NMSU'S 11TH ANNUAL INTERVIEW DAY begins at 9 this morning with approximately 120 Missouri school districts interviewing candidates for future teaching positions. For more information contact the Placement Office, first floor, Blanton Hall.

RESERVATIONS for the State of the Union Address/Dinner, to be presented by former U.S. Congressman Thomas B. Curtis at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the Georgian Room of the Student Union Building, should be made by Wednesday in the Language and Literature Office, 310 Administration/Humanities Building. Tickets are $6.50 per person. The program is one of many events scheduled for the Schwengel-Lincoln Collection Dedication Ceremonies to be held Saturday through Monday, May 1. Fred Schwengel, president of the United States Capitol Historical Society and his wife, Ethel, will donate their collection of Abraham Lincoln literature, artwork, and memorabilia to NMSU at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Special Collection Room of Pickler Memorial Library. Other ceremonies include the Lincoln Contests scheduled for 7 p.m. Saturday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building and a History Symposium at 7 p.m. Monday, May 1, in Baldwin Auditorium.

SUMMER SCHOOL PRE-PAYMENT may be made today through 1 p.m. Friday, June 2, by mail or in person to the Business Office, 105 Administration/Humanities Building. Summer fees may also be paid at registration in Violette Hall on Monday, June 5. PRE-PAYMENT DAYS for students enrolling for the fall 1978 semester are today through Wednesday. Fees should be paid at the Business Office. The first letter of the last name designates when to pay:

A-G Today 8 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

A VOICE RECITAL will be presented by Patricia O'Neill, member of the voice faculty at Northwestern University who is participating in a two-day residency here on campus, at 8 tonight in the Activities Room of the Student Union Building. Her recital will include works by Purcell, Schumann, Faure and Charpentier. In addition, she will perform a group of Irish Folk songs accompanying herself on the Irish harp. Everyone is invited to attend.

THE BOOK READING GROUP will meet at 7:30 tonight in 303 Administration/Humanities Building to discuss "100 Years of Solitude" by Gabriel Garcia Marquez. All interested readers are welcome.

AN OPEN HOUSE will be held at the Child Development Center, 201 W. Normal, from 4-7 p.m. Tuesday. A tour of the facilities as well as information on NMSU's child development program will be given. All students, faculty and staff members are welcome to attend.

THE EDUCATION CLUB PICNIC has been rescheduled for 4 p.m. Tuesday. Participants should meet in the Violette Hall parking lot. All education majors and instructors are invited to attend. Sign-up for the picnic can be made in the Education Office, 258 Violette Hall.

ALL LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE MAJORS are invited to attend a picnic hosted by the Division of Language and Literature at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in Red Barn Park. Entertainment will be provided and no admission will be charged. In case of rain, the picnic will be held at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 2, in Red Barn Park.

"WOMEN IN THE 1980S" will be discussed by Anne Carman, coordinator of Women's Studies at the University of Missouri-Columbia, at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday in Room 4 of the Student Union Building. Her talk is part of the monthly meeting of the National Organization for Women. A business meeting will precede the discussion from 7:30-8:15 p.m. All interested persons are welcome and urged to attend.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS are due by Wednesday to the International Student Office, 105 Kirk Memorial.

THE SPRING CONCERT, featuring Bob Welch who was formerly with the rock group Fleetwood Mac, will be held Saturday, May 6, at 7 and 10 p.m. in Baldwin Auditorium. Tickets go on sale from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Student Union Building. Ticket prices are $1.50 with a Student Activities Card, $3.50 with an NMSU ID, $5.50 for non-students and $5.50 at the door.

OFFICERS WILL BE ELECTED at the final semester meeting of the Big Brother/Big Sister Program scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in 210 Administration/Humanities Building. All members are urged to attend.

THE SPRING AWARDS CEREMONY for the Division of Military Science will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Alumni Room of the Student Union Building. Everyone is invited to attend.

THE SPRING 1978 JAZZ CONCERT, featuring performances by the Jazz Ensemble, Jazz Lab Band and Stage Band, will begin at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Baldwin Auditorium. KRXL-FM will broadcast the concert live.

THE ACCOUNTING CLUB'S ANNUAL SPRING BANQUET will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Oak Tree Inn, South Highway 63. Tickets, which are $3.25 per person, will be available in Violette Hall today through Friday. Guest speaker will be Edgar Fisher, chief of the Field Activities Branch, Internal Audit, for the Internal Revenue Service.

THE SPRING INDUSTRIAL ARTS BANQUET will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Oak Tree Inn (formerly the Holiday Inn), South Highway 63. Tickets, which are $3.50 per person, are available from Industrial Arts Club members. All Industrial Arts students and faculty are invited to attend. Jim Thomas, assistant professor of English, will speak at the banquet.

A RETIREMENT BANQUET will be held in honor of Leona Whitton, assistant professor of English, at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 3, in the Spanish Room of the Student Union Building. The Language and Literature Division is sponsoring the festivities to recognize her 22 years of service. Reservations may be made until Friday with Ann Baird, division secretary, at ext. 7157.

ALL FACULTY, STAFF, AND STUDENTS are encouraged to share any news they have for the campus through "Northeast Today." To insure accuracy, we ask the news to be written out and sent to the Public Relations Office, McKinney Center. The absolute deadline for news is 9 a.m. the regular working day before the Monday and Thursday publication dates. To guarantee publication on the right date, items should be sent a few days earlier if possible.
