WE AT NMSU have reached 92 percent of our United Way goal of $10,000 and are ahead of KCOM, which has reached 84 percent of its goal. Faculty and staff members who have not yet turned in their pledges should do so immediately. We could be the first United Way division to reach 100 percent of its goal!

HARRY TRUMAN will be impersonated by actor Kevin McCarthy in "Give 'Em Hell Harry" at 8 tonight in Baldwin Auditorium. Free tickets are available from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. today in the Student Union Office. The performance is sponsored by the 1978-79 Lyceum Series.

A HUMOUROUS DEBATE featuring British debaters Jonathon Adair Turner and Andrew Mitchell will be at 3:30 p.m. today in the Little Theatre of Baldwin Hall. The topic will be "Resolved: That this House would rather be good-looking than good." The international debate is sponsored by the Speech Communication Association and the Language and Literature Division.

A BAKE SALE will begin at 7 a.m. today at the south door of the Administration/Humanities Building. It will be sponsored by Psi Chi honorary society in psychology.

THE RED CROSS BLOODMOBILE will be on campus from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. today through Wednesday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. The Bloodmobile's campus visit is sponsored by Cardinal Key and Blue Key service organizations. The University Dames, an organization of faculty and staff women and wives, also are helping with the visit. No appointment is needed to donate blood.

ALL STUDENTS INTERESTED IN BEING A RESIDENT ASSISTANT may pick up an application at Housing or from a hall director this week. Interested students should also attend one of two information nights, tonight at 8 in Ryle Hall Cafeteria or Tuesday night at 8 in Missouri Hall Cafeteria. More information is available on posters around campus.

GIVE TODAY THE UNITED WAY

THE BIG BROTHER/BIG SISTER ORGANIZATION will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 210 Administration/Humanities Building.
