A TOWN MEETING sponsored by state Sen. Hardin Cox and Rep. Harry Hill will be held at 7:30 tonight in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. A panel to question the legislators will be featured at the meeting. The public is invited to attend.

CLASSES WILL BE DISMISSED Monday, Sept. 4, Labor Day. They will resume at 7:30 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5. All University offices will be closed on the holiday. Northeast Today will not be published on Labor Day. The next issue will be distributed on Thursday, Sept. 7.

A PANHELLENIC WELCOME will be held at 5:30 tonight in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. All of the sorority rushees are invited to the event which is sponsored by the campus sororities.

MASS COMMUNICATION Club members will hold an organizational meeting at 6 p.m. today in 310 Laughlin Building. All students interested in mass communication or a related field should attend.

BUSINESS STUDENTS at NMSU are forming a chapter of Delta Sigma Pi, a national professional business fraternity. An informational meeting of this new organization will be held at 7 tonight in 140 Violette Hall. All business majors who want to have fun, learn and become nationally recognized by businesspeople should come. For more information, contact William Holper, DSP sponsor, at ext. 7791.

THE STUDENT UNION BUILDING will close for the Labor Day weekend at 6 p.m. Saturday following the football game. It will remain closed on Sunday, Sept. 3. Due to Panhellenic activities on Monday evening, the Union will open at 4:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 4.

JIM HARDING, certified life underwriter, will have a seminar from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 6, in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Harding is an insurance consultant with General American Life Insurance Co. The seminar will focus on General American Life's tax-sheltered variable annuity program. There will be no charge for the seminar and refreshments will be served throughout the day. Harding will be the second speaker approved by the University to present a program on annuities for the benefit of the faculty and staff.

THE LAST DAY TO REGISTER and/or add classes is Friday.

THE FIRST HOME FOOTBALL GAME of the 1978 season is Saturday. The NMSU Bulldogs will challenge the University of Central Arkansas Bears at 1:30 p.m. in Stokes Stadium.

Faculty and staff members are entitled to two reserve or general admission tickets per football game. The tickets must be obtained during the week preceding a game at the Athletic Office, 212 Pershing Building, Monday through Thursday or at the Student Union Building from 3 to 5 p.m. Thursday and Friday. Identification must be presented to receive the tickets. Extra tickets cost $2 each. ID cards will not be acceptable for admission at the stadium on game dates.

PLANTS WILL BE SOLD from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5, and Wednesday, Sept. 6, in the Student Union Building. The Lutheran Student Movement will sponsor the plant sale.

MEMBERS OF CIRCLE K, a campus service organization, will meet at 6 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 6, in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. The international convention at Orlando, Fla.; membership; dues; and the first project of the year will be discussed. Call President Terri Steffes at 665-6986 for more information.

THE STAFF MEMBERS OF WINDFALL, the campus literary magazine, will hold their first meeting of the semester at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 6, in 306 Laughlin Building. All staff members are asked to attend and all persons interested in joining the staff are welcome.

POSITIONS ON THE YEARBOOK STAFF are open for the 1978-79 edition of the Echo. Positions are open in sports, reporting, writing, photography, layout and general staff work. If interested, contact the Echo Office in person or call ext. 3343 or Bill Crouse, editor, at ext. 2223. Echo meetings are held at 6:30 p.m. Wednesdays in 305 Laughlin Building.

FIVE FRESHMAN POSITIONS on the Student Activities Board are open. Applications for these positions are now being accepted. Any interested freshmen may obtain an application at the Student Activities Office, 204 Administration/Humanities Building.

THE READING-STUDY SKILLS LAB is now open from 8:30-11:30 a.m. and 1:30-4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday or Friday by appointment. The facilities can be used free of charge by any student who wishes to read with greater ease and study more efficiently. The lab, located on the third floor of Pickler Memorial Library, is open for testing and scheduling. The study skills classes will begin Sept. 11 and continue throughout the semester under the direction of DeRaye Hansen. Those interested in the classes should be tested at the lab before Sept. 11. For more information, drop by the lab.

AN ORIENTATION PROGRAM FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS will be held at 3 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 7, in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Dennis L. Marty, immigration inspector, and David Gross, immigration investigator, will be guests at the program. The faculty and staff are cordially invited to attend.

THE INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL Advisory Board will meet at 3:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 8, in Rooms 2 and 3 of the Student Union Building. All IFC chapter presidents and advisers are invited to attend.

MOTOR ASSISTS will be provided by Safety and Security only in emergencies and for students going home after 3 p.m. Fridays through 7 a.m. Mondays.

ID pictures may be taken Mondays through Fridays from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Safety and Security building, located north of Centennial Hall.

ALL MEALS FOR HALL RESIDENTS will be served in Centennial Hall during the Labor Day weekend. Beginning Friday evening and continuing through Monday, Sept. 4, breakfasts will be served from 8 to 9 a.m.; lunches will be served from 12 noon to 1 p.m.; and dinners will be served from 4:30 to 6 p.m. As usual, no dinner will be served on Sunday, Sept. 3. Meals will be served in all cafeterias beginning Tuesday, Sept. 5.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have of campuswide interest through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask that the news be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center.
