WELCOME, NEW STUDENTS!

"Northeast Today" is an on-campus newsletter that serves as a bulletin board of University events. It is published regularly on Mondays.

This special edition is your guide to a week full of events planned especially for new students. For a complete registration schedule and a two-month calendar of campus events, pick up Monday's issue of "Northeast Today."

STUDENT HANDBOOKS will be distributed at the residence hall desks when students check in. The halls open at noon today. Special activities are planned for 8 p.m. Sunday and Tuesday.

GOT THE MUNCHIES? The Snack Bar in the Student Union Building is open until 9 p.m. today and Sunday. Burgers and fries are available for junk food junkies, but yogurt and fresh fruit are also in good supply. Regular hours begin Monday, with the Snack Bar opening at 8 a.m. and closing at 10:30 p.m. on weekdays and midnight on weekends.

SEE THE BULLDOGS battle it out amongst themselves in preparation for the 1980 season. An intra-squad scrimmage will be played at 5 p.m. today on the practice field in Stokes Stadium. Everyone is invited to this special "sneak preview."

THE CAMPUS BOOKSTORE in the Student Union Building will be open 1-4 p.m. this Sunday only for students who want to get a head start on book-buying. Monday's hours extend to 9 p.m. this week. The Bookstore is regularly open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Fridays and 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturdays.

BOWLING, PINBALL, TABLE TENNIS AND POOL are offered in the Games Room of the Student Union Building. It opens at noon this weekend and closes at 9 p.m. today and 10:30 p.m. Sunday. Regular hours will be determined and published in "Northeast Today" in September.

MEET THE PRESIDENTS at 5:30 p.m. Sunday in Baldwin Auditorium. University President Charles J. McClain and Student Senate President Barb McMasters will welcome new students to campus with a brief program before dismissing for a get-acquainted picnic.

THURSDAY, Aug. 28

8 pm Residence Hall Association
Dance, Missouri Hall
Cafeteria

FRIDAY, Aug. 29

7 & 9 pm SAB Movie, "Same Time
Next Year," Baldwin Hall
Auditorium

THE AWARD-WINNING CHEERLEADERS and the football Bulldogs will be on hand to welcome freshmen and transfer students at the New Student Picnic at 6 p.m. Sunday in Red Barn Park. The menu includes barbecued ham sandwiches, hot dogs, baked beans, potato chips, watermelon and soda.

REGISTRATION for those students who have not pre-enrolled is from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Entry times are listed in Monday's calendar edition of "Northeast Today." Monday night classes will be held as scheduled and regular classwork begins at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday.

OLD TIME FAVORITES W.C. Fields, Laurel and Hardy, Mae West and the Marx Brothers are the featured guests at the Old-time Movies festival sponsored by the Student Activities Board. The movies will be shown free of charge 7-9 p.m. Monday in Baldwin Hall Auditorium.

DANCE UNDER THE STARS at a disco dance at 7:30 p.m. Monday on the Student Union Mall. Disc jockey Bob Borgstede will be spinning the discs until 10 p.m.

NON-COMPETITIVE GAMES will be taught and played at the New Games Festival 4-5:30 p.m. Wednesday in Red Barn Park. The festival, sponsored by the Student Recreation Association, promises some of the most recent games invented (or revived).

BLUEGRASS MUSIC FANS can hear the sounds they like at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday on the Student Union Mall. The Warren County String Ticklers will be playing bluegrass as part of the Student Activities Board Showcase series. In case of rain, the band will perform in the Georgian Room inside the Student Union Building.

"SAME TIME NEXT YEAR," starring Alan Alda and Ellen Burstyn, will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The movie is the first in a series of Friday night movies sponsored by the Student Activities Board. Admission costs $1.
