FASHION SHOW...The University's Home Economics Division is sponsoring a fashion show at 7:30 p.m., April 28 in the Little Theatre of Baldwin Hall. Admission will be free.

Home Economics students will be the models; some of the clothes will be furnished by local merchants, others will be the students' original designs. Both men's and women's fashions will be modeled.

"GLIMPSE INTO YOUR SECRETARIAL FUTURE"..... Former Northeast faculty members Donald and Jolene Scriven will return to the campus April 30 to conduct a seminar entitled "Glimpse Into Your Secretarial Future" in the Activities Room of the SUB. The Scrivens are presently on the faculty at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb.

The seminar is being sponsored by the Kirksville chapter of National Secretaries Association (International), in conjunction with Secretaries Week, April 24-30. For further information, contact Marge Mullins or Theresa Brumbaugh in Maintenance.

THOUSAND HILLS STATE PARK is the sight of a picnic for Mass Communications majors to be held this Sunday beginning at 2 p.m. A hot dog supper will be served at 5:30 at the enclosed shelter house. Tickets for the event are $1.50 and can be obtained at the 2nd floor of Adair House.

SENATE ELECTIONS...Elections for the 1977-78 Student Senate and Supreme Court are taking place today. Students may vote between the hours of 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. Polling places are located in Ryle, Missouri and Centennial Halls and the third floor of the SUB. On-campus students will vote in the halls in which they eat and off-campus students, including residents of Campbell and Fair Apartments, will vote on the third floor of the Union. Students must present a validated I.D. in order to vote.

SOPHOMORE TESTS TODAY...All currently enrolled sophomores are required to participate in the University's sophomore testing program today. Sophomores will be excused from regularly scheduled classes this afternoon from 1:30-4:30.
