

Northeast Today

MONDAY, Oct. 17, 1983

HAPPENINGS

TODAY, Oct. 17

6-9 p.m. Student Nurses Week, through Friday
CPR classes, VH 172, through Tuesday

TUESDAY, Oct. 18

9:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. Blood pressure booth, SUB, through
Wednesday
4 p.m. Men's soccer vs. Missouri Baptist, soccer field

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 19

7 p.m. Japanese Cultural Studies interest program, Alumni Room, SUB

THURSDAY, Oct. 20

10 a.m. Midterm
Health Services Career Day, Quiet
Lounge, SUB
8 p.m. St. Louis Symphony concert, Aud., BH

FRIDAY, Oct. 21

6:45 & 9:15 p.m. SAB movie, "Sophie's Choice," Aud., BH

NMSU LIVE is scheduled for 8 p.m. Sunday, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building.

LOST OR STOLEN BOOKS should be reported to Safety and Security from 7 to 10 a.m. Monday through Friday. Information obtained during these hours will be forwarded to the Campus Bookstore and the Student Bookstore.

KNEU CAMPUS RADIO STATION is sponsoring the Faculty Disc Jockey of the Month Show beginning today through Nov. 18. Michael Reiser, instructor of business administration; Sal Costa, instructor of psychology; and Chandler Monroe, professor of speech, are candidates for this month's half-hour show. Students should call the KNEU Office at 785-4506 or 785-5638 to vote on their choice.

HALLOWEEN-O-GRAMS will be sold for 50 cents between 4:30 and 6:30 p.m. daily, in hall cafeterias by the women of Towne House, Centennial Hall.

THE ECHO is now accepting applications for the position of business manager. Applications are available in the ECHO Office, 305 Laughlin Building. Deadline for applications is Oct. 24.

A BIOTECHNOLOGY SEMINAR will be presented by Dr. Ravi Sidhu of Monsanto at 4:30 p.m. Oct. 27, in 106 Laughlin Building. Sidhu will describe research and career opportunities at Monsanto. All interested individuals are invited.

STUDENT NURSES WEEK runs today through Friday. Today is "button day" and free CPR classes will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. tonight in 172 Violette Hall for those pre-registered. Nurses will offer free blood pressure screenings from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, in the Student Union Building. They will sponsor a "Nurse of the Week" contest, charging voters one cent per vote. Proceeds will go to United Way. "Prospective Payment, Health Care, Competition and the Nursing Program" will be the topic of a speech presented by Elsie Simms, head of the Division of Nursing, at 7 p.m. Wednesday, in 172 Violette Hall. The third annual Health Services Career Recruiting Day will begin at 10 a.m. Thursday, in the Quiet Lounge of the Student Union Building. Health-related majors are invited to participate and are encouraged to bring resumes. Friday will be "Rest and Relaxation" day across campus.

NMSU'S PORTION OF THE UNITED WAY CAMPAIGN in Adair County was the first to surpass its goal of $15,000. The University's current pledge amount is more than $15,348. The drive will continue throughout October and additional funds are needed.

THE DRAMA STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD will be accepting applications for lab show directors, designers and technicians. Play Direction is a prerequisite for all directors. The Board will also accept one-act play scripts for the lab shows, until Friday. For more information, contact the theatre department or Alfred Srnka at 785-4519.

THE HOME ECONOMICS DIVISION and the St. Louis Dairy Council will sponsor "Imitations: The Nutrition Perspective," a video/teleconference featuring George Briggs, professor of nutrition at the University of California-Berkeley, from 7 to 9 p.m. Oct. 24, in 172 Violette Hall. Briggs will speak and answer questions via a teleconference hookup.

BIKE TOURS will leave at 1 p.m. every Sunday from the fountain outside the Student Union Building. The tours will be held for as long as the weather permits. Participants must supply their own bikes.

ALL STUDENT TEACHERS scheduled for placement during the 1984-85 academic year must participate in an orientation/enrollment session at 3:30 p.m. Oct. 24, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The general session will be followed by major area meetings conducted by student teacher supervisors.

AN EXHIBIT ON GERMAN IMMIGRANTS, "300 Years of German Immigrants in America," will be set up Monday through Saturday in the display cases in the Student Union Building. The exhibit will feature posters, books and other printed materials. The display is part of the activities taking place in the Federal Republic of Germany and the United States in celebration of the tricentennial of German immigration to America.

MONDAY

A STUDY SKILLS SESSION will be held at 6 p.m. tonight, in the Ryle Hall conference lounge. Interested students are invited to learn helpful tips for studying for midterms.

THE POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB will sponsor a presentation by Roger Morris, author and former government official, today, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. At 1:30 p.m., his topic will be "The 1984 Election: Will the Loyal Opposition Please Stand Up?" and at 3:30 p.m. he will present "Inside the Reagan Administration." Morris is a Harvard graduate, a former member of the U.S. Foreign Service and the National Security Council, has written critically acclaimed books on Henry Kissinger and Alexander Haig and is currently writing "The Making of the President: 1984" and a biography of Richard Nixon.

STUDENT SENATE APPLICATIONS for the temporary position of Senior Representative are available today through Friday in the Student Senate Office in the Student Union Building. The temporary position will begin Sunday and last through the end of the fall semester. The Student Senate constitution allows any position to be filled temporarily while an elected member is student teaching. Applications must be turned in by 5 p.m. Friday.

A FACULTY FLUTE RECITAL will be presented by Mary Jo White, instructor of music, at 8 p.m. tonight in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Janice Saffir, instructor of piano, will accompany the flutist performing works by J. S. Bach, Carl Reinecke, Henri Dutilleux and Robert Muczynski. Admission is free.

THE STUDENT ACTIVITIES BOARD will replace worn stickers between 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. today through Wednesday, in the SAB Office in the Student Union Building.

"FOOD FACTS AND FALLACIES: How to Maintain Your Weight While Eating in a Residence Hall" will be the topic of a program presented by Carol Friesen, instructor of home economics, at 7 p.m. tonight, in the Conference Room of Centennial Hall.

"KILLING US SOFTLY" will be the film presented at 9:30 tonight, in the 5th floor lounge of Centennial Hall and at 9 p.m. Tuesday, in Ryle Hall lounge. The film discusses the exploitation of women in advertising.

CAMPUS GOLD Girl Scouts will hold an organizational meeting at 6:30 p.m. tonight, in the Ryle Hall Lounge.

TUESDAY

"NATION AT RISK" will be the topic of a panel discussion presented by the Student National Education Association at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, in 302 Administration/Humanities Building. Daniel Ball, head of the Division of Education; Eva Jane Noe, assistant professor of special education; and Jackie Settlege, local NEA president, will be guest speakers. All interested people are invited.

TEL-ALUMNI SEMINARS will be held at 6 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday in 266 Violette Hall. Robert Dager, head of the Division of Business and David Clithero, staff assistant in alumni/development will present programs for the seminar. All callers for the Division of Business are required to attend one of the seminars.

MALE AND FEMALE RELATIONSHIPS will be the topic of discussion at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday, at the Newman Center. The program is an open discussion to help clarify values for the individual and will run every Tuesday night for seven weeks.

WEDNESDAY

THE AG CLUB will hold an open meeting at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, in 138 Barnett Hall.

AN INFORMATIONAL MEETING concerning the 1984 Japanese Language and Cultural Studies program will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. The meeting will feature a slide presentation of the 1983 trip and interaction with participants from the last two years. The exchange program with Hosei University in Tokyo runs from early May to late July, consisting of eight weeks of intensive study of the Japanese language and culture at NMSU and three weeks visiting Hosei University and the cities of Tokyo, Kyoto and Nara. The program is limited, so interested students should sign up as soon as possible.

INSURANCE QUESTIONS? Representatives from Blue Cross/Blue Shield will be on campus from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday, in Room 6 of the Student Union Building. Anyone with questions concerning the new health coverage is invited.

THE NMSU HISTORICAL SOCIETY will hold an open meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesday, in Room 6 of the Student Union Building.

AN ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING will be held by the Association of Childhood Education International at 4 p.m. Wednesday, in Room 2 of the Student Union Building. The meeting is open to interested individuals.

"ASSERTIVENESS IN YOUR RESIDENCE HALL" will be the topic of a program beginning at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, in the 5th floor lounge of Centennial Hall.

AN INTEREST MEETING for a winter ski trip to Steamboat Springs, Colo. will be held at 6 p.m. Wednesday, in 205 Violette Hall. The trip is scheduled for Jan. 1-9, sponsored by the Spartan Outdoor Club. For more information, contact Wayne Budrus at 785-4454.

THURSDAY

THE ST. LOUIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA will perform at 8 p.m. Thursday, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Free tickets will be available to students, faculty and staff today through Thursday in the Student Activities Board Office in the Student Union Building. The performance is sponsored by the NMSU Lyceum Series with financial assistance from the Missouri Arts Council and Union Electric Company.

THE HEALTH SERVICES CAREER and Recruitment Fair will begin at 10 a.m. Thursday, in the Quiet Lounge of the Student Union Building. For more information, contact the Career Planning and Placements Office, McKinney Center, 785-4237.

THE MICROCOMPUTER USERS GROUP will hold an organizational meeting from 4 to 5 p.m. Thursday, in 271 Violette Hall. The meeting is open to all owners/users of microcomputers.

A FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION representative will be on campus at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, in 112 Science Hall. The representative will hold a seminar discussing the purpose of the FDA. All interested individuals are invited.

FRIDAY

PRICE WATERHOUSE of St. Louis will be interviewing applicants Friday, in the Career Planning and Placements Center. Sign-up schedules for interviews are posted in the CPPC. Interviews are by appointment only. The company will be looking for graduates with degrees in accounting, business administration and computer science. Openings exist in audit, tax and management advisory service areas. The employer will interview Dec. 1983, May and Aug. 1984 graduates. For more information, contact the CPPC, 785-4237.

"SOPHIE'S CHOICE" is this week's SAB movie at 6:45 and 9:15 p.m. Friday, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Admission is $1.50 or free with an SAB sticker.

SHOOTING STAR TICKETS will go on sale Friday in the Student Activities Board Office in the Student Union Building. The tickets are $5 with an SAB sticker, $7 without and $9 general admission. The concert will be presented by SAB, Oct. 28, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. Albums will be given away at the concert.

SATURDAY

KNEU CAMPUS RADIO STATION will hold an orientation workshop for new disc jockeys and other interested people from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Saturday, in the KNEU Office, 303 Laughlin Building. There is no charge for the workshop.

A TENNIS DOUBLES TOURNAMENT for faculty and staff will begin at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, at the tennis courts south of Campbell Apartments. Entries for the tournament should be submitted to the Intramural Recreation Sports Office, 309 Pershing Building, 785-4467, or to Brian Campbell at 665-0091, as soon as possible. Faculty/staff members can play with a guest or another faculty member. The event is handicapped to allow all levels of proficiency a chance to win.

NORTHEAST NOTES

George Hartje, Libraries and Museums, was elected treasurer of MIDLNET at their annual meeting in Chicago, Sept. 22. MIDLNET is a network of libraries devoted to providing services in the states of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri and Wisconsin. Hartje was also elected as the first alternate delegate to the On-Line Cataloging Center Users Group representing the Missouri Library Network Corporation.

Marlow Ediger, Education, was a speaker at the Iowa Council Social Studies Convention in Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 7. Ediger's topic was "The Old Order Amish in Society."

Jerry Mayhew, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, presented a program titled "Computer Application in Physical Education Fitness Testing" at the Missouri Western State College Computer Seminar.

"Northeast Today" is a newsletter published by the Public Relations Office each Monday. The deadline to submit information about events of campuswide interest is 5 p.m. on the Wednesday before publication. To ensure accuracy, articles should be submitted to the Public Relations Office on forms available at 202 Administration/Humanities Building.

Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra

8 p.m.
Thursday,
Baldwin Hall
Auditorium

Leonard Slatkin begins his fifth year as music director of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra in September, 1983. He is the only American-born and -trained conductor of a major United States symphony orchestra.

Tickets for faculty, staff and students may be picked up in the Student Activities Board Office in the Student Union Building.

The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra will perform a youth concert Friday morning and participate in a joint rehearsal with the University's symphony orchestra Friday afternoon.

The Lyceum Series presentation is made possible by financial assistance from the Missouri Arts Council and Union Electric Company.