THE MISSOURI EXTENSION STUDY COMMISSION will hold the first of seven hearings at 7 tonight in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Gov. Joseph Teasdale established the commission to "review and recommend changes that may be necessary in the scope, organization, management, and funding of Extension activities." Persons wishing to comment on Extension services are invited to contact Susan Jenkins at (314) 741-4150 or tie line 8-4150 if they wish to give advance notice of their testimony, although advance notice is not mandatory. The other hearings are scheduled during September at St. Louis, Cape Girardeau, Springfield, St. Joseph, Kansas City and Jefferson City.

THE SIXTEENTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE FOR SCHOOL ADMINISTRATORS AND SCHOOL COUNSELORS will be held beginning at 8 a.m. tomorrow in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. The theme for the conference will be "The joint utilization of student data by high school personnel and university personnel in providing the optimum educational environment for college-bound high school students in area schools." Representatives of the American College Testing Program will present a major portion of the program.

RON GABER, director of housing, will be the guest on KIRX's "Area Scene" program at 9:07 a.m. today. He will discuss the housing program at NMSU.

"USE OF LIBRARY RESOURCES," LM 110 Section 2, will have its first meeting Period 9 (3:30 p.m.) today in Laughlin Building 106. Those students who are enrolled are reminded to attend. The course will continue through Oct. 13 for one hour of academic credit.

SERGEANT JAMES H. BUCHANAN, JR., personnel recruiter for the St. Louis metropolitan police department, will be at the Placement Office Friday. Appointments for specific interviews should be made at the Placement Office, first floor Blanton Hall, as soon as possible. The police department is especially interested in law enforcement majors.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA honor society will meet at 5:30 tonight in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. Any student with a 3.0 GPA for 2 consecutive semesters in high school or college is invited to join Alpha Phi Sigma. For more information, contact John Holke, APS member, 665-9956.

BLUE KEY National Honor Fraternity will hold an informal smoker or "get-acquainted" session at 6 tonight in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. All junior or senior men with a grade point average above 3.0 are invited to attend. For further information, call Rod Belzer, president, at ext. 7729.

A POSTER SERIES on the Liturgical Church Year and an exhibit of wood engravings will be on display beginning tonight through Sept. 30 at the University Art Gallery at 218 Baldwin Hall. A reception in honor of the artist Judith A. Moldenhauer, newly appointed Design Supervisor in the Dean of Instruction's Office, will be held from 7-8:30 tonight in the gallery.

A FAMILY PLANNING program will be presented at 9 tonight in the Recreation Room of Grim Hall. The program is sponsored by Grim Hall Council.

A RECEPTION HONORING CHRIS RAYNES will be held from 2-4 p.m. tomorrow in the Dean of Administration's Office, Room 202 Administration/Humanities Building. Tomorrow will be his last day at NMSU. Raynes has served in the capacity of Assistant to the Dean of Administration and General Counsel for the past 2½ years. Everyone is welcome to drop by and visit with Raynes during the reception.

LARRY RACKERS, the veteran's representative on campus, will speak at an informational meeting concerning VA benefits and changes at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow in 106 Laughlin Building. All veterans are urged to attend. For information, contact him at ext. 7232.

STUDENT MSTA will meet at 6 p.m. tomorrow in 251 Violette Hall. Topics to be discussed include Homecoming, the state teachers' convention, and membership. All education majors are invited to attend.

"CLASSIC SERIES" movies continue this week with 'Brothers Karamazov' at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. "Classic Series" movies are shown each Tuesday evening of the semester by the Student Activities Board. Admission is free to holders of student activities cards and 50¢ to all others.

SPANISH CLUB will meet at 9 p.m. tomorrow in 176 Violette Hall. Anyone interested in the culture of Spanish-speaking people is welcome to attend. Speaking Spanish is not required for membership. For further information, call Eivi Castro, president, ext. 2627.

NOTICE TO ALL full-time and part-time University office workers (including work study)-- a special program sponsored by the University and Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. will be presented from 8 a.m. to 12 noon and 1-5 p.m. on Wednesday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Half-hour sessions will begin on the hour.

Ms. Glenna Ferzely, business service instructor for Southwestern Bell, will present the program.

To accommodate those unable to attend any of the Wednesday sessions, afternoon and evening sessions will be held Thursday, Sept. 22, from 1-5 p.m. in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building and from 7:30-10 p.m. in the Conference Room of the Student Union Building. For more information, call ext. 7100.

CIRCLE K will host a bake sale at the north door of Violette Hall from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Wednesday. The regular weekly meeting of Circle K will be at 6 p.m. Wednesday in Room 3 of the Student Union Building. All students are welcome to attend Circle K meetings. For more information, contact Laurie Sells, Circle K member, 665-2763.

CAMPUS VOLUNTEERS will hold a regular meeting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. Regular meetings are held the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of each month.

CAMPUS WEIGHT WATCHERS meetings are held each week at 7 p.m. Wednesdays in Centennial Hall Cafeteria. Every one is invited to attend. For further information, contact Connie McCleary, W W member, at ext. 7700, or call 665-9488.

FOOTBALL GAME TICKETS will be available to faculty and staff each week of the home football season. Each faculty/staff member is entitled to two tickets per game upon presentation of an ID or receipt and signature. Tickets will be available at the Athletic Office Monday through Friday of the week preceding a game. In addition, a table will be set up in the Student Union Building from 1-3 p.m. Thursdays and 2-4 p.m. Fridays. For additional information, call the Athletic Office at ext. 7138. The next home game is Saturday against South Dakota University.

REQUESTS FOR SEASON TICKETS for the 1977-1978 Lyceum Series are now being taken. Faculty activity tickets are valid for general admission seats, but a few seats are reserved on stage right for faculty and staff who desire to purchase them at $7.50 per ticket. Requests accompanied by a check made out to Northeast Missouri State University should be sent to the Business Office in the Administration/Humanities Building by tomorrow.

For further information, contact Dr. Gilbert Kohlenberg, Lyceum Chairman, ext. 7131.

THE ANNUAL ALUMNI BANQUET during Homecoming will be at 7 p.m. Friday, Sept. 30, in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. Classes to be honored are 1927 (50th anniversary); 1952 (25th anniversary); and 1967 (10th anniversary). All faculty and staff are encouraged to attend to help welcome alumni. Burleigh Arnold, a 1952 alumnus, will be the principal speaker. Arnold is vice president with Central Trust Co. in Jefferson City. Reservations should be made by Tuesday, Sept. 24, with the Alumni Office ext. 7211. Cost is $4 per person. Immediately following the banquet will be the Bulldog Spirit Reception from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight at the Shamrock Inn Lounge sponsored by the University Dames. Everyone is invited to attend.

A READING INTEREST GROUP is forming under the leadership of Dr. Shirley Morahan, Language and Literature. The group will meet once a month and all students, faculty, and staff who are interested in books and reading are invited to attend. Dr. Morahan has free copies of the first novel for the group, Kinflicks by Lisa Alther. Interested persons should call her at ext. 2149 or stop by her office, 313 Administration/Humanities Building, for a copy of the first book.
