SUMMER WORK ON WEST GERMAN FARMS can be arranged for qualified American students through the German Academic Exchange Service in New York. Students must be U.S. citizens, must have at least junior status and must have completed at least one year of college-level German by May 31, 1984. The work is in the form of a traineeship with trainees receiving free room and board and approximately $200 per month. Application deadline is Feb. 15, 1984. For further information, contact Connie Reid in 282 Baldwin Hall or write the German Academic Exchange Service, 535 Fifth Avenue, Suite 1107, New York, NY 10017.

INTERNSHIPS FOR TRAVEL ASSISTANTS are available with the Council on International Educational Exchange in New York City. The internships are for the period from January through September 1984. For further information, contact Chris Lawrence, Council for International Educational Exchange, 205 East 42nd Street, New York, NY 10017.

A CHRISTMAS CANNED FOOD AND TOY DRIVE will be sponsored by Delta Tau Alpha now through Christmas at any local store with a collection barrel. Everyone is asked to donate canned food items and/or toys for the needy in Adair County.

THE DECEMBER FACULTY DJ SHOW will run the week of Dec. 14. This month's show features Ollin Drennen, Rieger-Black distinguished professor of physics and natural science; Nancy Goulden, instructor of speech; and Tom Lundberg, assistant professor of industrial education. To vote for your favorite, call the KNEU Office at 785-4506 or 785-5638.

STATIONERY DESIGNED BY DAVID SNODGRASS, senior, will be sold by the Artistic Students of Baldwin until Dec. 20, for $1.50. Interested people should contact Mike Yount at 785-5542.

A LIST OF OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING will be made available by Student Senate today through Dec. 20 in the Student Senate Office in the Student Union Building. The apartments listed will be available for the spring semester.

A "KEWPPIES" CHRISTMAS" DISPLAY will be shown from now until the end of the semester, on the second floor of Pickler Memorial Library. The display honors Missourian Rose O'Neill, originator of Kewpies in 1909. A 70-year-old Kewpie doll is featured in the display.

A USED BOOK SALE will be held by the NMSU Veterans Club from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Jan. 10-13, in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Students may bring in their books to sell on Tuesday and Wednesday. Books will be for sale Wednesday afternoon through Friday.
