THE NMSU STUDENT CAMPAIGN for United Way has been set for Oct. 20-27. An all-out campus effort will be made to reach the goal of $1,300, which is 25 cents per student. In other words, if each student gave up one soda, the goal would be reached.

United Way also is sponsoring a contest with competition in two categories. The first competition will be between residence halls, IFC and Panhellenic Council. The group that gives the most money determined by percentage according to membership will win a plaque. A second category of competition will be between campus organizations. The winner also receiving a plaque will be determined by the most money given. Results of the competition will be announced at noon Oct. 27 in the Student Union Building. Official presentation of the plaques will be made at Parents Day on Nov. 5.

On Thursday, Oct. 20, a United Way benefit Pzazz will be in the Student Union Building. Admittance will be by donation to the United Way. Friday, Oct. 21, will be a Purple Omen of Halloween, a Faculty Monster contest will be held in the Student Union Building on Oct. 25-26. A vote for your favorite Faculty Monster will cost 25 cents.

MID TERM is tomorrow. It is the last day to drop full semester courses without code. First half block courses end today; second half block courses begin Monday.

TODAY IS the last day to inspect eight vehicles used by Northeast Missouri State University for sale by the state. The vehicles may be inspected from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Old Air Force Base, seven miles north of Kirksville. Written bids will be opened on Oct. 21. For further information, contact Max Mulford, director of custodial services, at ext. 7181.
