M*A*S*H* Camp Gives Middle School Students Look at Health Care Careers

Middle school students interested in science and careers in the health care field can get hands-on experience during M*A*S*H* Camp July 7-9.

Each summer the Northeast Missouri Area Health Education Center (NEMO AHEC) presents a M*A*S*H* (Missouri AHEC Science & Health) Camp for middle school students in Adair County. The M*A*S*H* Camp provides hands-on experiences to students interested in health care and science occupations, and exposes them to a variety of careers in the science and health field.

M*A*S*H* Camp will take place July 7 on Truman's campus, with events on July 8 at the Northeast Regional Medical Center and July 9 at the University farm.

Area health care providers and educators will combine their talents to present an impressive instructional program that will introduce students to the fascinating world of science. Students will participate in chemistry and biology labs, scrub labs, suture labs, hospital exploration, recreational activities and more.

Any student who will enter sixth, seventh or eighth grade in the fall is eligible to attend. Enrollment is limited to the first 30 applicants.

Cost of attending M*A*S*H* Camp is $30 for 2-day camps and $40 for 3-day camps. Fee includes meals, snacks, t-shirt, dog tag and supplies. Students unable to pay the fee can provide a letter of explanation to receive a camp scholarship.

For more information call NEMO AHEC at 660.385.6491 or 887.303.2938. Registration forms are available at http://trumantoday.truman.edu/pdf/Adair_MASH_Brochure09.pdf.

Kerby Receives 2009 Outstanding Educator Award from MSCPA

Debra Kerby, professor of accounting, received the 2009 Outstanding Educator Award from the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants (MSCPA) during that organization's annual convention in June.

Kerby's award was one of the MSCPA Impact Awards to recognize CPAs who have demonstrated a commitment to excellence in their profession.

Debra Kerby

The Outstanding Educator Award recognizes Kerby's distinguished contributions to classroom teaching, motivating students, educational innovation and active involvement in the CPA profession.

Currently Kerby serves on the MSCPA's Centennial Celebration and LEAP (Lead and Enhance the Accounting Profession) committees.

FORENSICS PROGRAM UNDER NEW LEADERSHIP

The speech and debate team will now be under the leadership of communication faculty members Kristi Scholten and Russell Luce.

Scholten will be the new director of forensics, filling the role vacated by Kevin Minch who will be serving as the first director of the Truman Institute.

Among other things, the Truman Institute will develop initiatives and partnerships to generate revenue and support for the University's mission.

Luce will continue his role as assistant director of forensics.

Any communications regarding recruitment, program accounts or purchases, advancement, etc., should now be directed to them. Scholten can be contacted at kscholten@truman.edu or 785.4065. Luce can be contacted at rluce@truman.edu or 785.7512.
