

Northeast Today

Thursday, November 17, 1977

"HAPPENINGS"

TODAY, November 17

"Area Scene" --9:07 am, KIRX-AM
 Bloodmobile --11 am-4:45 pm,
 Act. Rm., SUB
 Acct. Seminar --3-3:45 pm,
 121 VH
 Guns Program --7 pm, 138 IE
 Placements Program --7 pm, Rec. Rm.,
 Blan. Hall
 Sport Para. Club --7 pm, Rm. 4,
 SUB
 Craft & Hobby Show --8:30 pm, Rec.
 Rm., GH
 Biblical Viewpoint --8 pm, Cafe.,
 Program MH

FRIDAY, November 18

Dance-a-thon begins --7 pm, Kirk Gym
 People Relation --7 pm, Alum. Rm.,
 Group SUB
 Concert --8 pm-12 midnight,
 Armory
 "Marriage of --8 pm, Aud., BH
 Figaro"

SATURDAY, November 19

Trumpet Workshop --8 am, Aud., BH
 NEMO Pancake Day --9 am-6 pm, First
 Christ. Church
 Elem. Dev. --10 am, 130 PB
 Workshop
 Football Game --1:30 pm, Rolla
 Women's Basketball --2 pm, Arena, PB
 International --6:30-9 pm, Geor.
 Night Rm., SUB
 Dance --9 pm, Act. Rm., SUB
 "Bugsy Malone" --9 pm, Kirk Gym

STUDENTS unable to meet their scheduled entry time for pre-registration must contact the Registrar's Office for special permission to enter at a more suitable time.

JAMES BUCKNER, trumpet instructor at NMSU, and Don Hamilton, senior student and president of the Midwest Trumpet Guild at NMSU, will be the guests on KIRX-AM's "Area Scene" program at 9:07 a.m. today. They will discuss the Midwest Trumpet Guild Workshop and the NEMO Singers' Pancake Day, which will both be held Saturday; and the performance of "The Marriage of Figaro" to be tomorrow.

TODAY IS THE FINAL DAY for the Bloodmobile. It will be in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building from 11 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. today.

A SEMINAR ON JOB OPPORTUNITIES IN ACCOUNTING will be from 3-3:45 p.m. today in 121 Violette Hall. T.M. (Tom) Keyes, state auditor of Missouri, will present the program. Keyes is a Certified Public Accountant and has held various offices in the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants. All accounting majors are encouraged to attend. For further information, call Jim Edwards, assistant professor of accounting, at ext. 2414.

AN ANTIQUE AND OLD GUNS presentation, sponsored by the Industrial Arts Club, will be at 7 tonight in 138 Industrial Education Building. Charles "Bud" Elam, head of the Division of Extension/Placements, has had an interest in this field for several years and will be the featured speaker at the presentation. The program is free and open to the public.

CAREER COUNSELING AND PLACEMENTS will be the subject of a program presented by Kathleen Bohon, administrative assistant in the Placements Office, at 7 tonight in the Blanton-Nason Recreation Room. Different jobs available for certain degrees will be discussed. The Blanton-Nason Hall Council is sponsoring the program.

THE NMSU SPORT PARACHUTE CLUB will meet at 7 tonight in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. All interested students are invited to attend. For more information, call Philip Livesay, president, at 665-9470.

A CRAFT AND HOBBY SHOW will be at 8:30 tonight in the Recreation Room of Grim Hall. Anyone interested in selling or demonstrating crafts or hobbies may participate. The Grim Hall Council is sponsoring the event to give people ideas on things they can make for Christmas. For further information, call Ruth Myers, director of Grim Hall, ext. 3374.

THE BIBLICAL VIEWPOINT of sex is the subject of a tape by Josh McDowell to be presented at 9 tonight in the Missouri Hall Cafeteria. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend at no charge. Don Watt, resident assistant in Missouri Hall, is sponsoring the program.

A DANCE-A-THON will be sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, starting at 7 p.m. tomorrow in Kirk Gym. The 24-hour event will help raise money for the March of Dimes. Three meals and snacks will be provided for the dancers. Trophies will be awarded to the couples who dance the longest and collect the most donations. For further information, call Justin Doerle, president, at 665-6382, or Dave Bowmaster, vice president, at 665-2517.

THE MARRIAGE OF FIGARO will be presented at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission is free to NMSU students, $1 for other students, and $2 for non-students.

A CONCERT featuring Mama's Pride and Morning Star will be from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight Friday at the Rieger Armory. The Vet's Club is sponsoring the event. Advance tickets are $3.50 per person and are now being sold in the Student Union Building. At the door, tickets will be $4.50 per person.

A TRUMPET WORKSHOP, sponsored by the Midwest Trumpet Guild at NMSU, will be Saturday in Baldwin Auditorium. The workshop will begin at 8 a.m. with registration and conclude with the 7:30 p.m. performance of Bill Berry, first trumpet player for the Merv Griffin Show. Robert Nagel, a trumpet soloist, also will perform at the workshop at 9:30 a.m. For more information or tickets, contact the Fine Arts Division Office, 153 Baldwin Hall.

AN ELEMENTARY DEVELOPMENTAL ACTIVITIES Workshop will have an open demonstration Saturday in 130 Pershing Building. Rita Shotwell, featured clinician from St. Louis, will direct children through language activities, creative movement and rhythms. Dr. Massye Goins, professor of education, will be guest speaker at a luncheon connected with the workshop at 11:30 a.m. Saturday at the Holiday Inn. Her topic will be "Guidance of the Young Child." Interested persons who wish to attend either event should contact Jane Bartling, workshop director, at ext. 2787 or 665-5730.

THE BULLDOGS travel to Rolla to play the Miners at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Tickets for a pep bus travelling to the game are being sold in the Student Union Building. For further information, call Vonnie Nichols, director of student activities, at ext. 7203.

THE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM opens its season at 2 p.m. Saturday when they host the University of Missouri-Rolla in Pershing Arena.

INTERESTED PERSONS will have the opportunity to find out how their names are pronounced in different languages Saturday at the NMSU International Night. The annual event will be from 6:30-9 p.m. in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building. A talent show featuring ten countries will be presented and exhibits from 20 countries will be displayed. Door prizes will be awarded. The public is invited to attend at no charge. Refreshments will be served. A dance will be held following the events in the Georgian Room. It will be in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Admission will be 50 cents.

(continued next page)

BUGSY MALONE will be shown at 9 p.m. Saturday in Kirk Gym. Admission to the movie will be free to holders of Student Activities Cards and $1 to all others. Student Activities Board is sponsoring the movie.

A TURKEY SHOOT, sponsored annually by the Blackjack Rifle and Pistol Club, will be from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 21, and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 22, on the Brewer Hall Rifle Range. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to compete for several turkeys and other prizes. For more information, call the Rifle Range, ext. 2730.

THE SECOND ANNUAL RED BARN FUN RUN will be held at 4:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 21, at Red Barn Park. The 1.9 mile run, sponsored by the NMSU cross country team, is styled after European cross country with barriers and ditches for the runners to jump. Merchandise awards will be given to the top ten finishers. The public is invited to participate in the run. All interested persons should sign up by 4:15 p.m. Monday at Red Barn Park.

BECAUSE OF THE THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY, the Computer Center's Remote Batch Terminal Room and the Time-Sharing Terminal Center will close at 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 23, and will reopen at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 26.

GRADUATE STUDENTS are reminded that these are due Dec. 2 and comprehensive results, Dec. 9, in the Office of Graduate Studies, 203 Administration/Humanities Building.

THE PLACEMENTS OFFICE will host several companies during the first full week of December. Sirlain Stockade, ACTION-Peace Corps/Vista, Columbia Police Department, Fidelity Union Life, G.A.B. Business Services, and College Life Insurance will be on campus to interview students for prospective employment. The interview schedules will be posted tomorrow at the Placement Office, First Floor of Blanton Hall.

AWARENESS AND ALERTNESS is being stressed by Safety and Security as a part of their Crime Prevention Program. Since next week is vacation time, alertness is especially important. Students should make sure car doors are locked at all times, especially when they are packed with weekend belongings. Before leaving on vacation, double check to make sure doors and windows are secure. Don't let vandalism and theft spoil the vacation.

FRESHMEN are reminded that they should make an appointment to see their divisional advisor or freshman counselor to arrange a schedule of classes now, if they have not already done so. Wednesday, Nov. 23, is the last day for appointments before the course card pick-up days.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL RETIREMENT SYSTEM of Missouri, teachers' retirement program, is trying to secure correct addresses for teachers who have moved and not informed the Retirement Office in Jefferson City. Many 1976 statements of accounts mailed last December were returned because of incorrect addresses. Any teacher who did not receive his/her statement should contact the retirement office to determine if his/her current address is on file. The address is: P.O. Box 268, Jefferson City, Missouri 65101.

A THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKET DRIVE is being sponsored by Circle K service club. Circle K will be collecting door-to-door Saturday in the Kirksville area. Anyone having a can of food to donate should call Bob or Terri Steffes at 665-6986. A member of the club will pick it up. The food collected will be separated into 16 baskets and distributed within the Kirksville area.