

MONDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1985

VOL. 1 NO. 38

THIS WEEK...

ENTRY DEADLINE for the Nov. 4 calendar issue of the Northeast Today will be at 5 p.m. today, in the Public Relations Office, 202 Administration/Humanities Building. The calendar will cover November and December. No late entries will be accepted.

BLUE KEY will be selling directories containing addresses and phone numbers of all NMSU students from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. today through Friday, in the Student Union Building. Cost for a directory is $1.50.

THE KIRKSVILLE CRISIS LINE will hold a training session for all interested volunteers from 7 to 10 p.m. tonight, on third floor in the Student Union Building. The session will cover crisis definition, caller profiles, reflective answers and referral techniques. The Crisis Line needs volunteers who are willing to work from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. two nights each month. The community-based service is supported by United Way.

SOPHOMORE ACT tests will be given at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday, in the Activities Room in the Student Union Building. Second semester sophomores needing to take the test should have been contacted through the mail. Students with questions should call the Testing Services Office at 785-4140.

A DISCUSSION on the law field will be given at 3 p.m. Tuesday, in the Alumni Room in the Student Union Building by Jim Snider, the assistant dean of the University of Missouri at Columbia Law School. A question-and-answer session will follow.

ALL THEATER MAJORS and minors are invited to attend a majors/minors meeting at 5 p.m. Wednesday, in Baldwin Hall Little Theater. Students will meet with their advisers and plan their schedule for the spring semester. All theater majors and minors should attend.

A MOVIE titled, "If I Should Die" will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. Wednesday, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The film is being sponsored by Campus Crusade for Christ. Admission is free.

HAUNTED LAUGHLIN HALL will be open to visitors from 8 to 11 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday. Cost is $1. The haunted hall is produced by the NMSU Mass Communication students.

A SEMINAR on the pharmacy profession will be given at 4:30 p.m. Thursday, in Room 18 in Science Hall. The seminar will be given by Gail Metcalf Schortel, coordinator of student services at the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Pharmacy. A question-and-answer session is scheduled.

AN ALL-NIGHT co-recreational volleyball tournament will begin Nov. 8. Applications are due by 5 p.m. Thursday, in the Intramural Office, 309 Pershing Building. For information, call Vicki Knapp at 785-4467.

A HAYRIDE and wiener roast is being sponsored by the Baptist Student Union. Anyone interested should meet at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, at the Baptist Student Union.

GRADUATE RECORD Examination (GRE) applications are due no later than 5 p.m. Friday. Applications should be returned to the Testing Services Office in 103 Administration/Humanities Building.

A HALLOWEEN PARTY, sponsored by the KCOM organizations Delta Omega, Theta Psi and Atlas Club, will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, at the Atlas House. Music, food and drink will be provided. Cost is $3 per person and $5 per couple.

A MISSOURI INTERNATIONAL Student Conference will be held Friday through Sunday at the Windermere Baptist Assembly in the Lake of the Ozarks. Cost for the conference is $20 and covers meals, lodging and transportation. Anyone interested should register today by calling Jerry Carmichael at 665-4841.

AN EDDIE MURPHY Film Festival, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The movies "Trading Places" and "48 Hours" will be shown. Cost is $1.50 without an SAB sticker and free with an SAB sticker.

A DANCE MARATHON, sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity, will be held from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday, in Kirk Gym. The marathon is to help raise money for charity.

GERMAN CLUB MEMBERS Kirk Arnold, Kert Hubin and Ellen Krueger will appear on "Town and Country Forum", a program on KTCV-TV, at 7:30 a.m. and again at 5 p.m. Sunday. They will discuss the German Club Scholarship and the sale of Advent Calendars from Germany.

A BARN DANCE AND COOKOUT, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, will be held from 7 p.m. to midnight Sunday, at Lucky Day Stables. Cost is $4 without an SAB sticker and $2 with an SAB sticker. Transportation will be provided. Anyone interested should sign up in the SAB office.

ITEMS OF INTEREST...

APPLICATIONS for the fall Upperclass Scholarship competition are available in the Dean of Students Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building. If you are a sophomore with at least a 3.5 grade point average or a sophomore ACT of at least 24 or ACT-COMP of at least 190 and have no previous or current institutional scholarships, you may qualify for a University scholarship worth up to $500. Application deadline is Nov. 15.

THE UNITED WAY campaign reached 70 percent of the set goal. NMSU led the way citywide, having reached 70 percent of the goal of $19,000 on first report date. Contribution cards are still being submitted. If any are still outstanding, they should be returned to the volunteer in their division as soon as possible.

A MAKE-UP DAY for having individual pictures taken for the 1986 ECHO yearbook is scheduled from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Nov. 4, in the Student Union Building. Faculty and students who did not have their picture taken are welcome. No appointment is necessary.

AN EXCURSION to a Kansas City Chiefs vs. Pittsburgh Steelers football game in Kansas City is being sponsored by the Student Activities Board, Nov. 10. Tickets are $17 without an SAB sticker and $15 with an SAB sticker. Students can sign up this week in the SAB Office in the Student Union Building.

FACULTY AND STAFF are invited to take the ACT Assessment, Nov. 5 and 6. Anyone interested should call the Testing Services Office at 785-4140.

THE CAREER FAIR is scheduled from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Nov. 7, in the Quiet Lounge and Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. More than 75 companies will be represented to interview and provide information to all students and alumni. Due to the fair, the faculty/staff parking lot between the Administration/Humanities Building and the Student Union Building will be closed for guest parking.

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR STUDENTS in all areas of study are available for a six-week summer course at the University of Regensburg in West Germany. To be eligible, students must have a good working knowledge of German and be of at least junior status at the time of application. For information, call Constance Reid at 785-4509.

THE FIRST Disabled American Veteran's Day Parade in Kirksville will be held Nov. 9. This is sponsored by the local North Missouri Chapter #48 of the Disabled American Veterans. The theme will be "God Bless the U.S.A." Any club or organization wanting to have a float in the parade should call 665-4404 or 665-1677.

THE U.S. DEPARTMENT of State will sponsor a number of paid internships. Application deadline is Friday. For information, contact the Social Science Division at 785-4636.

NOTES...

Several NMSU faculty and students deserve recognition for recent accomplishments. David McKamie, Fine Arts, was recently the featured soloist in two piano recitals. McKamie presented a recital at the University of Missouri-Columbia in conjunction with their Visiting Artist Series and at Avila College in Kansas City. Bethany Plueger, Fine Arts, was featured in a flute recital at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. She performed as the winner of the 1985 Kansas City Flute Association Solo Recital. In the Division of Education, Marlow Ediger was awarded Project Innovations Merit Award for Excellence in Teacher Education. Michael Klem, Science Division, has been elected President of the Missouri Reining Horse Association, an affiliate of the National Reining Horse Association. Glenn Wehner, Science, was recently selected for the Outstanding Young Men of America 1985 Award. Wehner has also recently been elected director for the Northeast Missouri Sheep Producers Association. Liz Mossop, Ricki Trosen and Sara Beth Fouch, Business Academic Advising Center, presented "Value-Added Advising: A Model from NMSU" at the ninth National Conference on Academic Advising held in Kansas City. Senior Mass Communication major Mary Beth Nowlan was selected from all the students in the state of Missouri to represent the state at the district convention of the International Association of Business Communicators. In the Nursing Division, Susan Jackson was honored by the Gateway Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society with the Client Service Award for 1985. She will now be entered in national competition.

D A T E L I N E

28 MONDAY

Pre-law Club meeting with Doreen Dodson of St. Louis Univ. Law School, 1-4 p.m., McKinney Center.
Women's Soccer vs. Univ. of Mo.-Rolla, 2 p.m., soccer field.
Testing Services, Sophomore Tests, 2:30 p.m., SUB, through Friday

29 TUESDAY

Residence Life Program, "Ask and Learn About Germany," 7 p.m., Grim Hall.
French Club Movie, "Tell Him That I Love Him," 7:30 p.m., LH.
Haunted Hall, 8-10 p.m., Blanton/Nason Basement, through Wednesday

30 WEDNESDAY

Fellowship Baptist College and Career class, Bible study, 8:30 p.m., Mo. Hall Cafeteria.
United Campus Ministry Comm-unity, 9 p.m., Tangere Rm., SUB

SAB Movie, "Friday the 13th Part V," 7 & 9:15 p.m., Aud., BH.
Campus Christian Fellowship, Halloween Surprise, 7:30 p.m.
Halloween Dance, 8 p.m.-midnight, Mo. Hall

31 THURSDAY

Pre-registration for spring semester, through Nov. 27.
All Saint's Day Mass, 5:15 p.m., Act. Rm., SUB