ATHLETICS

A large, stylized red letter 'F' is the central focus. To its right, a cartoon character with wings, wearing a hat and patterned pants, stands holding a large rolled-up scroll. Below the character, a bulldog is lying down, looking towards the scroll. The word 'Foreword' is written in a black, cursive script below the illustration.

Foreword

As an aid in remembering the activities of the school year 1951-1952 we have secured the help of Little Sir Echo. It is our wish that you will see through Little Sir's eyes the laugh-by-laugh, tear-by-tear, cheer-by-cheer spirit of our campus.

This spirit took the form of the conference champion football team; the campus curtained in dewy glamour on a September morn; the Air Corps cadences ringing loud and clear into dreary classrooms; the magic of music in Recital Hall and in Kirk Auditorium every Wednesday at 10; the rambling rush of white bucks and saddle oxfords from class to class; the initiations; the lass with the flirty eye wanting to be a wedding belle; the rejuvenated Index coming to the newsstand on time every week; the grads who make the grade in every field; and the vigorous election campaigns in the spring of the year.

The fact that Little Sir is charging through these pages on a bulldog reminds us of the mascot of the college, Brandy, who nearly brought to a standstill the competition for the "ugliest mutt" on the campus.

So here you are. In the pages that lie ahead are sketches in memory to put gold in your heart even when there's silver in your hair. We hope the memories of this year will always come back to you just as sure as an ECHO

Graduate Students

The Northeast Missouri State Teachers College extended its curriculum to include the Master of Arts degree in 1948. Graduate work is planned on a three-year basis, during which time the student selects a major in an academic field augmented by one or more minors, pursues professional courses, and does systematic internship in the laboratory schools. Courses are offered in the fields of social science, fine arts, business education, language and literature, education, and school administration.

Miss Lucy Simmons, head of the Division of Social Science, this year sponsored the Graduate Club.

Board of Regents

HUBERT WHEELER
State Commissioner of Education

Composed of six members, the Board of Regents acts as the highest administrative unit of the college. Selected from outstanding business and professional men from the Northeast Missouri district, the members combine to form the supreme governing body of the college.

School policies are prescribed by the Board of Regents in addition to performing the duties of employing faculty members winter and summer school terms, approving bills, signing contracts, accepting bids for construction and improvements on the campus.

Members of this year's Board of Regents were W. A. Cable, Hannibal; Edward E. Swain, Kirksville; Roy R. Quinn, Moberly; Herbert I. Sears, LaPlata; P. M. Marr, Milan; and Newton Waples, Kahoka. President Walter H. Ryle is an ex-officio member of the Board. Regent ex-officio is Hubert Wheeler, State Commissioner of Education, Jefferson City.

President

NORTHWEST MISSOURI STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

WALTER HARRINGTON RYLE

Dr. Walter H. Ryle, as the highest administrative officer of the Northeast Missouri State Teachers College, has since 1938 maintained the highest standards for the school. Under his administration the college has grown to be an outstanding teacher training institution, and the campus is one of the most beautiful in the state.

A thorough scholar, President Ryle takes an active interest in the educational program of the college and offers the student body the best in faculty and equipment.

Always interested in the appearance of the campus, President Ryle has authorized many improvements in the buildings and grounds during his administration.

In addition to his administrative duties President Ryle is always available for consultation and finds time for friendly visits all over the campus.

Dean of Instruction

ROBERT C. AUKERMAN

The primary duty of Dean Aukerman as Dean of Instruction is conducting the educational program of the Teachers College. In all his activities he works closely with the Office of the President and the Office of the Registrar. Among his duties are formulating and activating a program of supervision of instruction, acting as chairman of the Division of Instructional Service, acting as chairman of the Faculty Council, the Graduate Council, and the Curriculum Committee.

The Dean has full charge of all arrangements for the Baccalaureate and Commencement services. In addition he supervises a program of registration for the students, prepares the general bulletin of the college, the schedule of classes, and arranges and presides over the weekly assembly programs.

Closely correlated with the Office of the Dean is the Office of the Registrar. Mrs. Ralph House as Registrar has the duty of preserving the integrity of the credit of the Teachers College and keeping the academic books of the school. She admits students, keeps a complete record of all credits of students, and prepares the list of those applicants who meet all of the academic requirements for graduation.

B.A., M.A., University of Washington; graduate work at Syracuse University, Columbia University, University of Minnesota

Dean of Women

ESTHER BROWN

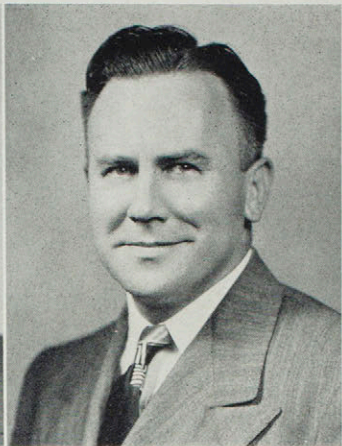

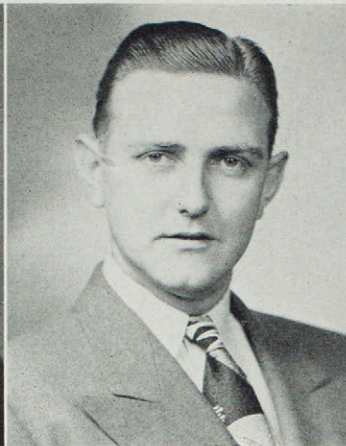

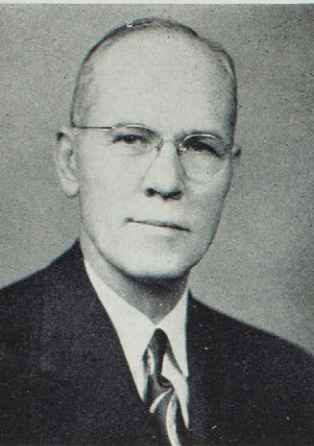

The new Dean of Women, Miss Esther Brown, arrived in July to assume her duties of supervising the social and personal lives of students on the campus. Her office is correlated with all other activities of the Division of Personnel Service.

As supervisor of housing the Dean of Women prepares and approves a list of rooming houses for students, works out a system of inspection, rules and regulations for the occupying students and the landlords. In co-operation with the Director of Residence she also supervises the rules and regulations for dormitory residents.

Aiding students in social and personal problems is another job of the Dean. She interviews each woman on the campus in order to become acquainted with everyone.

Providing a wholesome and stimulating program of social activities on the campus, Miss Brown works with the Student Council and Student Social Committee in arranging the school social calendar. She also is an authority on matters of etiquette and social procedure.

Working with the Panhellenic Council, Miss Brown helps foster united sorority action and a wholesome relationship between sororities.

Stenographic Office

The Stenographic Office is a small business unit in itself, handling all the printing needs of the college. Mrs. Dykstra supervises the printing of all syllabi, tests, notices, bulletins, and letters, and handles supplies for the entire campus and the Air Force unit.

The print shop under the supervision of John Goeke makes use of its copying camera and off-set press in taking care of the college's needs for advertisements, programs, and signs, as well as printing forms for the Air Force.

Blanton Hall

Women students at the Teachers College find a home-like, modern atmosphere in Blanton Hall, residence hall for women. The hall is furnished in maple and has a cafeteria, recreational lounge, snack bar, and laundry rooms.

The House Council, governing body composed of two representatives elected from each class, manages the affairs of the dormitory, sponsors teas, open houses, and dances for residents.

Assisting Mrs. Augusta Pitts Mize, Director of Residence, in the supervision of the dormitory is Mrs. Luther West.

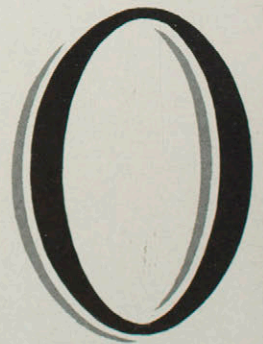

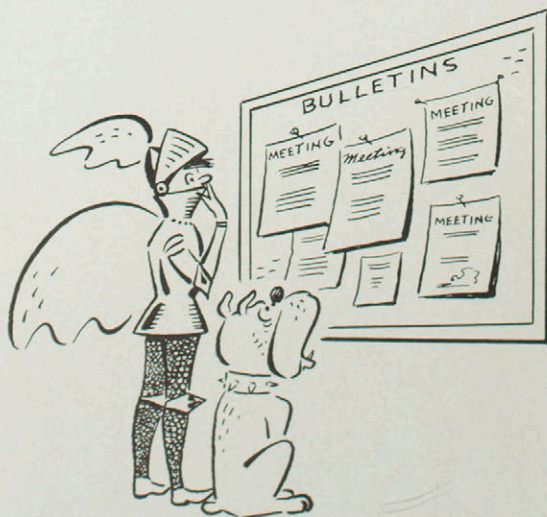

Mrs. Augusta Pitts Mize took up her duties as Director of Residence in August, 1951. She is a graduate and former faculty member of Hardin College in Mexico, Missouri, and formerly was assistant director of the Women's Residence Halls at Missouri University.

Alpha Phi Sigma

This year marks twenty-two years as Greek letters for Alpha chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma with monthly get-togethers for high school valedictorians, salutariorians, and college honor roll regulars. Scholarly programs with pepper, such as the one on our furry fellers by Fred Bickell, conservation agent, to "fur"ther our knowledge in this fascinating field; the one about that gallery of the gods, Yellowstone Park, by Mary Lou Clough, three-months visitor there; and one on Greece, its manifold maladies of the present and its hopes for the future, by Ismini Ioannidou, native of Greece, were all arranged under the guiding hand of Sara Beth Pash, vice president and program chairman.

Twenty-three freshmen were initiated amid candles, quotations, and quick-witted actives into their first real Greek organization in October.

Alpha chapter's outer activities this year included a Halloween party complete with cider and donuts, the annual float entry in the Homecoming parade, and a gala April Fool's party in the spring arranged by Pat Farmer.

New members were initiated, new officers elected, and delegates to the Alpha Phi Sigma National Convention in Chicago chosen at the May meeting.

Alpha chapter concluded an active year under the guidance of Dr. Hans H. Hagemann, sponsor, and officers Mary Lou Clough, president; Sara Beth Pash, vice president; Bess Appling, secretary; and Betty Marie Roberts, treasurer.

Kappa Delta Pi

Those who hold highest that lofty beacon for sound personal ideals, sound scholarship, and sound educational ideals are invited to membership in Tau chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary professional society sponsored by Miss Berenice Beggs.

A highlight of the year was the Biennial Convention of Kappa Delta Pi at East Lansing, Michigan, to which Dixie Bowling and Helen Heddeshimer were delegates.

"Resolved: That the Federal government should adopt a permanent program of wage and price control" is the question active debaters of Theta chapter worried over this year. Burl Arnold and Walter Ryle, award winners last year, formed the nucleus for the 1952 squad which worried the question through schools in Missouri and emerged as state champions.

Bertha Belle McClaskey and Stanley Grimm formed an unbeatable team to win the Regents Debate Award for 1952.

Pi Omega Pi

Pi Omega Pi invites to membership those students who are outstanding in scholarship and interest in the commercial field. Members must have either fifteen hours of commercial work or ten hours of commercial work and five hours of education and maintain an S average in the work.

Alpha chapter, the founding chapter, was established on this campus by Dr. P. O. Selby, who remains as faculty sponsor of the organization.

Starting the year with a grand blow-out at the home of Dr. Selby, the POP's continued through the year with meetings twice a month which included stimulating programs and refreshments. Movies on subjects correlated with business comprised a large part of the programs. A movie of the Homecoming activities and football game brought back memories of the "Erase the Bearcats" float entry of Pi Omega Pi. Other memorable programs were given by the Hawaiian girls and by members presenting a skit on the proper techniques of an insurance salesman. The constitution was also revised during the course of the year's activities.

Twenty prospective businessmen and teachers were initiated into Alpha chapter in November, and more became members in the spring.

New officers elected in the spring were John Wiss, president; Ina Mae Claypoole, vice president; Jane Adams, secretary; Donald Pierce, treasurer; Bertha Belle McClaskey, editor and historian; and C. T. Hafner, reporter. Advisers in addition to Dr. Selby were Dr. Charles Kauzlarich and Jesse Mickelson, of the Division of Business Education.

Who's Who

Eighteen Teachers College students were selected to appear in the 1952 directory of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" this year. Recognition by "Who's Who" means that the student has been nominated by a campus committee that is instructed to consider the student's scholarship, his co-operation and leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities, his citizenship and service to the school, his promise of future usefulness.

The "Who's Who" publication first came into print for the school year 1934-1935. Each year nominations are made from approximately 600 colleges and universities.

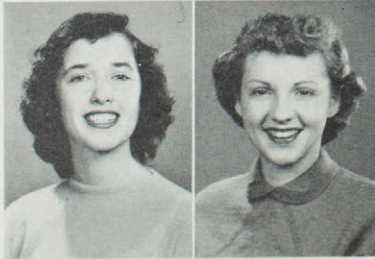

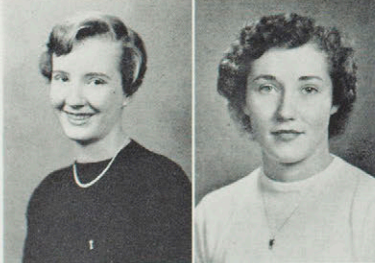

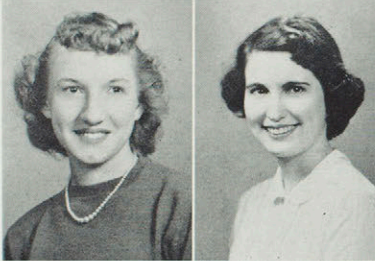

A certificate of recognition is awarded to each member, and a placement service is conducted by the organization for the benefit of seniors and graduates.

College women who display qualities of leadership, scholarship, character, and participation in school activities, and who have 60 hours of college credit, are eligible for membership in Cardinal Key. Sister to Blue Key, the service organization sells Homecoming buttons, does welfare work, ushers at college and civic affairs, and conducts tours on Senior Day.

Ruth Grady, Ina Mae Claypoole, and Judith Krug became members of Cardinal Key in March at the home of Miss Agnes Slemmons, co-sponsor.

Blue Key men caught in the act of just one of the many behind-the-scenes jobs in Homecoming preparation

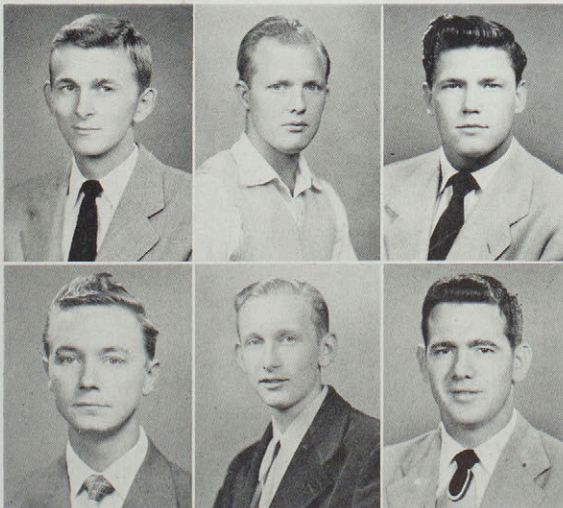

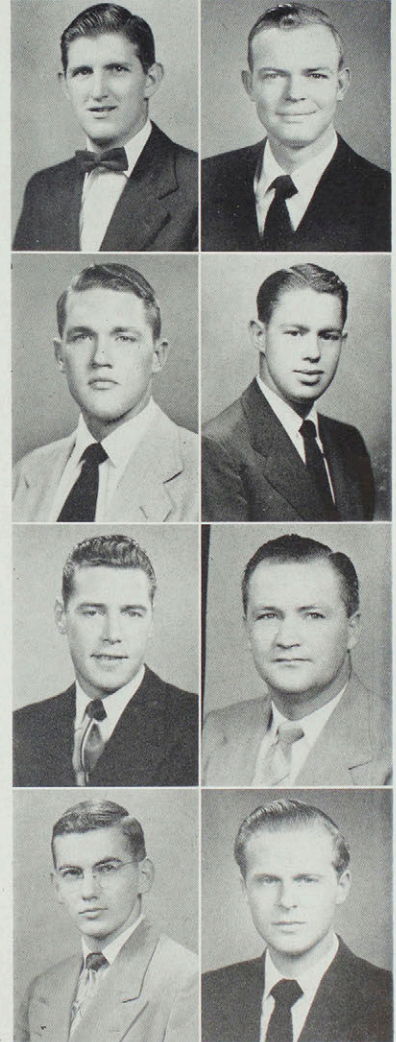

Blue Key fraternity, honorary service organization, invites to membership college men who show definite qualities in leadership, scholarship, character, and who take active part in student affairs. Dr. Richard Sullivan sponsors this top men's organization.

Most important function of Blue Key is the planning and execution of the fall Homecoming festivities. This consumes many hours and months of planning, and the members take pride in smoothly executing the task.

A main project of the group is the publishing of the all school Student Directory, which appears each fall. Other activities include many phases of service to the college, ushering at social functions, conducting tours for Senior Day, and presenting the annual "I Am An American Day" assembly.

Dwight DeRosear was this year's president, ably assisted by David Janson, vice president; Burl Arnold, secretary; and Charles "Bud" Elam, treasurer.

Alpha Phi Omega

Epsilon chapter of Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity is located on these our stomping grounds and is proud to be the group called to meet any need the college might have. The prerequisite for membership is a Boy Scout background and a love of fellow men. Behind-the-scene details are placed in the hands of APO men with the expectation of jobs well done. Cloak-rooming, ushering, looking after the well-being of the average companion of Little Sir are special jobs of APO.

Row 1: Eugene Myers, recording secretary; Marvin Yocum, treasurer; Dwight DeRosear, vice president; Robert Reidmeyer, president; E. H. Goold, sponsor; W. L. Martin, corresponding secretary;

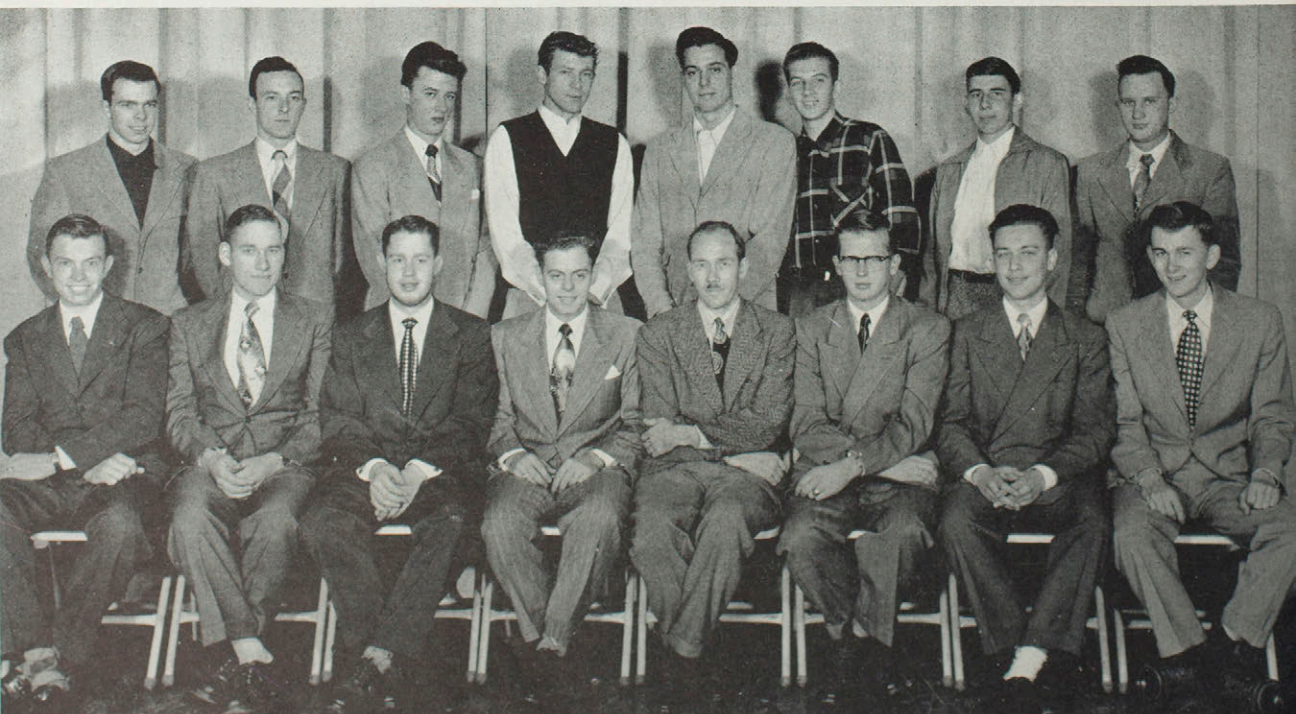

APO started an active year with smokers which resulted in the pledging of new freshman members. Always active in community affairs, APO assisted with the March of Dimes campaign and the Red Cross Bloodmobile drive in Kirksville.

The second annual Ugly Man Contest was in full swing in March with Dr. Charles Kauzlarich winning the key from President Ryle. Runners-up for the honor were "Tubby" Ledbetter, Bill Martin, Laverne Gregory, Dr. Wray Rieger, Jim Koogler, and Red Wade. The ugliest of these was chosen by student vote. Climaxing the contest a dance was held in honor of the winner. Proceeds from the contest and dance went toward the purchase of a school flag.

Marvin Yocum was elected president in the spring quarter to succeed Robert Reidmeyer. Other officers were Gale Jones, vice president; Jack Millin, secretary; Robert McCoy, corresponding secretary; and Eugene Myers, treasurer. Dr. Edgar H. Goold continued as faculty sponsor.

The main project of the spring was the sponsorship of a campus-wide blood drive, which the members supervised in addition to their cloak-rooming, ushering duties.

Aeolian Club

Music, music, music is the theme of the Aeolian Club, sponsored by Dr. Leon Karel. To further their knowledge of music the members hear performances by fellow members and outside musicians at their weekly meetings.

A main activity of the group this year was the presentation of an assembly program in February, demonstrating various types of music and instruments, and presenting the original compositions of the members.

Agriculture Club

Fodder, baled hay, leaves, and old harness decorated Sociability Hall on the night of November 10, when the Ag Club held its annual big event, the Barnwarming. Jane Yarbrough was crowned Queen at the height of an evening of square dancing sparked by a hog-calling contest and refreshments of ham sandwiches, apples, and coffee. Donald Rainer out-yelled Dean Aukerman and Sherod Collins to walk off with the hog-calling prize. Dean Martin and his Town and Country Boys furnished the music for dancing while Charley Hays called the squares. Fifteen-year-old Frank Williams entertained with piano selections.

Another highlight of the Ag Club year was the winning of the first prize for its Homecoming float. About that time too the members appeared on the campus in snappy new jackets advertising the KSTC Ag Club. A skating party and movies filled up bi-monthly meeting dates for the rest of the year.

Waldo Roberts succeeded Glenn Frenzen as president in the spring quarter. Bennie Wells then became vice president; Charles Barnett, secretary; and Donald Rainer, treasurer. Norvell C. Allen and Jay L. Blanchard share the sponsorship.

International Club

This campus UN lets foreign and American students tune their heart strings to something besides "Home Sweet Home." All races, all faces here convene to foster brotherhood.

Spring of '51 the Convention of International Clubs of Missouri was held here with a formal ball featuring food, fun, and music of round-the-world calibre.

Members look forward to the annual banquet which makes foods from all lands just as near as here.

Taking advantage of their special ability in tool handling and construction, the members of the Industrial Arts Club put together a mechanical Homecoming float which actually did "Skin the Bearcats" and took second place.

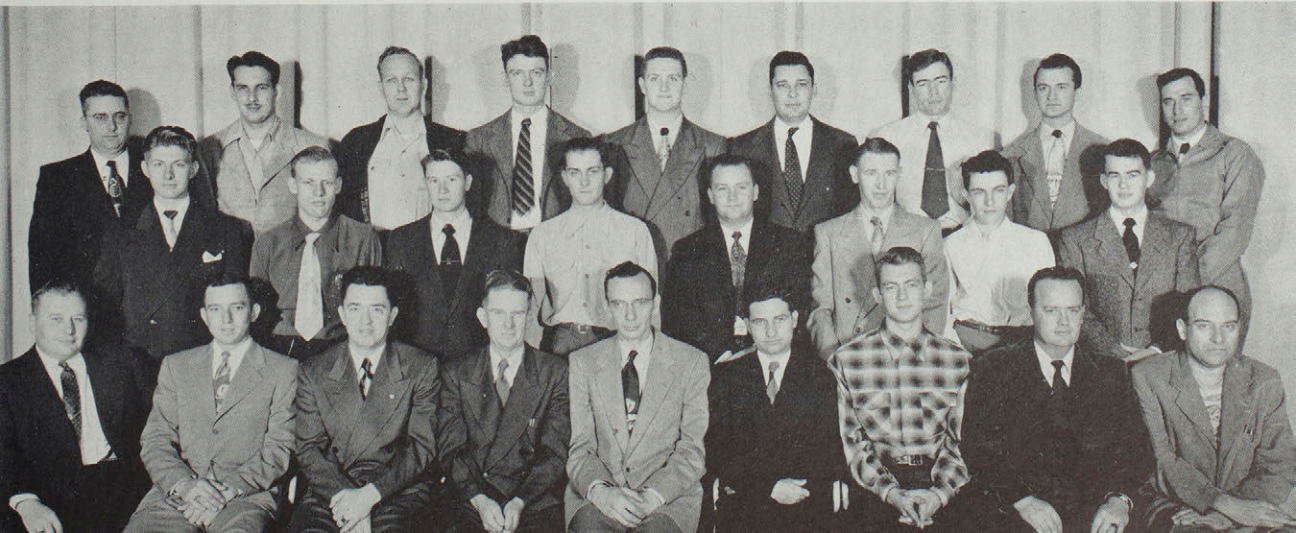

Movies of subjects of interest to Industrial Arts majors made up a large part of the programs at bi-monthly meetings.

Dean Martin succeeded Raymond Crist as president late in the year. Duane Cole and Otho Barnett sponsor the group.

Colhecon Club

Membership in the Colhecon Club, formerly the Ellen H. Richards Club, is open to girls interested in home economics. A large part of the members are majors in home economics.

Jeanine Watson, as president, conducted the meetings of the club, assisted by Marilyn Peterson, vice president; Carol Baker, secretary; Wanda Lewis, treasurer; Nell Caldwell, reporter.

With the theme of the year based on foreign countries, the programs at meetings were given by foreign students on the campus. Slides of her trip to Hawaii were shown by Miss Llorra MaGee, co-sponsor, at one of the meetings. At Christmas time Miss MaGee entertained the future homemakers at her home. A St. Patrick's Day party was the last event held in the year.

Members alternate the responsibility of planning meetings, preparing refreshments, and arranging programs.

Colhecon girls concocted a float for the Homecoming parade and baked cookies for the tea held during the Speech Tournament on the campus.

Displaying their culinary talents the members of the club baked cookies, cup cakes, and other pastries to sell to the Air Force unit stationed here.

Pre-Osteopathic Club

Films, local guest speakers enlightening the members on up-to-date osteopathic findings and interesting scientific info which even Little Sir's microscopic mind could readily understand dotted the programs at bi-monthly meetings of these future doctors.

Noon-day devotions, hayrides, picnics, parties, Homecoming float, Christmas carolling, winning Trump Night skit, party for overseas students, and the gala April Fool banquet meant fun and fellowship for B. S. U. members.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

Alpha Sigma Alpha girls wound their merry way through 1951-52 with various vigorous activities. Bursting out at Homecoming with new red and white wind-breaker jackets came first on the list of achievements, along with the sparkling candidate for Homecoming Queen, Twila Mikel.

After getting officially settled into campus routine freshman girls were rushed. Thirty-one girls were pledged to Alpha Beta chapter as a result of the two rush parties, the progressive travelogue luncheon at the homes of alumnae and the Gypsy Caravan Party at which Carol Wayman was chosen Gypsy Sweetheart.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

The busy and successful year of Delta Sigma Epsilon began with the preparation of the Homecoming float, a mermaid affair, and the "rough sea" sort of played havoc with it. Hearts were made lighter, however, when Judith Todd was crowned Homecoming Queen.

Rush season, featuring a Bunkhouse Barbecue and a Rainbow Party, brought in 18 pledges for Iota chapter.

Always in a party mood, Iota chapter celebrated Christmas in the Women's Parlor and were later entertained by Mrs. Irene Dailey, sponsor, at her home.

Delta beauty shone as Mary Brookhart was crowned Queen of Hearts at Trump Night. The "Minstrel Show" skit may not have been a winner but was fun to put on.

Bertha Belle McClaskey coached the basketball team to the championship in intramurals this year.

Selling birthday calendars and sponsoring a Pancake Day benefited the students while balancing the budget.

With the help of Mrs. Pauline Knobbs and Mrs. Irene Dailey, sponsors, sorority affairs were conducted by Jean Kelly, president; Fritzi Worrell, vice president; Jean Landman, corresponding secretary; Judy Todd, recording secretary; Janis Juergensmeyer, alumnae secretary; Laura Hulse, treasurer; Pat Mogg, sergeant at arms; Mary Brookhart, chaplain; Eli McCollom, historian.

Pi Kappa Sigma

Pi chapter of Pi Kappa Sigma had an eventful year of parties, dances, and activities under the leadership of Miss Willie Whitson, sponsor, and Anna Lou Salladay, president.

Founder's Day, November 17, was celebrated with a huge dinner at the Traveler's Hotel.

The "Hats Off to the Bulldogs" float entry in the Homecoming parade was one of the few that survived the tempest on that day. Dorothy Scott represented Pi Kappa Sigma as a candidate for Homecoming Queen.

As a result of the two rush parties 14 girls went the Pi Kappa way. The first of the parties was an "Alice in Pi Kappa Wonderland" party at the home of Mrs. Joel Sever. The party featured Alice dolls as favors and backward bridge.

Indian tepees, an invitation fire, Indian murals carried out the theme of the "Pi Kap Pow Wow" as the last of the rush parties. Active members of the sorority greeted their guests in Indian costumes. Peace pipes and Indian head dresses were given to the rushees as favors.

Pi Kappa Sigma beamed on Trump Night with a skit which won third prize, and Judith Krug as Queen of Hearts attendant. Coral readers in black and white provided the narration for the black and white pantomime skit entitled "Mellerdrammer," which took third place in Trump Night competition.

In February the pledges wracked their ingenious brains for strange articles to include in a scavenger hunt list. The active members of the sorority were honored guests at the scavenger hunt.

Christmas cards, stationery, and all-occasion cards were sold by members of Pi Kappa Sigma throughout the year as beneficial money-making schemes.

The annual "Spring Fantasy" spring formal dance on April 26 ended the year of activity for Pi Kappas. At the dance a queen was chosen to succeed Shirley Finney, Queen of Jonquils 1951.

Supervising the year's activities were Miss Willie Whitson, sponsor; Anna Lou Salladay, president; Mary Jane Murphy, vice president; Emogene McCollum, corresponding secretary; Jo Ann Madorin, recording secretary; Dorothy Scott, treasurer; Sarah Pulis, corresponding editor; Marjorie Marshall, keeper of the archives; and Phyllis Borron, sergeant at arms.

The visit of national officer, Marilynn Schmitt, on her inspection tour, and the rush pay-off of 25 pledges were big things for Mu chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma this year.

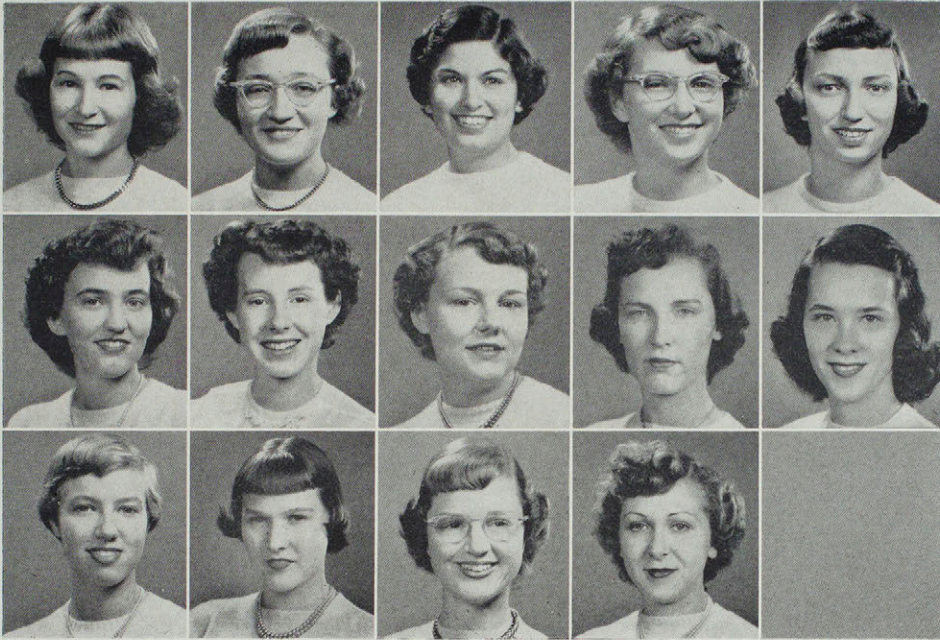

Rushing themes were "Alice in Sigmland" and a Mardi Gras party. A too-true-to-life drama of the Mad Tea party was featured at the Alice party, and Mad Hatter powder mitts were favors. The Mardi Gras was gay and festive with real live clowns as hostesses, Sigma-made clowns as favors, and real French food. Shirley Truitt acted as rush chairman this year.

The stork on the "Expecting a Victory" Homecoming float let Sigma down by bowing to the hurricane, but Kathleen Thomas held up beautifully as Homecoming Queen attendant.

Sigma sparkled twice at Trump Night with Martha Roy as Queen of Hearts attendant and with the calendar girl skit.

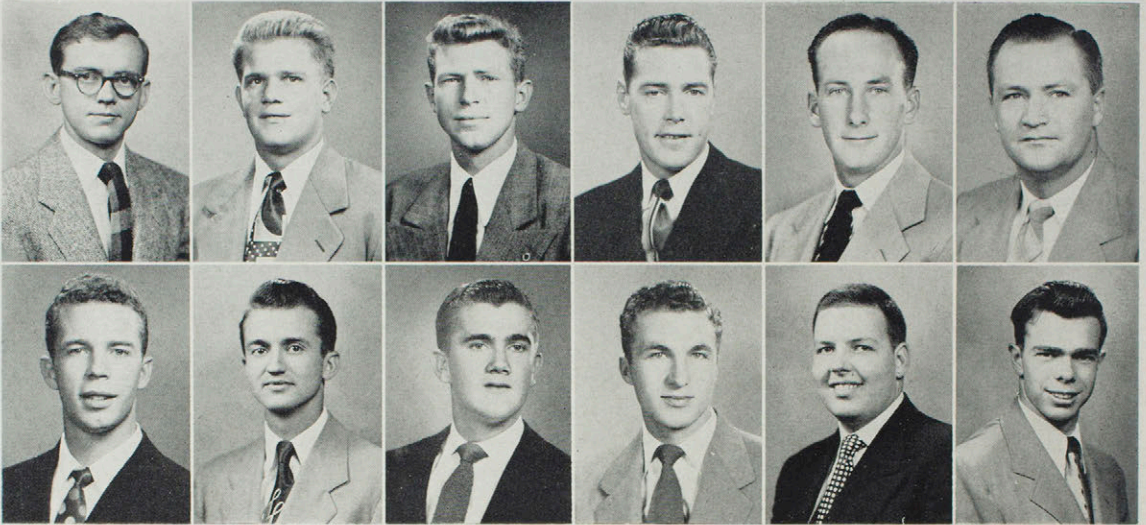

In addition to their outside activities Sigmas worked to retain the Scholarship Cup given by the Panhellenic Council.

Under the watchful eye of Miss Viola Magee, sponsor, Mu chapter was led by Betty June Couch, president; Ann Sue Rogers, vice president; Martha Roy, recording secretary; Kathleen Thomas, corresponding secretary; Carolyn Page, treasurer.

Imagination ran wild for the annual spring formal April 5. April 20 brought the annual mother-daughter Founder's Day banquet.

Phi Sigma Epsilon

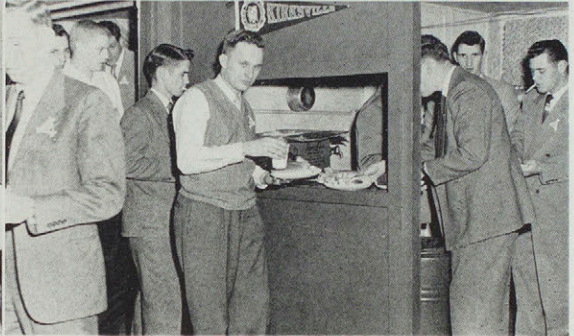

Another year of years went down in the ole log of Gamma chapter of Phi Sigma Epsilon under the sponsorship of Dr. Richard Sullivan, sage of social science, and under the leadership of Charles Myers, president; Charles Elam, vice president; Denny Moore, secretary; and Bill North, corresponding secretary.

November 17-18 Gamma chapter acted as host to the Regional Conclave of Phi Sigma Epsilon.

Rush season rushed in with the annual smoker at the fraternity house and the Apache dance in January with its French underground barroom motif. Thirty-six new pledges then squirmed from worms to genuine actives.

Scoring for honor, Phi Sigma Epsilon members gracefully kicking the pigskin around were Jack Lane, Frank Melvin, Londo Diaz, Clive Frazier, Howard Hall, Dale Henner, Gus Lombardo, and Mel Loncaric, in addition to football co-captains Kenny Rehg and LaVerne Dabney. All told these gentlemen provide about 1900 pounds of Grade A meat to fling at the foe. Gamma chapter rated two members on Who's Who, LaVerne Dabney and Charles Myers, as well as two in Blue Key, Charles Elam and Glenn Frenzen.

Bill Commack reaped honors for his alma frater as co-captain of the basketball team and King of Hearts at Trump Night.

Sigma Tau Gamma

Rush season started off with a bang for Sigma Tau Gamma. The annual rush smoker, thrill of a pipetime, at the fraternity house at 515 South High, made the tobacco company call in reserves.

The '49ers lassoed their lasses, hopped aboard their "chuck"le wagons for the annual '49er Dance. The gals went wild as actives went woolly and Dwight DeRosear went woollier.

Thirty-three pledges tackled initiation, good grooming, and shoe-shining and emerged as Beta brothers.

Sig Tau talent was rewarded at the Homecoming festivities and at Trump Night. The "Dunk the Bearcats" Homecoming float rode away with third prize. First place was awarded to Taus for their "Shooting of Dan McGrew" Trump skit.

Once again in control of the controls on the campus are Sig Tau presidents of all the classes, Student Council, Blue Key, Pi Omega Pi, Sigma Zeta, Historical Society, and Band. Taus boast seven members on Who's Who and eight members in Blue Key. In addition David Janson was selected 1952 Echo King.

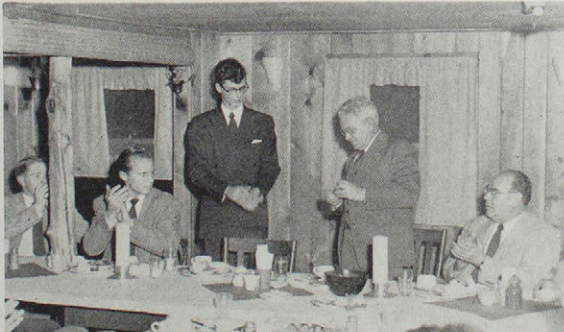

This year's officers were John Wohlschlaeger, president; Dwight DeRosear, vice president; Jerry Flynn, treasurer; Charles Blackwell, corresponding secretary. John Goetze continued as sponsor, and Mrs. Ollie Mason as house mother.

The annual White Rose spring formal, the lass round-up, ended the year with swank to outrank all else.

Student Council

President Dave Janson dives in to come up with the lucky winner of show tickets. He is assisted by Dwight DeRosear, vice president

Activities of the Student Council, governing organization of the student body, are planned for the benefit and enjoyment of the student body. The busy, smooth-running Council this year has brought much pleasure to the students.

Highlighting the activities of the year were the Homecoming Dance featuring the music of Jimmy Palmer; the initiation of the first Trump Night with its King and Queen of Hearts; and the sponsoring of Jimmy Dorsey and his famous 18-piece orchestra for the annual Echo Spring Formal Dance. Other activities of importance were the weekly column of Council Notes in the Index, the sponsoring of the Christmas Formal Dance, open houses, all school movies, a campus-wide blood drive, and the drawing of free show tickets to stimulate attendance at assemblies each week. The all college picnic in the spring ended the Council's activities.

Many fine ideas have arisen from this year's Council, and it will remain a beacon for years to come.

Student Social Committee

The college Student Social Committee is composed of members from the student body at large who volunteer to serve in a limited capacity to help the Student Council in planning and executing activities for all school participation. Many students volunteer annually to become part of this organization. Since the group can be composed of only 20 members, three of which must be Student Council members, the remaining 17 members are chosen from the list of volunteers by the Student Council and the Dean of Women.

The faculty sponsor of the Student Social Committee is, according to the Student Council Constitution, the Dean of Women, Miss Esther Brown. She acts in an advisory capacity to the chairman.

This group forms the nucleus of all decorating, program, and working committees in preparation for school functions. It plans and submits to the Student Council and to the Social Calendar Committee a suggested calendar of social events for fall, winter, spring, and summer quarters that will lead to a well-balanced program of social activities for the students.

Gale Jones was the chairman of this year's Student Social Committee. Other members were Ann Sue Rogers, Bertin White, Shirley Truitt, Jean Moore, Nina Snowden, Jean Cramer, Bill Commack, Eleanor McCollom, Ming Johnson, Jack Millin, Darlene Owens, Janet Delventhal, David Janson, Jim Houtchens, David Strickler, Lloyd Morey, Arlene Benjamin, Bernardine Poe, and Anna Lou Salladay.

Band

Using their keys just right, the band lords opened a door of splendor and music magic at chilly football affairs, at basketball turnouts, and in pompous parades. The appeal of the band is shown by the fact that the band assembly in the fall came out tops in the popularity poll.

Many a metropolis and hitching post again heard the bewitching Teachers College Band as it tunelessly spanked spring awake on the yearly tour March 3 to March 7. Including the Nemo Singers 90 Socrates of the scales made the trip through the St. Louis-Hannibal area. A warmer-upper pre-tour concert was given in LaPlata February 28, and a post-tour concert in Kirk Auditorium on March 13.

Some calculation-conscious fellow figures that a total of 241 hours are spent yearly in nudging out the notes, including 20 hours on tour, 200 hours in daily rehearsals, and 21 hours at sports events.

Director Paul Strub has developed a system of band awards to reward and encourage hard-working band members. Minor awards are given for each quarter of service, major awards of letters are given after three quarters' work, gold bars for the letters for each year's work following. The Silver Key Award, highest honor to be received, rewards three years of service in the band. The annual spring Band-quit was instituted to end the year's activities and present awards.

Assisting Mr. Strub in managing band affairs this year was Rex Moyer, assistant director, along with band officers Al Howard, president; Jim Hanrahan, vice president; Jean Landman, secretary.

Orchestra

Under the beaming baton of Karl Webb, the 55-piece College orchestra of student, faculty, and community musicrats began the season in concert November 18. Other performances were the orchestra assembly February 6, and the spring concert April 6. Besides accompanying the "Messiah," the orchestra was extremely instrumental in the presentation of the opera.

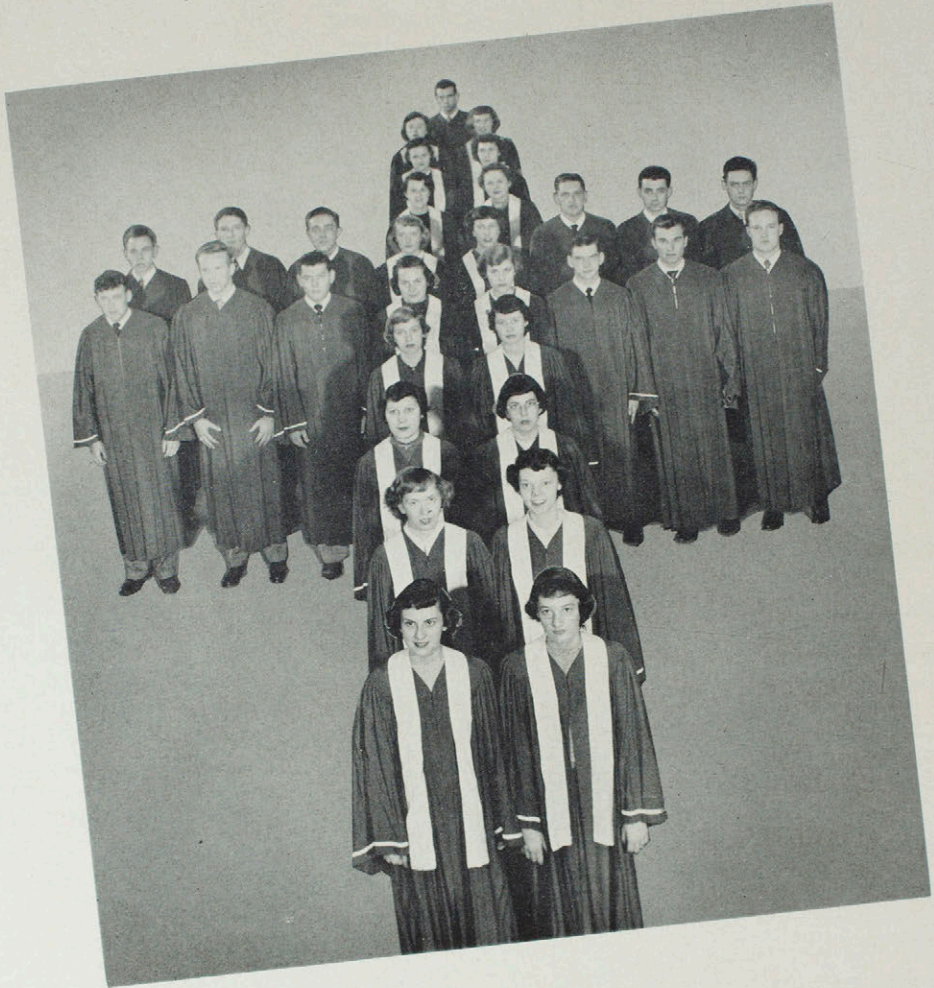

Caper-cuttin' costumes, swelegant songs, a tune-worthy cast coached-by Miss Phradie Wells, snappy stage settings by the art department, acting direction by the speech department, all combined to help this year's miniature Met, "Naughty Marietta," continue the excellent opera appeal of last year's campus classic, "El Capitan."

Nemo Singers

Nemo Singers, a cappella choral group, furnished music and entertainment for the Teachers College students at concerts and programs throughout the year.

Organized for the first time on the campus last year, the Nemos have this year grown to thirty members. Most of the membership is taken from the band with the aid of a few outsiders.

The Nemo Singers traveled with the band on the annual spring tour in addition to giving a concert with the orchestra in November and appearing with the band in concert in Kirk Auditorium at the end of the tour.

Index Staff

The rejuvenated weekly newspaper soared to a field-day high this year with bigger and better issues. Under the guiding hands of Agnes Slemmons, adviser, and H. Greene Simpson, typographical adviser and printer, the staff turned out a top-quality paper. Virgil Hoemann handled the year's business matters, and Bob Schnucker was head shutter-snapper for all printable photos.

In the fall quarter Carla Peterson held the reins as editor, directing reporters Nell Caldwell, Russell Harrison, Catherine Nicol, Lou Ann Parrish, special writers Joyce Crump, Donna Frazier, Elena Lanzani, Stuart Lottman, Glenn Parsons, Russell Vannoy, Irving Waldman, Raymond Williamson, Callie Hicks. Forest Thompson produced the art work, and Jane Bucks was typist.

Winter quarter saw Editor Peterson again cracking the whip over reporters Beverly Blevins, Nell Caldwell, Russell Harrison, Elena Lanzani, Pat Mogg, Lou Ann Parrish, Glenn Parsons, Raymond Williamson, special writers Joyce Crump, Jacquelin Easley, Noemy Jibben, Stuart Lottman, Walter Morrison, Howard Platz, Henry Simpson, Charles Smith, Russell Vannoy, Irving Waldman, Cynthia Zeigler. Al Holzmeier and Walter Miller were recruited to aid in selling ads. Artists included Londo Diaz, Michael Meehan, Herbert Bowling, Kurt Ballard, and Dean Bowman.

A pile of newspapers doesn't last long with news-hungry students like Dwight DeRosear, Jim Hanraban, Al Howard, Lloyd Johns eating up the news of the week

Glenn Parsons took over the editor's reins in the spring quarter, guiding reporters Marian Beal, Dixie Bowling, Barbara Connolly, Lou Ann Parrish, Joann Petershagen, Carla Peterson, Henry Scott, and special writers Joyce Crump, Jim Goeke, Betty Halls, Janis Juergensmeyer, Elena Lanzani, Stuart Lottman, Evelyn Parks, Charles Smith, Russell Vannoy, Irving Waldman, Cynthia Zeigler. Ann Lou Salladay was the typist.

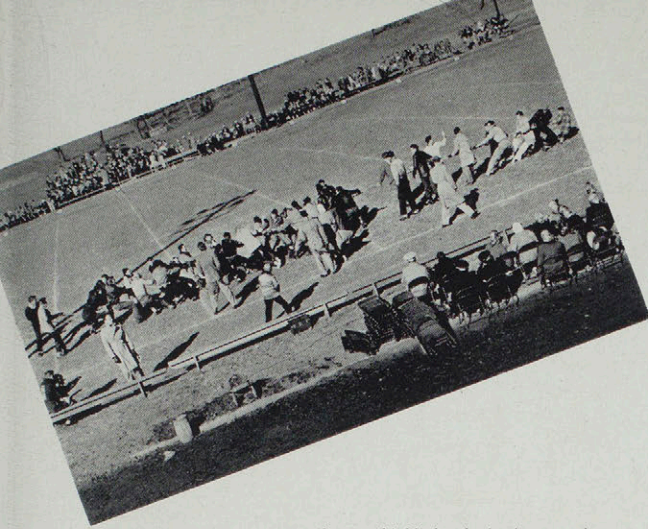

Homecoming

A clear, bright day, its appearance belying the chill of November 3, was the setting for the 1951 Homecoming. This occasion was preceded with a pep rally, snake dance, bonfire to spark the Bulldogs to victory in the next day's game. Spitting snow and howling wind could not dampen the spirit for the Saturday morning parade, noon luncheon, afternoon game, and evening dance.

Miss Betsy Worrell, of the speech department, revealed her life-long ambition and suppressed desire to coach a boy's football team when she presented the pep talk at the rally Friday evening. Also on the rally program were Coach Red Wade and his team, the college band directed by Paul Strub, and the cheerleaders.

Coach Red Wade introduces football team followed by unparalleled spirit in Kirk Auditorium. Snake dance around the square and the huge bonfire ends pre-game Homecoming festivities

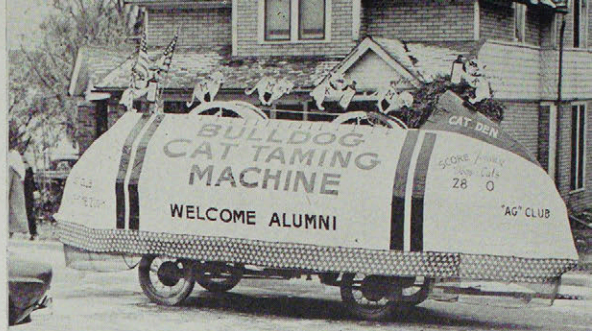

Always a highlight, the freshman-sophomore tug-o-war

Although the wind whipped the floats from the campus through town at parade time Saturday, many well-constructed ones survived the holocaust of Mother Nature. The parade featured about twenty-five floats and twenty-three high school bands.

Claude Dillinger, '26, spoke at the Founders Day and Homecoming Luncheon Saturday noon in Sociability Hall. Alumni, representatives from campus organizations, and faculty members attended the luncheon honoring the graduating classes of 1901 and 1926. Felix Rothschild acted as toastmaster.

Highlighting the two days of spirited activity was the football game Saturday afternoon where despite the howls of an extremely cold wind students packed the stadium to see the Bulldogs squeeze by the Maryville Bearcats 13-12.

Jimmy "Dancing Shoes" Palmer provides entertainment with his very danceable music at the dance climaxing Homecoming activities

Students were confronted with a difficult choice in voting for Homecoming Queen candidates Dorothy Scott, Pi Kappa Sigma; Kathleen Thomas, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Judith Todd, K-Club; Marilyn Simmons, Independent; Twila Mikel, Alpha Sigma Alpha; Jean Kelly, Delta Sigma Epsilon; and Linda Knudsvig, Independent.

Miss Judith Todd, junior from Osgood, sponsored by the K-Club, was chosen by the students from seven candidates as 1951 Homecoming Queen and was crowned at the rally. Her attendants were Jean Kelly, Delta Sigma Epsilon; Linda Knudsvig, Independent; Twila Mikel, Alpha Sigma Alpha; Dorothy Scott, Pi Kappa Sigma; Marilyn Simmons, Independent; Kathleen Thomas, Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Jimmy "Dancing Shoes" Palmer added music to the celebrating at the dance which ended Homecoming festivities.

After many months of careful planning Blue Key again kept events moving at a steady pace for a successful Homecoming.

Dramatics and Debate

Ham is not only a staple article of food but also an essential item on the college bill of fare. Three major productions of the speech and dramatics department were presented this year for the consumption of students.

First of the series was the presentation of Moliere's farce, "The Doctor in Spite of Himself," which brought a touch of 17th century humor to the Little Theater on November 7, 8, and 9. The cast included Bob Grober, Gloria Lanza, Betty Lou Ingraham, Harold Myers, Harmon Tucker, Ed Ashell, Jim Hogan, Gertrude Jongbloed, Marilie Schrock, Jim Houtchens. Members of the production crew were John Goeke, Frances Parcells, Dorothy Piper, Allen Vancil, Evelyn Parks, Mary Jean Wilson, John Claussen, Gary Hanman, Carl Keller, Harold Ledbetter, Mike Mickalek, Gwynne Moots, Carl Tiemann, Lowell Waybill, Dixie Bowling, Jim Hanrahan, Herbert Bowling, Mary Daugherty, Jane Giddens, Nancy Horn, Jane Ronan, Jeanne Shinn, Anne Sykes, Fritz Worrell, Roberta Vaughn, Shirley Truitt, Burl Arnold, Chester Boren, Dwight DeRosear, Nell Caldwell, Don Murphy.

Second on the menu was "The Medicine Man" assembly program directed by Sherod Collins. Rival tall talkers in the cast were Walter Ryle, Hugh Gardner, and Richard Arnold.

Choice bits of Shakespeare were offered in the assembly presentation of Theater-in-the-Round directed by Betsy Worrell. Scenes from Shakespeare's Hamlet, Henry VIII, Comedy of Errors, Henry V, and Romeo and Juliet were set before the audience. Appearing in these scenes were Allen Vancil, Peggy Browning, Frances Parcels, Alyn Burroughs, John Goeke, Jim Goeke, Grethe Holm, Gertrude Jongbloed, Bob Grober, Pat Paul, Gloria Lanza, Jim Hogan. Narrators were Shirley Truitt and Harold Myers. Mac Howard, Bob Grober, and Keith Stout sang "Brush up your Shakespeare" as an appetizer. Crew for the production included John Goeke, Bob Grober, Jim Hogan, Lowell Waybill, Kenneth Farthing, Mary Jean Wilson, Marjorie Marshall, Amelia Hassen.

"The Case of the Sulky Girl," Perry Mason thriller-diller, was selected by Sherod Collins for the spring production.

Trump Night

Under the pressure of the general belief that the old Carnival had worn itself threadbare on our campus, the Student Council instituted the first Trump Night to take its place. The Council drew out the best points of the Carnival and interlocked them with new ideas to present a variety show of skits and individual performers followed by a dance.

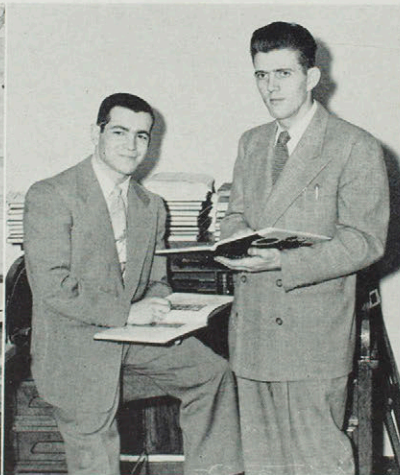

With Harold Mickelson as master of ceremonies nine skits were presented for a full Kirk Auditorium on February 16. Prizes for skits were awarded to Sigma Tau Gamma for its "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," to Baptist Student Union for "The Case of Bobby Dean Imbecile vs. the State of Suspense," and to Pi Kappa Sigma for its "Mellerdrammer."

Echo Staff

Many hours and months of back-breaking and brain-racking toil in the office affectionately dubbed the "Upper Sanctum" have gone into the construction of that monument of memories, the 1952 Echo. Through the combined struggles of Kurt Ballard, adviser, and the staff the book was compiled during a hectic year.

Ken Shockley, business manager, and his assistant Ed Ashell worried with the Business Office over balancing the budget, collected and spent money, in addition to worrying over the contemplated advertising sales.

Scientific, skillful Bob Schnucker and Hugh Gardner are responsible for the excellent snapshot photography in the Echo. Without their willing and cheerful co-operation and assistance the wild dreamings of the editor and staff could not have been achieved.

Russell Vannoy, Irving Waldman, and Ann Sue Rogers became versatile weavers of words in writing and re-writing editorial copy.

Time grew short as the staff frantically worked to meet the March 25 deadline and waited anxiously until May 15 to see the result.

Dear Miss Clough:

I am returning by separate mailing the photos,
and have indicated my choice on each winning photo.

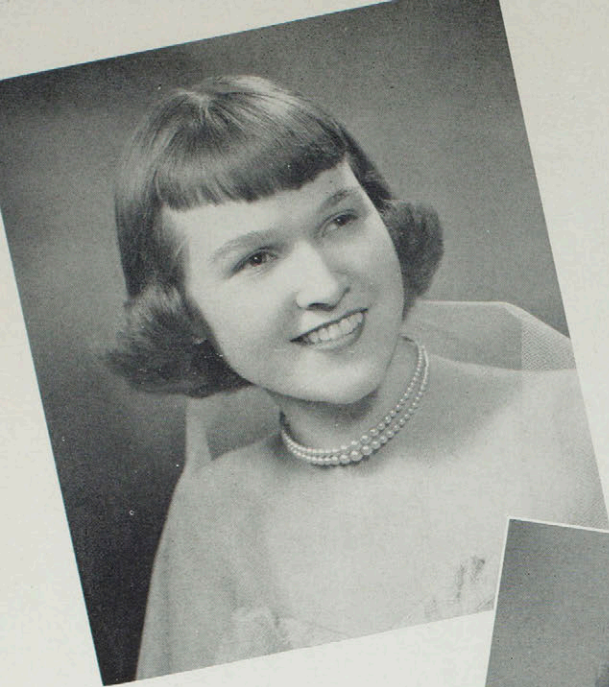

It was truly quite difficult to choose the winners, as all the girls are beautiful, and the boys handsome. However, my final choice in each case is:

I greatly enjoyed acting as your judge, and sincerely appreciate your asking me to do so.

Most sincerely,

If Little Sir were asked what he felt was most significant about the fall quarter his immediate reply would be the gridiron performance of the Tutors which earned them the title of Co-Champions. A combination of fine coaching, good material, and strong school support pulled Kirksville over four conference opponents.

During the season the winningest team in fifteen years scalped the Cape Girardeau Indians 12-0, buried the Rolla Miners 21-7, booted the Warrensburg Mules 22-6, skinned by the Maryville Bearcats 13-12 in the Homecoming version, and tied Springfield 19-19.

Of the five contests the one with Springfield for the tie count proved most exciting since the Bulldog offense pulled it out of the fire in the last seconds.

In the final meeting of the season the Quincy Hawks clawed the Tutors unmercifully to break the eight-game undefeated streak.

Thirty-four lettermen were named by Coaches Wade and Gardner at the end of the most successful football season in fifteen years. The lettermen, squad, and coaches were honored at the annual football banquet held in Blanton Hall cafeteria December 14. The famed "Galloping Ghost" Red Grange, All Time All-American football star, high-lighted the program at the banquet. One of the nation's top sports publicists, Mark Cox, was also featured at the banquet.

Five men on the Bulldog team were named for All-Conference honors. Edward Bender, quarterback, and LaVerne Dabney, center, were selected as members of the MIAA All Star Team. Three positions on the second team went to Darrel Fouch, end; Roger Biesemeyer, guard; and Kenneth Reh, halfback.

A final honor for the team was the presentation of gold football charms to them by President Ryle on March 12.

Football crowds cheered the Bulldogs on to many victories under the direction of Elizabeth Lamb, Nina Snowden, Ming Johnson, Dave Strickler, Doris Quinn, Adele Abe, Lil Alder, and Jean Plenge

Basketball

A five and five record in the MIAA and an overall record of twelve victories and seven defeats put the Bulldog hustlers in third place in the conference this year. Coach King was able to weed out a hustling ball club from the twenty-three basketball hopefuls that greeted him as the season began.

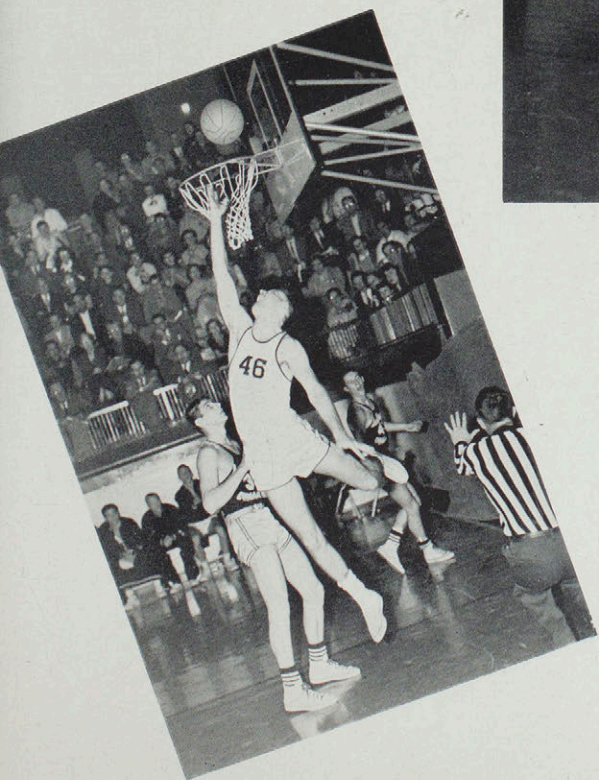

In reviewing the round-ball season we see that the first conference game ended in a 37-27 score with the victory for Springfield. Kirksville took the first MIAA victory of the season by stalling a win from Maryville 35-30. The Rolla Miners suffered a 74-41 fiasco in Kirk with Commack and Beck leading the Dogs to victory. A three to one conference standing was accomplished by the Bulldogs with a 57-37 victory over Cape Girardeau.

Rolla avenged her former defeat in a turn about decision 62-61. The four to four count came with the win over Cape Girardeau 59-39, and the defeat at the hands of Warrensburg 50-43. Sims led the Tutors in taking a thriller from Maryville 42-39. Warrensburg was next to defeat Kirksville by a score of 59-40. The final game of the year saw the Tutor Dogs bowing to Springfield 58-46.

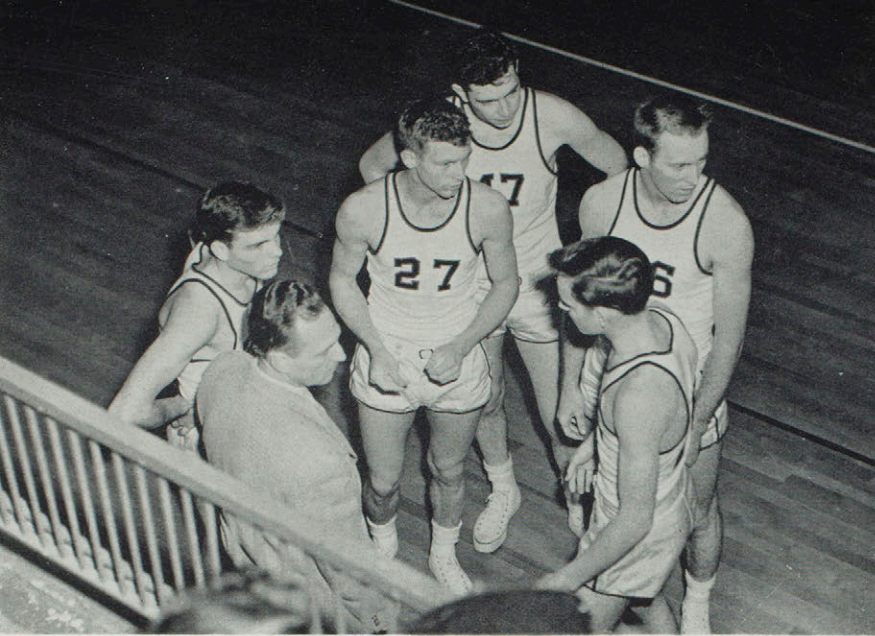

High scorer for the season was Willard Sims with a total of 206 points. Second was Cafer with 141, next came Lawrence with 138, and Commack with 132.

Willard Sims, a sophomore forward, was the only Bulldog selected as a member of the All-Conference MIAA team.

Track and Intramurals

The Teachers College thinclads competed in indoor and outdoor meets starting March 22 at Columbia. Three meets were scheduled for April, one at Kirksville, one at Central, and one at Missouri Valley. Although their practice was delayed by the weather, Coach Gardner's team was entered early in the season in high jump, two-mile run, shotput, mile run, 440-yard dash, low hurdles, 880-yard run, and mile relay.

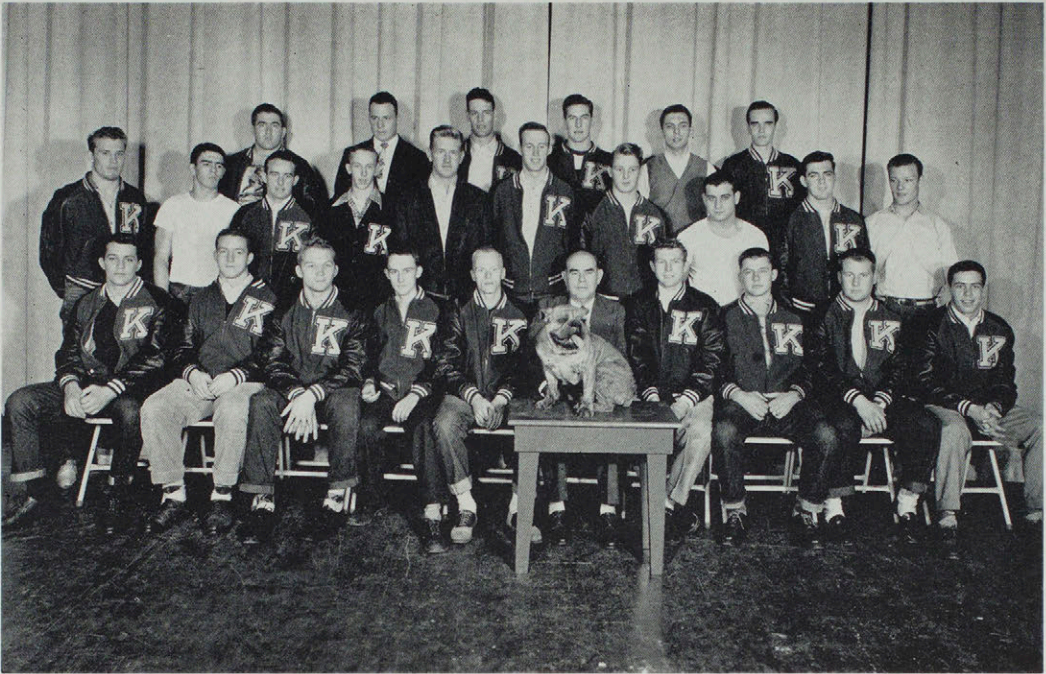

Sigma Tau Gamma came out as victors in the volleyball intramural competition of eight teams. Fourteen teams were entered in the basketball intramural tourneys.

For the first time in many years a golf team and a tennis team were organized on the campus. R. E. Valentine coached the golfers, while Dr. E. H. Goold coached the tennis enthusiasts and scheduled out of town meets for them.

K-Club

Organized in 1934, the K-Club has maintained its purpose of the establishment of high ideals and traditions for the athletes of the Teachers College throughout the years. Membership is restricted to the athletes who have earned letters for consistent ability in inter-collegiate competition as members of the Bulldog teams.

The club illustrated its unexcelled spirit this year in launching a drive for the purchase of a bulldog mascot for the college. Through the unceasing efforts of the members "Brandy" was purchased and diligently cared for through the year.

In addition to active participation in sports, the members serve in a materially beneficial way to the college. They set up refreshment stands at sports events, sell programs at football and basketball games, assist at track meets and at the high school sub-regional basketball tourney held annually in Kirk Auditorium. This year they co-operated with Cardinal Key in selling Homecoming buttons and pom-poms.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association is devoted to the development of sportsmanship and interest in athletic activities. It is composed of more than twenty girls, many of whom are majors in physical education and recreation. Miss Kathryn Riddle, head of the women's physical education department, sponsors the group.

W.A.A. this year sent three delegates, Marie Dreher, Jean Sappington, and Adele Abe, to the regional meeting of W.A.A. in St. Louis on October 11-12. They participated with other college women in discussion groups concerning problems of W.A.A. activities.

A major project of the W.A.A. is the sponsoring of women's intramural games in volleyball, basketball, tennis, and softball. Members assist in scheduling and refereeing the games. The group also holds recreational play periods for college women. Letters are awarded on a point basis for participation in the recreational program.

Just Thanks

Those of us who were closely associated with the organization and composition of the 1952 Echo here on the campus cannot take all of the credit for its existence. Our appreciation must be expressed for the many forces that combine to make its publication possible.

Our special thanks to Little Sir Echo for honoring us with a year's visit. It is our hope that he will stay with us a few years longer.

Especially helpful with sound advice and support were Mr. Ralph Kolb, manager of the college annual department at Burger-Baird Engraving Company, Kansas City; and Mr. Fred Bassman, sales manager at Mid-State Printing Company, Jefferson City. Jack Abshier, artist at Burger-Baird Engraving Company, is to be complimented for his creation of Little Sir Echo.

We are greatly indebted to Mr. Glenn Rider of Rider-Philpott Studio, Kansas City; and to Mr. George Alexander of Alexander Studio, Kirksville, for their cooperation and outstanding photographic contributions. Echo staff photographers Hugh Gardner and Bob Schnucker contributed hours of work as well as a dark room and equipment for the betterment of the Echo.

We are especially grateful to Mr. Kurt Ballard, Echo adviser, for advice and constant moral support in addition to the cover and end sheet designs. David Janson is to be thanked for his technical advice and labor.

On the campus the students, organizations, faculty, President's Office, Dean's Office, Business Office, Stenographic Office, and the Student Council all contributed their share toward the Echo.

The 1952 Echo staff hopes that with all of this excellent help it has succeeded in its efforts to please you. May the 1952 Echo ever echo this school year in your memories.
