

Northeast Today

Monday, February 6, 1978

"HAPPENINGS"

TODAY, February 6

Dance Marathon --9:30 am-2:30 pm,
registration begins SUB
RHA Sweetheart --4:30-6:30 pm,
Formal tickets Hall cafes.
go on sale

TUESDAY, February 7

Bloodmobile Pre--9 am-3 pm, SUB registration begins
English Club --4 pm, 306, AH
Antique Bottle --7 pm, Rec. Rm.,
Talk & Display GH
Anim. Health Tec. --7 pm, 224, IE
Club
Income Tax info. --7 pm, Quiet and assist. Loun., RH

WEDNESDAY, February 8

Big Bro./Big Sis. --6:30 pm, 210, AH
Phi Delta Kappa --7 pm, Alum. Rm.,
SUB
Political Science --7 pm, Act. Rm., majors meeting SUB
Baha'i Club --7:30 pm, Rm. 3,
SUB
Careers Night --8 pm, Act. Rm.,
SUB

REGISTRATION for couples wanting to participate in the 24-hour Multiple Sclerosis Dance Marathon will be from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. daily this week in the Student Union Building. The marathon is scheduled for March 11-12.

PHI DELTA KAPPA, national education honorary, will meet at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Guest speaker, Dr. Rex Reckewey, will present "Archie DeBunker Diagnoses the Maladies of Modern-Day Education." Reckewey, who is vice-president of Phi Delta Kappa, is known for his work in junior high and middle school education and has served on many state, regional, and national committees concerned with the education of early adolescents. The public is invited to attend. Following this presentation, a short business meeting for local chapter members will be held.

CAREERS NIGHT, an exploration of possible careers in government, law, or graduate school, will be at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Guest speakers include: John Pelzer, city manager; Harry Farr, city attorney; Ben Nale, recruitment officer for the Missouri Division of Social Services; Robert Ruble, Social Security director; and Dr. John Anderson, assistant professor of political science. Everyone is invited to attend and refreshments will be served. This program is sponsored by the Division of Social Science and the Political Science Club.

TICKETS for the 2nd Annual Residence Hall Association Sweetheart Formal go on sale today from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. at all hall cafeterias. Prices are $6 per couple or $3 per person in advance; $7.50 per couple or $3.75 per person at the door. The formal will be held from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight Saturday, Feb. 11, at the Rieger Armory.

ADDITIONAL TEACHING JOBS of industrial arts, secondary guidance and elementary vocal music will be available in the Lee's Summit School District. The district will interview on campus for these and other openings on Tuesday. For an appointment, contact the Placements Office, first floor, Blanton Hall.

BLOODMOBILE PRE-REGISTRATION will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday through Friday in the Student Union Building. The Bloodmobile will be on campus Monday, Feb. 13, through Wednesday, Feb. 15.

THE ENGLISH CLUB will hold its monthly meeting at 4 p.m. Tuesday in 306 Administration/Humanities Building. Susan Dunham, an English instructor at Kirksville High School, will speak on various techniques of teaching composition. Refreshments will be served and everyone is welcome to attend.

BOTTLES OF YESTERYEARS is the subject of an Antique Bottle Talk and Display to be presented at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Grim Hall Recreation Room by senior Steven Cline. Topics such as glass colors, fruit jar production, glass molds, and excavation and dating of bottles will be covered. Emphasis will be on proprietary and patent medicine bottles of the 1880s and 1890s. No admission will be charged. The event is open to all interested persons.

THE ANIMAL HEALTH TECHNOLOGY CLUB will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 224 Industrial Education Building. Dr. John D. Rhoades, veterinarian from the University of Missouri-Columbia Veterinary Clinic, will discuss "Vaginal Cytology." All interested persons are invited to attend.

INCOME TAX information and assistance with income tax forms will be available at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Ryle Hall Quiet Lounge. This service is being provided by accounting majors Linda Rieman and Alta Freels. Anyone interested is welcome to attend this program.

QUESTIONS concerning life and health insurance, annuities, and pension plans will be answered at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in Brewer Hall by a representative of a life insurance company. All interested persons are welcome to attend.

EVERYONE interested in joining the Big Brother/Big Sister Program is invited to attend the organization's next meeting scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in 210 Administration/Humanities Building.

ELECTIONS to the Student Advisory Committee of the Political Science Club will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building at a special meeting for all political science majors. All political science majors and minors are urged to attend.

"THE UNIVERSE AND THE INDIVIDUAL," a discussion dealing with the individual's search for constancy in a continually changing environment, will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Room 3 of the Student Union Building by Dr. Olin Drennan, professor of science, at a Baha'i Club meeting. This presentation is the first of a series to be sponsored this semester by the Baha'i Club. All interested persons are invited to attend.

LAW SCHOOL REQUIREMENTS will be discussed by Jack Edwards, assistant dean of the law school at the University of Missouri-Columbia, at 4 p.m. Thursday in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. Dean Edwards will present information about the UMC Law School as well as general requirements for admission into any law school.

REPRESENTATIVES of four companies will interview on campus next week. On Tuesday, Feb. 14, CIBA-GEIGY representatives will interview for agricultural chemical sales positions. Interviews for K-Mart Apparel's Management Training Program will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 15. Action (Peace Corps/Vista) representatives will be on campus Wednesday, Feb. 15, and Thursday, Feb. 16, to interview for domestic and overseas positions. Also on Thursday, Feb. 16, Ralston Purina Co. of Ottumwa, Ia., will interview business and agriculture majors. For more information contact the Placement Office, first floor, Blanton Hall.

A NEW COPYRIGHT LAW recently has been passed and many libraries and audio-visual centers will need to modify some of their past print and audio practices. Questions concerning the new law will gladly be answered by Mary Beveridge, ext. 2746; Nancy Hulén, ext. 2748; Carol Race, ext. 7160; or George Hartje, ext. 7186.