

Northeast Today

November 8, 1976

THE COORDINATING BOARD FOR HIGHER EDUCATION'S two-day meeting on campus concludes at 3 p.m. today in the Student Union. The sessions are open to the public.

SWINE FLU IMMUNIZATIONS will be given to faculty, staff and students this Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. in Pershing Arena. The Missouri State Department of Health, with the aid of volunteer help, will provide the free inoculations.

The inoculations will be administered using the "pressure gun" method, which is relatively painless. Anyone younger than 21 must have a parental release.

THANKS TO ALL THOSE who participated in Homecoming. You were a super bunch of people to 'hang in there' despite the rain.

Vonnie Nichols

ALL FACULTY ARE INVITED to attend Parents' Day this Saturday beginning with a registration and coffee hour from 9:30-10:30 a.m. in the Quiet Lounge of the Student Union. Faculty also are invited to join the parents and University administrators for a general session beginning at 10:30 in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. If you plan to attend the general session, please let Vonnie Nichols know in Campus Activities (ext. 7203) so you can be introduced.

THE RED CROSS BLOODMOBILE will be on campus tomorrow through Thursday from noon to 6 p.m. in the SUB Activities Room under the sponsorship of the Blue Key service organization. President McClain will be the first donor.

Refreshments will be supplied by Blue Key and Cardinal Key members and served by the University Dames.

UNITED WAY UPDATE ... Ed Carpenter, campus drive chairman, announces that Safety and Security is the first division on campus to report 100% participation in the United Way. Congratulations! So far, the University as a whole has only reached 65% of its goal of $10,000. Please turn in your donations soon.

THE FIFTH ANNUAL ART ALUMNI EXHIBITION by Robert J. Evans continues through Nov. 17 in the University Art Gallery. It features paintings and prints.

Evans received his bachelors degree in art education at Northeast in 1967 and his master's in painting at Southern Illinois University in 1970. Since 1971 he has been curator of the Illinois State Museum in Springfield.

THE NEWSPAPER FUND OF THE WALL STREET JOURNAL is offering summer internships to students interested in newspaper work as a career. Any junior student who has not had a course in news writing or editing but is interested in newspaper work as a career should contact Jack Dvorak, 208 Nason Hall, before Thanksgiving. Deadline for application for internships is Dec. 1.

PHI DELTA KAPPA will hold its monthly meeting at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the SUB Conference Room. Regular members and interested graduate students in education are encouraged to attend.

UNICEF CHRISTMAS CARDS, calendars and notepaper will be sold by the Lutheran Student Association through Dec. 3 from 10:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. in the main concourse of the SUB. Orders may be placed or items purchased directly. For further information contact Mike Flynn at ext. 7798 or Mary Kohlenberg, 283 Violette Hall, ext. 2758.

THE BICENTENNIAL COMMITTEE has set a deadline of this Friday for turning in materials of historical significance for inclusion in a time capsule to be sealed next month. If you have questions contact Ruth Towne, ext. 3324, Chris Jarboe, 665-2885, or Walter Ryle, ext. 3341.

"VIVA LA DIFFERENCE," an Interpreters Theatre production scheduled for tomorrow, has been cancelled.

ANYONE MAY ENTER the Window Decal Contest being sponsored by the Dean of Student's Office. The winning entry will be used as a logo for the University and will bring a $40 prize. The second place winner will earn $20. Contest rules are available in the Dean's Office. The deadline for entries is Nov. 15.

DR. STEVE BROCKMAN, who is affiliated with the Center for Faculty Evaluation and Development at Kansas State University, Manhattan, will be on campus tomorrow to discuss IDEA evaluations. IDEA is a method of faculty evaluation by students.

He will meet with Practical Arts instructors for breakfast, then host an open meeting for faculty from 8:30-9:30 a.m. in the Alumni Room. He will meet with the division heads from 9:30-11 a.m. in the SUB Conference Room and will be available from 11 a.m. to noon in the Conference Room for other interested faculty. In the afternoon he will meet with the science division.

JACK MAGRUDER of the Science Division was named president-elect of the Science Teachers of Missouri last week in Kansas City. The organization is an affiliate of the National Science Teachers Association.

A MEETING ON PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION is scheduled for 3 p.m. Wednesday in the SUB Alumni Room under the direction of the Social Science faculty. On Thursday from 1-5 p.m., representatives of various seminaries will be available to talk with students during "Seminary Day." A panel discussion will be held at 3:30 p.m. in the Tangerine Room. The seminar is open to everyone.

Interested persons also are invited to attend one or more of the classes in introduction to theology which Meredith Eller is giving at 11:30 p.m. on Mondays at the Wesley House.

JEFFREY PIPER, trumpeter and a member of the University Fine Arts Division, will give a faculty recital tomorrow at 8 p.m. at Quincy College. He will be assisted by Susan See, piano, and Anne Miller, English horn.

IMPORTANT DUE DATES for graduates planning to complete master's degree requirements for fall, 1976: Dec. 3 -- theses, Dec. 8 -- comprehensive results. For further information contact the office of the Dean of Graduate Studies, 110 Baldwin Hall.

"BOOKS BELONG" is the theme of a display commemorating Children's Book Week on the 2nd and 3rd floors of the Library this week. Next week is American Education Week and a display entitled "Learning's Half the Fun" will replace "Books Belong."

THE "SUMMA ROLE", a list of upperclassmen who maintain a 3.75 or better G.P.A., is on display in the Student Senate display case on the north wall of the SUB Concourse.

DR. FRED SUDERMANN, Director of Research-Sponsored Programs at Wichita State University, will be on campus Monday, November 29, to present a workshop on grant proposal writing and the proposal review process. The workshop will be held in the Alumni Room of the SUB at 2:30 p.m. All interested faculty, staff, and students are invited.

FACULTY NOTES ... Herman Wilson, Language and Literature, was a guest lecturer Oct. 21 at Marceline High School and Oct. 26 at Kirksville High School....Pat Ellebracht, Social Science, had as recent speakers in his tele-lectures series: A.S. Barber, chairman of Barber-Greene Company, Aurora, Ill., and J.J. McTernan, vice president of finance, Communications Satellite Corporation, Washington, D.C. On Nov. 11, James R. Barker, chairman of Moore McCormack Resources, Inc., Stamford, Conn., will speak at 8 a.m. in 307 Laughlin Building....An exhibition of ceramics by Ed McEndarfer, Fine Arts, is showing at the Columbia Art League Gallery through Nov. 17. McEndarfer recently won the Vera Mott Memorial Purchase Prize in the Missouri Craft Council Show. The purchases piece, which becomes part of a permanent collection of Missouri crafts, is a planter depicting range cattle and mountain landscape.