This calendar of events has been produced by the Student Activities and Public Relations offices. Events of campuswide interest should be scheduled through the Student Activities Office, extension 7203, to avoid scheduling conflicts.

A BOOK EXCHANGE sponsored by the Vets Club will be held Tuesday through Friday in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Books will be collected beginning at 9 a.m. Tuesday and will go on sale at 9 a.m. Wednesday. Money or books not sold must be claimed by Sept. 3.

THE FIRST VETS CLUB MEETING for the fall semester will be held at 7 p.m. today in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Veterans and other interested people are invited to attend. Regular Vets Club meetings are held at 5:30 p.m. Thursdays in Meeting Room 2 of the Student Union Building.

THE HOME ECONOMICS DIVISION is having a welcome for new faculty in the division from 3:30-5 p.m. Wednesday in Room 173, Violette Hall. All students and faculty are invited.

AN OPEN HOUSE at the Newman Center begins at 7 p.m. Wednesday with refreshments and an opportunity to meet new and returning students and faculty. Mass will be held at 9 p.m., followed by an informal coffee house.

TOWN AND GOWN swim passes and youth learner applications are available at the Natatorium office. Fall recreational swim hours are 6:30-9:30 p.m. Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and 10 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. Saturday. The pool opens officially for the semester on Wednesday.

SWIMMERS who would like to compete on the men's or women's varsity swim teams should meet at 4 p.m. Wednesday in the seating area of the Natatorium.

STUDENT AMBASSADORS should stop by the Admissions Office when they return to campus. Activities for the 1980-81 academic year will get underway at 5:30 p.m. Sept. 4 with a picnic and organizational meeting at Director of Admissions Terry Taylor's home in Spring Lake.

STUDENT NURSES are invited to a Welcome Back Party at 7 p.m. Thursday, Sept 4, in the Tangerine Room of the Student Union Building. Refreshments will be served. For further information contact Bill Carpenter, vice president of the Student Nurses Association, at extension 2857.

JOB APPLICATIONS for swim instructors, lifeguards, secretaries and other positions are available at the Natatorium office. A lifeguard test will be given 4-6:30 p.m. today for people who hold a current advanced lifesaving certification card.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS have been changed for several faculty members. The people and their new extension numbers are Orville Bowers, 7148; Don Coleman, 7223; Eugene Croarkin, 2785; Tom Duden, 7210; James Edwards, 7193; Gordon Richardson, 7222; John Ross, 7222; Walter H. Ryle, 7160; and Ruth Towne, 7149.

"SAME TIME NEXT YEAR" is the Student Activities Board movie for this week. It will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. Friday in Baldwin Auditorium. Admission costs $1.

NEW CAMPUS PHONE DIRECTORIES will be distributed soon. The directories are being printed after the semester begins so that more new faculty members can be included. Offices are urged to send last-minute additions to the Publications Office in McKinney Center by Tuesday.

ROTC SCHOLARSHIPS and career development will be discussed by Raymond Arment, assistant professor of military science, on WGEM-TV's "Contempo" program at 9:45 a.m. Sunday. The audio portion of the interview will be aired at 8:15 a.m. Sunday on WGEM radio.

COACHES ARE NEEDED for a soccer program sponsored by the Kirksville Parks and Recreation Department. The department also sponsors men's flag football and women's volleyball teams. Students interested in any of these programs can obtain further information by calling 665-7792, extension 52.

"NORTHEAST TODAY" is published weekly on Mondays. Deadline for news items is 5 p.m. the Thursday before publication. Faculty, staff and students may submit news about official programs and activities of NMSU. To insure accuracy, news should be written and brought to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. Because of the Labor Day holiday, next week's "Northeast Today" will be distributed on Tuesday.

NORTHEAST NOTES

Jim Thomas, Language and Literature, will have four poems published in Kansas Quarterly and Midwest Chaparral.
