

Northeast Today

Thursday, April 20, 1978

"HAPPENINGS"

TODAY, April 20

Second Semester Sophomores
tested Today
Residence Hall Week activities
Today and Friday
24-Hour Brownout -- 8 am
begins Today
Student Senate --8 am-4 pm, MH, RH,
Elections CH, SUB
Women's Tennis --1 pm, Campbell
Tennis Courts
Faculty-Staff --3 pm, Geo. Rm.,
Retirement Recep- SUB
tion
Mime workshop --3 pm, Dance Studio,
PB
Phi Alpha Theta & --6:30 pm, Shamrock
Historical Society Inn, S. Hwy. 6 &
Banquet 63 Junction
"A Portrait of a --7:30 pm, 240, SH
Nurse"
"Chopin in History:--8 pm, Act. Rm.,
The Problem of SUB
Personality"
"Administration- --8:30 pm, Cafe., MH
Student Relations"
Daybreak --8 pm, Tang. Rm.,
SUB
SAB Mini Concert --8 pm, Little
Theatre, BH

FRIDAY, April 21

Last day to drop second half block courses & full semester courses
with codes

continued on back

A RECEPTION HONORING retiring members of the faculty and staff along with those who have served the University for 10 and 25 years will be held at 3 today in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. All faculty, staff and students are invited to attend to honor them.

PRESIDENT CHARLES J. MCCLAIN will speak on "Administration-Student Relations" at 8:30 tonight in Missouri Hall Cafeteria. A question/answer session will follow. Everyone is invited to attend this program sponsored by the Missouri Hall Council.

THE SCHWENDEL-LINCOLN COLLECTION DEDICATION CEREMONIES on Saturday, April 29, through Monday, May 1, will feature a Lincoln Contest, dedication ceremonies, a dinner and State of the Union Address by former U.S. Congressman Thomas B. Curtis, and a history symposium called "Lincoln and His Interpreters" featuring three Lincoln experts. Fred Schwengel, president of the U.S. Capitol Historical Society and a 1930 NMSU graduate, is giving the University his 3,000-book collection. Reservations for the dinner are $6.50 per person and should be made by Wednesday, April 26, in the Language and Literature Office, 310 Administration/Humanities Building. The schedule:

Lincoln Contest--7 p.m., Saturday, April 29,
Alumni Room, SUB
Dedication Ceremonies--3 p.m. Sunday, April 30,
Special Collection Room, Pickler
Memorial Library
State of the Union Address/Dinner--6:30 p.m.,
Sunday, April 30, Georgian Room,
SUB
History Symposium--7 p.m. Monday, May 1, Baldwin
Auditorium

"HAPPENINGS"

FRIDAY, April 21 cont'd

Fourth Annual --Rms. 2 & 3,
Conference for SUB
Elementary School
Counselors and Guests Today
Human Performance --6 & 10 pm news,
Lab report KHQA-TV

SATURDAY, April 22

Big Bro/Big Sis --Lincoln Square
Car Wash Shopping Center
University Dames --12 noon, Span.
Spring Luncheon Rm., SUB
FCA Small Fry Boy- --1 pm, Stokes
Girl Clinic Stadium
Senior Law --6:30 pm, Span.
Enforcement Rm., SUB
Banquet
"Start the Revolu- --7 & 9:30 pm, Aud.,
tion Without Me" BH

SUNDAY, April 23

Contempo Program --9:45 am, WGEM-TV
FCA Run-For-Fun --1 pm, Stokes
Stadium

A MAKE-BELIEVE BROWNOUT, sponsored by the Residence Hall Association and supported by the Energy Conservation Advisory Committee, begins at 8 this morning. Participating students will: Not use electrical appliances; not take a shower; not use laundry facilities; use little or few lights. Others can help by not using or alternating the use of electrical appliances and equipment from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. today during the peak period of campus energy use. Participants will wear an "I'm Browning Out" button.

STUDENT SENATE ELECTIONS will be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. today. Students living in Missouri Hall, Brewer Hall and Blanton Hall may vote in Missouri Hall. Ryle Hall will be the polling place for students living in Ryle Hall, Grim Hall and Dobson Hall. Centennial Hall residents will vote in their hall. Students living off campus or who are not on the Currently Enrolled List can cast their ballots on the third floor of the Student Union Building. All students are encouraged to vote.

SECOND SEMESTER SOPHOMORES will be tested today. For information and test schedules contact Mike Hughes, psychometrist, in the Testing Office, 103 Administration/Humanities Building, ext. 7184.

RESIDENCE HALL WEEK ACTIVITIES, which center around the theme "We Make It Happen," continue today and Friday. The 24-Hour Brownout begins at 8 a.m. today and continues through 8 a.m. Friday. From 5:30-7:30 tonight, the Wacky Olympics will be held at Red Barn Park. Also tonight, a Pantomime Show is scheduled for 8 in the Little Theatre of Baldwin Hall. Friday's activities include a Picnic Dinner for hall residents from 5-7 p.m. on the Student Union Building Mall. Following the dinner, a Disco Dance featuring KNEU DJ Art Peppard is scheduled for 8 p.m. The week's activities will conclude with the Hall of the Week Awards at 10 p.m. also on the mall. Residence Hall Week is planned to promote residence hall pride and to recognize the role residence halls have in the lives of students.

THE WOMEN'S TENNIS TEAM will face Northwest Missouri State University at 1 p.m. today at Campbell Tennis Courts.

"A PORTRAIT OF A NURSE" will be presented by the Student Nurses Association at 7:30 tonight in 240 Science Hall. Jean Steel, a nurse practitioner from Boston, Mass., is the subject of the documentary. Everyone is invited to attend.

A PANTOMIME PERFORMANCE will be presented by Tim Settimi at the Student Activities Board Mini Concert at 8 tonight in the Little Theatre of Baldwin Hall. Admission is 50 cents or free with a Student Activities Card. Settimi, a mime performer, will conduct a free workshop from 3-5 p.m. today in the Dance Studio of Pershing Arena.

"CHOPIN IN HISTORY: THE PROBLEM OF PERSONALITY," a musical-historical program, will be presented at 8 tonight in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building by Dr. Thomas Higgins, professor of music. The program follows the annual banquet of Phi Alpha Theta, history honorary, and the Historical Society scheduled for 6:30 tonight at the Shamrock Inn. Banquet tickets are still available.

DAYBREAK, a regional Lutheran Youth Encounter, will present a program on the reality of Jesus Christ through music, skits and sharing at 8 tonight in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. This program is sponsored by the Lutheran Campus Movement.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL COUNSELORS and administrators will participate in the Fourth Annual Conference for Elementary School Counselors and Guests on Friday in Rooms 2 and 3 of the Student Union Building. The all-day conference for the expected 35 participants will feature talks by campus experts and local professionals.

TWO SCHOLARSHIPS, in the amount of $50 each, will be awarded by the International Club. Applicants must be International students who will attend NMSU during the fall 1978 semester and who hold a grade point average of 2.5 or above on a 4.0 scale. Applications may be obtained at the International Student Office, 105 Kirk Memorial. Deadline for returning applications is Wednesday, April 26.

FRIDAY is the last day to drop second half block courses and full semester courses with codes.

NMSU'S HUMAN PERFORMANCE LABORATORY will be the topic of a three-minute film report to be presented on the 6 and 10 p.m. evening newscasts of Quincy's KHQA-TV on Friday. The report will include a discussion of NMSU's PE 100 curriculum, available rehabilitation services and the lab's research capabilities.

A CAR WASH will be held Saturday at Lincoln Square Shopping Center by members of the Big Brother/Big Sister Program. Price per car will be $1.

A SPRING LUNCHEON will be held by the University Dames at 12 noon Saturday in the Spanish Room of the Student Union Building. A luncheon fee of $2.50 will be charged. To make reservations, contact Judy Lundberg, Dames president, at ext. 7166 or 665-1490. Reservations are due today.

THE ANNUAL SENIOR LAW ENFORCEMENT BANQUET will be held at 6:30 p.m. Saturday in the Spanish Room of the Student Union Building. Alpha Phi Sigma, honorary fraternity, is sponsoring this event.

THE FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES (FCA) will present two programs this weekend at Stokes Stadium. At 1 p.m. Saturday, a Small Fry Boy-Girl Clinic will be held to teach Kirksville elementary students, ages 4-12, techniques and skills in football, softball, gymnastics and cheerleading. Free soft drinks and hot dogs will be served. On Sunday, a Run-For-Fun will begin at 1 p.m. to help FCA members finance a trip to the National Conferences throughout the summer. Also chalk drawings by FCA artist Bill Leach will be for sale this weekend. They will be on display in the Student Union Building.

"START THE REVOLUTION WITHOUT ME," starring Gene Wilder, will be shown at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Saturday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is $1 or free with a Student Activities Card.

FACULTY MEMBERS continue to discuss topics related to their interests on Contempo Programs aired at 9:45 a.m. Sundays by WGEM-TV in Quincy. Dr. Jerry Mayhew, assistant professor of physical education, will appear this Sunday and David Buckley, instructor of debate is scheduled for Sunday, April 30.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES BOARD APPLICATIONS are being accepted at the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building.

"100 YEARS OF SOLITUDE," by Gabriel Garcia Marquez, will be discussed by the Book Reading Group at 7:30 p.m. Monday, April 24, in 303 Administration/Humanities Building. All interested readers are welcome.

THE 11TH ANNUAL INTERVIEW DAY of NMSU begins at 9 a.m. Monday, April 24. Approximately 120 Missouri school districts will interview for future teaching jobs. For more information contact the Placement Office, first floor, Blanton Hall, ext. 7132.

"WOMEN IN THE 1980S" will be discussed by Anne Carman, coordinator of Women's Studies at the University of Missouri-Columbia, at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, April 25, in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. Her talk is part of the monthly meeting of the National Organization for Women. A business meeting will precede the discussion from 7:30-8:15 p.m. All interested persons are welcome and urged to attend.

PERFORMANCES by the Jazz Ensemble, Jazz Lab Band and the Stage Band will highlight the Spring 1978 Jazz Concert scheduled for Wednesday, April 26. If the weather is good, the concert will be held outdoors in front of the Student Union Building at 6:30 p.m. If not, the performance will be held in Baldwin Auditorium at 8 p.m.

AN OUT-OF-STATE SCHOOL INTERVIEW DAY is scheduled for 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Thursday, April 27, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. The following schools will be on campus to interview teaching candidates: Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.; Davis County Community Schools, Bloomfield, Iowa; Des Moines Public Schools; Ft. Leavenworth (Kan.) Public School District 207; Hamilton (Ill.) Public Schools; Moravia (Iowa) Community Schools; Ottumwa (Iowa) Community Schools; Area Education Agency #9, Davenport, Iowa; Area Education Agency #11, Ankeny, Iowa; Area Education Agency #15, Ottumwa, Iowa; and Area Education Agency #16, Fort Madison, Iowa. Candidates must go to the Placement Office, first floor, Blanton Hall, to register for these unscheduled interviews and to obtain interview forms which must be completed prior to interviewing.

A BOOK POOL will be held the first week of the 1978 fall semester by the Vet's Club in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building.

FACULTY NOTES...Jo Kelly, Social Science, will take names of volunteers who wish to work on a Kirksville Crisis Intervention Hotline...Jim Thomas, Language and Literature, will have three poems published in Blackberry and Illinois Quarterly...MaryBelle Martin, Fine Arts, presented a position paper at the National Art Education Conference in Houston on March 20. The presentation was entitled, "A Comparison of Structured and Unstructured Art Therapy Sessions With Emotionally Disturbed and Mentally Handicapped Children"...Elizabeth Evans, Education, attended a conference of the Association for Childhood Education International in Charlotte, N.C., on March 26-31. She serves on the International Committee for Infancy/Early Childhood of ACEI and is an ACEI Interpreter from Missouri...Hugh Moore, Language and Literature, presented a paper on "Enhancing Literature through Selected Reading Techniques" at the 16th Annual Convention of the Conference on English Education on March 16-18 in Minneapolis...Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, will have his biography included in the 7th edition of Directory of American Scholars. His poem "Paiute Ponies" will appear in an eleventh grade anthology of literature entitled Focus on Literature: Forma. He has been invited to read his poetry at the University of California-Berkeley in May...Max Cogan, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, spoke on "Meeting the Challenge of our Times: Innovation or Retrenchment?" at the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education and Recreation in Kansas City, Mo., on April 7...Madelene Sykes, Language and Literature, discussed the "Western Experience of Mark Twain" at a recent meeting of the Kirksville Monday Club...Leon Karel, Fine Arts, recently gave an architectural and historical slide presentation on Hannibal's first City Hall and Police Station to the Kirksville community. He recently talked on "Arts in Education" to administrators, teachers and students in Vandalia and Lisle, Ill. ...Chandler Monroe, Language and Literature, has been named Registered Parliamentarian by the National Association of Parliamentarians and will conduct a workshop on "Parliamentary Procedure" at the Missouri State Convention of Future Business Leaders of America tomorrow, April 21, in Jefferson City, Mo. ... Charles Fast, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, had his article "Certification of Health Teachers" published in the January issue of Missouri Schools. He has participated in the following: American Association of University Professors State Conference Meeting on April 8, Association for the Advancement of Health Education on April 9, Regional School Nurses Meeting on April 15, and a state meeting of Health Educators on April 18. Today he will present "A Comparison of Health Teachers and Health Knowledge of Graduates in Missouri Secondary Schools, 1966-67" at the Missouri Public Health Association Meeting. He has also been appointed consultant to the Fulton Public School's Comprehensive School Health Instruction Program Development for grades K-6... David March, professor emeritus of history, has an address "Sobriquets of Missouri and Missourians" published in the April issue of Missouri Historical Review...Robert Cornell, Science, was recently honored at the Fourth Annual Research Awards Banquet in St. Louis, Mo. He will receive an $11,000 research grant from the Greater St. Louis Diabetes Association and the Diabetic Children's Welfare Association of St. Louis. The grant will be used to research "Insulin and Hepatic Macrophages"... Nancy Hendrix, Special Programs, recently attended a meeting of the Missouri Parents of the Deaf and Hearing Impaired in Springfield, Mo. ... Elizabeth Evans, Education, presented the keynote address at the Sixth Annual Aurora, Ill., Child Care Workshop. The theme was "I am the Child. Are You Ready for Me?"