THE ACTIVITIES FAIR will be held from 7:30-10 tonight in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. The fair will feature booths from NMSU organizations and gives students, faculty, and staff the opportunity to become familiar with the NMSU organizations. Door prizes will be given, and a $10 prize will be awarded to the organization with the best exhibit at the fair. Free popcorn and 10¢ soda will be provided by Cardinal Key. The public is invited to attend and no admission will be charged.

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES for homecoming floats is 5 p.m. today. Entry forms can be picked up at the Director of Student Activities Office. They should be returned to the Blue Key mailbox in the Student Union Building. For further information, contact Rod Belzer, parade coordinator, at ext. 7729 or the Student Activities Office at ext. 7203.

ALPHA SIGMA GAMMA service sorority will meet at 5 p.m. today in Room 5 of the Student Union Building. All members must attend or call Jenny Pickett at 665-1748.

DR. MASSYE GOINS, professor of education, will present a program on counseling at 6 tonight in the recreation room of Blanton Hall. She will discuss common college problems, how to counsel friends, and the counseling services available at NMSU. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend the free program.

THE INTERNATIONAL CLUB will meet at 7:30 tonight in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. Host families, International Night, and other activities will be discussed. Club membership is open to all students, faculty, staff, and local residents.

YEARBOOK PICTURES continue to be scheduled at a table in the Student Union Building today and tomorrow. All students, faculty and staff can choose a time when their pictures will be taken. All faculty and staff must have their pictures taken this month to be included in the yearbook. No fee is charged to be included in the yearbook. People wishing picture proofs pay $2 to purchase photos from Sudlow Professional Photographers.

BLUE KEY continues to have a table in the Student Union Building today and tomorrow for students to check their addresses and phone numbers as they appear on the registrar printout. The addresses and phone numbers on the printout will be used in the student directory unless students notify Blue Key of a change. Students unable to stop by the table may call 665-7660 this week from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. to check their addresses and phone numbers.

ALPHA SIGMA GAMMA, NMSU's service sorority, continues to have a table in the Student Union Building for students to sign up. Anyone interested in joining should stop by the table for information today or tomorrow.

SHOWCASE PRODUCTIONS will be held at 7:30 tonight and tomorrow in the Little Theatre, Baldwin Hall. The showcase will include a series of one-act plays and scenes featuring actors and actresses who have never before appeared in a production at NMSU. The production is directed by upper-class drama students. Admission is free.

THE FIRST PURPLE OMEN will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. The Purple Omen is sponsored by the Student Activities Board and gives students an opportunity to perform in a coffee house atmosphere. Tomorrow night's program will include several musical acts and a magician's performance. Refreshments will be provided. Admission is free.

THE WOMEN'S CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM will travel to Normal, Illinois, Saturday for a meet with Illinois State University.

CORRECTION: The number for the Student Volunteer Center is ext. 3420 not 7792.

THE MEN'S CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM will meet Southern Illinois University, Lincoln, and Westminster Saturday at Edwardsville. The meet begins at 11 a.m.

THE WOMEN'S FIELD HOCKEY TEAM will play two games Saturday at Warrensburg. It will meet Central Missouri State at 12 noon, and Emporia Kansas State at 3 p.m.

THE BULLDOGS will play the Thoroughbreds of Kentucky State at 1 p.m. (Kirksville time) Saturday in Frankfort. After two games, the Bulldogs are undefeated.

RON GABER, director of housing, will be the guest on KIRX's "Area Scene" program at 9:07 a.m. Monday, Sept. 19. He will discuss the housing program at NMSU.

"USE OF LIBRARY RESOURCES," LM 110 Section 2, will have its first meeting Period 9 (3:30 p.m.) Monday in Laughlin Building 106. Those students who are enrolled are reminded to attend. The course will continue through Oct. 13 for one hour of academic credit.

A POSTER SERIES on the Liturgical Church Year and an exhibit of wood engravings will be on display beginning Monday through Sept. 30 at the University Art Gallery at 218 Baldwin Hall. A reception in honor of the artist Judith A. Moldenhauer, newly appointed Design Supervisor in the Dean of Instruction's Office, will be held from 7-8:30 Monday in the gallery.

A FAMILY PLANNING program will be presented at 9 p.m. Monday in the Recreation Room of Grim Hall. The program is sponsored by Grim Hall Council.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have for the campus through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The absolute deadline for news is 10:30 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Thursday publication dates. To guarantee publication on the right date, items should be sent a few days earlier if possible.

SERGEANT JAMES H. BUCHANAN, JR., personnel recruiter for the St. Louis metropolitan police department, will be at the Placement Office Friday, Sept. 23. Appointments for specific interviews should be made at the Placement Office, first floor Blanton Hall, as soon as possible. The police department is especially interested in law enforcement majors.

FOOTBALL GAME TICKETS will be available to faculty and staff each week of the home football season. Each faculty/staff member is entitled to two tickets per game upon presentation of an ID or receipt and signature. Tickets will be available at the Athletic Office Monday through Friday of the week preceding a game. In addition, a table will be set up from 1-3 p.m. Thursdays and 2-4 p.m. Fridays. For additional information, call the Athletic Office at ext. 7138. The next home game is Sept. 24 against South Dakota University.

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS for students, faculty and staff and their families can be made through G.H. Jamison, head of the University Travel Office. Booking services and reservations are available at no cost except for an occasional telephone call. Hotel, train, ship and plane reservations are among services offered. For any travel help, call ext. 2795 or 665-9166.

NOTICE TO ALL full-time and part-time University workers (including work study)--a special program sponsored by the University and Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. will be presented from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and 1-5 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 21, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Half-hour sessions will begin on the hour.

Ms. Glenna Ferzely, business service instructor for Southwestern Bell, will present the program.

To accommodate those unable to attend any of the Wednesday sessions, afternoon and evening sessions will be held Thursday, Sept. 22, from 1-5 p.m. in the Tangarine Room of the Student Union Building and from 7:30-10 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building. For more information, call ext. 7100.

REQUESTS FOR SEASON TICKETS for the 1977-1978 Lyceum Series are now being taken. Faculty activity tickets are valid for general admission seats, but a few seats are reserved on stage right for faculty and staff who desire to purchase them at $7.50 per ticket. Requests accompanied by a check made out to Northeast Missouri State University should be sent to the Business Office in the Administration/Humanities Building by September 20.

A fine Lyceum Series has been arranged by the Lyceum Committee under the chairmanship of Dr. Gilbert C. Kohlenberg. This year's Homecoming show featuring Dave Loggins and the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band will be held on September 30. On October 19 the St. Louis Symphony will appear in concert as a part of the orchestra's annual residency at NMSU. The Tamburitans, an ensemble of 40 singers, musicians, and dancers, will present an evening of eastern European folk music and dances on November 21. The Lar Lubovitch Dance Company which features classical, modern, and pop dance forms will appear in Baldwin Auditorium on January 31. A well known television personality, Leonard Nimoy, who is also a poet and author, will present an evening's entertainment in February. The date is still being negotiated, but it will be either February 13 or 14. The last program in the series will be given by the Young Americans who were here last year in "Oklahoma." They will present West Side Story on March 9, 1978.

For further information, contact Dr. Gilbert Kohlenberg, Lyceum Chairman, ext. 7131.

THE ANNUAL ALUMNI BANQUET during Homecoming will be at 7 p.m. Friday, Sept. 30, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Classes to be honored are 1927 (50th anniversary); 1952 (25th anniversary); and 1967 (10th anniversary). All faculty and staff are encouraged to attend to help welcome alumni. Burleigh Arnold, a 1952 alumnus, will be the principal speaker. Arnold is vice president with Central Trust Co. in Jefferson City. Reservations should be made by Tuesday, Sept. 27, with the Alumni Office ext. 7211. Cost is $4 per person. Immediately following the banquet will be the Bulldog Spirit Reception from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight at the Shamrock Inn Lounge sponsored by the University Dames. Everyone is invited to attend.

ALL UNDERGRADUATES planning to finish degree requirements in December must file for graduation with the Registrar's Office before Oct. 7, 1977.
