

Northeast Today

August 2, 1976

A STATE SURPLUS PROPERTY SALE will be held beginning at 9 a.m. Saturday at the old air base seven miles north of town on Highway 63. Items to be auctioned include a 1969 bus, a 1973 Chevrolet sedan, beds, desks, chairs, bookcases, basketball goals and backboard, football helmets and shoes, adding machines, typewriters, tv sets, shelving, lawn mowers, band instruments and on and on.

The property may be inspected between 6:30 and 9 a.m. Saturday. Property must be removed on or before 8 p.m. that night.

For more information contact Max Mulford in the Maintenance Department, ext. 7181.

THE DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION for NEH Summer Stipends for 1977 is Oct. 18. For more information or application, contact: Ms. Margorie A. Berlincourt, Program Officer, Summer Stipends Program, NEH, 806 Fifteenth Street NW, Washington, D.C. 20506, 202-382-3771 or Dean Terry Smith, ext. 7162.

COMPLIMENTS OF SIX FLAGS ... St. Louis' "Six Flags Over Mid America" is offering a $5 per night discount on lodging in selected hotels and motels near the entertainment park. Discount coupons and Funseeker Club cards (which entitle the bearer to a discount on admission) are available in the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center, ext. 7213. The P.R. Office also has a calendar of Six Flags attractions through the first week of September.

DON'T FORGET ... Final grades for August graduates must be in the Registrar's Office by 4 p.m., Aug. 10.

THE CAMPUS STUDENT VOLUNTEER CENTER will be the subject of Friday's "Area Scene" program on KIRX beginning at 9 a.m. Carol Baum, University senior, will be Anne Marie Burke's guest. Carol is completing an internship in the Office of Student Activities and one of her responsibilities has been to organize the Center. Beginning with the fall semester, willing University students will be matched to community organizations or individuals who need help.

DATES TO KEEP IN MIND THIS MONTH ... Commencement, 7:30 p.m., Aug. 13 ... fall semester begins, Aug. 23 ... annual freshman "Romp, Stomp and Chomp", Aug. 23.

AT THE ICE HOUSE THIS WEEK ... "Boy Meets Girl" plays tomorrow night through next Monday, the last night of the season. There will not be a performance tonight. As throughout the summer, "Tom Sawyer" will be the matinee performance at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Curtain time for evening performances is 8 p.m. Tickets are $3.50 and $2.50. For reservations call 221-6070.

The Ice House Theatre is jointly sponsored by the University, the Hannibal Foundation, and the Hannibal Chamber of Commerce with assistance from the Missouri Council on the Arts.

A SENIOR EXHIBIT OF POTTERY, DRAWINGS, paintings, ceramics, weaving and silk screen prints is on display this week in the University Gallery, Baldwin Hall.

FACULTY NOTES ... Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, has had three poems accepted for publication in a forthcoming issue of Wind, a literary magazine in Pikesville, Ky. He also has had a poem accepted for publication in New Letters, a University of Missouri-Kansas City fine arts magazine.