NMSU BAND ALUMNI have been invited to present a concert at 1:30 p.m. Sunday in Baldwin Auditorium to highlight the first NMSU Band Alumni Weekend which begins with registration from 10 a.m. to 12 noon Saturday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. The concert, which is free and open to the public, will consist of performances by two bands under the direction of Dr. Tom Duden, NMSU band director, and Jim Strub, a 1946 graduate. Other activities on Saturday include a luncheon at 12 noon in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building, rehearsals at 1:30 p.m. in Baldwin Hall, and a social hour and banquet at 6 p.m. at the Shamrock Inn.

CARNATIONS FOR VALENTINE'S DAY will be sold from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. today and Friday for $1 each in the Student Union Building by the Student Council for Exceptional Children. Proceeds will benefit the Special Olympics to be held in April.

REFRIGERATORS may be rented from 1:30-4:30 p.m. today in Blanton Hall basement. A rental fee of $25 plus a $5 deposit will be charged. If the refrigerator is returned unharmed at the end of the semester the $5 deposit will be refunded. Missouri Hall Council is sponsoring the rental.

PLANS FOR THE NEW MEDIA CENTER will be discussed by Campus Planners David Richey and Teresa Rodriguez at a special meeting of the Mass Communication Club at 7 tonight in Room 3 of the Student Union Building. Immediately following the guest speakers, a short business meeting will be held. All persons interested in planning Communication Week are required to attend. Persons interested in the media center or mass communication are welcome to attend.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the International Club will be held at 7:30 tonight in Room 2 of the Student Union Building. Plans will be made for the International Banquet to be held in March. All persons interested in helping with the banquet or interested in joining the International Club are welcome to attend.

PZAZZ, a disco dance featuring D.J. Emmett Vaughn, will begin at 8 tonight in the Snack Bar of the Student Union Building. Everyone is welcome to attend. No admission will be charged.

ASSERTIVE BEHAVIOR will be discussed by Dr. Fred Shaffer, assistant professor of psychology, at 8 tonight in Grim Hall Recreation Room. All interested persons are invited to attend.

TOMORROW is the last day to drop first half block classes without a code.

RUSH SIGN-UP continues through 2:30 p.m. Friday in the Student Union Building for women interested in pledging Alpha Sigma Gamma service sorority. Following sign-up, an interest party will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 9, in Centennial Hall Cafeteria. Everyone is welcome to attend.

"THE DEEP" starring Robert Shaw and Jacqueline Bisset will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $1 or free with a Student Activities Card.

KARATE INSTRUCTION will be provided by black belt members of the Korean Karate Club at practice sessions held from 1:30-3:30 p.m. every Saturday and from 7-9 p.m. every Wednesday in Ophelia Parrish Gymnasium. All persons interested in developing or enhancing their balance, agility, coordination and overall physical fitness are welcome to attend these sessions. Emphasis will be placed on self-defense and tenets of Tae Kwon Do.

THE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM will host Columbia College at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Pershing Arena.

REGISTRATION for couples wanting to participate in the 24-Hour United Way Dance Marathon will be from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. daily next week in the Student Union Building. The marathon is scheduled for March 11-12.

UNITY, an organization striving to improve community-campus relations, will meet at 9 p.m. Sunday in Room 5 of the Student Union Building to discuss plans for a mini-concert scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 15. All interested organizations are urged to send two representatives and all interested persons are welcome to attend.

APPLICATIONS FOR GRADUATION for all undergraduate students completing degree requirements during the spring semester are due in the Office of the Registrar by Friday, February 17.

FACULTY MEMBERS interested in participating in a Faculty Gong Show should contact their respective division heads. The show will be held at 7:04 p.m. Thursday, April 6, in Baldwin Auditorium. Tentative panelists include President Charles J. McClain, Ray Klingensmith, dean of administration, and Judy Lundberg, freshman counselor. Senior Emmett Vaughn will serve as master of ceremonies.
