

Northeast Today

October 18, 1976

HOMEcoming IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER ... Everything gets started with the queen coronation Thursday, Oct. 28 at 8 p.m. in Pershing Arena. An Alumni Banquet is scheduled for 7 p.m. Friday night in the Georgian Room. The classes of '26, '51 and '66 will be especially honored. William Unger's bicentennial mural will be dedicated and a portrait of the late athletic director James Dougherty will be presented to the University during the banquet. Reservations must be made with the Alumni Office (ext. 7211) by a week from tomorrow.

Saturday's activities include a parade, reunions and luncheons for alumni, pre-game activities, a clash between the Southeast Missouri State Indians and the Bulldogs, an alumni reception and a concert by singer Harry Chapin. Further details available in the Alumni or Campus Activities offices.

THE UNIVERSITY SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, under the direction of William Fitzsimmons of the Fine Arts faculty, will present its fall concert at 8 p.m. tomorrow night in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. It's free and everyone is invited.

The concert will begin with the Beethoven "Seventh Symphony" followed by the Stokowski arrangement of the "Passacaglia" and "Fugue in C minor" by Bach. The concert will close with the suite from the opera "Hary Janos" by Zoltan Kodaly.

"DUCKS UNLIMITED" will hold a social hour and dinner beginning at 6 p.m. Wednesday at Elaine's restaurant. Proceeds will provide nesting grounds in Canada where U.S. government funds cannot be spent. For tickets ($10 each) see Jerry Vittetoe in the Business Division or call ext. 2537.

A TWO-SESSION SEMINAR on "Going Into Business for Yourself" will be held Oct. 25-26 from 7-10 p.m. in the Community Room of the First National Bank under the sponsorship of the University and the Small Business Association. Interested persons should pre-register with Jim Edwards of the Business Division as enrollment is limited.

JOSEPH TEASDALE, Democratic candidate for governor, will be on campus Saturday from 3-5:30 p.m. in the Alumni Room of the Student Union. Everyone is invited to attend.

PIANIST LEONORA SUPPAN-GEHRICH of the Quincy College faculty will perform a recital at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Activities Room of the Student Union. The program will include "Sonata, Opus 28" by Beethoven, "Six Preludes" by Debussy, "Mazeppa" by Liszt and "Symphonic Etudes" by Schumann. Admission is free.

A PERINATAL MEDICINE AND NURSING SEMINAR entitled "Care of the High Risk Family" is scheduled for 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Thursday in the Student Union. Guest faculty will include physicians, nurses and social workers from the obstetrical and child health departments of the University of Missouri Medical Center. The seminar is being funded by the National Foundation March of Dimes with the sponsorship of the Division of Nursing and the 6th District of the Missouri Nurses Association. Everyone is welcome to attend free of charge.

A COFFEE/CONVERSATION HOUR for Mrs. Margaret Walsh, general director of the National League for Nursing, is set for 9-10:30 a.m. next Monday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union. The University Nursing Division invites all interested persons to attend.

WEDNESDAY'S THE DEADLINE for reservations for the University Dames "Pumpkin Fun Night" next Saturday. The festivities will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Games Room of the Student Union with games, prizes, trophies and chili on the agenda. Cost is $1.50 per person for Dames and their spouses. Mail checks and reservations to Joyce Sells, c/o Gary Sells, Science Division, or to her at 6 Grim Court South. Cards will be placed. Cost of games not included.

A "PEDESTRIAN MALL" is the subject of tomorrow night's town meeting scheduled for 7-9 p.m. in the Community Room of the First National Bank. Sam Gibson, a city planning consultant from St. Louis, will lead the discussion.

"LONELINESS OF A LONG-DISTANCE RUNNER" will be shown at 9:30 tonight at the Kennedy Theater. All seats are $1.

FACULTY NOTES ... Nancy Hendrix, Special Programs, was recently elected president of the Northeast Missouri chapter of the Council for Exceptional Children. On Oct. 2 she conducted two sign language mini-courses for the Student Council for Exceptional Children at its fall conference at the Lake of the Ozarks....Jim Pauls, Fine Arts, has an aluminum piece entitled "Conex" showing in the Bicentennial "7 for 76" show at the Paul Sargent Art Gallery, Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Ill. A welded steel piece of his entitled "Link" was recently accepted in the "National Sculpture 1976" show which will open Nov. 5 in Athens, Ga., and will tour several states....Jim Thomas, Language and Literature, will have two poems "Hawks Wheel" and "Leck's Goodbye" in the New River Review of Redford College to be published in early 1977....Olivene Baker, Home Economics, attended the annual

FACULTY NOTES (continued)

Missouri State Student Home Economics Association fall workshop Oct. 1-2 in Cape Girardeau.....Carolyn Siddens, Home Economics, took 28 students on a field trip to Amana, Iowa Oct. 6 to visit the woolen mill and furniture facility.....Herman Wilson, Language and Literature, attended the seventh annual invitational Conference for College Writers Sept. 24 at William Jewell College, Liberty. On Oct. 12 he spoke at Paris High School and conferred with a part of the English staff at the Mexico High School on the possibility of offering a course unit on the language of politics.....Joaquin Penalver, Language and Literature, was one of the speakers in a series of lectures on "Bilingualism and Bilingual Education" at the University of Northern Iowa. He spoke on "The Problems of Spanish Speakers in Adapting to the American Society.".....Robert Sprehe, Business, has been appointed to the state audio visual advisory committee for business education. The seven-member committee evaluates and recommends audio visual materials developed at the State Fair Community College in Sedalia which are used by business educators throughout the state and nation.....Clay Dawson, Fine Arts, judged the National Association of Teachers of Singing Artists awards competition Oct. 10 in Warrensburg. On Oct. 14 he directed the Northeast Iowa Conference High School Vocal Festival in Decorah.....James Przybylski, Social Science, is the author of "As Goes Illinois ... The State as a Political Microcosm of the Nation," a study published in August by the Institute of Government and Public Affairs, University of Illinois.....Laura Hulse and Janice Legg, Business, attended the National Bicentennial Conference on Vocational Education last week in Minneapolis.....Pat Ellebracht, Social Science, had as his telelecture guest Oct. 14 D. Keith McIntosh, vice president of finance and treasurer of Reading and Bates Offshore Drilling Company, Tulsa, Okla. McIntosh discussed the history of the company, how the company had been financed, and the cost of purchasing and operating offshore drilling equipment.....Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, will have his biography included in the 1976-77 edition of Community Leaders and Noteworthy Americans.....Chandler Monroe, Language and Literature, spoke to the Alpha Sigma Gamma service sorority on parliamentary procedure Oct. 7. On Oct. 11 he spoke to the sophomore nursing class on communicating with their patients. He and Jim Paulding, Fine Arts, will be panelists at the Kirksville town meeting tomorrow night.