

Northeast Today

Thursday, April 13, 1978

"HAPPENINGS"

TODAY, April 13

Executive-in-Residence programs
Communication Week continues
Today and Friday
Army ROTC Week continues
Today and Friday
Residence Hall --9-11:30 am, 1st
Contracts fl., KB
MD Spring Run --9 am-3 pm, SUB
Registration
Today and Friday
Phi Alpha Theta --9:30 am-2:30 pm,
& Historical SUB
Society banquet
tickets on sale Today and Friday
Establishing Credit--6:30 pm, Music program Loun., RH
Bible Study --7 pm, 172, VH
Spring Fasion Show --7:30 pm, Act.
Rm., SUB
Psi Chi --7:30 pm, 515 E.
Normal, Apt. 104
"And Miss Reardon
Drinks a Little" --8 pm, Little
Theatre, BH
Faculty Recitals --8 pm, Aud., BH
"Education as a
Way Out" --8 pm, Rm. 4,
SUB

FRIDAY, April 14

Industrial Education Awards Contests
Men's Invitational Tennis Meet
Today and Saturday
"Ben" & "Willard" --7 & 9:30 pm,
Gym, KB

continued on back

THE EXECUTIVE IN RESIDENCE to visit the University today will be Russell H. Perry, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Republic Financial Services, Inc., of Dallas, Texas. Perry's visit is part of the annual Executive-in-Residence program sponsored by the Business Division. He will discuss "Our Free Enterprise System--Is It Working?" at 8:30 a.m. in 304 Kirk Building at a breakfast with doughnuts and coffee. At 10:30 a.m. he will make another presentation in 121 Violette Hall about "What Employers Want from Employees." A third presentation will be at 1:30 p.m. in 121 Violette Hall when Perry talks about "Life of a Chief Executive Officer." He will conclude the day with another discussion of "What Employers Want from Employees" at 3 p.m. in 121 Violette Hall.

"AND MISS REARDON DRINKS A LITTLE" will be presented at 8 tonight through Saturday in the Little Theatre of Baldwin Hall. The play depicts three maladjusted sisters, who are all high school teachers, trying to salvage what little sanity they have left after living with their recently deceased schizophrenic and paranoid mother. The play, sponsored by University Players and the Drama Department, is free to those with NMSU IDs.

RESIDENCE HALL CONTRACTS may be signed from 9-11:30 this morning on the first floor, Kirk Building, by students who have not signed contracts, by students wishing to change their original assignment and by students living off-campus.

TIME "THEN IS NOW" is the theme of tonight's 2nd annual Spring Fashion Show to be held at 7:30 in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Clothing from the 1900s through today's fashions will be shown from the historic collection of the Division of Home Economics, student projects and Kirksville stores. Door prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served. The show is sponsored by the Division of Home Economics.

"HAPPENINGS"

SATURDAY, April 15

Blue Key Scholar Quiz

Deadline for Financial Aids

applications for summer school

TM program --2 pm, Rm. 4, SUB

Miss Kirksville --8 pm, Aud., BH

Pageant

Jack of Hearts Ball--8 pm, Gym, KB

SUNDAY, April 16

Contempo program --9:45 am, WGEM-TV,
Quincy

THE 19th ANNUAL INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION AWARDS CONTESTS will be held by the Practical Arts Division on Friday. An estimated 700 entries of students from 35 high schools in northeast Missouri will be judged. Twenty winners will be selected to compete in the state contest of the Industrial Arts Association to be held May 6 in Columbia. Three presidential honorary scholarships also will be awarded. Entries will be on exhibit from 12 noon-2 p.m. in Pershing Arena.

REGISTRATION FOR RUNNERS in the Monday, April 17, Muscular Dystrophy 1.7 mile Spring Run continues from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. today and Friday in the Student Union Building. The run will begin at 4 p.m. at Stokes Stadium. Trophies will be awarded to the runner who finishes first and to the runner collecting the most money. The organization sponsoring runners who finish and collect the most money also will receive a trophy. For further information, contact Eileen Sheridan, Muscular Dystrophy Run chairwoman, at ext. 3481.

COMMUNICATION WEEK activities continue today with programs by a film maker and individual conferences with poets and writers. Friday's schedule of events include German workshops by Juergen Schwedenkendiek, head of the Language Department at the Goethe Institute. A panel discussion by student campus media representatives is also planned. All events are open to the public and no admission will be charged. Communication Week is sponsored by the Mass Communication Club and the Division of Language and Literature.

A "LIFE AFTER COLLEGE" SEMINAR, a job fair describing opportunities available in the military, will be held from 1-3 today in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building as activities honoring Army ROTC Week continue. The seminar will cover how to land and handle a job interview as well as what employers are seeking in college graduates. To highlight the week's activities, the annual Military Ball will be held at 6 p.m. Friday in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Featured speaker will be Maj. Gen. Marvin H. Knoll, Commander of the 102nd U.S. Army Reserve Command in St. Louis.

SUMMER PRE-REGISTRATION will be from 8-11:30 a.m. Monday, April 17, in the Kirk Building. This will be an open enrollment with no set times according to Social Security numbers. FALL PRE-REGISTRATION will begin at 1 p.m. Monday, April 17, and continue through 3 p.m. Wednesday, April 19. Times have been set according to the last digit of the Social Security number and class status. Assigned pre-registration times and information procedures are listed in the official Fall Schedule of classes.

PHI ALPHA THETA HISTORY HONORARY AND THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY will host their annual banquet at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, April 20, at the Shamrock Inn. Following the banquet, Dr. Thomas Higgins, professor of music, will speak on "Chopin in History" in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Tickets for the banquet will be on sale from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. today and Friday in the Student Union Building.

ESTABLISHING CREDIT is the topic of a program to be presented by William Orendorff, assistant trust officer at a local bank, at 6:30 tonight in the Music Lounge of Ryle Hall. The program is sponsored by Conita Vandevender, Ryle Hall resident assistant.

AN ROTC BIBLE STUDY group will meet with the United Campus Ministries every Thursday evening at 7 p.m. in 172 Violette Hall for the rest of the semester to view a special West Civilization film series by author and educator Francis Shafer.

PSI CHI will meet at 7:30 tonight at the home of Merrie Miller, club member, 515 E. Normal, Apt. 104. A presentation on "Learned Helplessness" will be given. New members must pay fees prior to tonight's meeting.

THE 11TH ANNUAL INTERVIEW DAY of NMSU will begin at 9 a.m. Monday, April 24. Approximately 120 school districts in Missouri will be interviewing for future teaching jobs. Interested students should register in the Placement Office, first floor, Blanton Hall.

SECOND SEMESTER SOPHOMORES are required to take the annual sophomore tests at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 20. The testing schedule is as follows:

Last Names Beginning With	Test in Room
A or B	211 A/H
C or H	208 A/H
I, M, O, Q, U	210 A/H
S	305 A/H
E or F	304 A/H
D, G, J, K	248 VH
L, P, R	266 VH
N, T, V, W, X, Y, Z	290 VH

All questions concerning the tests should be directed to Mike Hughes, psychometrist, in the Testing Office, 103 Administration/Humanities Building, ext. 7184.

FACTORY RECITALS continue at 8 tonight in Baldwin Auditorium with performances by Karl Lear, instructor of lower strings, and Jim Buckner, instructor of trumpet and jazz. Included in Lear's performance will be Bach's Suite #3 in C for Solo Cello. Buckner will present Riisagar's Concertina. Everyone is invited to attend. No admission will be charged.

RESIDENT ASSISTANT positions are available for women for the 1978-79 academic year. Applications are available at the Housing Office, 101 Administration/Humanities Building. All questions should be directed to Cheryl Parman, Ryle Hall assistant director, at ext. 3466 or to Ron Gaber, director of housing, at ext. 7168.

"EDUCATION AS A WAY OUT" will be discussed by Fontaine Piper, Natatorium director, at 8 tonight in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. All interested persons are invited to attend. This presentation is sponsored by the Baha'i Club.

TWO SCHOLARSHIPS in the amount of $50 each, will be awarded by the International Club. Applicants must be International students who will attend NMSU during the Fall 1978 semester and who hold a grade point average of 2.5 or above on a 4.0 scale. Applications may be obtained at the International Student Office, 105 Kirk Memorial. Deadline for returning applications is Wednesday, April 26.

THE NORTHEAST MISSOURI STATE INVITATIONAL Men's Tennis meet will be held at 9 a.m. Friday and Saturday at the Campbell Tennis Courts. Five teams will be participating.

THE STUDENT MEDIA CENTER COMMITTEE will hold an open meeting at 3 p.m. Friday in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building. Facts will be presented concerning options for the location of the media center. No public testimony will be taken.

"WE MAKE IT HAPPEN" is the theme of this year's Residence Hall Week which begins Monday, April 17. Numerous activities and competitive events are planned to promote residence hall pride and to recognize the role residence halls have in the lives of students. Among the coming events are: An Awareness Blitz, Hall Displays and Judging, Crowning of a King and Queen, a Campus Marathon Run, A Fast for Charity, Wacky Olympics, and Hall of the Week Awards.

"BEN" AND "WILLARD" will be shown at 7 & 9:30 p.m. Friday in the Kirk Gym. Admission is $1 or free with a Student Activities Card. The movies are sponsored by the Student Activities Board.

SATURDAY IS THE DEADLINE for filing Financial Aid applications for summer school.

"THE GEMINI CONNECTION BAND" will provide this year's music at Delta Sigma Theta's Annual Jack of Hearts Ball to be held from 8 p.m. Saturday to 1 a.m. Sunday in Kirk Gym. Admission is $2 per person and tickets will be available at the door. Everyone is invited to attend.

THE MISS KIRKSVILLE PAGEANT will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets are available from Ray Arment, associate professor of military science, in 109 Nason Hall or at ext. 7194.

"NEW BREAKTHROUGHS IN HUMAN POTENTIAL" is the title of a special presentation on Transcendental Meditation and TM-Sidhi to be given at 2 p.m. Saturday in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. Presenting the program will be TM teachers Gary Beane and Edward Butler from Maharishi University in Fairfield, Iowa. The program is sponsored by the Student International Meditation Society.

THE UNIVERSITY DAMES WINE & CHEESE PARTY has been rescheduled for 8 p.m. Monday, April 17, at the Missouri Extension Center, 503 E. Northtown Road. For reservations call Judy Wunder, Dames 1st vice president, at exts. 3456 or 7179, or contact Judy Lundberg, Dames president, at ext. 7166.

A CANDLELIGHT JAZZ CONCERT will be held at 8 p.m. Monday, April 17, on the Circle Drive by the Administration/Humanities Building. A jazz combo of NMSU students will play. Candles will be provided by the Business Administration Club. Other sponsoring organizations are the Residence Hall Association and the Energy Conservation Advisory Committee.

SAFETY AND SECURITY reports that many vehicles are being improperly parked in handicapped spaces, no-parking zones, loading zones and other restricted areas. Unless the violations decrease, Safety and Security will be forced to issue more tickets and, if necessary, tow away cars parked in tow-away areas.

THE BLUE KEY SCHOLAR QUIZ will involve an estimated 160 students from 32 high schools in Missouri and Iowa who will compete on Saturday. Blue Key service honorary sponsors the annual quiz. First place award is four Presidential Honorary Scholarships going to each member of the winning team. The Student Union Building will be the center of activities.

MALE CONTESTANTS are needed by the Centennial Hall Council to participate in the Mr. University Contest to be held during Residence Hall Week. Candidates must be handsome and available for muscle flexing. Interested persons may contact Colleen Long, Centennial Hall Council secretary, at ext. 3674.

APPLICATIONS for summer and fall Index staff positions, including editor, are now available at the Index office, 2nd floor, Adair House. Applications are due by Friday, April 21.

THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE will be closed all day Tuesday, April 18, and Wednesday, April 19, due to pre-registration. The office will open at 8 a.m. Thursday, April 20.

ON THE JOB TRAINING will be available to one student supervisor and up to nine student employees needed by NMSU housekeeping from Monday, May 15, to Friday, August 18, for preventative maintenance of residence halls. Work hours will be from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. For more information and applications, contact Zel Eaton, assistant to the dean of students, in 101 Administration/Humanities Building.

CONTEMPO PROGRAMS on WGEM-TV in Quincy will continue to feature University faculty members at 9:45 a.m. Sundays. Each faculty member will discuss a topic related to his or her area of interest. The schedule: April 16, Dr. Lydia Inman, dean of graduate studies and head of the Home Economics Division; April 23, Dr. Jerry Mayhew, assistant professor of physical education; and April 30, David Buckley, instructor of debate.

A RETIREMENT BANQUET will be held in honor of Leona Whittom, assistant professor of English, at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 3, in the Spanish Room of the Student Union Building. The Language and Literature Division is sponsoring the festivities to recognize her 22 years of service. Reservations may be made until April 28 with Ann Baird, division secretary, at ext. 7157.

A RECEPTION HONORING retiring members of the faculty and staff along with those who have served the University for 10 and 25 years will be held at 3 p.m. Thursday, April 20, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. All faculty, staff and students are invited to attend to honor them.

ONE- AND TWO-YEAR CERTIFICATE PROGRAM spring graduates will meet at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 18, in 121 Violette Hall to plan Mini-Commencement activities on May 5 and to receive instructions. For further information, contact Tom Churchwell, assistant to the dean of instruction, at ext. 7102.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have for the campus through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The absolute deadline for news is 9 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Thursday publication dates. To guarantee publication on the right date, items should be sent a few days earlier if possible.