THE NORTHEAST MISSOURI STATE TEACHERS ASSOCIATION will hold its spring meeting Friday on the University campus. Classes will not meet Friday because of the teachers meeting. Dr. Arthur Mallory, state commissioner of education in the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education and ex-officio member of the NMSU Board of Regents, will be guest speaker. The theme of the meeting will be "Proud to Serve."

THE REPERTORY DANCE THEATRE, a professional modern dance company from Salt Lake City, will perform at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 6, in Baldwin Auditorium. Free tickets for students, faculty and staff will be available from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday and Monday and Tuesday, March 5-6 in the Student Union Office. This program is co-sponsored by the NMSU Lyceum Series, Missouri Council on the Arts and National Endowment for the Arts.

THE 6TH ANNUAL ALUMNI EXHIBITION featuring Francis Sporer, ceramist and alumnus of NMSU, will open at 7 p.m. Thursday with a slide talk by Sporer in 272 Baldwin Hall. Following the slide talk will be a reception for the artist at the University Gallery, 218 BH. These events are open to the public at no admission charge. Sporer will also present the program for the District Art Teachers Meeting at 1:15 p.m. Friday in 252 BH.

THE OFFICE OF SAFETY AND SECURITY announces that tickets will be issued for all violations of traffic rules on campus by both students and faculty starting today.

THE BLUE KEY CAMPUS BOWL will continue meets from 6-10 tonight through Wednesday in the Activities and Alumni rooms of the Student Union Building. This maximum participation quota has been met for this year's Campus Bowl with 32 teams in competition.

THE GERMAN CLUB will meet at 5:30 tonight in 282 Baldwin Hall. Selected German literature will be read. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.
