Santa Ana Named Presser Scholar

Alfredo Santa Ana, junior composition major of Mexico City, Mexico, has been named a Presser Scholar for the 2002-2003 academic year.

The Presser Scholarship is given to an outstanding music major at the end of his or her junior year. The foundation's grant of $4,200 was awarded to Santa Ana at the spring Fine Arts award ceremony in April.

Santa Ana won the composition portion of the Gold Medal Awards and had his piece performed in concert by the Truman Symphony Orchestra during his sophomore year. This year he won first place in the state MTNA Student Composition Competition, first place in the Regional MTNA Student Composition competition and third place in the National Student Composition Competition.

Nineteen Graduates Named Valedictorians

General Honors Medals Awarded to 10

Truman faculty from a wide variety of disciplines awarded General Honors medals to 10 Truman graduates during the General Honors Program Medal Ceremony held May 17 in the SUB Georgian Room. The medals signify superior achievement in rigorous courses within the liberal arts and sciences, but outside the major field. They hang from purple and white ribbons and feature the University seal on the front with an image of Kirk Memorial on the back. Those receiving General Honors were (left to right) Andrea Lammon, Catherine Schmidt, Jacklyn Lock, Shawn Gilmore, Sarah Spader, Les Horton, Stephanie Klaus, Sarah Davenport and Ellen Axmear. Not pictured is Timothy Horan.
