In the case of rain, the movies will be shown in Pershing Arena, starting at 10:30 p.m. instead of 8 p.m.

Kohlenberg Lyceum Series Begins with Harlem Blues and Jazz Band

The 2004-2005 Kohlenberg Lyceum Series will kick off the season with a performance by the Harlem Blues and Jazz Band at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 21, in Baldwin Auditorium.

This band was formed in 1973, and a veritable Who's Who of jazz musicians have been a part of this group. The current members are Joey Morant, trumpet and vocals; Fred Staton, tenor saxophone; Lloyd Mayers, piano; Art Baron, trombone, composer and arranger; Michael Max Fleming, bass; Shelton Gary, drums; Ruth Brisbane, vocals; and Bill Wurtzel, electric guitar.

Morant electrifies audiences with his dazzling horn techniques, skillful scat singing and humorous asides. Staton is one of the senior members of the band. He has performed with Billy Eckstine, Howard "Sticks" McGhee, Art Blackey and Errol Garner. Mayers was the pianist to Sammy Davis Jr. for 11 years. He also took over the piano chair in the Duke Ellington Orchestra following Ellington's death. Fleming has performed with Mary Lou Williams, Sammy Davis Jr., Jimmy Witherspoon, Clifford Jordan, Chet Baker and Billy Eckstine. Gary studied drums with the great Jo Jones of

Harlem Blues & Jazz Band

Ruth Brisbane

Count Basie fame. His background includes drumming for such luminaries as Jay McShann, Illinois Jacquet, Howlin' Wolf, Freddie King and vocalist Joe Turner.

Brisbane has appeared in jazz clubs across the United States as well as the Caribbean and Europe. She performed off Broadway in her own one-woman show, "The Legacy of Bessie Smith" and on Broadway in "Wiz,"

"Raisin" and "South Pacific." Wurtzel spent seven years with organist/pianist Bill Doggett of "Honky Tonk" fame and 11 years with Count Basie Alumni Groups, primarily "The Countsmen." He is also the director of The Jazz Foundation of America.

Free tickets to the Harlem Blues and Jazz Band will be available to students, faculty and staff beginning Sept. 14 with a University ID at the Student Activities Board Office and the Center for Student Involvement, lower level of the SUB.

Mackey Mitchell Associates, a professional service firm of architects, planners and interior designers, is a gold level sponsor of the Series.
