ALL-UNIVERSITY MEETING

3 p.m. Jan. 31
Student Union Building
Georgian Rooms

President Paino will discuss the state of the University. A webcast of the meeting will be made available on the President's Office website for those unable to attend.

Career and Graduate School Expo will take place from 12-4 p.m. on Feb. 8 in the Student Union Building. Please submit your resume by Feb. 1 to get first-priority interviews with companies at truman.experience.com.

SCORE (Service Corps of Retired Executives) mock interviews will take place on Feb. 3. Please sign up and submit your resume to the Career Center by Feb. 1.

For more information regarding Career Week and other upcoming programs, please visit career.truman.edu or stop by the Career Center in the Student Union Building 3100.

Alumni Return to Perform Benefit Recital

Truman alumni Dominic Armstrong, tenor, and Rachel AuBuchon, pianist, along with special guest Susanna Phillips, soprano, will be performing a recital at 3 p.m. Feb. 5 in the Ophelia Parrish Performance Hall to benefit the Truman Opera Theatre.

Since being selected as a Grand Finalist in the 2008 Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions, Armstrong has maintained a busy performing schedule, appearing across the U.S. and Europe. AuBuchon is currently on faculty at Stephens College in Columbia, Mo.

This is not the first time either Armstrong or AuBuchon have returned to Truman to perform. They collaborated with each other as students and they continue to enjoy working together, especially to support the Truman Opera Theatre.

The Theatre is a self-supporting academic enterprise that stages an annual opera production. This year, they will be doing four performances of Henry Purcell's opera, "Dido and Aeneas." Beyond ticket sales, further fundraisers help the Theatre with production costs.

Joining the Truman alumni is Alabama-native Susanna Phillips. She is the recipient of the Metropolitan Opera's 2010 Beverly Sills Artist Award, and recently sang in the opening concert and Live from Lincoln Center broadcast of the Mostly Mozart Festival. Phillips began the 2011-12 season as the title character in a Lyric Opera of Chicago production and will soon make her European debut as well.

Donations to benefit the Truman Opera Theatre will be accepted at the door.

Nominations Open for the Leadership Recognition Program Sponsored by the CSI

The Center for Student Involvement (CSI) is now accepting nominations for the 2012 Leadership Recognition Program (LRP).

This program is designed to honor Truman students, advisers and organizations for their dedication to their peers, campus and Kirksville community through various leadership roles during the year. This year's LRP theme is "Now is Right on Time."

For this program to be successful, the CSI is seeking the support of students, faculty and staff in the nomination process.

The packet to nominate an exceptional student leader, adviser, organization or event can be obtained online at csi.truman.edu/lrp/. Nominations are taking place now through March 14.

For more information on this event, contact the CSI by phone at 785.4222 or by email at csilrp@gmail.com.

INTERESTED IN INTERNING IN WASHINGTON, DC?

Applications are now available for summer internships through The Washington Center. The Washington Center, a non-profit organization, places qualified students in organizations in the D.C. area, providing real-world experience and networking opportunities.

Any interested student is encouraged to apply and all majors are welcome.

The on-campus deadline for applications is Jan. 25. To apply, and for more information, visit twp.truman.edu/washcenter.asp. Contact selfjw@truman.edu with additional questions.

DAAD Undergraduate Scholarship Program Deadline

The deadline to apply for the Undergraduate Scholarship Program is Jan. 31. The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) invites highly qualified undergraduate students to apply for funding to study, complete research and/or internships in Germany.

Scholarships are available for students taking part in an organized study abroad program/exchange or as part of an individual, student-designed study abroad experience. Funding for a semester or the academic year is offered for 2012-2013 (beginning in the fall of 2012) and includes a monthly stipend, health insurance and an amount for travel.

Students wanting to study in Germany in the spring of 2013 should apply now. More information can be found at www.daad.org/?p=undergrad.

SRC Abstract Deadline is Feb. 17

Truman will conduct the 25th annual Student Research Conference on April 17.

The Conference is a University-wide celebration of student research, scholarship and creative achievements. Both undergraduate and graduate students are invited to submit abstracts.

Abstracts can be submitted online at src.truman.edu. All abstracts need to be sponsored by a Truman faculty or staff member. A copy of the information submitted will be sent electronically to the student presenter's mentor for approval and students should work with the faculty mentor before submitting the abstract.

The submission site is now open. The deadline for submissions is at 11:59 p.m. Feb. 17.

In addition to the many student presentations, the day will feature a conference-wide plenary address delivered by David Micklos, executive director of the DNA Learning Center at Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory in New York. Micklos specializes in eugenics as well as educating teachers and the public about DNA technology.

Faculty-requested special sessions are included in the discipline options. Anyone planning to present in such a session should look for the specific discipline designation when submitting their abstract (ex: History Senior Seminar, Democracy and Human Rights in South Africa, Kirksville Sigma Xi, Secondary English MAE Intern Research).

Any inquiries about the Student Research Conference sessions, guidelines or programs should be addressed to Maria Nagan at osr@truman.edu. Any questions or problems with the abstract submission process can be directed to Marsha Redmon at 785.4598.

Colloquium Examines Middle East Relations

Middle East relations will be the topic when the Global Issues Colloquium continues Jan. 26 with "Israelis and Palestinians in Deadlock or Transition? Global Implications for the Result."

Mark Appold, associate professor of philosophy and religion, will moderate a panel of student participants from a Summer 2011 Truman Middle East Study Abroad Course that visited Egypt, Jordan, Israel, Jerusalem and the West Bank. The presentations will discuss the Balfour document, the Oslo Accords, United Nations resolutions, Gaza, water rights, Biblical Israel and modern Israel. Dereck Daschke, chair of the Department of Philosophy and Religion, will talk about the reasons for contentious debate on the status of Jerusalem.

The event will take place at 7 p.m. Jan. 26 in Magruder Hall 2001.

U.K. FULBRIGHTS AVAILABLE FOR SUMMER COURSES

U.S. undergraduates have the opportunity to follow a three to six week summer program at a world-class United Kingdom university or cultural institution. Each Summer Institute provides an immersive academic, cultural and social experience for freshmen or sophomore American students who wish to deepen their knowledge of the U.K. The 2012 U.K. Summer Institutes will take place at eight different British universities. The application deadline is March 16. For more information and details on how to apply, visit www.fulbright.co.uk/fulbright-awards/for-us-citizens/summer-institutes or email programmes@fulbright.co.uk.

Truman Today is a weekly publication of Truman State University for students, faculty and staff. Deadline for entries is 5 p.m., the Wednesday preceding Tuesday's publication. Entries should be submitted by sending an email to tmles@truman.edu or by completing a Truman Today form available in the Public Relations Office, McClain Hall 202. The form may also be accessed online at trumantoday.truman.edu/submissionform.pdf. All submissions are subject to editing for clarity and style. Truman Today • Vol. 16 No. 18 • January 24, 2012

Saxophone Students Earn Competitive Awards

The Fall 2011 semester proved to be quite successful for the Truman Saxophone Studio with several of its musicians winning competitive awards.

Truman's Saxophone Quartet won second place at the Music Teachers National Association Collegiate chamber music competition at Missouri Western University on Nov. 3. The Quartet is comprised of Joel Fischer, soprano saxophone; Tom Bunting, alto saxophone; Olivia Wikle, tenor saxophone; and Shelley Washington, baritone saxophone.

Joel Fischer was named the "State Winner" in the upper division and Joel Gordon the "State Winner" in the lower division of the Collegiate Woodwind Competition.

Stephanie Koltookian was one of three gold medal concerto competition winners and will perform Henri Tomasi's "Concerto for Saxophone and Orchestra" with the Truman Orchestra on March 24. She was recently accepted into four law schools, including the University of Missouri—Columbia and the University of Iowa.

The Saxophone Studio also presented Chloe Bertschi, Alex Buffa, Stephanie Koltookian and Steven Irving in senior recitals.

NOTABLES

Business faculty members Datha Damron-Martinez, Adrien Presley and Lin Zhang had their manuscript, entitled "A Study of Undergraduate Student Intent to Minor in Business: A Test of the Theory of Planned Behavior," accepted for publication in the Journal of Education for Business.

Jason Lin, chair and professor of business administration, and Wilson Zhang, a May 2011 Truman graduate, have had their manuscript, entitled "A Study on Microfinance in China: Trends, Impacts, Challenges and Opportunities," accepted for publication in the Journal of Finance Issues.

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Scholarships are available through Federated Garden Clubs of Missouri, Inc., for the 2012-2013 academic year. Last year they awarded more than $13,000 in scholarships. Two students selected by the Federated Garden Clubs of Missouri will be submitted to Central Region as an applicant and to National Gardens Club Inc., as a Missouri applicant and will compete for a Central Region and National Scholarship. The application is available at www.gardenclub.org/Youth/Scholarships.aspx. The deadline to apply is March 1.

The J. R. Popalisky Scholarship Fund of the Missouri Section of the American Water Works Association is now available. This $1,000 scholarship is to encourage enrollment in educational studies related to career fields associated with water supply. Applications are available in the Financial Aid Office in McClain Hall 103. Deadline for submission is March 21.

U.S. Bank is awarding 40 scholarships in the amount of $1,000 through a random drawing process. Undergraduate students attending an eligible four-year college or university participating in the U.S. Bank No Free Education Loan Program are eligible to apply. More information about this scholarship opportunity can be found at usbank.com/studentloans. Deadline to apply is March 31.

SellUsedBooks.com is currently accepting applications for their Spring 2012, 500-word essay, "Why I Deserve to Win this Scholarship" contest. More information may be found at www.sellusedbooks.com/sell-used-books-college-essay.htm. Deadline for the $1,000 scholarship application is April 15.

The creators of the "Student Award Search Aid" website are offering a $1,000 scholarship for 2012. To learn more, visit www.studentawardsearch.com/scholarships.htm. Deadline for application is May 28.

The BigSun Organization is offering a $500 scholarship. All student-athletes are eligible for this award, regardless of sport. Deadline for submission is June 22. To learn how to apply, visit www.bigsunathletics.com.

The James "Rhio" O'Connor Memorial Scholarship Fund is offering its scholarship again this year to all college students. The scholarship awards are based on an essay contest with the subject concerning cancer. The scholarships amounts are $5,000 for first place, $2,000 for second place and $1,000 for third place. Students can receive more information and request an application packet at www.cancermonthly.com/scholarship.asp.
