Board of Governors Elects Officers, Approves Tuition Increase

John Briscoe was elected president of the Truman State University Board of Governors at the Feb. 9 meeting held on campus. Tom Jayne and Michael Schwend were selected as vice president and secretary respectively.

Micha McKay was introduced as the newly appointed student representative to the Board. McKay, junior Spanish major from Kansas City, Mo., will succeed current student representative Rudy Arredondo, senior chemistry major from Kansas City, Mo., once he is confirmed by the Missouri Senate.

The Truman Board of Governors approved an increase in tuition and fees of slightly more than 9 percent for the 2002-2003 academic year. In-state tuition for full-time students will be $4,144, a $334 increase per year. Out-of-state tuition for full-time students will increase to $7,544, a $606 increase per year.

To help offset higher operating costs for the Student Recreation Center, the Board approved increasing the Recreation Center fee from $85 per semester to $90 per semester. Based upon the results of the Student Senate election held in this past December, the Board approved a $25 per semester student activity fee, a $2 per semester fee to support student government and a $1 per semester fee to support the Student Association of Missouri. The $40 per semester Student Union fee remains the same for next year.

The Board set the room and board fee for 2002-2003 at $4,928 for a two-person room at the December 2001 Board meeting. This was approximately a $490 increase.

The Board approved a resolution of support for the proposed U.S. Highway 63 expansion project.

Voter Registration Information

With the April 2 election approaching, questions have been asked about how to get registered to vote. There are three ways to get registered to vote in Adair County.

First, you can go to the Adair County Clerk's Office located in the County Courthouse, downtown Kirksville, and fill out a card. You need to have a valid driver's license or a photo ID.

Second, you can register at one of the following campus locations: Student Union Building at the SERVE Center or the Student Senate Office, Cashiers Window, and the Residence Hall Front Desk.

The third way you can register to vote is by mailing your registration card to the County Clerk's Office at the Courthouse.

You must allow seven days for confirmation of registration. Cards may be picked up at the previous locations mentioned above.

If you choose to register in Adair County, but are already registered in another county, the Adair County Clerk will cancel your previous registration.

For anyone who is already registered in Adair County, but has moved since filling out a registration card, you can call the County Clerk's Office and inform them of the change.

To vote in the April 2 election, you must be registered by March 6.

If you are uncertain about where you vote, you can call the County Clerk's Office at 665.3350.

Whitey Herzog to be Special Guest at Kohlenberg Lyceum Performance

When two of Truman's premier musical groups perform at the Feb. 20

Kohlenberg Lyceum program, there will be a very special guest in the audience, Whitey Herzog, Truman grandfather and former manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and the Kansas City Royals.

Herzog's granddaughter is one of the members of Cantoria, Truman's select 60-member ensemble which emphasizes a cappella works, one of the groups performing in the Truman Showcase at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 20, in Baldwin Auditorium. The second group performing will be the 80-member University Symphony Orchestra.

Herzog's appearance at the Truman Showcase will serve two purposes. The first one will fulfill his desire to attend one of his granddaughter's concerts at Truman State University. The second purpose is to help Cantoria raise money to cover expenses as they travel to Houston in March. Cantoria was one of only two universities selected to perform at the prestigious regional convention of the American Choral Directors Association in Houston. Cantoria is directed by Paul Crabb, professor of music.

Herzog will sign autographs for a $5 donation to Cantoria or for $10 he will sign an 8 1/2 inch by 11 inch full color Royals Hall of Fame poster. He will sign autographs from 6:15-7:15 p.m. and for 30 minutes after the concert in Baldwin Hall 100. No cameras will be allowed.

The University Symphony Orchestra, will also perform under the direction of Sam J. McClure, assistant professor of music. The Orchestra is an ensemble of instrumentalists selected from the general student body. They regularly accompany student soloists and choral ensembles and annually tours the region each fall semester.

The orchestra was recently selected as the featured university orchestra at the 2000 MMEA Convention at Tan-Tar-A.

Free tickets to the Kohlenberg Lyceum Series Truman Showcase are available to all students, faculty and staff at the Student Activities Board Office and the Center for Student Involvement.

34th Annual Jazz Festival Features Trombonist Wycliffe Gordon

World class jazz trombonist Wycliffe Gordon will perform with the Truman State Jazz Ensemble during Phi Mu Alpha's 34th Annual Jazz Festival at 7:30 p.m., Feb. 23, in Baldwin Auditorium.

The New York Times proclaims "Mr. Jordan is an elusive performer," and "a masterful performer."

Gordon is an accomplished solo artist and leader of the Wycliffe Gordon Quartet. He is formerly a veteran member of the Wynton Marsalis Septet and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra. Gordon has an extensive performance history including shows with Dizzy Gillespie, Branford Marsalis and Lionel Hampton.

"Wycliffe Jordan is probably the highest caliber musician we have ever had perform at the festival," festival coordinator Andy Coon said.

In addition to his performance expertise, Gordon is also one of America's most compelling and committed music educators. He currently serves on the faculty of the Jazz Studies Program of the School of Music at Michigan State University and he was appointed to the newly established Jazz Studies Program at the Julliard School.

Admission is free for Truman faculty, staff and students with a University ID. Tickets will be sold to the general public for $6 at the door. Seating will be limited to first come first serve. For more information, contact Adam Claypool at 665.5645.

Notables

A composition by Warren Gooch, associate professor of music, has been accepted for performance at the North American Music Festival. The composition titled "Through A Glass Darkly," scored for trombone and percussion, will be performed April 10-13 at the Conservatory of Music at Lynn University in Boca Raton, Florida. The conservatory will host the festival. The composition was one of several selected for performance from scores submitted from across the United States.

John Ishiyama, associate professor of political science, had his article "Regionalism and the Nationalization of the Legislative Vote in Post Communist Russian Politics" accepted for publication in the journal Communist and Post Communist Studies.

Huping Ling, associate professor of Asian history, had her essay "'Hop Alley' Myth and Reality of the St. Louis Chinatown, 1860s-1930s" published in the January 2002 edition of Journal of Urban History.

John Quinn, associate professor of political science, had his review essay "W(h)ither the State (System)?" published in the September 2000 issue of International Politics.

Wayne A. Yocum, junior political science major from Republic, Mo., and Paul Parker, professor of political science, had their article "A Time for Delaying Killing: Evidence for a Death Penalty Moratorium in Missouri" accepted for publication in the UMKC Law Review. The article is based on research Yocum presented at the Undergraduate Research Symposium last spring.

2002 Health Fair Kicks Off with AIDS Speaker

The 2002 Health Fair will kick off with speaker Roger A. Gooden, president of the National Association of People With AIDS (NAPWA) at 7 p.m., Feb. 13, in VH 1000.

Gooden will reinforce the message of the 2002 Health Fair that early detection of health problems, especially HIV testing, can save lives.

The 2002 Health Fair, sponsored by the Nursing Student's Association and the Student Health Center, will be from 1-6 p.m., Feb. 14, in the Student Recreation Center and the Student Union Building.

HIV testing will be available from 1-6 p.m., Feb. 14, in the Student Union Building. The first twenty people tested for HIV will use the oral test and all others will be tested by drawing a blood sample.

Skin fold testing, flexibility testing, bone density screening, blood pressure screening and mental health screening are just some of the tests that will be offered from 1-6 p.m., Feb. 14, in the Student Recreation Center.

For more information about the 2002 Health Fair, contact Rebecca McClanahan at 785.4311.

Advising Award Nominations Being Accepted

Nominations for faculty academic advisers are now being accepted for the William O'Donnell Lee Advising Award. Dr. Jeanne Stephens Lee Blackmar established the award in honor of her late husband, who was president of the University's Board during the 1970s.

Two academic advisers are selected annually for the award, which includes a $1,000 development fund to be used for travel to advising conferences or institutes, research materials and other relevant items. Only full-time faculty advisers are eligible for consideration.

The Lee Advising Award pays tribute to excellent advisers and demonstrates how important academic advising is at Truman.

The 2000-2001 recipients were Brent Buckner, associate professor of biology, and Donna Rhinesmith, associate professor of education.

Anyone wishing to nominate an academic adviser should fill out the brief nomination form, which is available in division offices, in the Vice President for Academic Affairs Office or by calling Debbie Schertzer, 785.4106. Nominations are due March 1. Nominees will be asked to submit additional materials by April 2. Winners will be honored at the summer commencement.
