

TRUMAN

A Weekly Publication of Truman State University

T O D A Y

Vol. 3 No. 4

January 26, 1998

*You are cordially invited to Retirement
Receptions on Jan. 30*

*for Keith Morton, grounds supervisor
8:30-10:30 a.m., Kirk
Building Hallway*

*and for
Gene Schneider,
Physical Plant
director,
2-4 p.m.
SUB Activities
Room*

1998 Baldwin Lecturer: 19th Century Feminist "Speaks Out"

One of the most dynamic and still-controversial women's rights advocates of the 19th century will visit Kirksville Feb. 6-7 when historian Sally Roesch Wagner, Baldwin Lecturer, brings her portrayal of Elizabeth Cady Stanton to Truman State University.

Sally Roesch Wagner

The Baldwin Dinner and Lecture will be Feb. 6. A reception will be held at 6 p.m. in the SUB Alumni Room, dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the SUB Georgian Room and lecture following at 8 p.m. A workshop, "Using Performance in the Classroom," will be presented Feb. 6, 1:30-3:30 p.m. and Feb. 7, 9:30-11:30 a.m. in the SUB Alumni Room.

A nationally acclaimed performer and lecturer, Wagner has presented Stanton, in costume and in character, across the country for legislatures, chautauquas and universities. This presentation has been especially adapted for Kirksville.

Wagner brings more than 20 years of scholarly research and study to her portrayal. At the conclusion of her 35-minute monologue, audiences are invited to question "Stanton" about her attitudes and Wagner about her Stanton research.

Wagner was one of the first women in the United States to earn a doctorate for work in women's studies. A founder of one of the nation's first women's studies programs, she is the author of many books and articles on the women's movement and multicultural history. A research affiliate at the University of California-Davis, she travels the country performing, lecturing and conducting university, school and community residencies.

For more information and dinner or workshop reservations, call the Faculty Development Office (785.4391). Dinner tickets are $7.50; the workshops are free.

A book-signing will follow the performance.

Carnahan Names Neighbors to Board

Gov. Mel Carnahan has appointed Jessica Neighbors as student representative to the Truman State University Board of Governors pending the approval of the Missouri Senate. A junior communication major, she is the daughter of Jolene Neighbors of Kirksville and Erwin Neighbors of Higbee, Mo.

This two-year student position provides the Board with a student perspective. Neighbors succeeds Matthew Braun.

"I'm very honored to have been selected for this position and am looking forward to working with the Board to improve the University," Neighbors said.

Neighbors is a member of Student Senate, where she serves as junior representative and external affairs committee chair. She is also active as a student advisor, student ambassador, peer reader and member of Chi Alpha.

Notables

Jim Barnes, professor of comparative literature and writer-in-residence, has been invited to give readings of his work at the University of Arizona on Feb. 12 and the University of Nevada-Las Vegas on Feb. 13. His recently published autobiography, On Native Ground, has been nominated for 10 awards, including the American Book Award, the PEN Center USA West Award, and the Los Angeles Times Book Award.

Warren Gooch, associate professor of music, a musical composition that has been selected for performance at the National Society of Composers Conference, to be held in April at Indiana University.

Out of the Primordial Ocean, will be performed by the Indiana University Percussion Ensemble under the direction of Wilber England.

David Gillette, associate professor of economics, recently had an article published in The American Economist, titled "Extending Traditional Classroom Boundaries."

Jerrold Hirsch, associate professor of history, had "Culture on Relief: The New Deal and the Arts—A Review Essay," published in The Annals of Iowa 56 (summer 1997): 267-278. He also presented with Karen Hirsch, "The Body as Text and Context: Disability in the Federal Writers' Project Slave Narratives," at the annual meeting of the Oral History Association, in New Orleans, and "Paternalism and Disability: Rethinking the History of the Southern Mill Village," at the annual meeting of the American Historical Association in Seattle.

Eun-Joo Kwak, assistant professor of piano, was invited to perform at Northern State University in Aberdeen, S.D., on Oct. 16. She presented a solo recital and gave a master class. During the recital, she premiered "Neonoculture" written by William Wieland. In December, Kwak performed in Taiwan in the Cheng and Kwak piano duo. The performances took place at The National Recital Hall in Taipei Dec. 23, Tchai-Tung University in Hsin-Chu Dec. 26 and at Shi-Ro Cultural Center in Shi-Ro Dec. 27. She also gave a master class at Hsin-Chu Teachers College.

C Jerry Mayhew, professor of health and exercise science, and John Ware, head football coach and instructor of health and exercise science, recently had their research study titled "Changes in Upper Body Power Following Heavy-Resistance Strength Training in College Men" published in the International Journal of Sports Medicine.

Emmanuel Nnadozie, associate professor and director of the Ronald E. McNair Program had his book Chad: A Nation in Search of Its Future published by Westview Press (Boulder, 1998). This book was co-authored with professor Mario Azevedo of the University of North Carolina.

Rodney Taylor, associate professor of German, was recently invited to contribute essays to the prestigious Encyclopedia of German Literature, beginning publication in 1999 by Fitzroy Dearborn Publishers, London.

University Sorority Hosts Fundraiser

Sigma Chi Delta, a local social sorority, is working to give something back to the northeast community. On Feb. 20, Sigma Chi Delta is hosting a banquet and awards ceremony to raise money for the NEMO Community Action Agency, the sorority's adopted philanthropy.

The banquet will be at 7 p.m. in the SUB Georgian Room. Tickets are $12 and are available at the agency's office, 1011 S. Jamison, or from Kelly Campbell (665.0781) or Erin Shetley (627.1765). Free babysitting will be provided.

For almost three decades, the Northeast Missouri Community Action Agency has been the lifeline for the impoverished population of a five-county area in northeast Missouri. They respond to the needs of individuals and families through educating children in Head Start, providing transitional housing and training in adult life skills.

The title of the second annual banquet is "People Helping People," the national Community Action Agency's theme. The keynote speaker will be Sen. Joe Maxwell. He will speak on grass roots community involvement and developing positive solutions to the problems facing our community.

Employment Opportunities

The CAOC is now accepting applications for Campus Activities Leader (CAL) coordinator. The CAL coordinator assists with the CAL staff selection process, spring and fall training sessions and the coordination of the Freshman Week activities program. The deadline is Jan. 28. For more information, contact the CAOC at 785.4222.

Full- and part-time summer positions are available through the Truman Upward Bound Office. Open positions include instructors in composition/literature and journalism/yearbook; residential tutor/advisors; program counselor and photographer.

Application materials are available in Kirk Building and are due Feb. 13.

The University Career Center is looking for a few good men and women! If you are looking for scholarship or institutional hours, apply now. You must sign up for an information session (held Jan. 27&28 at 6:30 p.m. in the Career Center), turn in an application, resume and cover letter by Feb. 4. The first round of interviews will be held Feb. 8. Applications may be picked up in the Career Center. For more information contact Susan Job, 785.4240.

Notes

The 1998 Truman State University Undergraduate Research Symposium is scheduled for March 20. Copies of the Symposium Booklet containing instructions, abstract requirements, submission forms and other information are available from division offices and the Undergraduate Research Committee. Abstracts are due to the committee by Feb. 13. Contact David Leszczynski at 785.4411 for more information.

The University Career Center is hosting the Spring Career Expo Monday Feb. 9 from 1-6 p.m. in the SUB. Students may visit the Center to pick up a list of participating employers and refine resume, cover letter and interviewing skills

Cardinal Key will have RUSH information tables in the SUB Jan. 26-28 from 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Sigma Chi Delta, a local social sorority, will have spring RUSH Jan. 26-30. Events are at 7 p.m. in the SUB; check posters for specific locations. Questions may be answered by calling Heidi (627.9415) or Caryn (627.0626).

Phi Alpha Theta will hold a seminar for history majors Jan. 28 at 6 p.m. in Baldwin Hall 351. Faculty and representatives from the Career Center will answer questions about graduate school and careers suited for graduates with history degrees.

Phi Sigma Pi National Honor Fraternity will hold RUSH informational meetings Feb. 2 in the SUB Activities Room and Feb. 3 in the SUB Alumni Room at 7:30 p.m. Meetings are open to all students with 12 hours of credit and a 3.0 GPA.

The Truman Men's and Women's track teams are looking for faculty, staff, and students interested in being involved as track officials for home meets this spring. No previous experience is required. Home meets are: March 28 and May 2-3. Anyone interested in officiating or obtaining more information can call Ed Schneider (785.4342) or John Cochrane (785.4341).

Student Hall of Fame Applications are available. Nominate a senior who has made an impact on the quality of Truman. Applications may be picked up at CAOC, Student Affairs Office, or division offices. Cardinal Key and Blue Key is sponsoring a blood drive Feb. 3-5 in the SUB.

Catholic Newman Center is sponsoring a canned food drive thru Feb. 1. Non-perishable food items may be placed in the Newman Center lobby.

Homecoming Committee Applications are available in CAOC and are due Feb. 4. Help make 1999 Homecoming a great success!

Ryle North Residential College is sponsoring the fifth annual faculty and staff's favorite book series. Participants should share their favorite book or a "great read" and explain the rationale for their choice. Submissions will be shared with the campus community via announcements in the Index, fliers placed on cafeteria tables and the spring display of the series' offerings in PML. Send entries to Chris Gregory, Ryle college director, Ryle Hall 225.

Attention all seniors planning to graduate May 9: If you have not applied for graduation, it must be done immediately; diplomas will be ordered soon. Applications for graduation can be picked up in the Registrar's Office, McClain Hall 104.

American Association of University Professors will have an open meeting Jan. 30 at 5:30 p.m. at Wooden Nickel restaurant. Discussion will cover a program on the responsibilities of tenure, evaluation of administrators, and other topics of interest. Juried Student Exhibition will be Feb. 2-24 in the University Art Gallery. Opening reception is Feb. 2 at 7 p.m.

Deadline for accountancy and English GTRA applications and MAE spring admission applications is Feb. 16 in the Graduate Office. There is no application fee.

The Gene Schneider Retirement Dinner

Saturday, Feb. 7 Shrine Club.

Social hour begins at 6 p.m.; dinner, 7 p.m.

Tickets may be purchased in advance for $10/person at the Physical Plant, Kirk Building 106; Business Office, McClain Hall 105; the Student Union Office, and the Governmental Relations Office, McClain Hall 202. Tickets will be $12 at the door if seating is available.

Dress is casual.

On Campus

28 WEDNESDAY
12:30-1:30 p.m.—
Wednesday Faculty
Development Lunch
Series, Academic Integrity and Honor Codes presented by David Gruber and Ian
Lindevald, SUB Alumni
Room
3-4:30 p.m.—*Image
Manipulation workshop*
sponsored by Faculty
Development and
Instructional Technology
Center, Pickler Library 203
6 p.m.—History major sem- inar, Baldwin Hall 351; see
Notes.

29 THURSDAY
3:30-5 p.m.—Advanced Powerpoint workshop
sponsored by Faculty
Development and
Instructional Technology
Center, Pickler Library 205.
8:30 p.m.—International
Association of Business
Communicators (IABC)
meeting, SUB 5.

30 FRIDAY
8:30-10:30 a.m.—Retirement
reception for Keith
Morton, grounds supervisor,
Kirk Building Hallway
2-4 p.m.—Retirement reception for Gene
Schneider, Physical Plant
director, SUB Activities
Room

31 SATURDAY
3 p.m.—Men's Basketball
vs. Missouri Western,
Pershing Arena
5:30 p.m.—Women's Basketball vs. Missouri
Western, Pershing Arena
2 MONDAY
6 p.m.—Women's Basketball vs. Washburn,
Pershing Arena
8 p.m.—Men's Basketball
vs. Washburn, Pershing
Arena