for students were conducted each week. Proceeds from this project were used to buy award letters. A roller skating party for the student body was sponsored in February. March 31 was the date of the Folk Festival.

The organization supervised women's intramural volleyball, table tennis, badminton, shuffleboard, basketball, and softball tournaments throughout the year. Members of the group acted as referees and scorekeepers for the games.

Lucy Ann Powell, Mary Jane Murphy, Jackie Gray, and Willette Muff were delegates from WAA to the Athletic Federation of College Women at the University of Michigan, April 10-13.

The officers of the organization were Lucy Ann Powell, president; Mary Jane Murphy, vice president; Donna Hunter, secretary; Yvonne Wilgus, treasurer; Neva Harpham and Ann Sue Rogers, intramural chairmen; Willette Muff, social treasurer. Miss Kathryn Riddle is sponsor.

In the spring, a dinner held in Blanton Hall cafeteria climaxed the year with installation of new officers and presentation of awards and letters.

THE EDITOR SAYS:

And so another annual is stacked upon the shelf. The staff can not consider the year's work done until it has expressed its appreciation for the help of the people who are responsible for this book, both directly, by helping with the editorial content and by just cooperating when they were called upon to do so.

The cooperation of both students and faculty has been greatly appreciated and has gone a long way toward making this book. Then we have those behind-the-scene people without whose help this book would not have been possible. Our special thanks to Mr. Ralph Kolb, Burger-Baird Engraving Co., of Kansas City, Mr. Fred Bassman, Mid-State Printing Co., of Jefferson City and Mr. George Alexander of Alexander's Studio here in Kirksville, for his fine photography.

Thanks go to Mr. Harlan Long and Mr. and Mrs. Don Faurot for selecting our King and Queen, to the Student Council for their "contribution," Mr. Kenneth Sykes for loaning his negatives to us, and to the Stenographic Office for their endless work in preparing blanks for recording student statistics and information.

My gratitude to the 1951 Echo Staff for their cooperation, suggestions, and downright hard work. All have made their contributions to the success of your book and great credit should be given their help. Thanks, to Mr. Kurt Ballard, our sponsor, for his guiding hand and encouragement.

We of the staff hope you enjoy your Echo. You heard a lot about it while it was being compiled, and we hope that you are not disappointed. May it be a source of pride and enjoyment to all of you as time passes.

And now it's all yours!!

Sincerely yours,

David Janson
