THE ACT ASSESSMENT will be administered from 2:30 to 5:45 p.m. Wednesday, in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. All incoming freshmen and transfer students currently enrolled for six hours or more and who have not previously taken the test, and sophomores who missed their sophomore tests, should sign up in the Testing Services Office, 103 Administration/Humanities Building.

THE FIRST EXHIBITION of the NMSU Historic Costume Collection will be on display Wednesday through May 3, in the Home Management House, located between Grim Hall and Grim-Smith Hospital. The show is the product of an independent study by Cindy Spotts, senior Clothing and Textiles major. For information, call Patty Brown at 785-4474.

ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY teachers and administrators have the opportunity to attend the Microcomputers in Education Conference, Thursday, in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Registration is from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. and the conference runs from 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m. The $15 registration fee covers conference fees, coffee breaks and lunch. NMSU faculty and students may also find several of the presentations of interest. For information, call toll-free 1-800-392-0549.

JAPAN FOUNDATION Scholarships are available for summer study in Japan, as a result of the Foundation's support. One full and several partial scholarships are available to students participating in NMSU's summer Japanese language and culture program, open to undergraduates in any academic major. To qualify, applicants must have a minimum cumulative 3.25 grade point average and have indicated an academic or career interest in Japan. To apply, students should submit a copy of their transcript, two letters of recommendation (from their academic adviser and one other instructor) and a 300-word essay (maximum length) describing their interest in Japan and future career goals. Application deadline is Friday. For more information, contact Michael Lewis, 111-E Administration/Humanities Building, at 785-4653.

THE YEAR-END CONCERT of the Franklin Street Singers and the High Street Dancers begins at 8 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. The Special Choir from Mary Immaculate School will perform a patriotic medley with Franklin Street. Mary Immaculate third graders will also be featured. High Street, under the direction of Al Srnka, and Franklin Street, directed by Rich McKinney, audition each fall for performances throughout the year.

"ELIJAH," Felix Mendelssohn's popular oratorio, will be presented by the University Chorus and the Symphony Orchestra at 3 p.m. Sunday, in Baldwin Hall Auditorium. There is no admission charge.

A WORLDS OF FUN TRIP, sponsored by the Student Activities Board, leaves at 6:45 a.m. and returns at 9 p.m. Sunday. The cost is $12 with an SAB sticker or $15 without, including transportation and ticket. Regular park ticket price is $14.75.
