

Northeast Today

NMSU

MONDAY, Nov. 29, 1982

HAPPENINGS

TODAY, Nov. 29

7:30 p.m. Men's basketball vs. Augustana College, Per. Arena

TUESDAY, Nov. 30

7:30 p.m. Women's basketball vs. Missouri Western, Per. Arena

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 1

7 p.m. Glamour's Top Ten College Women Competition deadline
Ind. Arts Club mtg., 137 Barnett Hall

THURSDAY, Dec. 2

7 p.m. Nonverbal communication in dating program, Conf. Lounge, Ryle Hall
Nuclear engineering speaker, 27 SH
8 p.m. Brass choir concert, Aud., BH

FRIDAY, Dec. 3

3 p.m. SAB Trip to Tan-Tar-A Resort, Lake of the Ozarks, departs
7, 9 & 11 p.m. "Ghost Story," Aud., BH

SATURDAY, Dec. 4

8:30 a.m. SAT make-up date, 210 A/H
9 a.m. Greek Development Conference, SUB
8 p.m. Christmas party, Newman Center

SUNDAY, Dec. 5

3 p.m. Chorus concert, "The Messiah," Aud., BH

AUDITIONS for "Harvey," a comedy to be presented by the Traveller's Community Theatre, will be held from 7 to 8:30 p.m. today and Tuesday at the Traveller's Community Theatre, 711 North Green. For more information about the open auditions, call 665-9333.

A BAKE SALE, sponsored by Sigma Kappa social sorority, will begin at noon today and at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Administration/Humanities Building.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA honorary scholastic fraternity will hold an open meeting at 5 p.m. today in Room 5 of the Student Union Building. Qualifications for joining the organization are sophomore or above class status and at least a 3.25 cumulative grade point average.

KANSAS CITY, KANSAS PUBLIC SCHOOLS will be on campus Tuesday to interview education majors for teaching positions. For more information, contact the Career Planning and Placements Center, McKinney Center.

A BAKE SALE will begin at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Administration/Humanities Building. The sale is sponsored by the International Club.

INTRAMURAL CHAMPIONS should gather for pictures at 4:30 p.m. Thursday in front of the I-M Office.

NUCLEAR ENGINEERING will be the topic for activities Thursday sponsored by the Society of Physics Students. "Opportunities in Nuclear Engineering" will be presented at 7 p.m. in 27 Science Hall. Consultations on engineering will be held from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and from 4 to 6 p.m. in 27 Science Hall.

NONVERBAL COMMUNICATIONS IN DATING will be the topic of a program to be given by Richard Heun, associate professor of speech, at 7 p.m. Thursday in the Conference Lounge of Ryle Hall. The program is sponsored by the Ryle Hall Council.

THE GREEK DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday in the Student Union Building. Topics to be discussed at the conference will include community involvement, chapter motivation, alumni relations and scholarship ideas. Cost for the conference will be $20 per organization with seven participants and $5 for each additional participant.

EDUCATION MAJORS who have not taken the Scholastic Aptitude Test will have the opportunity to take it at 8:30 a.m. Saturday in 210 Administration/Humanities Building.

A CHRISTMAS PARTY will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday at Newman Center.

CHRISTMAS CRAFTS DAYS, sponsored by the United Campus Ministry, will be held from 6 to 11 p.m. Thursday and Friday and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday at Newman Center.

NORTHEAST NOTES

STUDENTS GRADUATING in December, May or August should file their placement papers at the Career Planning and Placements Center, McKinney Center.

PROJECT HOST FAMILIES, sponsored by the Student Senate and Red Cross, is looking for families to host international students over Christmas vacation. For more information, contact the International Student Office, 204 Kirk Memorial, 785-4215.

AN SAB TRIP to Stephen's College in Columbia to see a performance of either "Nutcracker Suite" or "A Christmas Carol" will be taken Dec. 11. The cost is $7 or $5 with an SAB card and students may sign up at the SAB Office in the Student Union Building.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN will hold a Human Rights Day breakfast at 7 p.m. Dec. 10 in the Spanish Dining Room of the Student Union Building with guest speaker Ruth Towne, professor of history. Reservations may be made by contacting Lydia Inman, 203 Administration/Humanities Building, 785-4109. A fellowship dinner will also be held at 6:30 p.m. Dec. 13 in the Spanish Room. For dinner reservations, contact Sherry Eitel, 100 Pickler Memorial Library, 785-4530.

GRADUATE INFORMATION on fellowships and scholarships at the University of Missouri-Columbia is available at the Public Relations Office, 202 Administration/Humanities Building.

ADMISSION TO BASKETBALL GAMES for students, faculty and staff will be by ticket presentation. Students may obtain free tickets at the north ticket window. Faculty and staff may obtain tickets at the south ticket window by presenting an ID.

ECHO YEARBOOK is sponsoring a cover contest for the 1983 yearbook. A $25 prize will be given to the winner. Entries should be simple in design, follow the theme of "In the Lead" and be submitted to the Echo Office, 305 Laughlin Building, by Dec. 10. Echo is also looking for students interested in gaining practical experience in feature writing, photography or yearbook design. For more information contact the Echo Office at 785-4450.

THE CRISIS LINE is available for calls between 10 p.m. and 2 a.m. nightly. Persons needing help should call 665-5794.

"Northeast Today" is published weekly on Mondays. Deadline for submitting items is 5 p.m. the Wednesday before publication. To insure accuracy, items should be written on forms available in the Public Relations Office, 202 Administration/Humanities Building.

Chimezie A. B. Osigweh, Business, will present his paper, "International Commerce and Development: A Critical Revisitation of the Growth Model," to the southwest division of the American Institute for Decision Sciences.

Sam Nugent and Jerry Mayhew, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, recently hosted a sports medicine clinic for coaches and instructors consisting of lectures by team physicians and physical therapists from the University of Missouri-Columbia.

Marlow Ediger, Education, received notification that his manuscript, "Grammar, the Pupil and the Curriculum," was accepted for publication in the Minnesota English Journal, a professional publication for teachers.

Jim Barnes, Language and Literature, will have three poems appearing in an anthology of poetry to be published by the Institute of American Indian Arts Press, Albuquerque, N.M.

Paul Mosteller, Fine Arts, recently lectured to students at the Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine on "Medical Concerns of Singers."

Joni Spencer, Public Relations, was awarded a national conference scholarship for promising young professionals by the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education. The scholarship provided fees to attend the CASE conference on "The New Technology in Publications and Media Relations," which was held Nov. 17-19 in Boston, Mass.

Several criminal justice majors recently competed in the Lambda Alpha Epsilon Regional Police Competition in Denver, Colo. Jo Ella Barnes, senior, placed first in the collegiate and professional Pistol Competitions and the collegiate women's Physical Agility Competition. In addition, Barnes teamed up with Linda Sherman, junior, for first place in the Crime Scene Investigation, and Sherman placed second in the collegiate women's physical agility competition. Lisa Dunn and Leanne Gray, freshmen, placed third in the Crime Scene Investigation.

The NMSU drumline received a third place trophy in a national marching percussion contest held in Dallas, Texas, under the direction of Dan Peterson, Fine Arts.

Two NMSU nursing students were elected to the board of the Missouri Student Nurses Association at a recent MOSNA convention at Tan-Tara Resort. Matt McGahan, senior, was voted in as Elected Consultant and Eric Filiput, freshman, was elected Legislative Director. Cecelia Roark, senior, was selected as Missouri Student Nurse of the Year. This is the second consecutive year NMSU has received this honor. Also, at the convention, local SNA president, Phyllis Beville, senior, was awarded the Laura J. Bell Scholarship.