CAREER CENTER PROGRAM HELPS STUDENTS APPLYING TO MEDICAL SCHOOL

The Career Center will host the "Paging All Doctors" program to assist students interested in applying to medical school Feb. 9.

The day will begin with pre-med mock interviews from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. in the Career Center. Students must sign up in the Career Center for an interview time.

"Med School Application Preparation," will begin at 5 p.m. in Magruder Hall 1098. Students will learn the do's and don'ts of the intense application process.

Finally, students can participate in "You are the Admissions Committee," at 5 p.m. in Magruder Hall 1098. Students will switch roles and play the admissions committee while reviewing mock applications.

Registration can be completed at <http://pdi.truman.edu/register/classlist.asp>.

FREE APPLICATION FOR FEDERAL STUDENT AID

All students are encouraged to file the 2009-2010 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) located at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>. It is important to apply before April 1 to be considered for all available funding. Contact the Financial Aid Office, McClain Hall 103, or 785.4130, if you have any questions.

Walker and Doris Allen Fellowship for Faculty Excellence Recipients Announced

Three Truman faculty members, Carol Cox, Michael Kelrick and Ian Lindevald, have been honored with the Walker and Doris Allen Fellowship.

President Darrell Krueger, along with Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Troy Paino, surprised the faculty members with the $10,000 Fellowship Feb. 2.

Cox, professor of health, has been a member of the health and exercise sciences faculty at Truman since the 1994-1995 school year. She received her Bachelor of Science in health education and physical education from Slippery Rock University, followed by a master's degree in counseling from Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania and a Ph.D. in health education from Pennsylvania State University. Her research interests include school health programming and worksite health promotion programs.

Kelrick, a professor of biology and director of interdisciplinary studies, has been a member of the Truman faculty since 1987. He received a Bachelor of Arts from Harvard University and a Ph.D. from Utah State University. Kelrick's research interests include conservation biology, and most recently, population dynamics modeling of a rare plant species in Missouri.

Lindevald, an associate professor and chair of the physics department, has been at Truman since 1992. He received his Bachelor of Arts from Gettysburg College and a Ph.D. from Case Western Reserve University. His research interests include modal characteristics of clarinet reeds, imaging vibrations of surfaces using holography and sound propagation in nonuniform waveguides-horns.

Alumni Walker and Doris Allen established the Fellowship eight years ago with one of the largest outright gifts ever made to the Truman State University Foundation.

Walker W. Allen graduated from Truman (then Northeast Missouri State Teacher's College) in 1939 with a bachelor's degree in business education.

The $10,000 Walker and Doris Allen Fellowship recognizes outstanding faculty members who have greatly contributed to the success of the University and its students.

The Leadership Recognition Program banquet will be at 7 p.m. April 8 in the Student Union Building Georgian Room.

Walton Serving as Public Relations Intern

Allison Walton, a senior public communication major, is serving as the intern for the Public Relations Office during the spring semester.

Walton is from Wentzville, Mo., and is a 2005 graduate of Timberland High School. She is the daughter of Larry and Linda Walton and has an older sibling, Miranda, who graduated from Drury University in 2007.

As the intern, she will assist in the writing, producing and distributing of the University newsletter, Truman Today, as well as posting it online. She will also be responsible for writing press releases and performing various office duties.

Walton currently serves as the secretary of Lambda Pi Eta, a communication honor fraternity, and is a member of Phi Sigma Pi, the Advertising and Public Relations Organization, Alpha Phi Omega and VOX: Voices for Planned Parenthood.

Walton's interest in obtaining experience and skills in various communication outlets led her to this position.
