STUDENT ACTIVITIES BOARD APPLICATIONS now are being accepted at the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building.

"WE MAKE IT HAPPEN" is the theme of this year's Residence Hall Week beginning today with numerous activities and competitive events planned to promote residence hall pride and to recognize the role residence halls have in the lives of students. Highlights of the week include:

TODAY'S ACTIVITIES--Voting for King and Queen will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 4:30-6:30 p.m. in all hall cafeterias. The coronation will be held at 8:30 p.m. in Red Barn Park or, in case of rain, in the Student Union Building. Judging of hall displays will be from 3-4 p.m. in all hall lobbies and outside of each residence hall.

TUESDAY'S ACTIVITIES--There will be noncompetitive kite flying at 1 p.m. in Red Barn Park. At 4 p.m. the Campus Marathon Run begins at Red Barn Park and at 8 p.m. the Mr. University Contest will be held in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building.

WEDNESDAY'S ACTIVITIES--A Fast For Charity will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in all hall cafeterias. Participating residents will skip lunch and proceeds will be donated to a local charity. Participants should register for this event in hall cafeterias by 1 p.m. today. A Wide World of Interest program will be held in all halls during the evening with each hall sponsoring a program of special interest.

THURSDAY'S ACTIVITIES--A 24-Hour Brownout will begin at 8 a.m. and continue through 8 a.m. Friday. The Wacky Olympics will be held from 5:30-7:30 p.m. in the Red Barn Park. A Pantomime Show will conclude Thursday's activities at 8 p.m. in the Little Theatre of Baldwin Hall.

FRIDAY'S ACTIVITIES--From 5-7 p.m. a Picnic Dinner will be served to hall residents on the Student Union Building Mall. In case of rain, this event will be held in hall cafeterias. Also on the mall, a Disco Dance featuring KNEU DJ Art Peppard, will begin at 8 p.m. The week's activities will culminate with the Hall of the Week Awards at 10 p.m. on the mall.

APPLICATIONS for the Jack W. Hines Memorial Scholarship are due today. For more information contact the Division of Social Science at ext. 7131.

THE MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY SPRING RUN begins at 4 today at Stokes Stadium. Trophies will be awarded to various winners. For more information contact Eileen Sheridan, Muscular Dystrophy Run chairwoman, at ext. 3481.

ELECTIONS will be held at tonight's meeting of the Student Missouri State Teachers Association at 5:30 in 265 Violette Hall. Members are asked to attend.

BETA ALPHA MU will meet at 7 tonight in 141 Violette Hall to form committees for next fall and to plan a picnic. For more information contact William Holper, sponsor, at ext. 7791.

A CANDLELIGHT JAZZ CONCERT will be held at 8 tonight in Red Barn Park. A jazz combo of NMSU students will play. Candles will be provided by the Business Administration Club. Other sponsoring organizations are the Residence Hall Association and the Energy Conservation Advisory Committee.

A SPRING BRIDAL FAIR featuring bridal fashions, tuxes and flowers will be presented at 8 tonight in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Melanie Johnson, Centennial Hall resident assistant, is sponsoring the show.

THE UNIVERSITY DAMES WINE & CHEESE PARTY has been rescheduled for 8 p.m. tonight at the Missouri Extension Center, 503 E. Northtown Road. For reservations call Judy Wunder, Dames 1st vice president, at exts. 3456 or 7179, or contact Judy Lundberg, Dames president, at ext. 7166.

THE ANNUAL SENIOR LAW ENFORCEMENT BANQUET will be held at 6:30 p.m. Saturday in the Spanish Room of the Student Union Building. Alpha Phi Sigma honorary fraternity is sponsoring the event. The cost of the banquet is $4.75 per person and reservations may be made by Tuesday. For more information contact Sherry Fleming, Alpha Phi Sigma secretary, at ext. 3545.

THE MEN & WOMEN'S TRACK TEAMS will face Northwest Missouri State University at 3 p.m. Tuesday at Stokes Stadium.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the Industrial Arts Club will be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Resource Center of the Industrial Education Building. Banquet plans will be finalized and elections will be held. Members are asked to attend.

ONE- AND TWO-YEAR CERTIFICATE PROGRAM spring graduates will meet at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday in 121 Violette Hall to plan Mini-Commencement activities on May 5 and to receive instructions. For further information, contact Tom Churchwell, assistant to the dean of instruction, at ext. 7102.

REPRESENTATIVES of two companies will interview on campus this week. On Tuesday, Fort Madison (Iowa) Community Hospital will interview for R.N. positions as well as summer job openings for nursing students. On Wednesday, Warrenton (Mo.) R-III Schools will interview applicants for the following openings: Elementary Learning Disabilities, Junior High English, Junior High General Science, Junior High Earth Science, Junior High Art, and High School English. Interested applicants should schedule interview appointments with the Placement Office, first floor, Blanton Hall.

THE MASS COMMUNICATION CLUB will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Room 3 of the Student Union Building to elect new officers and to finalize plans for the annual picnic. Semester dues must be paid at this meeting. All members are urged to attend.

A STUDENT-FACULTY BASKETBALL GAME will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Pershing Arena. Players are urged for both teams. Proceeds will be donated to cancer research. The event is sponsored by members of the Principles of Management Class.

ALL EDUCATION MAJORS are invited to attend a meeting of the Student National Education Association at 4 p.m. Wednesday in 240 Violette Hall. An informal discussion and question/answer session will be led by guests Dr. Joel Kalleem, superintendent of Schuyler County Schools; Dr. Roy Miller, principal of the Kirksville Upper Elementary School; and Bert Kimbell, assistant principal of the Kirksville Senior High School. The guests will discuss qualifications considered when hiring and rehiring teachers as well as typical questions asked during interviews with prospective teachers.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA honorary fraternity will meet at 6 p.m. Wednesday in Room 2 of the Student Union Building to elect new officers. Members are asked to attend.

THE ANNUAL NMSU JURIED ALL STUDENT ART EXHIBITION opens with a public reception to be held from 7-8:30 p.m. Wednesday at the University Art Gallery, 218 Baldwin Hall. The juror is Dale Threlkeld, an NMSU alumnus who is currently teaching at the Belleville Area College. He will be in the gallery Wednesday evening to discuss his response to the show.

THE HONOR AWARDS ASSEMBLY will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. The program is an annual event which recognizes outstanding students.

"TWO ENGLISH GIRLS," directed by Francois Truffaut, will be shown at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Balwin Auditorium by the University Players Film Club. Admission is $1.25 or free with a club membership.

BEWARE OF THE NMSU BROWNOUT! A make-believe brownout will be held on Thursday across campus. The Residence Hall Association is sponsoring a 24-Hour Brownout in the halls beginning at 8 a.m. Thursday through 8 a.m. Friday. Students participating will: not use electrical appliances; not take a shower; not use laundry facilities; use little or no lights. Faculty and staff members can help by not using or alternating the use of electrical appliances and equipment from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday. This peak period of campus energy use determines 40 percent of the University's electricity rate. All participants will wear a button with a slogan, "I'm Browning Out." This activity is supported by the Energy Conservation Advisory Committee.

DAYBREAK, a regional Lutheran Youth Encounter, will present a program on the reality of Jesus Christ through music, skits, puppets and shring at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. This program is sponsored by the Lutheran Campus Movement.

A SPRING LUNCHEON will be held by the University Dames at 12 noon Saturday in the Spanish Room of the Student Union Building. Aluncheon fee of $2.50 will be charged. To make reservations, contact Judy Lundberg, Dames president, at ext. 7166 or 665-1490. Reservations are due by Thursday.

APPLICATIONS for summer and fall Index staff positions, including editor, are now available at the Index office, 2nd floor, Adair House. Applications are due by Friday.
